Office—Upstairs over Mr. J. Hal Bobbitt's Drug Store, 2d floor.

RALEIGH, APRIL 21, 1894.

A special from McKinney, Texas, yesterday says that ex-Governor J W Throckmorton is believed to be under going his final illness, at his home in that city.

Kyle, of South Dakota, has drawn Vance's seat—an eligible one; that is, he was on the doorkeepers' list for the first good seat vacated.

Ernest Knabe, senior member of the firm of William Knabe & Co, the well known piano manufacturers of Baltimore, died Tuesday afternoon. He had suffered from heart trouble for about a year.

Josiah Hoop, of Westchester, Pa, who has been rolling around for forty years making a collection of American birds, has 8,000 specimens, nicely mounted, and feels proud of it as the finest collection extant.

Charles Reid, of Norfolk, Va, who has been in active business in that city for seventy three years, celebrated his ninety fourth birthday on the 4th instant. Fifteen grandchildren were present at the reception in his honor.

Joseph Baker, a white haired man of 70, who has spent nearly all his life in prison, says he wants to end his days in the state prison at Waupun, Wis, which he declares to be the most "comfortable" institution of its kind in the country.

The two oldest twins in New England are Elvira and Elmira Fife, aged 83, both still single. They do not believe in the co-operative plan and for that reason each one, although living in the same house, does her own cooking and runs her part of the establishment to suit herself.

They Want Names.

The Russell Art Publishing Co, of 928 Arch street, Philadelphia, desire the names and address of a few people in every town who are interested in works of art, and to secure them they offer to send free, "Cupid Guides the Boat," a superbly executed water color picture, size 10x13 inches, suitable for framing, and sixteen other pictures about same size, in colors, to any one sending them at once the names and address of ten persons (admirers of fine pictures) together with six two cent stamps to cover expense of mailing, etc. The regular price of these pictures is $1, but they can all be secured free by any person forwarding the names and stamps promptly.

The Dundee Weekly News of March 24 publishes a report signed by the nine Dundee artisans comprising the artisan expedition to America equipped and sent to this country by the proprietors of that journal to study the condition of labor in this country as compared with the old country. The delegates sum up their reports as follows: In summing up our result of the investigations which we made among the artisan and industrial classes in the various cities which we visited that labor generally is remunerated at about double the rates paid in the old country. In some branches of the iron and steel trade the wages are only about one half more than those ruling at home, but in the textile and in some branches of the industries the operatives receive about three times what they would do in Great Britain.

A GREAT OUTRAGE.

The Property of a Widow Destroyed by Vandals.

Knoxville, Tenn, April 20.—Blount county came to the front last night with one of the most inhumane crimes ever perpetrated in the state. About one half mile from Rockford is located the Anderson plantation, one of the largest and most valuable in this end of the state. Living on the plantation were Mrs Anderson and her son, J C Anderson, while on the farm stood two large barns filled with stock, grain, hay and the like. About 8 o'clock last night some one broke into the dining room of the house and entering the bedroom where young Anderson was asleep, fired two shots in rapid succession while he was attempting to rise. Having nothing with which to defend themselves young Anderson and his mother took refuge in a closet. While secreted there the young man discovered that one of the assassin's bullets had taken effect in his hip. The two remained in the closet until everything seemed quiet. They then ventured out and were horrified to see their largest barn on fire. This was burned to the ground together with five mules, two horses, eleven head of cattle, forty loads of hay and six hundred bushels of corn.

The mother and son made no effort to extinguish the flames or to save anything, fearing that if they ventured out a shot from the assassins' and incendiaries' pistol would end their lives.

Hardly had the light of the first fire died away before the second large barn was seen to blaze up and was soon a pile of ashes, together with its contents.

The news of the affair spread rapidly and greatly incensed the good citizens of Blount county, several of whom came to Knoxville in quest of the criminals. A telephone message from Marysville at 11 o'clock, stated that T J Shoemaker, a young man, had been caught there as he was attempting to escape through the woods and marched to the jail surrounded by a guard of one hundred men.

Shoemaker denies his guilt, but circumstantial evidence is strong against him. He is a stranger in this community, and until recently was an employee of the Anderson farm, but was discharged because it was thought he was a fugitive from justice. He will be given a preliminary trial tomorrow.

How to Take Care of a Husband.

1. When you nurse your husband in his sick room don't think it is best to talk in a low, hissing whisper. It is commonly supposed to soothe an invalid, but it never does.
2. Don't wear your newest and most ruffling silk dress, or if you do, don't fuss about the room more than you can help.
3. Don't measure the temperature of the room and of the patient every time you enter the room. The doctor will see to it and will not knock the thermometer against the roof of your patient's mouth so often.
4. If your husband has a headache don't cheer him by repeating gossip or by telling him that coal has risen 10 shillings and that your coal cellar is empty.
5. Don't attempt to change sheets, pillows, &c., every few hours. They will do for one day.
6. If you upset a glass don't get immediately flustered. The damage can be remedied quite well without.
7. If your husband seems to have an appetite don't suggest that every thing except toast and gruel will be fatal. It disgusts.
8. Don't prevent his dog from coming into the room, and if he shows his pleasure at seeing his master rather boisterously don't scold him for it. That also disgusts.

A Quarter Century Test.

For a quarter of a century Dr King's New Discovery has been tested, and the millions who have received benefit from its use testify to its wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. A remedy that has stood the test so long and that has given so universal satisfaction is no experiment. Each bottle is positively guaranteed to give relief, or the money will be refunded. It is admitted to be most reliable for coughs and colds. Trial bottles free at John Y MacRae's drug store. Large size 50c and $1.

Boy Tramps.

Charlotte Observer.

Noble and Allen Batteree, aged respectively 12 and 10 years, are two youths who are objects of interest here at present. Noble arrived Wednesday night and Allen yesterday. Their story is as follows: They lived in Little Rock, Ark, with their parents. Last Thursday their father went across the river on business, and they decided to leave home. They beat their way to Atlanta, and then to Central. They were born in Charlotte and had heard their parents, Mr and Mrs J F Batteree, speak of the place. At Central they decided that both would not "work" the same train; that one would take the vestibule, the other the next train following. This they did, and both are now in Charlotte. Noble, on arriving here, went to Mr William McKamie's house and spent the night. Mr McKamie as well as many others here, knew the boys' father. They are "young Americans" for sure. They talk like veteran tramps, and seem to fear nothing. Yesterday their brother, who is in Columbia, wrote Mr Walter Traywick to take charge of them. Chief Orr had already done so, and telegraphed their father of their whereabouts. They will remain here until some provision is made for them.
