PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINIANS.

People Who Come, People Who go and People You Know.

Mr. Cary Brewer is quite sick at his home at Wake Forest.

Editor R-scower, of the Goldsboro Headlight, was here today.

Rev. Dr. Robert Barwell is much better. He has been very sick.

Miss Mary Turner, who has been on a visit to Chapel Hill, has returned.

Mr. Albert Johnson has returned from a two weeks visit to his old home in southeastern Virginia.

Mrs. S. T. Smith and child went to Hillsboro today, to remain some time.

Mrs. Frank B. Edmondson of Goldsboro is quite ill at her former home in Raleigh.

Miss Lana Wimberly's condition is much worse. News to this effect reached here today.

Mr. H. Mahler is building a seven room cottage on West Cabarrus street, a rear of his own residence.

Mrs. David A. Barnes and daughter, of Murfreesboro, are visiting Mrs.
J. A. C. Brown on Oakwood avenue.

Messrs. V. C. Royster, Prof. C. B.
Park, Prof. Pritchett and Prof. D. H. Hill came up from Morehead City this afternoon.

Dr. R. H. Timberlake, of Wake Forest, died at noon today, of apoplexy, aged 70. Funeral at Wake Forest at 5 o'clock p. m. tomorrow.

At the residence of Mr. Jesse Taylor, the father of the bride, Miss Senora Taylor was married to Mr. D.
D. Gill last Wednesday.

Mr. Council Tucker, living at Greensboro, has a family carriage, built in 1853, now in daily use, having the same wheels, tires and body.

Dr. W. A. Lash and family have removed from Greensboro to Walnut Cove, and in a few weeks will leave for California for an extended visit.

Mrs. Z. T. Broughton, formerly of Greensboro but now of Chapel Hill is at Greensboro having been called there by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas S. Hayes.

William and Henry McLeod, colored, are twins, and their home is in Middle Creek township. Both became insane on the same day. They are now in jail here.

The president of the Eastman business college, Ponghkeepsie, N. Y., writes Mr. D. T. Johnson a letter in which he says Clarence Johnson is making a fine record.

H. A. London, editor of the Chatham Record, was here today on his way to Asbury Park, N. J., as a delegate to the national editorial association from the N. C. press association.

President Samuel A. Spencer announces appointments of the following officers of the southern railroad (late the R. & D.): Sol. Haas, Assistant to the president; W. H. Green, general manager; John M. Culp, traffic manager; Harry C. Ansley acting treasurer, (vice John M. deceased.)

Mr. W. J. Young, superintendent of the blind institution, has returned from Morehead City. He attended the meeting of the county superintendents of public instruction and conferred with the latter regarding the reports as to the number of deaf-mutes and blind which they are by law required to make annually.

The Epworth Reading Circle

Held its regular semi-monthly meeting last evening at the hospitable home of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Bobbitt.
There was a good attendance of the class, and several visitors were present and all were charmed with the cordial hospitality of their hosts, who anticipated every want of their guests, and gave them a most delightful evening. After the regular lesson the company was invited into the dining room where an elegant repast was served by Mrs. Bobbitt and her assistants. It is needless to say that this feature of the evening was thoroughly enjoyable.

Tomorrow collector Simmons will transfer the revenue office from himself to himself, under the provisions of the law.

BREEZY WRIGHTSVILLE

Is a Summer Resort With Many Attractions.

Correspondence of the Visitor.

ATLANTIC VIEW, WRIGHTSVILLE,
June 28, 1894.

This is one of the most remarkable and attractive coast resorts I have ever seen. We associate with our coast the idea of a sandy waste and scanty shrubbery. Here we have at the very water's edge luxuriant grass and many such trees as are in the up-country, particularly the hickory.
The dense foliage of the live oak gives an added charm and greenness to the scene. Many Raleigh people have visited Wrightsville and all who have done so want to repeat the experience. There are two ways of reaching here from Wilmington; one by the Seacoast railway, the other by one of the finest shell roads in this country, a road which is a never-failing source of delight to bicyclists and owners of fast horses, for it is a thoroughfare without grades. It is twenty-four feet wide, made entirely of crushed oyster shells and reaches from the city limits to the gateway of Capt. E. W. Manning's delightful summer resort, Atlantic View, on the shore of Wrightsville sound.

