Miss Agnes Wears Shoes. Now, Miss Agnes, we will sell you the very best make of fine shoes at same price you must pay for inferior shoes.

Who Burned the Bridge? Who did that? You did that. We cut the shoe price down. Why did we do that? Because we could not help it; we got in the Durham stock about fifteen thousand dollars in fine shoes and could not sell them fast enough so cut the price.

She Still Lives. We knew a lady once upon a time who knew a good thing when she saw it. This same lady had a husband and she taught him to know a good thing when he saw it.

Annual Meeting of the American Tract Society.

At the 69th anniversary of this great undenominational society in N. Y. May 9th, 1894, its officers gave a full statement of the great work done through the agencies of the benevolent and business departments. There were 195 colporters employed to carry messages of printed and spoken truth to the most needy. They visited during the year 137,606 families, to whom they sold or gave 102,698 volumes, and thousands of tracts, papers, leaflets and cards. Of these families 12,842 were found having no religious books but the Bible and 8327 of them had no Bible. Total amount received by donations and sales, $470,930.55 which has been wisely expended to help in the wants of all classes and denominations, north, south, east and west, in this and many other lands by christian men and women of the ministry and laity as "they went everywhere preaching the word," in the spirit of Christ's love to rescue and save the perishing. This society has a claim on all who can co-operate either by thanksgiving, praying, working or contributions to help make our world-wide neighbors wise and good into Eternal Life. M. M. M.

HON. HOKE SMITH. The Secretary of the Interior Visits Raleigh.

An invitation was sent Hon. Hoke Smith to pay this city a visit. He accepted and instead of going to Greensboro female college yesterday afternoon deferred that visit until this evening. About 1:45 o'clock this afternoon he arrived here and was met at the station by a committee headed by Mr. C. E. Johnson, president of the chamber of commerce, the other members of which were Messrs. R. S. Tucker, C. M. Busbee, W. C. Stronach, Julius Lewis, H. W. Ayer and E. M. Uzzell. The distinguished visitor was at once taken to the Yarboro where proprietor Brown had placed a suite of rooms at the committee's disposal. There a reception was held from 1:45 to 3. Secretary Smith was accompanied by his wife, son and two young daughters, and Mr. Joseph Daniels, chief clerk, and Dr. Hull, of Georgia.

The secretary is a big man, being 6 feet 5 inches high and well proportioned. His manners are unassuming and particularly pleasant. He was born in Chapel Hill, his father, Prof. H. H. Smith, having been a member of the faculty. His visit to Chapel Hill gave him great pleasure, and he certainly enjoyed his brief stay here. He is very much attached to North Carolina, as his fine speech yesterday showed clearly. He left here this afternoon at 4 o'clock and this evening will attend the Greensboro female college commencement.

A large number of gentlemen and ladies called on secretary and Mrs. Smith, who made a most pleasant impression on all. The secretary was the guest at dinner of Mr. C. E. Johnson at the latter's home on Hillsboro street. The following other gentlemen were also Mr. Johnson's guests: Messrs. Walter Clark, James W. Wilson, S. A. Ashe, Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall, Dr. P. E. Hines, Messrs. R. S. Tucker, A. A. Thompson, J. I. Johnson and Herbert Jackson. Secretary Smith is a kinsman of Mrs. C. E. Johnson. His wife dined with her relative, Mrs. James McKimmon. Gen. R. F. Hoke is a near kinsman of the secretary.

Election of Officers.

At the regular meeting of Raleigh typographical union, held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President, C. B. Edwards, Jr; vice-president, E. S. Cheek; secretary, J. W. Marcom; treasurer, C. D. Christophers; reading clerk, E. G. Smith; sergeant at-arms, Simon Smith.

What a Title for a Book!

Governor O'Ferrall, of Virginia, received yesterday a letter from Arthur T. Abernethy, professor of languages at Rutherford college, N. C., saying that his last book, entitled "The Hell You Say," had been condemned by the American press. He asked the governor to read the book and give his candid opinion of it. The governor replied that he did not have time to review the work.

Wake Forest College.

