Alfred Williams & Co Society Stationers,

RALEIGH, N. C.

Manteo Lodge No. 8. I. O. O. F.

Will meet tonight, for work in the initiatory degree. The representative to the late session of the grand lodge will report, and other matters of a pleasant nature will be brought out. A large attendance is desired. Visiting brethren will receive a cordial welcome. GEO L TONNOFFSKI, Secretary.

Moonshiners in Jail.

W Niek Ray, D N Ray, W B Ray, I S Bailey, S N Little and Ed Mangum, all from New Light, were before U S commissioner Vitruvius Royster, charged with illicit distilling. W N Ray and D N Ray were sent to jail, W B Ray was allowed to give his personal bond for $100, and the others were discharged. It was the Ray still which deputy collector Wiley Jones and his posse were in search of when moonshiners executed a flank movement on them and stole a good lot of their personal property, none of which has ever been recovered.

Weather Conditions and Forecast.

Fair weather prevails nearly everywhere. Local rains have occurred during the past twenty-four hours in the southern states, but the storm which is still central in the north-west, has not been accompanied by rain of any consequence. The pressure is comparatively high over the eastern lake region and over the southern states. The temperature is lower in western Georgia and Tennessee, but west of the Mississippi it is quite warm. For North Carolina: Partly cloudy, probably showers near the coast. Local forecast: Wednesday, fair; slightly warmer, with conditions favorable for thunderstorms towards evening. Temperature for 24 hours ending 8 a m: Maximum temperature 85; minimum temperature 63; rainfall 0.85.

New Advertisements.

Swindell-Specials.
Woolcott & Son-Specials.
Briggs & Sons make a plain statement regarding the Crescent bicycles. The Rosenthal clothing company makes an announcement today which will give parents much pleasure. This is "boys' week" at this store. Big reductions in prices.
Read the advertisement of Rev R H W Leak asking for sealed bids for constructing and placing in position the roof and tower of St Paul's A M E church.

Dughi today received an order from a widely known lady of Winston for ten dozen "individual ice creams," in his handsomest designs. Dughi yesterday delivered four ice tumblers to a lady here, and thereon hangs a joke. She told her cook to wash the tumblers and return them. She thought they were of glass, whereas they were entirely of ice.

Evangelist W P Flife has returned to Charlotte from Murfreesboro, Tenn, where he has been conducting a meeting for about two weeks past; 300 conversions.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Items Picked Up and Boiled Down.

Strawberries are now quite abundant.

Travel is just now very light on the railways.

The Egypt coal is to be thoroughly tested on the railways.

Mad dogs are unusually numerous in all parts of the state.

The programme of the teachers' assembly is regarded as a very attractive one.

Charles Clemons, the negro who was killed by a train yesterday, was buried today.

The balance of trade in favor of the United States for the ten months ended April 30 last is $268,971,075.

The May state crop returns, compiled from the reports of over 1,000 correspondents, will probably be ready tomorrow.

The Rex hospital was opened today. Twenty free patients can be cared for. There ought to be an ambulance, for emergency cases.

Two convicts from Forsyth, two from Rutherford and one from Washington arrived at the penitentiary. A white convict was taken to the Roanoke farms.

Ex-postmaster Cook, of Oberlin, is at liberty again, having given bond for appearance at the term of the federal court which begins next month.

The rain yesterday swept away some small bridges north and east of here, one of these being on the new portion of the Louisburg road, not far beyond Crabtree.

The Sunday school of the Baptist tabernacle will go to Wilmington and Wrightsville on its annual picnic about June 5. It is not yet decided whether the route will be by way of Goldsboro or Hamlet.

Cards were issued today to the commencement exercises at Peace institute May 25-29. The invitations bear the words "no flowers," so the "sweet girl graduates" will not be permitted to receive bouquets.

North and east of here last evening the rain fell in torrents. Commissioner John Robinson says that at his farm six miles north of here the land was badly washed and that the rain was one of the hardest he ever saw. It fell for an hour.

