HINTS TO BUSINESS MEN!

Good advertising consists in the selection of a few strong, quick sell specialties, to stand as the representatives of your stock in price, pattern and quality.

Invite patrons to come and see you. The great advertisers of the country never cease reminding the people of their names, location and nature of business.

This age is too bustling and competition is too great for the merchant to allow himself any longer the luxury of waiting supinely behind his counter for trade.

Frank Siddall, the Philadelphia soap man, says: "I have confined my advertising entirely to newspapers.

Men have been known to sacrifice themselves and accept office from an overwhelming sense of duty; but they seldom resign office under such pressure.

Much interest is felt everywhere in the contest now going on in Georgia between Gen. Evans and Mr. Atkinson for the democratic nomination for governor.

You can't size up an orator by the dimensions of his mouth.—Tammany Times. Of course; but you can guess how much will come out of such a mouth when it is once open.

The advocates of the original Wilson bill cannot be deprived of the comfort which the most impoverished philosopher keeps in stock—the thought that it might have been worse.

Queen Victoria has thanked the Y. M. C. A. It is understood that the expressions of gratitude were not elicited by the success of the organization in its labors with her son, prince Albert.

It is said there are less than 300 pure-blooded Greenlanders left. The governor of Greenland should start an emigration society and import a few thousands of old-world paupers to his refrigerated country, and keep them on ice in case population becomes too thin.

Coxy isn't quite so big a fool as he might be. He knows when he has had enough, and has shipped his horses home to Massillon, where he will follow them as soon as the keeper of Washington jail will permit.

A Brooklyn physician, Dr. Henry L. Suedling, has been found guilty of assault for vaccinating a sick man, who was confined to his bed and objected to the operation. The defense was that the doctor was acting under instructions of the department of health, but the court held that under the circumstances the act constituted an assault.

From the fact that governor O'Fallon has resolved to arm the new Virginia oyster police navy with the most deadly pieces of ordnance obtainable, the Maryland oyster and clam stealers may as well make up their minds that any future trespassing upon Virginia territory will be at cost of life or limb.

Late News Notes.

Gen. Wade Hampton is old and gray; his eyesight is fast failing, and when he walks he hobbles about on one leg.

A railroad is to be built between Cairo, Ill., and Paducah, Ky.

The convicted Staten Island (N. Y.) election inspectors were sentenced to pay certain fines and to terms of imprisonment varying from five days to one year.

Hedding Habaeh, an eighteen-year old girl of Newark, N. J., killing herself yesterday by drinking carbolic acid, because her parents forbade her to associate with her chosen lover, Fred Winkler.

At Lincoln, Neb., summonses have been served a second time upon ex-Treasurer Hill and his bondsmen, who are defendants in the case to recover $236,000 of state funds deposited in the capitol national bank.

The St. Louis police are searching for Edward L. M. Ayres, late confidential clerk for Wayman MacCreery, real estate agent. Ayres is charged with forging his employer's name to a check for $1,200, which he dashed and fled.

Paris Clapp was recently sentenced to the Tennessee penitentiary for life, charged with killing and robbing farmer Snodley. On Sunday two men named Cox and Stanley acknowledged the crime, and gave themselves up at Knoxville.

A man was found on Sunday hanging to a small tree near O'Keane, Ark. Papers on the body bore the name of C. W. Houston, of Liberty, Ill. His skull was crushed. He was hanged with his shirt sleeves. There was $30 on his person.

F. A. Coffin and P. B. Coffin, the convicted bank looters, were sentenced yesterday in Indianapolis, the former to ten years and the latter to five years in prison. Sentence was suspended in the case of their accomplice and tool, A. S. Read.

The general term of the court of common pleas, at New York, has handed down a decision reversing the former judgment in the case of Ellen Pollock against her wealthy father-in-law, Alexander Pollock, for alienating the affections of her husband, which resulted in a verdict of $37,500 for the wife.

Mrs. A. E. Clarke came into a Chicago police station on Sunday carrying the dead body of her six weeks' old child. The woman was scarcely able to stand from exposure and exhaustion. Her husband is in jail, and a week ago the woman was turned out of her lodgings and has since lived out of doors. The baby died from exposure.

A letter from Winchester, Va., mentions the interesting fact that Mrs. Bettie Taylor Dandridge, the only surviving daughter of ex-President Zachary Taylor who resides in that city, has just discovered after long search, the missing sash of General Braddock, which was long supposed to have been lost. This sash, which is stained with Braddock's blood, was sent by Gen. Gaines to Gen. Taylor just after his brilliant achievement on the Rio Grande in 1846.

Strangled Leaders of Strikes.

LONDON, June 6.—A dispatch to the Standard from Shanghai says: Owing to a strike of the artisans engaged in repairing the palace at Peking for celebrations in honor of the birthday of the empress dowager, the emperor promulgated a decree that all strikers should be punished without mercy, that the ringleaders should be strangled and the others banished to the fever and mosquito grounds.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable.

SAVANNAH, GA., April 26, 1889.

Having used three bottles of P. P. P. for impure blood and general weakness, and having derived great benefits from the same, having gained 11 pounds in weight in four weeks, I take great pleasure in recommending it to all unfortunates like

Yours truly, JOHN MORRIS, OFFICE OF J. N. McELROY, Druggist, Orlando, Fla., April 20, 1891.

Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga.: Dear Sirs—I sold three bottles of P. P. P., large size yesterday, and one bottle small size today.

The P. P. P. cured my wife of rheumatism winter before last. It came back on her the past winter and a half bottle, $1 size, relieved her again, and she has not had a symptom since.

I sold a bottle of P. P. P. to a friend of mine, one of his turkeys, a small one took sick, and his wife gave it a teaspoonful, that was in the evening, and the little fellow turned over like he was dead, but next morning was up hollowing and well.

Yours respectfully, J. N. McELROY, SAVANNAH, GA., March 17, 1891.

Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga.: Dear Sirs—I have suffered from rheumatism for a long time, and did not find a cure until I found P. P. P., which completely cured me.

Yours truly, ELIZA F. JONES, 10 Orange St., Savannah, Ga. Wholesale and retail at Barwell & Dunn's, Greensboro, N. C.
