C. A. Sherwood & Co.

Miss Agnes Wears Shoes.

Now, Miss Agnes, we will sell you the very best make of fine shoes at same price you must pay for inferior shoes. We sell Krippendorf & Dittman's fine shoes; Bering Bros. fine shoes at wholesale prices. You know these to be the best make of shoes. These are from the Durham Supply Co's stock, now at Swindell's Department Store, Raleigh, N. C.

Who Burned the Bridge?

Who did that? You did that. We cut the shoe price down. Why did we do that? Because we could not help it; we got in the Durham stock about fifteen thousand dollars in fine shoes and could not sell them fast enough so cut the price. Men's $6 shoes, $5 shoes, $4 shoes all $3.85. All shoes reduced to $3.85, at Swindell's Department Store.

She Still Lives

We knew a lady once upon a time who knew a good thing when she saw it. This same lady had a husband and she taught him to know a good thing when he saw it. Now we have made it all uniform. All shoes at six, five and four dollars a pair will be sold at one price—$3.85 a pair—from now on as long as they last. We mean men's shoes. Banister's $8 shoes and $5 shoes, L. M. Reynolds' $5 shoes and Saller Lewin's $6 and $5 shoes—all will now be sold at $3.85. If you want shoes and don't grasp this opportunity there is something wrong. These are fine shoes we got in the Durham Supply Co's stock, now selling at Swindell's Department Store at $3.85 per pair.

North Carolina Teachers' Assembly

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINIANS.

People Who Come, People Who go and People You Know.

Editor John W. Jenkins of the Durham Globe is here.

Mr. Bakins is very sick at his home on Smithfield street.

Mr. E. B. Jones of Winston went to Wake Forest today to deliver an address.

Miss Ida Montgomery of this city is to take charge of a school at Troy, Ala.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall of Norfolk, Va., arrived this afternoon and is the guest of Mr. H. M. Ivey.

Mr. F. M. Harper, of Athens, Ga., and Mr. J. A. Thomas, of Louisburg, are at the Yarboro.

Maj. Charles L. Patton, business manager of the University publishing company, is here on a visit.

Mr. Basil H. Womble, a popular young citizen of the east side, who has been confined to his room for several days by sickness, is now convalescent.

The Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of Raleigh, delivered an excellent address before the young woman's missionary society at Littleton last Saturday.

Mr. N. V. Bryan, who has for many years had a stall in the market, was brought home today from Norfolk, where four weeks ago he was paralyzed. His legs are affected.

It is said to be reasonably certain that Rev. Dr. Atkins, now of Asheville female college, will be the new president of Trinity college. The selection will be made this week.

Mr. W. P. Batchelor left yesterday for Lexington, Ky., and will be married there next Thursday to Miss David Chenault. Mr. Stark Batchelor will be best man, and Mr. Louis Mahler, of this city, will accompany them. These gentlemen left today.

Professor Massey, of the agricultural and mechanical college, accepts an invitation to address the South Carolina agricultural society August 1st at Rock Hill on what experiment stations have done for the farmers and the value of the efficient state agricultural department.

The Weather Report.

A large area of high pressure covers the country east of the Mississippi. The highest pressure is over Georgia and South Carolina. The pressure decreases toward the northwest, being lowest over North Dakota. The weather is generally fair and warm. The temperature is 70° or above 70° everywhere east of the Mississippi except at Buffalo, and ranges from 58° to 70° in the west.

For North Carolina: Fair. Local forecast: Tuesday fair, continued warm. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 90; Minimum temperature 69; rainfall 0.0.

Habeas Corpus Case.

Some time ago a colored youth named Charles Harp was sent to the roads for a year by a Raleigh magistrate, for bastardy. Today he was before Judge Walter Clark on habeas corpus proceedings, J. C. L. Harris, Esq., being his counsel. It was argued in behalf of Harp that his offense was, under a recent decision of the court, only a petty misdemeanor and that a magistrate did not have jurisdiction because imprisonment might be for more than thirty days. The writ was granted and Harp was remanded to the justice, to be proceeded against; to see whether he should be bound over to the superior court.

A Musical Treat.

Next Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. J. W. Carter a full and choice programme of music will be rendered, and all are invited to come and enjoy it. There will be no admission fee. Cake and cream will be served, for which a moderate sum will be charged.

Cheap. Norfolk and return $3.50.

Leads,

Echoes of the Big Excursion.

It was announced yesterday in the Baptist tabernacle Sunday school that the net proceeds of the excursion to Wilmington were $349.91. Mr. R. H. Bradley, the organizer and manager of the excursion, was presented with a silver cup by Mr. N. B. Broughton, superintendent of the school.

The Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber of commerce meets tomorrow evening at the mayor's office. Reports of interest will be made, and matters of importance be discussed. The railroad committee has important matters in hand, and is expected to report progress.

Trinity College Notes.

The sophomore oratorical contest was won on Saturday night by J. S. Maytabby of Indian territory, a member of the Hesperian society. Mr. Maytabby won the class prize in oratory last year. He is a Chickasaw Indian and is one of the most promising students in college. His name as a football player is on a par with his oratorical reputation.

A Great Offer.

Mr. G. A. Jones has the Raleigh agency for that admirable illustrated magazine, the "Cosmopolitan." The subscription price of this publication has been reduced to only $1.50 which puts it in reach of every intelligent person who has that small amount to spend on the best literature. Any one wishing to subscribe to America's greatest magazine should address G. A. Jones, editor "Great South," at Raleigh, N. C.

Summer School for Teachers.

The university of North Carolina offers instruction to teachers in three summer schools: These are the university summer school, in the university buildings at Chapel Hill, from July 2 to July 28; tuition $5; 16 professors, 20 courses of instruction. The school of geology at King's Mountain; tuition $10, session begins June 14. The school of biology, at Beaufort; tuition $10, session begins June 14. For details address president George T. Winston, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Death of a Little Child.

The little child of Mr. John H. Winder died yesterday at Gainesville, Ga., and its remains were brought here this morning. The child had been sick some weeks and nearly died here three weeks ago. It was taken to Gainesville by advice of physicians and for a lime improved. There is great sympathy for the parents in the loss of their bright little boy. The funeral was held from Christ church this afternoon at 5 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Marshall officiating.

State Fair Notes.

The premium list for the state fair will be out this week, and its elegance and comprehensiveness will pleasantly surprise the public. It will be an advance announcement of the completeness of the coming fair, which by the way is going to be a record breaker. The premiums are on a liberal scale. Among the more prominent ones are $100 for the best bale of cotton; an $800 piano for the best female school exhibit; $50 for the best exhibit by a lady; $50 for the best exhibit in floral hall. Applications for the list may be now sent to secretary H. W. Ayer.

A Japanese Preacher.

Rev. T. Masao, of Japan, late a student of Vanderbilt university, preached an excellent sermon at Central M. E. church yesterday morning. Most convincingly did he show the superiority of Christianity over Confucianism and Buddhism. He pleaded that the Gospel sent as it was the only hope of Asia's redemption. He said Sir Edwin Arnold's great epic poem, "Light of Asia," was misleading. Masao's story of his conversion was touching. He will return to Japan July 1st in company with bishop Galloway, of the M. E. church south. A collection was taken, amounting to over $20.

At Washington, D. C., Miss Sallie Anderson, formerly of this city, was married to Mr. Parks today.

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Interesting Items Gathered in and Around the City.

The hot nights are of great benefit to cotton.

This was the hottest day of the year to date.

Several Raleigh families will be at Wrightville this summer.

One person was baptized last evening at the Third Baptist church.

Revenue officers today captured an illicit distillery in Orange county.

As yet no appointments for teachers' institutes in this state have been made.

The democratic state committee meets here at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Grass is dying in the western part of the state, for lack of rain, and it burns like tinder in the fields.

Travel on the "Atlanta Special" is now said to be heavier than at any time since the fine trains were put on. Everybody get ready for Norfolk July 5th. All the Odd Fellows are going. You couldn't get in a better crowd.

The hailstorms in the northern and eastern parts of this county are said to have done some damage to the watermelon crop.

The street force today began active work at Nash square, ploughing and harrowing it. Peas will be planted and in the autumn these will be ploughed under and grass sowed.

The second annual "Triple Link Excursion" to Norfolk, July 5th, is being talked of very much. In fact, it might fail to be a great success. Are you going?

Today the stringing of the telephone wires between this city and Durham was finished. They run on the Western Union telegraph company's poles. The distance is twenty-six miles, and the work has been quickly done.

Trinity college's commencement address which senator Gray was to have made, will be made by Rev. Dr. W. H. Milburn, chaplain of the United States senate, and he will deliver the annual address this week.

The Wake Forest college athletic association has elected the following: Vice-president, Prof. J. C. Maske; secretary, J. W. McNeill, of Wilkesboro. W. J. Christian was elected captain of the athletic team of 1894-'95. J. H. Gore, Jr., was elected captain of the next foot-ball team, and R. T. Daniel business manager.

