PERSONAL POINTS.
ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH
CAROLINIANS

President Crowell Will Not Remain at Trinity College

Dr. F. T. Fuller has returned from Philadelphia.

Mr. Washington Duke, of Durham, was here today.

Mr. Frank B. Dancy, now of Norfolk, is here on a visit.

Mr. E. D. Arthur, of Morehead City, was here yesterday.

The pupils of the Oberlin public schools had a celebration today.

Mr. Mason's speech is pronounced the finest ever delivered in this city.

The venerable Rev. T. Page Ricard and Mrs. Ricard have returned to Wilmington to reside.

The body of Miss Sue Pinner was brought here yesterday from Greensboro for burial.

Nash square is again being ploughed. Street commissioner Blake says he intends to make it an attractive place.

Gen. Lawrence S. Baker, of Suffolk, Va., was here yesterday. He is a native of North Carolina.

Col. Wharton J. Green and Mr. E. J. Hale, editor of the Fayetteville Observer, were here yesterday and went home this afternoon.

Mrs. Lizzie Miller will occupy the new residence built by Mr. Pearce on South Salisbury street near the capitol square.

Col. E. D. Hall, who commanded the veterans yesterday, left for his home at Wilmington today. He is very feeble.

Hon. Charles M. Cooke was here this morning on his way from old Trinity college, where he yesterday delivered the commencement address.

Miss Maude Fleming whose condition had so greatly improved is again very sick, having suffered a relapse. Her long continued fever makes the case a strange one.

Mrs. L. A. Christie, widow of Col. Henry Christie of the 23d N. C. regiment, is visiting Capt. C. B. Denson.

Miss Hettie James, of Wilmington, widow of the late Col. James, is also Capt. Denson's guest.

The Richmond Dispatch in publishing last Sunday a list of surviving Confederate generals omitted the name of that splendid soldier and commander, Maj. Gen. Robert B. Hoke.

Mr. Jas. W. Jackson, of the Wilmington Messenger, who has been the guest of Col. F. A. Olds, returned home today. He is charmed with this beautiful city and the delightful country surrounding it.

Prof. D. H. Hill of the agricultural and mechanical college will tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock deliver a lecture at the young people's meeting at the West End Baptist mission. All are invited.

Gov. and Mrs. Carr went up to Greensboro last evening, to attend the commencement of the normal and industrial school. Today the Governor introduced congressman Bryan, of Nebraska, the brilliant orator of the occasion.

Arrivals at the Park hotel: Rev. D. A. Long, Yellow Springs, Ohio; J. F. Hargrave, Richmond; W. H. Hairston, Martinsville; G. B. Hiss, Charlotte; L. Williamson, North Carolina; W. R. Green, Cleveland; A. S. Hall, Oxford; S. S. Bowden, R. L. Jenkins, New York.

Rev. Dr. John F. Crowell positively declines the position of president of Trinity college. He writes the board of trustees an admirable letter, in the course of which he says: "The best that I am capable of doing I cannot do at this time at Trinity college. For this I am not responsible; but this is frankly the final cause of my withdrawal."

Mr. Alex. A. Arthur, of Harrogate, Tenn., is here in the interest of the southern immigration, land and title company, of which Hon. Chauncy P. Black, of Pennsylvania, is president, and he is the general manager. He desires to secure information as to lands which are offered for sale for colonization purposes. A number of North Carolinians are directors.

MUST BARE HIS BREAST.
Governor Waite Shrieks of the Coming Revolution.

PUEBLO, Col., May 22.—Adjutant general Tarnney says that unless something is done by the national government for the relief of the people, the blood spilled when Coxy's men were clubbed at Washington will be the first blood spilt in a new revolution.

Governor Waite opened the campaign today in the southern part of the state. He spoke to an immense crowd, advocated the coinage of the Mexican dollar to be used as legal tender in the state of Colorado, and said he hoped the ballot would soon overthrow the domination of Wall street. "But," said he, "if the ballot is not successful, the man who will not bare his breast to the bullet is not a man."

A Legislature Locked Up.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 22.—One of the most remarkable sessions of the house of representatives ever held took place today. At 11 o'clock all members present were locked in and writs were issued for absent members and placed in the hands of the sheriffs, but it was 3:15 before a quorum arrived. Other members are now being arrested in all parts of the State. As soon as there was a quorum present Wheaton Cole was expelled from his seat in the house and Claude J. Farnsworth was substituted as the second representative from Pawtucket. At 4:15 Farnsworth was sworn in. Only four republicans were present during the session. The rest have disappeared from the city to avoid arrest.

Clemson College Burned.
CHARLESTON, S. C., May 22.—The main building of the Clemson college, at Fort Mill, caught fire at daylight this morning. The main building will be a total loss. The dormitory, chapel and mechanical building were all saved. The college is so called from Thomas G. Clemson, son-in-law of John C. Calhoun, who donated the ground for its site, and stands within a stone's throw of Calhoun's old home. It is the state agricultural and mechanical college, and was established in 1893, as the result of a long agitation by the farmers of the state—an agitation which was begun by Ben Tillman, and which landed him in the governor's chair before the institution which he began his public career by championing was opened. It has 800 students. Loss $70,000.

The French Ministry Resigns.
PARIS, May 22.—The French ministry has been defeated on the miners' eight-hour bill and has resigned.

PEACE INSTITUTE.
THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES BEGIN FRIDAY.

There are Six Graduates—The Sermon and Address.

The commencement exercises at Peace institute begin Friday evening. That is "class night," when the six young ladies who compose the graduating class will have music, physical culture exercises, essays, songs and a poem. Saturday from 6 to 8 p. m. the annual meeting of the alumnae will be held. Sunday morning, at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. A. J. McKelway, of Fayetteville, will preach the baccalaureate sermon. Monday evening, the regular "commencement night," diplomas will be delivered and the address will be delivered by Rev. R. E. Caldwell, of Winston. Tuesday evening the annual concert will be given. It will be a fine one. Diplomas will then be delivered to the graduates in music.

BRECKINRIDGE BASTED.
Presbyterian General Assembly Speaks Its Mind as to Social Purity.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 22.—The general assembly of the southern Presbyterian church today adopted unanimously a resolution explaining its summary tabling of the Breckinridge resolution Friday, declaring at length its stand for social purity and denouncing the violation of the seventh commandment. The committee on organic union presented a report opposing organic union with the northern Presbyterian church and setting forth its reasons therefor and this report will probably come up for action this afternoon.

Millionaires' Loan Office.
A New York telegram says that Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt and thirty other New York millionaires will open their loan office at Fourth avenue and Twenty second street tomorrow morning. The organization, which will be known as the Provident loan society, was authorized by the last legislature, and originated with Rev. David H. Geer, rector of St. Bartholomew's church, early in January. The society was formed with the special object of assisting the poor, and money will be lent on personal property for the full value of the goods pledged, at the rate of one per cent. interest per month.

The Weather Report.
For North Carolina: Partly cloudy. Probably showers on the coast today. Local forecast: On Thursday, occasional showers, continued cool. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature, 77; Minimum temperature, 58; rainfall, 0.13.

The pressure is low everywhere east of the Mississippi and in the southwest. While there is no distinct storm center the conditions have been such as to produce local showers. An area of high pressure is central over the northwest. There have not been any decided changes in temperature. It is slightly warmer in the lower southern states, but continues cool elsewhere, especially in the central valley.

Mr. W. T. R. Bell, Jr., son of Capt. W. T. R. Bell, died at Waco, Texas, a few days ago from an overdose of morphine.