The railway makes the trip in 25 minutes. It runs both closed and open cars, and its line extends three miles beyond Wrightsville, passing on a trestle a mile long across the shallow sound, by the Island Beach hotel, and then across a deep arm of the sound, known as the "banks channel," on another trestle. Then the road curves sharply to the southward and passes right down the coast on the "banks," between the sound and the ocean. For two miles the banks are fringed on the ocean front with summer villas. These are of all styles of architecture. Many have been built this season. The Carolina yacht club, the oldest of the kind in this country, has a most attractive and restful club house, where many courtesies are shown visitors. There are hotels, pavillions, and large bath house, in which surf bathers will find fresh water baths and other conveniences. The King's Daughters have on the beach the "Shelter of the Silver Cross," to which are sent each week numbers of sick children from Wilmington who are given free entertainment in this glorious salt air and life-giving breeze.

The surf bathing is fine, and there is still-water bathing on the sound side.
There are many private yacht owners and July 4 there will be a regatta. It is all quite like a little Coney island.

The shore of the sound here at Wrightsville is fringed for more than a mile with cosy summer houses. At one end of this long stretch is "Kenmore," where from 1888 to 1891 inclusive the State Guard had such delightful encampments. At the other end is the new camp ground, which the city of Wilmington gave the state, but which is not now in use. The latter ground is on a bold bluff, the highest on this coast. In 1889 the U.
S. built a battery of four ten-inch mortars and two ten-inch cannon, the grim muzzles of which frowned at Writtsville inlet. Four pavilions for use by troops were built. The great August storm of last year blew down and wrecked three of these. The place is now most lonely. On the ground lie the tent floors, decaying.

From the upper story of Capt. Manning's hotel a spectacle can be seen which no other stretch of coast affords.
Two inlets are in view, three miles apart. One of these is Moore's or Wrightsville inlet, the other Masou-boro inlet. Rolling in at both are the white waves, or the "white horses" as the children love to call them. Usually inlets, which are openings from the sea to the sound, are far apart.

At most seaside resorts there is some article of food which becomes noted because made a specialty. Here it is the "pig fish," and people come down from Wilmington to get a "pig fish dinner." It is indeed a most toothsome fish, and up-country cooks, no matter how expert, can never hope to set before guests fish of such flavor, since here the fish are taken out of the big galvanized iron "coops" in which they are kept alive and served in a very few minutes.

Atlantic View is in a few yards of the railway station at Wrightsville.
Its bright green lawn, with hickory trees for shade, the pavilion, the neatly painted main buildings and cottages, are all as pretty as a picture. Capt. Manning, the owner, is widely known and so is his place. I find it homelike and restful. It really makes one almost feel selfish to be here enjoying the cool breeze, when thoughts arise of the people up-country who are sweltering these long, hot days.

THE PARK HOTEL BOUGHT.

Mr. Mace Becomes its Owner.

The Visitor learns that Mr. Mace, who since January has been the manager of the Park hotel, has purchased it from Mr. A. F. Page, its builder and owner. Improvements are to be made and it is said the hotel is to become a winter resort. Mr. Mace is an excellent manager and popular.

BY JULY FOURTH

It is Now Said Street Cars Will Be Running.

Today a small force of laborers, under the direction of Mr. Will. Nixon, began the work of digging out the street railway tracks, removing the earth which has gathered on them since November 4. Men are at work at the power house and car barns. Of course there is a great deal of work to be done. There will have to be new machinery, new cars, &c.

BAPTIST FEMALE UNIVER- SITY.

Mr Bauer's Design for the Building Accepted.

The trustees of the Baptist female university have accepted the handsome design prepared by Mr. A. G. Bauer for the main building. The Visitor has seen the plan. It is a striking one. The building is to cost $35,000, and will be of brick with slate roofs.
The main building is 150 feet deep, with wings 75 feet deep, the entire frontage being 180 feet. There are tastefully designed towers and entrances, and the effect of the roof is fine and imposing, the style being composite. Later dormitories are to be built at each end of the wings, but somewhat to their rear. It is the purpose to begin work this autumn.
The building is to be at the northeast corner of North Blount and East Edenton streets.

A Success.