The big rain of three weeks ago, which soaked so many people at Fairview, did some damage to the race track at the state fair grounds. This is now being repaired, and about three days hauling is necessary to replace the earth washed away.

Mr. O. R. Smith, the veteran house-mover, will this week move the dwelling of Mr. C. B. Edwards, on West Martin street, about sixty feet eastward. Mr. Edwards will continue to reside there until a new and handsome house on the site of the present one is finished, when he will occupy the new place.

The new schedule on the S. A. L. goes into effect next Sunday. The local passenger trains between Portsmouth and Charlotte, which have for some months ended their run here, will run through, as they used to do. It is rumored that the train from Portsmouth will arrive at 3:30 instead of 3:45 p. m.

Last evening a crazy negro began "preaching" in an empty house in the northwestern part of the city, near the Baltimore United oil company's warehouse. He claimed to have permission to discourse and declined to stop when requested to do so by the parents of a sick boy living quite near. The boy has fever and the loud talking and the shouts of a lot of rude people greatly annoyed him.

OBSERVATIONS.

Norfolk! Norfolk!! July 5th.

Sheriff Crowell of Wilson brought two convicts to the penitentiary this afternoon.

The railway commissioners are now receiving the returns of assessments of the railways for taxation, and meet on the 20th to consider these.

Next Thursday evening there will be a lawn party in front of Brooklyn M. E. church, and the members of the congregation will make it a very pleasant affair.

This is a time when people who want to be cool and comfortable think of Dughi and send for his ice cream. He fills all orders, in town or out, promptly.

Coxey, Brown and Jones, the "Commonweal" leaders, were yesterday released from jail at Washington, D. C., their term of twenty days imprisonment having expired.

Berwanger Bros. have an advertisement today which is certainly made at the proper time. It is in line with the hot weather, and they offer many comforts in the way of extra light clothing.

Mr. Thomas J. Watts, an enterprising young druggist, is having his store renovated and papered, and will make it one of the most attractive here. He is daily receiving fresh goods and deserves patronage.

Gov. Carr today made a requisition on Gov. Northern, of Georgia, for H. G. Westall, wanted for forgery and who is in jail in Atlanta. His offense is the forgery of a check at Asheville.

Mr. J. C. Brewster, who is doing the steam-heating and plumbing work at the deaf mute school, is now there. He will return here as soon as the material for the steel front of the Pullen building arrives and will put it in place.

In the United States circuit court here last week a great deal of business was transacted, mainly on the criminal docket. Twenty men were convicted of "moonshining" and all save one were sent to jail and also fined. The one who escaped punishment is Ed. Mangum, of Wake, who is not of sound mind.

Quartermaster general Harrell says arrangements have been made to move all the troops of the Third and Fourth regiments to Morehead City July 9th by night, so they will arrive there about 5 a. m. on the 10th, instead of getting in late in the evening. The new plan will give them all day in which to settle down and arrange duties, etc.

The Fayetteville Street Baptist Sunday-school, of which Mr. J. T. Pullen is superintendent, will have its annual picnic on Thursday next. A fine grove about five miles from the city has been selected as the picnic ground and a day of recreation and pleasure is anticipated. The school is now in a flourishing condition.

The trustees of Elon college have elected Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., of Suffolk, Va., president, vice Dr. Long, resigned. The Durham Globe says Dr. Staley is a native of North Carolina, but has been pastor of the First Christian church at Suffolk, Va. W. P. Lawrence was chosen to fill the chair of English, Prof. E. L. Moffitt having resigned it to assume editorial charge of the Christian Sun at Raleigh.

Mr. Jno. C. Scarborough on his trip to Sharpsburg found that the Confederate dead from that battle ground, that is 2,700 of them, are buried at Hagerstown, seven miles away; that the cemetery is beautifully kept, and a handsome monument marks the spot. The positions of all the regiments in Robert Ransom's brigade were accurately located, as was also that of the Sixth regiment of Lane's brigade, and that of Col. Bennett, the Forty-seventh, in the bloody lane. Reilly's battery and the Twenty-seventh and Forty-eighth of George B. Anderson's brigade are all properly marked. Mr. J. M. Monie carefully located the position of the First North Carolina cavalry, as a special representative of that organization.

ABICSHIPMENT

THERE were shipped from the Chicago factory of the Western Wheel Works one hundred machines a day by express during week before last. On Saturday fifteen of the largest trucks operated by the express companies were called in to carry off an order received from the New York branch office. Each wagon was loaded with twenty-five wheels, making a total of three hundred and seventy-five machines in the lot. The Western Wheel works make the CRESCENT Cycles, and their capacity is forty thousand wheels each year.
