Ob! That Costume of Hers

Show me a lady who does not enjoy admiration, and I will see a hopeless freak. Hence ladies have excellent taste, they study the art of dress, and they have it now to a scientific nicety. So the merchant who is a success has to get his selections down to scientific nicety, or his selections will lie on his shelves till the moths walk off with them. Now, ladies, we want to state this: In Swindell's department store, the dress goods sales have not only doubled and tripled, but ten-fold is the rate of increase in two years. Where we used to sell one dress, now we are selling ten dresses and trimmings all complete. Now let me ask all who read this: If this statement is true, what does it mean?

Get collars, cuffs, scarfs and ties from Swindell's department store.

The Love of a Bonnet

Every lady is especially particular to get style in a bonnet or hat. Nothing so enhances the beauty of any lady as a pretty, catchy hat—one that is just the complete thing. At the same time the ladies of this age have an eye to price as well as style. Hence it is that the millinery department at Swindell's department store is so thoroughly crowded all the time. You get style and quality and the price is right. Our prices are popular. Then our milliners take great pride and pleasure in assisting an undecided customer in getting just what will become her. Our milliner can improve an ugly woman, much less you.

Try Swindell's department store for a dress and trimmings.

Special Sale—White Goods

We have just placed on sale one case (about 1,800 yds.) of white striped lawns, five different styles, at the very low price of 5c. per yd. We are also offering the best values you have seen in white India linen and check muslin at 5c. per yd.

We are showing one case of white lawn fancies, stripes, checks and plaids, which we price at only 9c. per yard, worth 20c. We would like for every lady in Raleigh to call and examine this special offering in white goods.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINIANS

People Who Come, People Who go and People You Know.

Capt. John Eudy, a well known mining expert, was here today on his way home to Jamestown.

Capt. S. A. Ashe is attending the state press association at Morganton. Editor W. F. Burbank, of the Winston Sentinel, is acting as president.

It is learned that Miss Lizzie W. Williams is sick at her home on East Jones street. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

The Durham Globe says that Judge Clark could have been elected president of Trinity college unanimously if he would have accepted the place.

Cards are out to the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Jackson, daughter of Mrs. C. S. Jackson, to Mr. Haywood D. White, Wednesday morning, June 27, at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Albert Johnson, the oldest living locomotive engineer, left today on a visit to Virginia. Miss Lizzie Bellamy, his granddaughter, accompanies him.

Superintendent E. McK. Goodwin of the deaf-mute school at Morganton is to be married at Greensboro on the 25th to Miss Maud F. Broadway, a teacher in the state normal and industrial school.

Miss Anna Jones, daughter of Rev. J. R. Jones, of Greensboro, has been elected teacher of a kindergarten class in the blind asylum here. The Greensboro Record says she had five competitors, but received the unanimous vote of the board.

ACQUITTED

Lizzie Jeffries is Discharged from Custody.

Today Lizzie Jeffries, a colored girl aged about 18, was given a hearing before Justice Barbee, on a charge of having set fire Tuesday night to a house on Hillsboro street occupied by Messrs. Phil. Taylor and T. B. Womack. The hearing lasted nearly five hours. Mr. Womack represented the state; Messrs. T. P. Devereux and Armistead Jones the accused girl. Mr. Womack said the fire originated in an unused room and that when he broke the door he smelled oil, and found it scattered around the room, and on books, &c. The second fire did not originate from coals which fell at the first fire. A loud noise was heard in the room just before the first fire was discovered and it was this noise which cast suspicion on the girl. Mrs. Taylor asked Lizzie what caused the noise and the reply was that she had dropped a bucket. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Womack and little Annie Taylor were also witnesses in the hearing, for the state. The defense introduced no witnesses. The evidence was all purely circumstantial. Justice Barbee took an hour's recess to consider the case and then held that the evidence was not sufficient to bind the girl over.

The Weather Report.

For North Carolina: Fair, preceded by showers on the coast.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.

The Commencement Exercises in Progress.

The literary address was delivered yesterday morning by Dr. F. C. McConnell before the largest audience of the week. It was a perfect gem in every respect. Dr. McConnell is a very forceful and elegant speaker and held his audience spellbound during the entire time. His subject was "No other man has a hand on your goal."

