

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINIANS.

People Who Come, People Who go and People You Know.

Judge McIver continues to improve. Private secretary Telfair is on a visit to Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sears returned today from their wedding tour. Mr. F. G. Simmons left this afternoon for Newbern, to remain a week. Mr. B. F. Hanes, a prominent resident of Winston, is dangerously sick. Mr. D. T. Swindell and family left this afternoon for Wrightsville, to remain a month. Miss Nannie Penny of Auburn is visiting Miss Gertrude Johnson on Hillsboro street. Miss Bessie Gray, of Winston, is visiting at the residence of R. T. Gray Esq., North Blount street. Mr. William Correll, of Augusta, Ga., arrived this afternoon to attend the funeral of his mother. Cadet Philip Grausman, of the Citadel academy, Charleston, S. C., is visiting his sister, Mrs. M. Rosenthal. Mr. John Armstrong, who has been here on a business trip, left this afternoon for his home, Columbia, S. C. Mr. A. F. Bowen left today for Maxwells where he will play draughts with C. McNair for the championship of the state. Capt. B. P. Williamson, the new president of the gas company, will remove his office to the gas company's office. Mrs. T. R. Robertson, of Charlotte, last evening gave a reception at her residence in honor of Miss Janie Andrew, of Raleigh. Mr. William Andrews was present. Col. E. G. Hazzard left for Morehead City this afternoon on business connected with the encampment. The third and fourth regiments, which go into camp next Wednesday, will pass here at 2.10 at night. Rev. Dr. Pittinger, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, is now north to see some wealthy friends in the interest of the cathedral church of this Episcopal diocese, which the Visitor has spoken of. The Durham Globe's Washington correspondent says: Dr. Pittinger received a number of courtesies at the hands of general William R. Cox, the able secretary of the senate and son-in-law of the late bishop Lyman. The cathedral is to be the Lyman memorial.

OBSERVATIONS.

The tax lists were today returned to the county commissioners. For several days a few home-grown watermelons have been coming in. Today an entire wagon load arrived. The farmers give the most glowing accounts of the condition of crops. There was never finer or more seasonable rains. Sunday morning a young lady fainted and fell from the top to the bottom of the stone steps in front of Edenton street M. E. church, but strange to say was very slightly injured. George Mills was kept in the armory of the Governor's Guard Sunday night. Few persons were aware of this, so quietly and carefully was he transferred from the jail. Robert Horton, colored, employed at the carwheel shops, yesterday fell from the roof, to the ground, a distance of 25 feet. He was badly bruised about the head and body and perhaps injured internally. There is some internal hemorrhage. This evening Miss Mamie Johnson gives a tea at her home on Hillsboro street in compliment to Miss Frances Green, of Wilmington, her guest, and is assisted in receiving by Misses Eleanor Vass and Mary Shipp. Twenty-four young ladies are in the party. There is not an individual axe to be ground on the "Triple Link Excursion" to Norfolk Thursday, July 5. This is one reason why everybody should help the Odd Fellows out in their work. No dust on the train, fast time and comfort for all. Mr. M. M. Katz, of Wilmington, died Sunday. He was well known in this state and was a prominent member of several benevolent orders.

AT CARALEIGH

There is Yet Much Suffering and Sickness.

Interest in the condition of the operatives at the Caraleigh mills is now, happily, general. The county commissioners at their meeting today appointed chairman Stronach, the county attorney and superintendent of health a committee to confer with the mayor and board of aldermen in regard to the deplorable condition of affairs at Caraleigh and along Walnut creek and to abate the nuisances which are asserted to be the cause of the trouble. Rev. Dr. A. M. Simms today called on Gov. Carr in regard to the matter. The attention of the state board of health is now officially called to the matter. So is that of the directors of the insane asylum. Messrs. John T. Pullen and J. I. Johnson this afternoon visited the Caraleigh people. Many are sick at their homes in the mill cottages while others are sick at their homes in the southern part of the city. The complaints of the city authorities for allowing filth to be emptied near Bledsoe's grove and Holmen's mill continue. The aldermen Friday evening ought to apply themselves to the abatement of this nuisance. If the health reports are examined it will be seen that the most of the sickness and deaths are in the southern part of the city.

