A Request for Information.

Any one who can give any information as to the location of the different Confederate cemeteries in the state will confer a favor by notifying Mrs F A Olds, secretary ladies memorial association. State papers please copy.

The Ladies' Memorial Association.

The Ladies' Memorial Association met yesterday in the supreme court room, with quite a good attendance. Mr W H Hughes was chosen chief marshal and Rev Dr M M Marshall chaplain. Mr W S Primrose was requested to take charge of the music, and Mr A B Stronach to take charge of the decoration of Metropolitan hall May 10th. The ladies of the association and auxiliary are earnestly requested to meet at that place on May 10th and assist Mr Stronach. It was announced that the Mt Airy quarry had presented the slabs for head stones for the Arlington dead at the Confederate cemetery. A committee of three gentlemen and five ladies was appointed to visit the cemetery and inspect the work being done there and to make any suggestions necessary. It was decided that an endowment fund be immediately begun for the future care of the cemetery. It was also decided that the chief marshal should be requested to appoint a sufficient number of assistants to go to the cemetery and demand proper behavior in and around the grounds and to force the rabble which usually congregates there to either behave or leave.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Items Picked Up and Boiled Down.

The capitol was closed today.

The railway commission is in session.

Most of the trees are now rapidly coming into leaf.

St Mary's school was in the funeral procession yesterday.

Senator Vance was buried at Asheville this morning.

Efforts are to be made at once to erect a monument to senator Vance.

The coming summer the state will build a quarantine station at Southport.

Convicts, eight in number, arrived today from Brunswick and Caswell counties.

A great audience ought to hear the Mozart club at the academy of music Friday evening.

Good progress continues to be made in the macadamization of the People bridge road.

W H & R S Tucker & Co had charge of the draping of the capitol and the work is highly complimented.

The net proceeds of the "Little Patriots" entertainment at the academy of music last evening were $50.

Bishop Rondthaler of the Moravian church, is to preach the annual sermon at the state normal and industrial school commencement.

The funeral drapery in the interior of the capitol is to remain for thirty days. That of the exterior will be removed tomorrow.

Joe Baker and John Franklin, both colored, were brought here yesterday from Wake Forest college, charged with carrying pistols.

The supreme court, which yesterday adjourned as a mark of respect to senator Vance, today took up the appeals from the eleventh district.

Some arrangements ought, certainly to be made for paving the sidewalks on West Martin street, from the Park hotel to South Salisbury street.

Next Tuesday evening at the Sunday school room of Edenton street M E church Rev Dr E A Yates will deliver an address before the Epworth league.

Dugli left this afternoon for Graham to serve the cream which he has provided for the wedding of Miss Blanche Williamson this evening. The cream is in all shapes, and prepared in handsome style.

Mention was made yesterday that Mr John O Smith, the engineer, was building four cottages on Saunders street. It was an error. They are being constructed for Mrs John U. Smith.

A deed was today recorded for a lot 55x180 feet at the corner of South Bloodworth and East Hargett streets, from M M Smith and others, to Mrs Roxana Betts, the consideration being $400.

It was a subject of general regret yesterday that there was no band to furnish music for the funeral procession and to play in the rotunda of the capitol while senator Vance's remains lay in state.

Mrs E L Adams, whose home is at the corner of West Martin and South Salisbury streets, is very sick. Her sister, Mrs Evans, of Petersburg, is with her. Part of West Martin street is now closed to vehicles.

At the academy of music Friday evening one of the finest musical organizations ever heard here will appear. This is the Mozart Symphony club. Reserved seats are on sale at W H King & Co's drug store.

Yesterday morning a white man fell from a freight train on the R & D railway, near one of the trestles in the southwestern part of the city, and was badly hurt. His forehead was cut open.

Joe Pulley, a white man, who was arrested here upon a warrant issued by justice Marcola, was given a hearing today before justice Barbee, to whom the case had been turned over. He was charged with committing an assault and battery upon his wife. He was fined $10. As he could not pay it, he was sent to the roads, to work it out.