The lecture at the Y. M. C. A. last evening was a decided success. Mr.
P. C. Ennis is an earnest and forcible speaker, and those who heard him were highly entertained. The Raleigh quartette and mandolin club greatly disappointed the audience by not appearing. Mr. Ralph Fisher, however, rendered some very sweet selections on the organ. These lectures will be continued, and Rev. D.
H. Tuttle is next on the program.

A Well Known Virginian Mur- dered.

CLIFTON FORGE, Va., June 29.—Special—F. A. Goodman, conductor on the Chesapeake and Ohio railway, this morning shot and killed Col. H. C.
Parsons, the well known owner of the Natural Bridge property. The troublesome was caused by Parsons writing letters to the railroad people to have Goodman removed. Parsons is a prominent Virginia republican.

The Weather Report.

For North Carolina: Fair. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Saturday, fair and warm. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 93; Minimum temperature 69; rainfall 0.00

The conditions seem favorable for fair, warm weather on Saturday. With an area of high pressure in the southwest, central over Texas and Louisiana, and the center of low pressure over the northern lake region, very warm weather may be expected. Very little rain has occurred during the past 24 hours.

Y. M. C. A. Chess Club.

All local lovers of chess are requested to meet at the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 8:30 o'clock to organize a chess club.

In the market today the prices of vegetables were as follows: Squashes 15 cents dozen, Irish potatoes 5 cents quart, cabbages 5 to 10 cents each; snap beans 5 cents quart, beets 5 cents bunch; tomatoes, very large, 3 for 10 cents, small 10 cents quart. Apples are small and sell at 5 cents quart.
Eggs are higher, 15 cents dozen.

Cut worms have done the corn crop much damage.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAP- PENINGS.

Interesting Items Gathered in and Around the City.

Hottest day this season; 96 1-2.

Remember the lawn party this evening at Mrs. Ray's.

Only one day now remains in which state and county taxes can be listed.

It is now said positively that Mr.
Wilber F. Tillett will not be the president of Trinity college.

Only one day more remains in which to list city taxes. Lose no time in attending to this important matter.

The funeral of Mr. Samuel Eakins was held this afternoon. The burial was in the national cemetery. The cause of death was acute Bright's disease.

Yesterday in the U. S. senate senator Allison gave notice that he would offer an amendment to the regular bill which will double the tax on distilleries.

At Caraleigh mills J. W. Wilson, aged 61 years, died last night. He will be buried tomorrow in the Confederate cemetery. The cause of death was consumption.

On the 9th of July there will be a large colored excursion from Wilmington here and that afternoon there will be a game of baseball between the Metectors of Wilmington and the Athletics of Raleigh.

Capt. Charles L. Davis, tenth infantry, and first lieutenant William E. Shipp, tenth cavalry, will be at Morehead City, and attend the encampment of the North Carolina state guard from July 10th to 19th.

Third annual children's service at the Christian church next Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Those exercises are composed of recitations, solos, duets and choruses by the little folks, and are interesting to all. The public cordially invited.

Mr. E. C. Hackney announces in this week's issue of the weekly Durham Recorder that he again assume, the publication of that paper, and Mr. G.
E. Webb, retires. The accident to Mr.
Webb referred to a few days ago, is more serious than was at first thought.

Yesterday's Salisbury Herald contained the following: "A telegram received from Wake county this morning from the father of Mr. E. W. Bart states that Mr. and Mrs. Bart were thrown from a buggy yesterday while out riding. They were not seriously hurt."

Mr. Bauer, the well known architect, has prepared plans for two attractive cottages which are to be built, one for Mr. Joseph F. Ferrall and the other for Mr. Theo. W. Dobbin. Both will be on the block west of the capitol square and south of Hillsboro street.

Transfer clerk R. E. Lunsden says that the "Atlanta special" does not take mail from the drop letter box at the union station. Many people go to the depot late at night, and mail letters, thinking this train will take them north or south. Any letters addressed to persons in Raleigh lose time by being dropped in this box.

The Odd Fellows' "Triple Link Excursion" to Norfolk, Washington and Baltimore promises to be the best trip of the year for the price. Norfolk $2.50, Washington City $6.00 (or if in party $5.50), Baltimore $5.50.
Now these rates are low. You can see something, have a grand time, beside help the Odd Fellows carry forward their good work. July 5th is the day.