The Funeral of Mrs. H. A. Correll

Was held this afternoon at 5 o'clock from Central M. E. church, Revs. D. H. Tuttle and A. M. Simms officiating. The interment was in Oakwood cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John Y. MacRae, C. D. Hewitt, S. G. Rryan, Theo. W. Dobbin, W. N. Snelling and John Terrell.

A Grand Trip to Asheville.

On the 11th of July a grand excursion will leave Raleigh for Asheville. It will give the people of Raleigh an opportunity to see the beautiful scenery, also Asheville, the "mountain capital," the wonders of the "Vanderbilt palaces," &c. The price of round trip tickets is low, only $5, and there will be accommodations of the best character for all who go.

A Camping Party.

Messrs. H. B. Battle, T. K. Bruner, Herbert Brimley and Frank Gredall of the agricultural station, left yesterday afternoon for a week's fishing and camping expedition on Bogue sound near Morehead City. Mr. Elias Carr, Jr., joined the party on the way and Mr. John Robinson, commissioner of agriculture, will go down in a few days. The party carries with it a full camping outfit, including a cook, and expects to have a great time, regardless of what the weather or the fish may have to say.

An Appeal From the Churches.

The following appeal has been presented to the churches and signed by their pastors: To the merchants and milliners of Raleigh: Believing that the volume of business done by our merchants can be compressed within shorter hours without any loss to them, and that the health and the moral, social, and spiritual welfare of the young men and women comprising the clerk element would be promoted by shorter hours of labor, and moreover, that the abridgment of the hours of labor would bring us into harmony with the practice of the leading industries of the great cities and with the spirit of the times, therefore, Resolved, That we, the undersigned ministers of the gospel, living in Raleigh and heartily identified with all of its legitimate business interests, do hereby respectfully request the merchants, grocers, hardwaremen, the dressmakers and milliners, and all others doing business requiring the services of salesmen and saleswomen, to close their places of business against all buying and selling and work on Saturday nights not later than 10 o'clock. Resolved, second, That we heartily commend the present system of seven o'clock closing for all other days in the week during the summer. A. M. Simms, Baptist tabernacle; D. H. Tuttle, Central Methodist; J. W. Carter, First Baptist; O. L. Stringfield, Fayetteville street Baptist; Eugene Daniel, First Presbyterian; Jas. L. Foster, Christian church; Jno. N. Cole, Edenton street Methodist; M. M. Marshall, Christ (Episcopal) church.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS

Interesting Items Gathered in and Around the City.

No Visitor tomorrow! The trustees of Trinity college met at Durham today to elect a president. A street car this afternoon made a trial trip from the power-house to the capitol. Attorney general Frank I. Osborne is an avowed candidate for the United States senate. Great excursion to Norfolk on 25th of July from Durham via Raleigh, Selma and Rocky Mount. Fare from Raleigh $2.50. At the Baptist tabernacle this evening there will be a meeting of the young people's association at which officers will be elected. Marcellus Hinton, a young colored man of Raleigh, was arrested today and committed to jail by justice Barbee today for assault. He is thought to be crazy. Secretary Harrell says that "the total attendance at the late session of the teachers' assembly was over 1,700 and that over half of those present were bona fide teachers." The refreshment car with the "Triple Link" excursion will be supplied with good things to eat and will also have plenty room for baggage, which will be well cared for. Deputy sheriffs Walters and Watson, returned from Goldsboro last night at 12 o'clock after escorting Mills and the crazy twins. They report an uneventful trip. Do you want to go to Norfolk, Washington or Baltimore on the 25th July? Big excursion then from Durham via Raleigh, Selma and Rocky Mount. Fare $2.50. Messrs. Maroon and Lambeth, tax-listers, at the court house, have decided to keep their office open this week for the convenience of the dilatory people who have failed to list. It sounds odd as yet to hear station-master Bunch shout "Southern railway train coming in!" "What road is that?" asked a prominent citizen yesterday, and he added "I want the R. & D."

Mr. E. C. Owen, a prominent member of the Jr. O. U. A. M., of this city, has been invited to address a large number of the members of that order in the western section of Virginia July 27. He will accept the invitation and be present on the occasion. At the Central hotel last evening many persons assembled to hear some fine music. Ferguson Bros. and Ira R. Cavin, of Richmond, Va., William Smith, Willard Betts, W. F. Nowell and little Horace Dowell, of this city, were the musicians. The music was highly appreciated. The state colored teachers association has adopted resolutions enjoining the late senator Vance and asking all the pupils in the colored private and public schools to contribute on the first Friday in December next a free offering to the Vance monument fund. The Durham Globe's Washington correspondent says: "I am very sorry to say that Mrs. Jarvis continues to be quite sick. She has something like heart disease but Dr. Johnson thinks he can restore her to health in a short time if she is kept quiet and is prudent."

