AT THE UNIVERSITY.

ADDRESS OF HON. HOKE SMITH.

Many Prominent People in Attendance—Presentation of Medals, &c.

Special to the VISITOR.

CHAPEL HILL, June 6.

This is the commencement day at the university of North Carolina, and the attendance is up to the average of recent years. The event of the day was naturally the presence and the oration of Hon. Hoke Smith, secretary of the interior. At 10 o'clock, in the stately memorial hall, the exercises began. Many prominent people were present in the great building on the walls of which are set hundreds of marble tablets containing the names of distinguished alumni of the university, including the names and rank of all who fell during the great war. There were orations by six of the thirty members of the graduating class, the remainder submitting theses. Prizes were conferred as follows: The essayists medal to G. R. Little, the Worth prize for philology to L. U. Swink, the Kerr geological prize to C. H. White; the University magazine prize to H. H. Horner; the history prize to E. M. Wilson.

President George T. Winston introduced Hon. Hoke Smith, who spoke for an hour on "The Possibilities and Responsibilities of North Carolina." The following honorary degrees were conferred: Doctors of Divinity, Rev. R. T. Bryan, missionary to China; Rev. I. McK. Pittinger, of Raleigh; Doctors of Laws, J. H. Kirkland, president of Vanderbilt university; Augustus S. Seymour, of Newbern, N. C., judge U. S. circuit court; Hoke Smith, secretary of the interior.

This afternoon the alumni banquet was given at Gerrard hall. This evening the University glee club gave a concert at which it presented a new comic operatta.

The university celebrated its 99th birthday and arrangements were made by the society of alumni to commemorate in elaborate style its centennial anniversary in 1895.

A great many marked improvements have been made during the past two years. The 400 students have made a fine record during the term. The attendance is now greater than at any time since 1880.

The social event of today was the ball given in the gymnasium this evening. The interior of the building was beautifully decorated.

Secretary Hoke Smith, his wife and Mr. Josephus Daniels, chief clerk of the interior department, left this afternoon for Greensboro, where they will this evening attend the commencement exercises of Greensboro female college.

The university is more progressive than ever before. Its geological summer school, at King's Mountain, begins June 14, as does also its biological school, at Beaufort; N. C. At the latter there will be several female students, from the state normal and industrial school. The summer normal school will be held here during July and is also open to both sexes.

J. R. Harris, of Raleigh, is one of the graduates. He submitted a thesis on "Nitrification." He received the degree of "Bachelor of Science."

The Kerr medal (given by the son of the late Prof. Kerr) has not been won before since 1880, when Mr. Hunter L. Harris, of Raleigh, was the winner.

Raleigh has many representatives among the visitors here. Among them are Gov. Carr, Rev. I. McK. Pittinger, Capt. S. A. Ashe, Col. T. S. Kenan, Mrs. Kenan, and Miss Mary Lily Kenan, John W. Thompson, M. T. Norris, Prof. Von Herrmann, Henry C. Brown, B. R. Lacy, R. T. Gray, Mrs. A. B. Andrews, Miss Janie Andrews, Miss Katie Belvin, Miss Sudie Clark, DeBerniere Whitaker, Mrs. R. F. Hoke, Van Wyck Hoke, Miss Lily Hoke, Miss Bessie Whitaker, Miss Masd Merrimon and her guest, Miss Hull of Ga., Miss Crow, Dr. B. H. Lewis, Prof. Riddick, R. H. Battle, Follows!

Rev. Dr. N. B. Cobb, R. B. Peebles, Mrs. Peebles and Miss Annie Peebles, Miss Lizzie Taylor, W. A. Withers, Mrs. J. E. Pogue, Mrs. Armistead Jones, Miss Nannie Jones, Miss Blanche Blake.

The attendance at the faculty reception last evening in the gymnasium was large. Hon. Hoke Smith, secretary of the interior, was present and nearly all present were presented to him. He is a very large man and of all the assemblage only one man was his equal in size, this being Rev. Dr. Carroll, pastor of the Baptist church here. Refreshments were served at the reception, these being furnished by Dughi in his usual handsome style.

Rev. Dr. F. L. Reid's address yesterday on the "Life and Character of Rev. Dr. Charles F. Deems" was of an hour's length and he treated his fine subject in an admirable manner.

The alumni association met yesterday, Col. Thomas S. Kenan presiding. It made the preliminary arrangements for a great celebration of the centennial, next year, of the opening of the University. The senior class-day exercises were held yesterday afternoon, Mr. G. R. Little presiding. The orations by members of the two literary societies began last evening at 9 o'clock.

Mr. H. H. Horne of Clayton is a record-breaker here, having won first honors in every examination. He is a Baptist, will take a post graduate course, and will become a minister.

At today's exercises Rev. Dr. Pritchard offered the opening prayer and Rev. P. D. Gold pronounced the benediction.

Borrowed a House.

A unique case of borrowing is reported from Sherman Mills. A man whose home was destroyed by fire last winter has borrowed a house from one of his friends, which he will have hauled to his lot and will occupy as a dwelling this summer, returning it in the fall.—Kennebec Journal.

For a Commonweal Wedding.

MURPHYSBORO, ILL., June 5.—The branch of the commonweal army, generally designated as "Kelly's Navy," left Grand Tower, Jackson county, last evening. Kelly sprung a surprise on the people by inviting them to a wedding in which one of his majors, Sutcliff, and his favored typewriter, Miss Hatton, were the contracting parties. A young man from Grand Tower was dispatched to Murphysboro for the license, but as he was not willing to file an affidavit that the parties were not married and were otherwise eligible, the county clerk declined to issue the coupling papers. The news of the contemplated wedding leaked out and the young man was accompanied to Grand Tower by several score of Murphysboroiters, who invited themselves to the wedding. All was in readiness when the party reached the Tower, but because of no license the ceremony was postponed.

Taking No Risks.

"Waiter," said the cautious guest, "I see you have canvassback duck as the bill of fare. Can you warrant it to be canvassback duck?"

"I can, sir," replied the waiter.

"I don't believe it. I see you also claim to serve tenderloin steaks. Are they really tenderloin steaks?"

"They are."

"It is simply impossible. There is only one real, genuine tenderloin steak in a beef, and you can't kill a cow for every man who calls for a steak of the kind. Hum—let me see: Broiled red snapper. Sure its red snapper?"

"Yes, sir."

"I doubt it. You can easily make Mississippi River buffalo look like red snapper. Um—spring lamb, mint sauce. Old mutton, without a doubt. Waiter?"

"Yes, sir."

"Bring me some fried liver."—Chicago Tribune.

Mr. James Graves, of Durham, is in the city.

A BICSHIPMENT

HERE were shipped from the Chicago factory of the Western Wheel