The commencement exercises, which take place on the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th of June, bid fair to be the most successful ever held at this college. The following constitute the senior class: R. F. Beasley, C. N. Beebee, C. M. Billings, D. R. Britton, M. O. Carpenter, R. H. Carter, J. E. M. Davenport, N. A. Dunn, W. Durham, T. W. Elliott, J. P. Felt, W. L. Foushee, R. L. Freeman, R. W. Hayward, J. Minor, J. J. Payseur, T. J. Pence, J. D. Robertson, S. L. Settlemyre, W. H. Sledge, J. W. Smith, Jr., J. E. Spainhour, S. P. Holding, W. H. Jones, J. E. Yates, F. G. Taylor, T. B. Lambeth and C. E. Taylor, Jr.

It is 134 miles from Wilmington to Raleigh via Goldsboro and 207 via Hamlet. This matter of distances is of interest in connection with Tuesday's great excursion. The VISITOR is given the exact number of excursionists. It was 750 via Goldsboro and 512 via Hamlet. Does not that beat the record in N. C.; 1,262 on an excursion?

A great deal of the wheat crop is cut. The stalks a general thing is low and the heads small. The best wheat seen in a trip this week was at Chapel Hill.

There were all sorts of rumors on the street today regarding the murderer, Orange Page. One was that he had stabbed one of the pursuing deputies.

A change of schedule of the "Atlanta Special" on the S. A. L. goes into effect next Sunday. It is said the north-bound train will leave here about 1 a. m.; the south-bound train about 4 a. m.

Today the examinations at the Raleigh male academy ended. Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock Mr. John C. Scarborough will deliver the annual address. This fine school has made a good record during the term.

Yesterday the Daily Courier, edited by Mr. C. L. Gaskill, announced its suspension, after an existence in Newbern of about five months. The weekly will be continued under the same management.

The entire plant, pipes, and stand pipe, wells, and franchise of the Newbern water company was sold yesterday at public auction by T. A. Green and William Dunn, receivers, under an order of court. The entire system was bought by Mr. James Redmond for $85,025 cash.

A white woman, apparently a girl of 16, and small for her age, was today brought to the penitentiary from Henderson county. She stabbed the heart of a young man who was charged with being of bad character. She was chained when brought here. She gets a 15 year sentence.

Woman's Missionary Society.

The woman's missionary society of North Carolina conference, which meets in this city June 22-26, hopes to have Miss Laura Haygood, missionary to China, and sister to bishop Haygood, present with it for at least a part of the session. A large and enthusiastic meeting is expected. Arrangements have been made with railroads for special rates, based on tariff No. 2, which can be obtained from the agents at the various points. All persons expecting to attend are earnestly requested to send their names, at once, to Miss Fannie Burkhead, Hillsboro street, that homes may be provided for them.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY. Some Notes About Yesterday's Occurrences There.

CHAPEL HILL, JUNE 7.

The ninety-ninth commencement has ended, Mr. Herman H. Horne, of Clayton, won the society representative medal. He is a son of Mr. Ashley Horne. C. L. Vannoppen, of Durham, won the Mangum medal for oratory. Claudius Dockery, who was vice consul at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, took a law degree. There are among the students six married men and four ex-members of the legislature, and in the graduating class two are married men. One of the graduates was elected to the legislature in his freshman year, this being W. P. M. Curry, of Moore county.

The glee club gave a pleasing performance in old Gerrard hall, which is so remodeled as nearly to appear new as to interior. "Peter the Pumpkin Eater," a comic opera, was given for the first time and was cleverly sung.

The ball last night was largely attended. The decorations of the interior of the ball room are in white and blue and gold. Among the Raleigh people who were present yesterday not previously mentioned were Mr. George Allen, Mrs. Garland Jones, Mr. Cecil Lee, Mr. John Stronach, Mr. Albert Kramer, Miss Kate Badger.

In the tennis tournament Richmond college was represented by Jones and Harrison and U. N. C. represented by Bridgers and Bryson. The score for "doubles" was easily won by U. N. C. The score was 1-6, 3-6, 1-7, in favor of U. N. C. The playing of Bridgers and Bryson was very good and steady although, while the playing of Harrison of Richmond college was good. This shows the U. N. C. is undoubtedly the champion of the south, having defeated Richmond college and University of Va. and C. and C. The "singles" were also won by Jones against Bryson by the score 3-6, 0-6, 3-6. Attendance 250.

At the alumni banquet 300 sat down Col. Kenan presided as president of the association. The speakers were Hoke Smith, elder P. D. Gold, Dr. George T. Winston, W. D. Pruden, Judge Avery, Paul B.