At 10:45 last evening a fire alarm was sent in from box 37, the fire being at the foundry of Allen & Cram. The men had cast a large wheel late in the afternoon and had neglected to throw water on a lot of slag. The heated metal set fire to the woodwork. The damage to the building was trifling. The roof is old and leaky. The firemen were prompt. Mr. W. G. Briggs has brought in a very curious specimen of the tobacco worm to the entomological department of the agricultural station. It is an ordinary tobacco worm except for the fact that parasites have entered its body and developing, emerged, forming cocoons all over it. The cocoons will after awhile burst and flies be hatched.

THE MORTUARY REPORT.

The Health Officer Makes a Statement.

The Visitor published yesterday the number of deaths in Raleigh in June. This was 35. There were 5 in the first ward, 11 in the second, 2 in the third, 10 in the fourth and 7 in the fifth. Burial permits were issued for seven persons who died in Wake county or elsewhere. Five white and nine children who died were under 5 years of age. Contagious and infectious diseases were reported as follows: Whooping cough 8 cases, typhoid fever 6. Thirty-four of the deaths were attended by a physician. Health officer Sale made 2,230 visits of inspection during the month. He found 1,416 premises in good condition, 415 not good, reinspected 382 and reported 17. Mr. Sale makes the statement that during the present year there have been only two deaths inside the city limits from typhoid fever. He also declares that the death rate last year to this date was greater than that this year.

The Weather Report.

For North Carolina: Local showers today and tonight, followed by generally fair tomorrow; slightly warmer Wednesday in western portion. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Occasional showers. Local data for 24 hours ending 8. m. today: Maximum temperature 80; minimum temperature 70; rainfall 1.76. Synopsis of the weather: The slight storm yesterday near the mouth of the Mississippi seems to have disappeared. The pressure has risen on the south Atlantic coast. An area of cloudy, rainy weather prevails over the Atlantic coast. Over the Ohio valley and southwest to Texas it is generally fair.

A Very Sad Death.

Philip Hoy Taylor, the 15-year-old son of Mr. Phil. Taylor, died at about 2 o'clock this morning under peculiarly distressing circumstances. It seems that yesterday morning the lad cut his hand with a piece of glass. The wound bled very freely and at sight of the blood he fainted and fell to the floor, striking his head. Nothing much was thought of it, however, as he quickly recovered and continued playing with the other boys. Soon after supper he complained of severe pain in his head and went to bed and soon fell asleep. About midnight his mother found him unconscious and with his limbs perfectly rigid. Two physicians were summoned but in spite of all their efforts the lad died in about two hours. The cause of death is supposed to have been concussion of the brain caused by the fall. There is great sorrow here at the death of this promising and popular boy. This afternoon the remains were taken to Pittsboro, for burial, and the family was accompanied to Pittsboro by J. B. Womack, Esq., Miss Lillian Thompson and Murray Allen. Many friends met the party at Moncure.

A Call by the King's Daughters' Mission.

To merchants and other friends: Will you kindly help us in supplying sheets, pillow cases, towels and garments to change the beds and persons of those sick and helpless in our city? Please give us the cloth by the bolt or in yards. All we ask is your aid, as much as you feel able, not only with sympathy but a portion of your "world's goods" which the "Heavenly Father" hath given you. So those that can only give money please hand it to Mr. John T. Pullen, so he may be able to pay the nurses that are now taking care of the sick ones, night and day. Help us now—do not wait "till tomorrow"—it may never come to you. Do what you can "in His name." The livery stables and friends who have their own teams we ask to let the mission have a carriage a short while each day till the sickness subsides? We cannot progress in our work without help in this direction. While the calls are increasing, our strength is decreasing, and yet as far as we are able we go. Many thanks to those who have aided in taking us to these homes of suffering, but still the demands upon our efforts are not few.

MRS. F. HAYES.

What a pleasure it is to travel after such delightful showers as we have had.
