Carl Browne attempted to ride across the lawn and through the shrubbery but was seized by a squad of police and after a struggle was overpowered and taken to the station house.

Meanwhile Coxey had reached the steps of the senate wing of capitol and was arrested there, as he began an address, by the police, without resistance but protesting vigor. ously. He was taken from the grounds and placed in his carriage in which he returned to the new camp in South Washington.

The scene at the capitol was the most remarkable ever witnessed there. The throng of spectators outnum-bered the Coxeyites fifty to one. After the arrest of the leaders the army was badly scattered and retreated from the grounds without order. All was quickly over and nothing remains of a sensational tendency at present.

The Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says: "The fact that when they met this morning in the senate chamber the Worth Carolina senators locked arms and walked around to senator Jarvis' seat and held a pleasant confab was remarked upon from the reporters' gallery. "I am the junior senator," afterward said Mr. Jarvis, "and I do not propose to forget the fact; we will co-operate for the good of the party." Both senators think the tariff is in good shape and that the bill will pass in reasonable time. Senator Ransom is emphatic on that side. Senator and Mrs. Jarvis called on Mrs. Cleveland today. He had already visited the president.
