Oh! That Costume of Hers

Show me a lady who does not enjoy admiration, and I will see a hopeless freak. Hence ladies have excellent taste, they study the art of dress, and they have it now to a scientific nicety. So the merchant who is a success has to get his selections down to scientific nicety, or his selections will lie on his shelves till the moths walk off with them. Now, ladies, we want to state this: In Swindell's department store, the dress goods sales have not only doubled and tripled, but ten-fold is the rate of increase in two years. Where we used to sell one dress, now we are selling ten dresses and trimmings all complete. Now let me ask all who read this: If this statement is true, what does it mean? Get collars, cuffs, scarfs and ties from Swindell's department store.

The Love of a Bonnet

Every lady is especially particular to get style in a bonnet or hat. Nothing so enhances the beauty of any lady as a pretty, catchy hat—one that is just the complete thing. At the same time the ladies of this age have an eye to price as well as style. Hence it is that the millinery department at Swindell's department store is so thoroughly crowded all the time. You get style and quality and the price is right. Our prices are popular. Then our milliners take great pride and pleasure in assisting an undecided customer in getting just what will become her. Our milliner can improve an ugly woman, much less you.

White Goods

We have just placed on sale one case of white checked muslin at 5c. per yard and one case of white India linen at 5c. per yard. These are splendid values at prices. We are also showing a big stock of sheer striped and plaid lawns at 7 1/2c., 8 1/2c., and 10c. per yard, the best values to be found at these low prices.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINIANS.

People Who Come, People Who go and People You Know.

Rev. H. T. Williams, of Roxboro, is here.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Ferrall went to Hillsboro today, to remain a week.

Mr. DeWit Stephenson, a prominent lawyer of Newbern, is at the Yarboro.

Arrivals today at the Yarboro; L. D. Minigerode of Richmond; W. S. Chadwick, of Beaufort.

Mrs. Wesley Hamilton, living on South West street, died this afternoon of appendicitis.

Mrs. F. A. Olds and son Douglas left for Wrightsville today, to be absent a month.

Mrs. Davidson, of Charlotte, is in the city visiting Mrs. McAden on North Blount street.

Mr. and Mrs. John London, of Pittsboro, are visiting in Raleigh and will remain here several days.

Messrs. W. S. Howard, of Tarboro, and Lyman A. Cotton, of Falkland, are visiting Mr. K. W. Timberlake.

Mr. Greek O. Andrews went to Durham this afternoon and tomorrow will present the Wiley Gray medal at Trinity college.

Messrs. A. B. Andrews, Jr., and John H. Andrews left yesterday for Charlotte where they will spend some time visiting relatives.

Dr. S. J. Hinsdale, of Fayetteville, is critically ill at his home. Col. and Mrs. Hinsdale of this city left yesterday to be at his bedside.

J. B. Batchelor, Esq., left today for Lexington, Ky., where he will attend the marriage of Mr. W. P. Batchelor to Miss David Chenault.

Mr. John C. Scarborough has selected June 26th as the date for a convention of all county superintendents in the state, at Morehead City.

Mr. F. O. Landis, of Oxford, who has been here several days representing the New York Pharmacist, left today for Charlottesville, Va.

V. H. Boyden, Esq., of Salisbury, came in today from Chapel Hill. He will be a law partner of Ed. Chambers Smith, Esq., and will make Raleigh his home. The Visitor is glad to welcome him here.

Mr. John T. Pullen has attained quite a reputation throughout the state with his religious talk, "Personal Work." Mr. Pullen speaks from a long and useful experience. His recent lectures in Durham and Henderson have been very highly spoken of.

Mr. T. R. Maxwell, of the widely known firm of Thomas & Maxwell, is here. He is a native of this state, having been born near Goldsboro. He is the leading furniture dealer in the south, and now controls no less than sixteen large furniture houses. He is much pleased with the manner, in which Mr. S. A. Campbell, the manager of the Raleigh branch, is pushing the business.

Hon. W. H. Hatch, of Missouri, will deliver the annual address before the agricultural college next Tuesday, the 19th instant. Congressman Hatch is a prominent statesman, and has done more for American agriculture perhaps than any man living. He has been chairman of the house committee on agriculture for the past twelve or fifteen years, and was very prominently spoken of for speaker of the house.

Dr. Thos. H. Pritchard, of Charlotte, passed through the city this morning, returning from Wake Forest college. He attended a meeting of the board of trustees of the institution on Tuesday last, but his early return home is thought to signify that he and his colleagues will not attempt to introduce coeducation at Wake Forest until another year. The doctor is an ardent "coeducationalist," and though delayed by other questions, hopes to have coeducation at Wake Forest in the near future.

In the arithmetic of heaven nothing counts but love.

