Items Picked Up and Boiled Down.

Senator Jarvis is 68 years old. The mayor had no cases to try this morning.

Last night's showers were very beneficial.

Forepaugh's circus is now in Virginia, heading this way.

The revival at Brooklyn M E church increases in interest.

At the academy of music this evening, the Mozart symphony club.

Strawberries are quite cheap at Wilmington, but extremely high here.

Some improvements in roadways are being made near Oakwood cemetery.

Work has begun on Mr Luther N White's residence on South Blount street.

The seats and pavilion at the Confederate cemetery have been repainted.

Two or three attempts have been made to start incendiary fires in East Raleigh.

The North Carolinian this week gives an admirable portrait of senator Vance.

There are some assurances that the street railway will be again in operation by June 1.

United States senator Stockbridge of Michigan is seriously ill at the residence of relatives in Chicago.

The condition of the small grain crops is rapidly improving. They were of course damaged by the March freeze.

The work of building Epworth M E chapel will begin Monday, and by June 1 the chapel will be ready for occupancy.

Next week meetings in memory of the late national alliance president, L L Polk, will be held in many counties in the state.

Elder W G Stephenson will preach by appointment at the Primitive Baptist church Sunday at 11 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Secure reserved seats at W H King & Co's drug store for the admirable performance of the Mozart symphony club at the academy this evening.

Mr W Dallas Haywood, who since soon after Christmas had not been able to leave his house, was out yesterday afternoon. He is quite weak.

The white man named House who not long ago cut his throat in the southern part of the city has recovered from the injury and gone to the country.

Dr McKee says the health of the city is excellent, and that there is only one case of contagious disease at present; this being a case of scarlet fever on Hillsboro street.

The circus parade this afternoon drew a great crowd to Fayetteville street. There was a regular crush around the big cage containing the lions and tiger. There was no elephant in the parade.

The other day the supreme court received a letter asking it to order Mr John Robinson, commissioner of agriculture, to go to a certain county and take down some dams which obstructed the passage of fish up a stream.

Mr Thomas S Stevenson has completed the box to be placed in the corner stone of the Confederate monument May 21, and makes a gift of it to the monument association. The box is of copper, two feet in length, a foot wide and eight inches deep.

The Confederate monument base will extend as far as the line of the sidewalk curbing at the west gate. The state owns to that line. The foundation has been laid off. The foundation is to be of granite and at least two and a half feet deep.

The following were the delegation of colored men who yesterday called on Gov Carr and asked him to appoint Mr Jarvis senator: Thomas Donaldson, president N O industrial association; W S Mitchell, assistant associate editor Gazette; Rev O H Williamson, Rev B P Peterson, Jas E Hamlin, Morris Watts and James H Young, editor of the Gazette.

In today's Charlotte Observer its Washington correspondent says: "The final conference agreement between the houses of congress on the urgency deficiency bill today carries all the federal court items heretofore telegraphed, with important senate amendments. Chairman Sayers of the house appropriation committee says: 'There will be plenty of money to run our courts.'"

Senator Jarvis' Appointment.

Senator Jarvis is receiving a great many congratulations, and his appointment gives much pleasure here. He was interviewed last night as to his views on the Wilson bill, the income tax and the silver question, and said simply that he was a Chicago platform man with all that that implies. He will remain here until tomorrow, then go to Greenville, and expects to be at Washington Wednesday. His commission bears date yesterday and was issued to him today.

Today's Charlotte Observer says editorially of the appointment, after paying a high tribute to senator Jarvis: "He is an avowed candidate for the seat in the senate occupied by Ransom, whose term will expire on the 4th of next March. The next legislature will have two senators to elect and in reason both will not come from the east—Ransom and Jarvis will not both be elected, and the former's friends will regard this appointment of yesterday as a studied effort to pre-empt the eastern senatorship for governor Jarvis for the full term beginning March 4th, 1895. The west, too, will resent this appointment of an eastern man to a place which, by common consent, belongs west of Raleigh, and altogether, it is doubtful if, after all Jarvis has been helped in the senatorial race, however good the intentions of his friend, Gov Carr, may have been. But a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush and Vance's successor has more than ten months to serve. Jarvis' letter, published this morning, so far from helping his cause, is apt to hurt it, for to say that he will not stand in January for the residue of Vance's term is a confession that he is not entitled to that part of it which he has just accepted."

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair Saturday. Slightly cooler tonight except near the coast. Cooler in eastern portion Saturday. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: On Saturday: Fair, cooler. Local data 24 hours ending 8 a m today: Maximum temperature 81; Minimum temperature, 62; rainfall, 0.20.

Synopsis: The center of the low pressure is over the northern lake region. It is causing southerly winds and cloudy weather, with rain at many places east of the Mississippi river. A clearing condition—that is, high pressure and westerly winds—appears in the southwest. The temperature has fallen considerably in the west. Conditions are favorable for fair, cooler, on Saturday in North Carolina.

The Epworth Entertainment.

At Edenton street Sunday school rooms last evening was a most delightful affair, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd in attendance. A repetition would fill the room to overflowing. The recitations by little Miss Lena Whitfield, Misses Ella McGee, Birdie Lawrence and Eliza Moore, and the songs and instrumental music by Mrs W H Bobbitt, Mrs Moseley, Mrs Hal Bobbitt, Mrs Wilkinson and Misses Merrimon, Wynne, Pierce, Theim, Klunpleburg and Cole, were all charmingly rendered, and in several instances showed talent of a very high order. The orchestra, composed of Messrs Womble, Cheek and Nurn and Miss Ellis, furnished sweet music for the occasion, and added to the reputation it has long enjoyed.

The Mozart Symphony Club.

The highest compliments are paid the performance of the Mozart symphony club. A great musician says: "I am acquainted with the history of Herr Theodor Hoch, the cornetist, and know him to be the equal of any, and thought by some to be the greatest performer on the cornet in the world. I have had the pleasure of hearing Prof Stoelzer perform on the Viola d'Amour, and have no hesitation saying that this alone is worth the price of admission. It need not be feared that the music will be too artistic for the uncultivated ear, as the greatest performers in music, as the speakers, know that the most pleasant is the simplest expression."

The Cotton Market.

The receipts for the week ending yesterday were 317 bales, against 163 the same week last year. The total receipts since Sept 1 are 26,197, against 21,247 to the same date last year. The stock on the platform is 250 bales. The shipments for the week were 267. There are 1,400 bales in warehouses.

Dry Goods, Notions, &c.

Our Platform.

We sell dry goods, notions, shoes, hats, ladies' and gents' furnishings. We want trade, the great trade of the present and still greater trade of the future. Our aim is to serve you acceptably, that we may merit your permanent custom. We see that our quarters are too small; we are pressed for the want of room; we must add to our storage capacity; our increasing patronage demand it. Rock is the foundation principle on which we build. We sell good goods and guarantee every time, and no trade is complete until the customer is satisfied.

This week we open a line of straw hats, every one a bargain, approved new and nobby style.

Our shoe department is a shoe store in itself. Good shoes at popular prices always sell, and we have them at all times.

Just now gents' furnishings is attracting public attention. Low prices rule, and shirts, collars, cuffs and knit underwear seem to have the run. This is due largely to extra values. We retail a fine line of gents' scarfs, ties and bows at wholesale prices. Hemstitched, tape bordered handkerchiefs at 5c. The wonder is how we do it. See the quality. The people will not be deceived by gloss, nor are they entrapped by worthless articles at any price. Good goods satisfies, that is the kind we have but cannot keep.
