The store of Mr. E. G. Horton on East Lane street was broken into by thieves last night and a quantity of lard and flour stolen. The thieves affected an entrance by prizing open a window.

The two insane twins alluded to yesterday, who went crazy on the same day and are now in jail here, seem to have the same ideas and movements; if one moves the other, even if the back is turned, makes the same movement.
They have not spoken since they have been confined in jail.

The prevailing fevers in this city and section are said to be typhoid,

The students of Prof. Smith's school

His class for young men opened Thursmond's bakery and confectionery

To the People of Raleigh.

Last week an appeal for help was made through the papers for the benefit of the many sick near our community. Only a few have so far contributed and the amount given is far short of the amount required to help those in distress. We are in a position to know the needs of those for whom aid is asked. If any people need help they surely do. Unless there is a more favorable response to this appeal we recommend that a committee be appointed at once to visit our citizens and request aid. Contributions can be handed in to Mr. Jno.
T. Pullen at the savings bank.

The Value of the Blackberry.

Some people near Durham had a silly idea that the blackberries were being made poisonous by eggs of the 17-year old locust. State entomologist Gerald McCarthy says of this matter:
"There is no more healthful food in the world than fresh, ripe blackberries. Only occasionally do we find worms in this fruit, and these worms are not poisonous. As wormy fruit is usually rejected from the mouth as soon as detected by the palate, no harm would come in any case. The blackberry belongs to the rose family, which includes the apple, pear, quince, plum, peach, cherry and haw as well as straw, rasp and blackberries. There are no poisonous fruits in this family.
The eggs and larval insects which infest these fruits may be disgusting but are not poisonous."

The commissioner of agriculture of Virginia has issued a bulletin in which he urges the people to save all the blackberries this year, when fruit is so scarce. The people of North Carolina should take the same advice.
Save the berries.

Lyman has been presented to this

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAP- PENINGS.

Interesting Items Gathered in and Around the City.

Monday.

Three persons were killed by lightning in Anson county this week.

Very few convicts arrive at the pentisement today which merits more than usual attention. It interests the public directly.

Deputy revenue collector Wiley Jones made a raid at Fairport last night and captured an illicit distillery and one moonshiner.

The Governor today appointed the following notary public: J. F. Harris, Winston; H. G. Chatham, Elkin, and Henry Stewart, Highlands.

The "Richmond and Danville" rail-night tonight. Tomorrow it will be the "Southern."

tian church tomorrow afternoon at Fellows Excursion to Norfolk is the event of the coming week. Ladies

This week's cotton receipts were 141 bales, against 192 last year for the same week. The season's receipts are 28,020, against 23,614. There are only 18 bales on the platform. The week's shipments were 211.

It is said that the other day a man lost a pearl button, from a "duster," on a train; that he set the "tracers" on work, who found the button, and that the latter was regularly returned to the loser. Verily this is the day of small things.

This is the ending of the six months for which licenses are issued and all liquor dealers are required to list their purchase tax. The county commissioners will meet Monday and this will be the time for the liquor dealers to renew their licenses.

A correspondent makes inquiry as to the times when mail is taken from the letter boxes, and also whether the hours are regular. The postoffice people give the following as the collection hours: 8.30 to 10.30 a. m.; 1.30 to 2.30 p. m.; 4.30 to 6.30 p. m.

Senator Jarvis says regarding the holding of primaries to ascertain the preferences for senators: "I am in earnest in my advocacy of letting the voters settle this question and upon reflection I am inclined to think the best time to hold the primary will be on the day of election. It can be made useful in bringing out a big vote and in polling it for the party."

The station-house has been newly refitted and now may be said to be an attractive place. It is clean, with cement floor and hard finished walls and a neat ceiling. There are four cells, with good sanitary arrangements.
The areaway, formerly very dirty, is now tidy. Among the needs are a good desk and some new chairs. Some articles now stored in the room will be removed, it is presumed, as they are in the way.

Al. Smith, an old negro who is alleged to be about 110 years old, lives on Mr. J. L. Jones' farm near Wake Forest. Although such an aged man he is still in good health and his eyesight is unimpaired. He has not been to Raleigh since, as he says, the walls of the capitol were only ten feet high.
For forty-five years he has never left the plantation. He was a slave of Mr.
Smith, grandfather of Mr. Jones, and when the slaves were liberated he refused to be emancipated and has lived on the farm ever since. It is Mr. Jones' intention to bury the old man in his family burial ground.

SHE IS DEAD.

Miss Wimberly Passed Away this Morning.

News reached here at 10 o'clock this morning of the death of Miss Iana Wimberly, daughter of Mr. Peter Wimberly, at her home four miles from Apex. When the physicians attempted to trepan her skull they found it useless, and soon saw that death was but a question of hours. A deputy sheriff this morning told her uncle, George Mills, who stands charged with the double crime of murder and assault, of her death. Mills said: "This makes things a heap tougher for me. I have been praying that she would get well so she might tell who attacked her." Only a few days ago Mills told a deputy he was thus praying, but when the deputy told him that the unfortunate girl had cried out in her delirium, "Uncle George, don't kill me!" Mills did not say another word.

THE CAR WHEEL FOUNDRY.

Machinery Arriving - Work Be- gins in September.

A VISITOR reporter called at the new car wheel foundry, just north of the N. C. car works, this morning and had a chat with Mr. R. C. Tolmie. The machinery for the foundry is coming in rapidly, six or seven car loads having already arrived. The machinery is very expensive and is thoroughly up to date. The foundry when completed will be one of the most complete in the world. The hoisting machinery and the large iron cupola will be completed in a few days. The floor space of the foundry is 82x172 feet.

The foundry, when it commences work in September, will give employment to about 40 men and will turn out about 40 complete wheels a day.
If, however, the business warrants it, as it is almost sure to do, the force of men will be greatly increased and the number of wheels turned out in a day may be increased to 200. At first the foundry will turn out nothing but car wheels, but it can, and probably will soon turn out any sort of foundry work. The foundry is a big thing for Raleigh, and its construction is only another proof of the steady improvement and prosperity of Raleigh and its industries.

Ten O'clock Saturday Evening.

Correspondence of THE VISITOR.

Permit me to ask all your readers in Raleigh to consider the importance of our business houses closing not later than 10 o'clock each Saturday evening.

Heretofore the retail stores have been keeping open till 12 o'clock and all are agreed that it is not all profitable and certainly very trying and hard on them.

If our people do their trading this evening earlier than usual, so that all will observe a practical change by 9 o'clock, we are quite sure the merchants will gladly close at 10 o'clock.

This matter is really in the hands of the buyers. If they will only do their part we shall have no trouble in bringing about the much desired change.

We hope the saloons will join in this movement also. Their clerks, as well as the proprietors, need the relief as much as anybody. It would be so much better to do it voluntarily than to have a city ordinance on the subject.

A leading druggist said to me the other day that he hoped the 10 o'clock closing for Saturday evening would become the established rule, because he was satisfied it did not pay to keep even the soda fountain running beyond that hour.

Who will start the movement this evening and close at 10 o'clock?
N. B. BURGETON.

Y. M. C. A.

The subject of Mr. Jas. I. Johnson's discourse Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. parlor, will be, "Elijah, a God's witness against sin, b. Christ our witness against sin."

Every man in the city should hear this. There will be a song service lasting twenty minutes, conducted by Prof. J. H. Smith. There will be a plenty of ice water and fans.

Raleigh has now nine drug stores and nineteen doctors.