Last evening Rev. Dr. E. M. Poteat, of New Haven, Conn., preached the sermon to the graduating class. He was professor of Latin at Wake Forest before he entered the ministry. He is a strong speaker and gifted with fine thought. After the sermon there was a meeting of the alumni association. This evening the band gives its annual serenade to the young ladies of the hill.

Of the six honorary scholarships given by Johns Hopkins university to North Carolina Wake Forest students get three; the lucky ones being W. B. Daniel, E. W. Sikes and J. R. Hunter. A Wake Forest man, O. J. Paterson, also takes an ordinary scholarship at Johns Hopkins. There is a large crowd than has been here for years. The graduating class is the second largest in the history of the college.

The following were the addresses by graduates: Salutatory, by William L. Foushee, of Person county; oration, "Shifting," by Marshall O. Carpenter, of Lincoln county; oration, "The South Carolina Dispensary Law," by Robert L. Freeman, of Marlboro county, S. C.; oration, "A Parliament of Religions," by Julian E. Yates, of Wake county; oration, "Wooing Sirens," by Rowland F. Beasley of Union county; oration, "A Patriot," by John D. Robertson, of Iredell county; valedictory, by Robert W. Haywood, of Jones county. These were presented by Charles N. Beebe, of Onondaga county, N. Y.; Chas. M. Billings, of Pittsylvania county, Va.; D. Roy Britton, of Bertie; Rufus H. Carter, of Wake; John E. M. Davenport, of Tyrrell; Nathaniel A. Dunn, of Wake; Walters Durham, of Wake; Thomas W. Elliott, of Chowan; Jay P. Felt, of Cameron county, Pa.; Solomon P. Holding, Wake; William H. Jones, of Pittsylvania county, Va.; Thomas B. Lambeth, of Chatham; John Minor, of Davie; John J. Payseur, of Gaston; Thomas S. Pence, of Wake; Sidney L. Settlemyer, of Cleveland; William H. Sledge, of Rockingham; John W. Smith, Jr., of Wake; J. Edgar Spainhour, of Wilkes; Frank G. Taylor, of Hertford, and Charles L. Taylor, Jr., Wake.

Woman's Missionary Society.

The annual sermon before the woman's missionary society of the North Carolina conference will be delivered by bishop O. P. Fitzgerald Sunday, June 24, at Edenton street church. Bishop Fitzgerald is a native of this state, but has resided in California since his election to the bishopric, four years ago. His reputation is too extensive to need comment. Special rates have been given by the railroads for this meeting, and all delegates expecting to attend are urgently requested to send their names, at once, to Miss Fanny Burkhead, Hillsboro street, in order that entertainment may be provided for them.

The Crowning Event of the Season.

The doll party to be held tomorrow evening in the Edenton street M. E. Sunday school will eclipse any thing of the kind ever before seen by the people of Raleigh. All classes of dolls will be represented—the finest French doll, the bisque doll, the rubber doll, the Japanese and Chinese doll, even the Ethiopian doll, will be present in all his glory, and last, but not least, will be the rag doll and the paper doll. The "Brownies" also are on the list and they will hold high carnival. The programme of music, recitations, etc., is very elaborate and is a treat in itself. Refreshments will be served at a moderate cost. A pleasant evening is assured those who attend. Admission 10 cents.

The Pearl cotton mills at Durham begin work next week.

Triple Link Xursion.

It is asserted that snow fell in Warren county on the 6th inst.

Work has begun at the encampment grounds at Morehead City.

Judge Armfield will be a candidate for the superior court judgeship.

The colored teachers' association will be held at Beaufort this year.

Norfolk is the most attractive place for an Xursion; $2.50 for the round trip.

The Orange Guards, formerly a very fine military company, will be reorganized at Hillsboro.

The cruiser Raleigh was today taken from the dry-dock at the Portsmouth navy yard and in a few days will have her starboard engines tested.

The "reserved seat car" on the triple Link Xursion is a feature and many persons are asking for seats. They are only 50 cents extra.

The alumnae of St. Mary's school met today. They have in hand the raising of $2,000 to found a school-ship, and have thus far secured $954.

