HINTS TO BUSINESS MEN!

Good advertising consists in the selection of a few strong, quick sell specialties, to stand as the representatives of your stock in price, pattern and quality. No tradesman need lack for a specialty. Let specialties sell staples always and try to take rank among your competitors as one who is the quickest to recognize a good thing and the first to sell it.

Invite patrons to come and see you.
The great advertisers of the country never cease reminding the people of their names, location and nature of business. Advertising is an investment and newspaper advertising columns are a boon to man. They help him out of his troubles and into the smiles of prosperity. The Pennsylvania railroad advertises exclusively in the newspapers. There is no great business that has been built in the past twenty years without the aid of newspapers.

This is too bustling and competition is too great for the merchant to allow himself any longer the luxury of waiting patiently behind his counter for trade. He must show in advance of the purchase just what he has to sell and how he intends to sell it, and a persistent publication of his wares is the means by which such showing can be made.

Frank Siddall, the Philadelphia soap man, says: "I have confined my advertising entirely to newspapers.
The man who does not read a newspaper does not use soap."

The sugar bounties paid by the public treasury last year amounted to $12,000,000.

The pending tariff bill surpasses all previous ones in the number of amendments that have been made to it since it was introduced.

The prohibition party appears to be growing in Texas. It has held a state convention and nominated a full ticket without assistance from any other party.

Yesterday 250 deputy marshals and seventy-five deputy sheriffs sent to Blue Island, Illinois, to raise the embargo on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad traffic were overpowered and whipped by a mob of over 2,000 strikers and sympathizers. The second regiment of Chicago has been ordered to the scene.

Sunday was the hottest day New Orleans has ever seen. The mercury registered 104 in the shade. Five persons are dead and a number prostrated. A base-ball game had to be stopped on account of the excessive heat and players had to be taken to the hospital in ambulances. A number of animals have been killed. The suffering has been intense for several days and deaths are more frequent than ever before.

Massachusetts has a new law passed, establishing a standard ink for use in every state and county office. This was caused by the discovery that inks have been used for many years on books of record which fade, often rendering their contents illegible in a few months. It would be well if all the states and the federal government had such a law, requiring all accepted writing fluids to stand conclusive chemical tests, and thus insure the permanency of public records.

Rev. E. E. Willey, a congregational minister, was to have lectured last Sunday at Sedalia, Mo., at a Chautauqua.
He was informed that the programme, as originally prepared, had been rearranged, however, and there was no time allotted him. Mr. Willey umpired a ball game at Hermann, Mo., a couple of Sundays ago, and this was the direct cause of his being shut out from the day's programme. He does not deny the charge that has been brought against him, and also admits that he preached that same evening, but says in explanation that his presence on the ball grounds was an accident.

Macartney and Chapman, the recaltrant brokers who refused to tell the senate committee whether any Senator had speculated in sugar through their means, represented by judge Shallabarger as counsel, appeared in the criminal court yesterday and pleaded not guilty to the indictments found against them. Chapman gave $1,000 bail for his his appearance. Macartney was already under bail. The arguments are to be heard in the case some time in August.

There has not been a war within the last quarter of a century, except the Franco-Prussian conflict, half so destructive to property as the warfare now in progress against the western railroads. Whether this irrational conflict shall also be attended by human slaughter remains to be seen. The best guaranty against anarchy and bloodshed, and therefore the most merciful course to be pursued toward the boycotters themselves is in energetic and prompt suppression of the strike.

Resolutions of Respect.

At the last meeting of Epworth league, No. 24, the following resolutions were adopted:

God the Father having chosen from among us our dear brother, William E. Pell, to represent this league in the greater league of purified brotherhood and fellowship; and

Whereas, We deeply appreciate the singular hearty and purity of the Christ-like character of him who has fallen asleep; and feeling that the remembrance of his life can but be an inspiration to each of us to grow into a closer likeness to the Perfect Pattern; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That Epworth league, No. 24, laments sorely the loss of this young life, he having been an active worker in the league since its organization until the last illness.

Resolved, 2. That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing mother, praying that God the comforter may strengthen and uplift her in this great grief.

Resolved, 3. That a copy of these resolutions be sent the mother of the deceased and also to the city papers for publication.

Love's Strategy.

A story is told in central Maine of a young woman who distanced pater-familias, so to speak, in a matter of parental authority. "Now, Mary Jane," said the stern parent, "I will consent to your going to the dance at the Corner this evening only on one condition." "What is that?" asked Mary Jane, meekly, her eyelids drooping pathetically. "It is," said the father, "that you won't let that young scapgrace, — bring you home." "I'll promise," said the maid, and she went to the dance. Scene next morning: "I thought you promised me not to let that fellow bring you home," said the angry parent, with fire flashing from his eyes.
"He didn't bring me home," said Mary Jane, archly. "But he came home with you, for I saw him." "Yes, but he didn't bring me. I told him what I had promised, and we walked home and he led the horse."—Lewiston Journal.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis. was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism; his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength.
Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.
Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill. had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Ottawa, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by John Y.
MacRae.

THE EVENING VISITOR

25 CENTS A MONTH.

OFFICE OF S. CHERRY, 21 Drayton St., Savannah, Ga., Dec. 16 1891.

Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga:

Dear Sirs—I would like to add my testimony to the almost miraculous effect of P. P. P. in the case of Mary Ingraham, a woman living on my place; she had a constant cough, sore throat, disability, etc., and was emaciated to a degree that she was unable to get out of bed, being given up by physicians; she had taken the rainbow-so-called blood medicines without the least effect, until being put under the P. P. P., she immediately began to improve and is now in as good health as ever in her life. You can refer to me at any time as to the effects of P. P. P. in the foregoing case.
Yours truly,
SAMUEL CHERRY.

A MARSHAL SAVED LIFE AND HAIR.

MONTICELLO, Fla., Jan. 21, 1890.

For the last eight years I have been in bad health, suffering with malaria, rheumatism, dyspepsia, dropsy. My digestion was bad, and my hair all came out, in fact I was nearly a wreck.
I had taken kidney and blood medicines, which did me no good. When I began taking A. P. P., about three months ago, I was as weak as a child.
I have only taken four bottles (small size), and today I am a well man and my hair has "come again." I cannot recommend P. P. P. too highly.
