CITY IN BRIEF.

Items Picked Up and Boiled Down.

Three convicts from Person county arrived at the penitentiary today.

Charlotte proposes to celebrate the state holiday in fine style May 21 and to hear a speech by Gov Tillman of S. C.

The Sunday school of the Baptist church at Portsmouth, Va., has arranged to picnic this year at Littleton.

John Devereux, Esq., who left here a couple of months ago, is now practicing law at Guthrie, Oklahoma territory.

Much more money is required to complete the Confederate monument and it is hoped contributions will be rapidly made.

Last night a daughter of Capt. J. P. Timberlake died at Louisburg. Undertaker Brown sent a handsome casket there today.

Raleigh ought to contribute a large sum to the Confederate monument fund. No place in the state ought to be allowed to surpass it in liberality.

Rev Dr Eugene Daniel is appointed a delegate from Albemarle presbytery to the meeting of the Southern presbytery at Nashville, Tenn., next week.

In the superior court today the whole session was devoted to argument in the case of the Antietam paper company against the Chronicle publishing company.

The "North State Music Company," of which Mr. C. G. Stone was manager, assigned just after 6 o'clock p. m., yesterday to Mr. E. H. Baker. The preferred debts aggregate $4,600.

One of the questions heard quite frequently now is when does the city intend to use its road roller and macadamize the streets? The delay in this matter is singular, to say the least.

There was another race yesterday (the third) between the Atlantic Coast Line and the R & D fast trains between Jacksonville, Fla., and Washington. The R & D won by half an hour.

The cotton receipts to date this season are 26,583 bales, against 21,411 last season. The week's receipts were 386 bales, against 164. The week's shipments were 386, stock on platform 350, stock in warehouses 1,470.

The letter carriers were today furnished with new patent straps for holding packages of mail. These are more convenient than the rubber bands heretofore used and the saving to the government is large.

The police are clearing the sidewalks of goods save those sold or received to be put in store. It is an excellent regulation and yet some merchants are made angry by it. The streets certainly look much better, and the chief of police is doing a good thing in enforcing the ordinance strictly.

The Odd Fellows here celebrated the 75th anniversary of their order in handsome style last evening. There were addresses by Messrs Charles M. Busbee and W. J. McMackin, and Rath Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, served refreshments in very handsome style. Thomas R. Parnell, Esq., delivered an address before the lodges at Durham.

One of the leading citizens of Raleigh told a great truth today when he said: "Congress, Ooxey and the devil are running this country." There are many persons who believe that great trouble will yet be caused by the Ooxey cranks, and look for riots and expect the troops all over the country to be called out within thirty days.

A posse of revenue officials returned today from a raid in Harnett county. They captured and destroyed an illicit distillery. Johnson, the owner, was also captured. As the posse was about to return to Raleigh with him, Johnson shoved a valise in the face of deputy marshal John R. Upchurch and in an instant sprang into the woods and disappeared. Upchurch shot at him. Wilfred Beckwith, a negro, who declined to give his name to anybody save a reporter, was arrested and brought here.

As yet no lease of Metropolitan hall has been made. It was said openly recently that the academy of music would be closed by its owner, but it seems that it will be kept open, as many attractions are being booked for that place of amusement next season. Among these are Nat Goodwin, Salvini, Milton Nobles, Lillian Lewis, Mrs James Brown Potter and Richard Golding. Some improvements ought to be required at the academy, in the way of better exits, from the gallery particularly. These ought to be arranged during the summer.

Y M C A.

Remember the singing class Saturday evening Prof Wilson will be present

Jr. O U. A. M.

Regular meeting of Raleigh council No 1 tonight at 8 o'clock sharp. Every member is earnestly requested to attend. The degree team will be on hand, as there will be initiation.

M. R. HAYNES,
Rec. Sec.

The Junior Musicales.

An occasion of unusual interest will be the musicale to be given by the junior members of the Hospital circle of King's Daughters at the residence of Mr James Boylan Friday evening, at 8 o'clock. A very pleasing musical programme, with recitations, &c., has been arranged, and the little folks who will participate show a marked degree of proficiency in their respective parts. Contributions will be voluntary, and it is hoped that the attendance will be as large as the efforts of the children deserve, and the charitable object in view demands.

What is in the Market.

Better vegetables are now coming in. Raleigh ought, by co operation of all the dealers, to get Florida vegetables of all kinds, such as pass through here daily on the way north. Strawberries are very high yet; unreasonably so, in fact, and sell from wagons at 30 to 35 cents a quart. Onions are now large and fine, and come from Newbern. They sell at 5 cents a bunch. Peas are remarkably scarce; none were on sale today. Cabbage sell at 5 to 10 cents each; asparagus 10 cents a bunch; lettuce 5 to 10 cents a head; salad 10 cents a peck. Eggs remain at 10 cents. Spring chickens are more plentiful and are quoted at 10 to 25 cents; grown fowls at 35 cents. Sweet potatoes retail at 15 cents per peck; Irish potatoes 85 cents. Tomatoes are rather scarce, at 20 cents per dozen. In the way of meats lamb is 12 1/2 to 15, mutton 10 to 12 1/2, choicest steak 13, ordinary cuts of beef 10 to 12 1/2, pork 10 to 12 1/2 retail and 6 to 8 wholesale; sausage 10 cents mixed, 12 1/2 for all pork; veal 10 to 12 1/2. Roe shad are 50 cents each, buck shad 35 to 40, herring 15c a bunch, other fish 20 to 25c. A few pan rook are coming in. These weigh 5 to 6 pounds apiece and sell for 75c to $1 a pair.