Mr. V. C. Glenn died this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. He will be buried under the auspices of Mauteo lodge, I. O. O. F. Notice of the funeral will be given later.

The "Triple Link Xursion" expects to have a large crowd of ladies on its trains to Norfolk, July 5th. They will have every courtesy and will not be crowded.

The ladies auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. is arranging for a reception to be given to the members of the association and their lady friends. Notice will be given later.

An "orange file fish" is the latest curiosity received at the state museum and is the queerest of all the fish there. Mr. Brimley is preparing it for exhibition.

Superintendent Moses says that the Raleigh school reports show that the enrollment last year was as follows: Centennial school 807, Murphy 526, total 1333 white pupils; colored pupils 1399; grand total 2537.

Tuesday evening, at Mebane, Rev. Dr. Eugene Daniel, of Raleigh, delivered the annual address before the two schools of that place, the Mebane academy and high school of Orange presbytery. His subject, "Memory in its retentive and reproductive aspects," was treated as by a masterhand.

The Sunday school of the Third Baptist church picnicked today at Wilder's grove, on the Milburnie grove, five miles from the city. About 150 went out and greatly enjoyed the day. Mr. John Pullen, the superintendent, spared no efforts in order to make all enjoy themselves.

Death of Dr. Hinsdale.

At 12.45 o'clock this afternoon Dr. Samuel J. Hinsdale of Fayetteville, whose critical illness has been referred to, died at his home there. His son, Col. John W. Hinsdale, was by his side. Dr. Hinsdale was 80 years of age. A few years ago he was married, and leaves a wife and a child about a year old. He was a man of many accomplishments and one of the most expert chemists in the state.

AT ST. MARY'S.

The Commencement Exercises Held Today.

There was a fine audience at St. Mary's school today, the commencement exercises being the attraction. There were exercises in the chapel, at which the rector read the roll of honor, and Rev. James Battle Everette delivered an address to the six graduates. These were Misses Julia W. Daggett, Jessie Degen, Marie D. Lee, Laura B. Newson, Mary A. Page and Mary A. Wilmerding. The rector presented diplomas and distinctions and "Cantate Domino" was sung. The following was the programme in the assembly room: Piano duo by Misses M. Bynum and S. Kenan; salutatory, "The Evolution of the Dude," by Miss Jessie Degen; vocal solo by Miss Nellie Gregg; essay, "Trash," Miss Marie D. Lee; vocal solo, Miss Fair Payne; essay, "Two Western Poets," Miss Mary Page; vocal solo, Miss Mary Calder; essay, "Genius," Miss Laura Newson; vocal solo, Miss Kate Cohen; essay, "Representative Women in Fiction," Miss Julia W. Daggett; valedictory, Miss Mary Wilmerding; piano duo, Misses F. Payne and S. Johnson.

AN INJUNCTION ISSUED

Against Again Removing Senator Vance's Remains.

A special to the Charlotte Observer of today from Statesville says: Judge R. F. Armfield issued an injunction yesterday for ten days against the removal of senator Vance's remains from the place now occupied as recently re-interred by Chas. N. Vance. The injunction was issued at the request of Chas. N. Vance, H. A. Gudgeon and others, and the persons enjoined are Mrs. Vance and the cemetery committee. The whole affair will come up for final settlement before Judge Shuford at Asheville within the next ten days.

A Beautiful Wedding.

There was a beautiful wedding in the chapel of St. Mary's school yesterday morning. The contracting parties were Mr. Walter Grimes and Miss Alice Dugger. The chapel was decorated in dainty fashion by the loving hands of the fair pupils, in special compliment to the charming bride, who had been a favorite teacher. The entire school attended the wedding and there were also quite a number of relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Rev. Bennett Smedes, the rector, performed the marriage ceremony, and also gave away the charming bride. The latter is a daughter of the late Capt. John E. Dugger, who was the first superintendent of Raleigh's public schools. Her delicious voice has made her widely known among lovers of music. Mr. and Mrs. Grimes have gone to Baltimore and Washington.

The Mt. Airy correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger says: Rev. Jesse Cunningham, presiding elder of the Raleigh district, preached an able sermon at the Methodist church Sunday morning. "Uncle Jesse" and his wife are visiting relatives at this place.