A charming entertainment under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Aid Society will be given tomorrow evening in the Sunday school room of the First Presbyterian church. The "Old Women's Gossip," by several very small women, will be one of the chief attractions. Refreshments will be served at moderate prices. Doors open at 7:30. Admission 10 cents.

TRIBUTES TO VANCE.

Paid All the Way From Raleigh to Asheville.

When the funeral train, which left here at 4:35 yesterday afternoon, reached Durham, the operatives of the great tobacco factories, who were drawn up in line along the railway, sang "God be with you till we meet again," and other songs. The Charlotte Observer publishes specials from various points along the route.

The train arrived at Greensboro at 8 o'clock last night. The party was met at the station by a vast crowd of citizens. A very appropriate feature of the occasion was the presence of the old regimental band from Salem which was with the senator in the war in the 26th regiment. LT Mickey, the leader, was present. The band played a number of appropriate airs. Over 800 school girls passed through the car which contained the remains. The entire funeral party took supper at the Benbow hotel.

The train arrived at Salisbury at 11:35 last night and remained 15 minutes. Between 300 and 400 persons met the train. Most of them were permitted to pass through the car and view the casket containing the remains. A few were allowed to board the train.

The body arrived at Asheville about 4:30 this morning, remaining at the depot till 7 o'clock. It was taken to the First Baptist church where the body lay in state till 10 o'clock. At that hour the procession, including all the civic and military organizations in the city, formed and moved to Riverside cemetery, where the interment took place. A memorial meeting was held at 3 p. m. in the First Baptist church. The children of the city schools contributed a beautiful floral design for the dead senator's grave and all the children assembled on the route of the procession, remaining till the procession passed. Judge McIver adjourned court at Waynesville to give all an opportunity to attend the burial. A beautiful floral tribute was presented by the young ladies of Hickory. The bells of the different churches and the college tolled in Hickory during the burial exercises. The crowd at Asheville was perhaps the greatest ever seen there.

The entire mountain country was represented.

At the call of the mayor of Danville, Va, the people of that city met at 4 o'clock this afternoon to pay a tribute to the memory of Senator Vance. This is an extraordinary and significant as was the demonstration of honor at his funeral in the national capital Monday.

The Weather.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: On Thursday: Showers, stationary temperature. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a m today: Maximum temperature, 83; minimum temperature, 68; rainfall, 0.00.

Synopsis: The predominating influence this morning is exerted by a large area of low pressure in the west, now central over Nebraska. It is causing rains throughout the Mississippi valley, and generally cloudy weather in the southern states. As the storm center follows the usual course eastward, or northeastward, the weather will very probably become more threatening in the Atlantic states and rain will occur during the next 24 hours. No very decided changes in temperature have occurred since yesterday.

Dry Goods, Notions, &c.

Our Platform.

We sell dry goods, notions, shoes, hats, ladies' and gents' furnishings. We want trade, the great trade of the present and still greater trade of the future. Our aim is to serve you acceptably, that we may merit your permanent custom. We see that our quarters are too small; we are pressed for the want of room; we must add to our storage capacity; our increasing patronage demand it. Room is the foundation principle on which we build. We sell good goods and guarantee every time, and no trade is complete until the customer is satisfied.

This week we open a line of straw hats, every one a bargain, approved new and nobby style.

Our shoe department is a shoe store in itself. Good shoes at popular prices always sell, and we have them at all times.

Just now gents' furnishings is attracting public attention. Low prices rule, and shirts, collars, cuffs and knit underwear seem to have the run. This is due largely to extra values. We retail a fine line of gents' scarfs, ties and bows at wholesale prices. Hemstitched, tape bordered handkerchiefs at 5c. The wonder is how we do it. See the quality. The people will not be deceived by gloss, nor are they entrapped by worthless articles at any price. Good goods satisfies, that is the kind we have but cannot keep.