The entertainment given at the residence of Mr John Keith for the benefit of Central M E church was a success in every respect. The programme was very interesting, there being instrumental and vocal music, recitations &c. Special mention is due little Maud Separk and Pauline Young. The financial result was very satisfactory for which the lady managers thank their generous friends.

While Rev A D Hunter, of west Raleigh, and three young men rooming in his house were at church last evening, a colored man, Jesse Pettiford, seeming to be drinking was prowling around the house both in the back yard and front yard. There were only two girls and one child with Mrs Hunter and all became very much excited before Mr. Hunter and the young men returned.

The railway commission has had remarkable success in adjusting complaints against the various roads. It is now asked to order that the R & D and S A L passenger trains connect at Cary. Notices have been sent the authorities of both roads to show cause why the desired connection should not be made. As at present one train leaves only four minutes before the other comes in.

The semi centennial number of the University Magazine is one of great value. Among the contributors is Mr Perrin Busbee, of Raleigh. It was in the little office on Mr O M Busbee's lot that judge Gaston wrote the state song "Carolina."

An officer from Indiana arrived here today and brought requisition papers for Henderson Harris who is wanted for grand larceny. Harris is under arrest at Siler City, Chatham county, and will be at once taken back to Indiana.

This morning while at breakfast at his boarding house on Hillsboro street Prof W A Withers of the A & M college was attacked by veridigo. A physician gave him prompt attention.

The train from Greensboro due at 10:35 a. m. was two hours late today. The delay was at Greensboro.

It is said that there will certainly be another bidder for the street car line at the sale May 3.

The new quarters of the savings bank will be occupied next Monday.

PERSONAL MENTION

Of People Who Came and Went Today.

State senator H O Olive was here today.

Mrs Blanche Riddle is seriously sick at her residence.

Mr F H Rossiter, general secretary of the Y M C A. of Henderson, is here.

Mr J G Smith and Miss Addie Rogers were married last evening by Rev D H Tuttle.

Rev A M Simms last evening united in marriage Mr W C Betts and Miss Lessie L Ray.

Ex Gov. Holt, who for some days has been sick here with a cold, is much better today.

Mrs Thomas G. Lee, who has been sick for the past three months, is critically ill today.

Ex judge E G Reade is now able to walk on the street, as is also W Dallas Haywood, Esq.

Mr W H Green, superintendent, and J H Drake, general freight agent, of the R & D railway are here.

Mr John Upchurch, a prominent republican of White Oak township, died Wednesday, of cancer, aged 60.

Prof W F Massey, of the A and M college, will deliver an address at the M E church at Henderson Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, in the interest of the Y M C A of that place.

Dr W R Wood, superintendent of the insane asylum here, has returned from Fayetteville, where he gave expert testimony in a case in which a man named Starling is charged with the murder of his father in law. The latter, whose name was Denning, had been discharged from the asylum only two or three days before the murder.

Mr John O Scarborough, state superintendent of public instruction, has gone to Salem, where he will deliver an address tomorrow. Next week he speaks at the state normal and industrial school at Greensboro. He will May 8 begin a series of addresses in Stanly county. His subject is always public school education and he handles it well.

Weather.

Synopsis: An area of high pressure is central over the South Atlantic states. The pressure decreases to northwest and a storm center is found central over North Dakota. These conditions produce the prevailing southerly winds and rising temperature. Indications are that it will continue fair in North Carolina on Saturday, with rising temperature. Washington forecast for North Carolina: generally fair. Local forecast: Saturday fair, warmer. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m., Friday, April 27. Maximum temperature 74; minimum temperature 50; rainfall 00.

Special Notice.

It is expected that conveyances can be had for persons desiring to attend the union meeting at Inwood baptist church tomorrow. It is thought they will leave the Baptist mission rooms at 9 a. m. This meeting is to begin at 10 a. m. and continue Saturday and Sunday.

W H Watlington, who lost his $5,000 damage case in court here this week, is now at Durham and tells the Globe that "a man cannot get justice at Raleigh," so has applied for a new trial and will move his case to Durham, and the case will probably come up at the June term.

T E Yarboro, a well known colored editor of Atlanta, who was a native of Franklin county, blew out his brains yesterday afternoon at Washington, D. C. Yarboro used to come here several times a year.

At 5 p m Sunday, at Pullen's pond a number of persons converted at the recent revival at the West End mission will be baptized. The mission Sunday school will meet at 3 p m, instead of 3:30 as usual.

Yesterday afternoon little Iredell Hardie ran out in Fayetteville street near the Y M C A building after a ball and was run over by a carriage. He was only slightly hurt.

If the rate of a cent a mile on the railways is secured there will be many thousands of people here May 29. They will not come unless a cheap rate is given.

Sand for use in building the foundation of the monument has been delivered at the west gate of the capitol square.

The apple prospects are better than expected.