Gov Carr declines to commute the death sentence of Orange Page, the murderer, to life imprisonment. A petition for commutation, with a good many signatures, was laid before the governor by Page's counsel. The execution takes place soon.

Mr Ray, the junk dealer who was charged with larceny and receiving, and who upon affidavit removed his case from the mayor's court to that of justice Maroon, was given a hearing before the latter today, and was discharged for lack of evidence.

The unveiling of the private soldiers' and sailors' monument at Richmond on the 30th of the present month promises to be second only in point of interest and attendance to the unveiling of the statue of general Robert E Lee. Several Raleigh people will attend.

A gentleman was holding a little three year old South Harrington street boy in his arms today and was telling him how sick he was. Imagine the gentleman's astonishment when the little tot blurted out: "Don't tell me your troubles; do tell Tarley Heartt."

Gov Carr recently made requisition on the governor of Florida for Ed. Whitley, a negro who was wanted for the murder of policeman James Moran at Charlotte. The man thought to be Whitley was taken to Charlotte yesterday, but was found to be somebody else.

Postoffice Notes.

The report for the twelve months ending April 1, 1894, shows that the receipts proper of the Raleigh postoffice were $26,143.31. The deposits by fourth class postmasters during the same period were $35,504.97. The money order business aggregated $300,000. There is a little falling off in the receipts, &c, as compared with the year ending April 1, 1893.

Monument Notes.

Miss Lida Carr, of Durham, will add largely to the pleasure of the Confederate concert by reciting the "Conquered Banner," Father Ryan's noted poem.

Mr Oscar N Blacknall, of Kittrell, has written an ode, for which the ladies return many thanks. It will be read by Col W J Saunders on the occasion of the laying of the corner stones of the Confederate monument.

The president of the monumental association returns thanks to the manager of the boys' circus for $33.

A Baring Forgery.

A prominent attorney here yesterday received what turned out to be a forgery on the Well-Fargo express at Denver in the shape of a forged express money order for $50. It was sent out for collection by a firm represented as doing business in St Louis, Mo, and the person to whom the order was sent was requested to send the money collected to Bertram N Traud, attorney, St Louis, Mo. The order came by mail. A telegram was sent by the attorney, whose suspicions were aroused and the forgery was exposed. The same thing was done at Wilmington. Hundreds of the forged orders have been sent over the country.

State Liquor Dealers Convention.

Today Sol Bear, president, and E V Denton, secretary, issued the following call for a convention:

"The annual meeting of the N C dealers, distillers and grape growers' association will be held in Wilmington June 20 next. Questions now being agitated in municipal, state and federal bodies with reference to our business are of vital importance to us and should be intelligently discussed in a representative state gathering. We therefore invite all interested to attend whether members of the association now or not and hope the meeting will be a large one. Among the questions to be discussed will be the proposed increase of the tax on whiskey, the three gallon matter the excessive tax on pool and billiard tables, and other matters of interest to the trades."

Saturday night, the Charlotte Observer says, 350 of the university students formed a torchlight procession at Chapel Hill in honor of the ball team which returned from its Virginia trip. The team, in wagons pulled by students headed the procession. After marching around town they returned to the university inn, where a bouquet was tendered them and the champion team players of the south. Toasts were responded to by Drs Winston, Venable and Manning. The team this year has played the leading college teams of the north and has either tied or won a game from every one except Yale. Out of the 14 games played it won 10.

The annual horse show at Fairview farm will be held next Friday at the farm. The public is invited. An exhibition of speed will be made by horses of Raleigh township without records.

Mail is now sent to Charlotte and Atlanta on the "Atlanta Special" which leaves here at 2:30 a m. This mail reaches Charlotte at 8 a m.

The annual convention of the state medical society of North Carolina began today at Greensboro.

Fifteen thousand visitors are expected here on the 22d.

The executive committee of the insane asylum is in session.
