Pretty is as Pretty Does.

BY ALICE CARY.

The syllar wears a plain brown dress, And she is a steady spinner; To see her, quiet as a mouse, Going about her silver house, You would never, never, never guess The way she gets her dinner.

She looks as if no thought of ill In all her life had stirred her; But while she moves with careful tread.

And while she spins her silken thread. She is planning, planning, planning still The way to do some murder.

The girl who reads this simple lay, With eyes down-drooped and tender, Remember, the old proverb says That pretty is as pretty does; And that worth does not go or stay For poverty or splendor.

'Tis not the house and not the dress That makes the saint or sinner. To see the spider sit and spin, Strut with her webs of silver in, You would never, never, never guess The way she gets her dinner,

News Notes.

The Russian Czar recently found upon his table a document which set torth that sentence of death had been pronounced upon him and that the twenty-four hours. This document was signed. "The society for the liberation of the Russians." A few days afterward the Czar found upon the dressing table in his bedroom a skull, with the word "Alexander" inscribed upon the frontal bone.

At Norfolk, Va., trouble appears to he brewing between the prohibitionists and their colored allies over the spoils. The six colored men voted for as councilmen in the fourth ward decided to protest to the new council last evening against being ignored in the distribution of places about to be made.

A race between a kangaroo and an ostrich is to be run in Sydney, N. S. W., this month. It will be a handicap. The course is one mile, and the kangaroo will have 200 yards start. The ostrich is now being fed on a light diet of broken oyster shells and glass to get her in condition.

The funeral of president Carnot was one of the most imposing pageants even Paris has ever seen. The procession was long and imposing, and the trappings were gorgeous. After the orations the body was carried into the porch of the church and there deposited while the garrison of Paris and other military filed by. Then the body was laid in the crypt between the bodies of Rossen and Victor Hugo

A Bushel of Corn.

From a bushel of corn a dealer gets three gallons of whisky, which retails for $16. Of this the government gets $3.60, the retailer gets $7, the distiller gets $4, the railroad gets $1, the farmer who raised the corn gets 40c., the consumer gets ten days or more in "the cooler," and the policeman and judge get good salaries for sending him there. - Boston Transcript.

About five years, ago the marriage of Miss Clemmie Tise and R. B. Brewer was celebrated in Winston. The family relations not being pleasant a separation followed, and last year the divorce. It appears that dissatisfaction still existed as a new courtship was renewed which resulted in the couple reuniting their love and affections last week. The two took the marriage vows with as much earnestness as they did the first time. Mr. and Mrs. Brewer have a son five years old, the Sentinel says.