Leads,

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

To be Held at Raleigh August 8:

The democratic state executive committee met at the Yarboro house last evening, chairman Simmons presiding and Mr. Robert H. Cowan being secretary. Thirty-one out of forty-nine members were present. The first business done was the calling of the state convention. August 8th was chosen as the date and Raleigh as the place. A letter from senator Jarvis was read, this bearing principally on the matter of having primaries at which the people can express their preferences for senators. The committee decided that it was beyond its jurisdiction to order such primaries. It was ordered that the chairman and secretary open headquarters for the purpose of conducting the preliminary work of the campaign immediately. Resolution of thanks, offered by W. P. Roberts, were, on motion of Octavius Coke, adopted by a rising vote amid much enthusiasm. These resolutions thanked chairman Simmons for his able, wise, practical and successful conduct of the last campaign. He made a stirring speech in response and was then endorsed for chairman in case he consents to accept that position again. Two committee vacancies were filled as follows: H. C. Olive, of Wake, vice R. J. Powell, dead; and C. D. Blanton, of Buncombe, vice J. T. Grant, removed from the state.

The democratic convention of the fourth judicial district has been called at Smithfield July 18th.

The democratic convention of the 4th congressional district is called at Raleigh, August 15. John P. Arrington was made a member of the committee, vice Jacob Battle.

OBSERVATIONS.

The directors of the insane asylum are in session.

The art exhibit at St. Mary's school is very fine this year.

Dr. J. H. Crawford left today for Selma, on a brief visit.

Mrs. R. K. Williams is very sick at her home on West Hargett street.

Thomas W. Keane, the great tragedian, is booked to appear at the academy of music next season.

The Pilot mills are working on full time. The orders do not quite keep pace with the production, but, later a good demand is looked for.

Mr. E. M. Uzzell, whose artistic printing is so widely known, has prepared the commendable programmes for St. Mary's this year. The work is extremely well done.

State geologist J. A. Holmes is appointed to represent this state at the national convention in the interest of good roads, which will be held at Asbury Park, N. J., July 5-6.

Mr. Christian Van Gunden, who has built a number of monuments here and was building a costly mausoleum at Durham for the Duke family fell from the top of the mausoleum last week and died yesterday. His age was 69.

Master Elmer Shaffer was yesterday afternoon prostrated by heat. He was given prompt attention and is better today. When found he was lying unconscious in the back yard of his home.

Two alarms of fire were turned in last evening from box 32, one at about 8:30 and the other at 9:20. The fire in both instances was at the residence of Mr. Phil. Taylor, on Hillsboro street. The total damage was about $50.

At London yesterday, of all the guests present at the reception given by admiral Erben and his officers on board the United States cruiser Chicago, none were more honored than Miss Lee, daughter of the late Gen. R. E. Lee.

There are over 13,000 North Carolina farmers receiving the publications of the North Carolina agricultural experiment station. From the letters of endorsement constantly being received it is certain the farmers appreciate these bulletins.

The trustees of Trinity college adjourned yesterday without having elected a president to succeed Rev. Dr. J. F. Crowell, who resigned. A committee was appointed to serve until the chairman of the board calls another meeting.

What might have been a serious accident occurred at St. Mary's this morning. Misses Mary Turner and Mary Johnston had just stepped from Miss Turner's dog cart when the pony ran. No damage was done, although the cart and pony were both overturned.

Bulletin 99, of the experiment station, treats of the thread worm of pork, and was written by Dr. F. P. Williamson, veterinarian to the station. It tells of the danger from eating pork infested with these worms, and advises that all meat should be well cooked before being eaten.

Mecklenburg county has decided that it can't pay more than $5 for the return of any of the runaway members of the chain gang, and that it can pay that much regardless of the character of the convict or the crime which he is serving for. At present there are fifty-three of these escaped convicts.

Davidson college commencement began today with the literary address this morning before the societies by Rev. Dr. J. G. Strickler, of Atlanta, Ga. This afternoon the address before the alumni was delivered by Rev. E. W. Smith, of Greensboro. This evening addresses will be delivered by three representatives of each of the literary societies, for the orator's medal.

An Elegant Special for the Teachers' Assembly.

Next Monday the Richmond & Danville railroad will operate a special "teachers' assembly train" between Greensboro and Morehead City. This train will consist of Pullman palace sleeping cars and regular coaches. The train will run on a fast schedule, arriving at Raleigh about 1 o'clock a. m.; leaving Raleigh at 1.05, arriving at Morehead City the morning of the 19th at 7:30 a. m. There will be a sleeping car at Raleigh, which will be open to receive passengers at 10:30 p. m. The teachers' assembly is to be congratulated on securing this train, as it will avoid the hot ride between Greensboro and Morehead in the day. The diagram for sleeping car space from Raleigh will be in the hands of H. W. Miller, passenger agent, and parties desiring space will apply to him at once. This furnishes also a good connection at Raleigh for passengers from the Seaboard Air Line, both north and south.

Trinity College.

Darham is clad in light blue today in honor of Trinity college commencement. Rev. Dr. S. A. Steel, of Memphis, Tenn., preached the baccalaureate sermon before the students of Trinity college, in Trinity church. Rev. W. H. Milburn delivered the annual address at Stokes hall this afternoon. B. H. Palmer, Esq., will address the alumni this evening. The valedictory address will be delivered by Mr. C. W. Edwards, of High Point, and the Braxton Craven medal, given by Mr. J. S. Carr, for highest scholarship, will be awarded to Mr. W. W. Flowers, of Taylorsville.
