Last night as Mr. J. R. Barkley was walking on the sidewalk on West Martin street, he saw in front of Thain's jewelry store a very large snake. He had nothing with which to kill the snake. A young man came up and they procured a weapon. The snake was by this time crawling under the steps. These were torn away but the snake had gone under the house. Mr.
Barkley says he thinks it was a highland moccasin.

JUDGE WHITAKER RESIGNS

And Recommends W. R. Allen for Judge.

Today judge Whitaker addressed to the governor the following letter:

"I beg leave to tender to you my resignation of the office of judge of the superior court, to take effect on the 20th of August, 1894. I have the honor to be, your obedient servant, SPIER WHITAKER."

He also wrote another letter to the governor, as follows:

"It affords me pleasure to recommend to you the appointment of W. R.
Allen, Esq., of Wayne county, as judge of the superior court for the fourth judicial district, to fill the vacancy made by my resignation. With great respect, your obedient servant, SPIER WHITAKER."

The governor at once, in accordance with judge Whitaker's request, appointed Mr. Allen judge, his commission taking effect August 20. Judge Whitaker wrote judge Allen the following courteous letter: "At my request his excellency the governor has appointed you judge of the superior court for the fourth judicial district, to fill the vacancy caused by my resignation, your appointment to take effect on the 20th of August next. I have the pleasure of enclosing to you your commission, I have no doubt you will be nominated by acclamation to succeed yourself. Please accept my congratulations and believe me, with great respect, your obedient servant, SPIER WHITAKER."

Judge Whitaker's action in thus resigning in favor of Mr. Allen wins him many kind words. He was appointed to the superior court bench in December, 1889, by Gov. Fowle and the following year was nominated by a heavy majority, after a warm contest in the convention. He will after his retirement, August 20, resume the practice of law here.

A GOOD OPPORTUNITY.

A Civil Service Examination for the Indian Service.

Mr. Josephus Daniels writes the Charlotte Observer, from Washington, as follows: The United States civil service commission will hold an examination in Raleigh on July 20 and 21 for the purpose of examining applicants for appointment in the Indian service.
Following is a list of the positions in the Indian service with the salaries attached to each: (1) primary teachers, $500 to $600 per annum; (2) advanced primary teachers, $680 to $720 per per annum; (3) principal teacher, $720 to $900 per annum; (4) superintendent, $1,200 to $2,000 per annum; (5) matrons, $500 to $720 per annum, few paying less than $500.

The chances for appointment are very good under the examination for teachers, for both men and women.
Those who take the examination for superintendent or assistant superintendent may, upon request, be treated as also on the teacher registers.

All persons desiring to be examined should make application at the earliest practicable date in order that arrangements may be made for their examination. Blank applications and full information concerning these examinations will be furnished upon application to the civil service commission, Washington, D. C.

These positions are in many respects more desirable than clerkships in Washington, and I advise those desiring positions in the public service of this character to be present at Raleigh and take this examination. Teachers will find the examination in line with the examinations held by the best county superintendents.

A Concert for Caraleigh.

A concert for the benefit of the unfortunate people at Caraleigh mills, and others in this city who need immediate aid, will be given at Metropolitan hall next Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The program will be published later. The price of general admission will be 25 cents. Reserved seats 35 cents. Box sheet will be at W. H. King & Co's drug store.
Secure seats early.

Ho for the Mountains!

A train will leave here at 5:45 a. m. tomorrow, going through to Asheville, and the round trip ticket costs only $5 from Raleigh and $3.50 from Durham.

is at Washington City, it is understood on business connected with the appropriation of money for the payment of the Cherokee settlers' claim, which the Charlotte Observer says passed the house in the deficiency bill and is now in the senate.

The Weather Report.

For North Carolina: Fair, preceded by local rains in southeast portion; warmer in west portion Wednesday evening. Local forecast: On Wednesday, cold, disagreeable weather with northeast winds and considerable rain. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 81; minimum temperature 66; rainfall 0.

The storm yesterday near the mouth of the Mississippi river has moved east to Florida, causing heavy rains with northeast winds in the gulf and south Atlantic states. The heaviest rains reported are Charleston, S. C. 1.26 inches; Savannah, 3.78; Jupiter, Fla., 1.10 inches; Augusta, Ga., 1.06; Tampa, Fla., 1.60; Mobile, Ala., 1.54. The storm will probably cause heavy rains near the coast of N. C. with northeast winds. A second storm center exists in the northwest, which is causing warmer weather in the upper Mississippi valley. The pressure is above the normal in the central valley, where the weather is fair.

dozen at Dugh's.

THE SOLDIERS' HOME.

What is Going on Among the Veterans There.

A reporter this morning visited the soldiers' home on the eastern extension of Newbern avenue. The superintendent was not in but one of the "vets," Mr. Pool, who is the next oldest at the home, his age being 83, kindly showed him over the buildings.
Besides the main building, which has eleven rooms, there are five others, besides the barns, &c., including a kitchen and hospital. There are at present 51 living at the home. The location and the water are excellent and the health of the veterans remarkably good. There are fifteen of them sick, but none seriously, nor do any of the cases of sickness come from local causes as they arise for the most part from feebleness from injuries received during the war or from age.

There is generally a good breeze blowing and the veterans sit around on the broad verandas which surround the houses, or in the seats in the yard, and talk about the war times or play with the pets which are owned by many of them. The attractions in this line at present are two young foxes belonging to Mr. H. H. Capps, of Johnston county. They are as gentle and playful as kittens and are great pets. Mr. Capps took them down town July 4.

There is a good library in the main building, filled with all sorts of books and periodicals. The "vets" seem to be enjoying life and are perfectly contented. They all speak in the highest terms of the superintendent, Capt.
Faller, and of the large-hearted benefactor of the home, Mr. W. C. Stronach.

Interesting News Notes From
Here and There.

The Carteret county populists convention did not secure a quorum July 4, on account of rain.

Prof. W. K. Brooks, who has been conducting Johns Hopkins summer school of biology at Beaufort has returned home. The Beaufort Herald says the students will remain several weeks longer.

Mr. Joshua Hudson, of Stanly county, the Salisbury Herald says is 99 years old, has been married three times, has 23 children and 40 grand children and great-grand children.
Notwithstanding his great age he is hale and hearty.

It is now decided that there is to be a new way of holding democratic primary elections in New Hanover county. Each voter can go to the polls any time from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m., July 18, and deposit his ballot. This takes the place of the old fashioned night primaries.

The new life saving station at Portsmouth is completed and has been turned over to the inspector of new stations for him in turn to present to the authorities at Washington for final acceptance. It is considered the best station in the service. It is a duplicate of the one exhibited at the world's fair.

The following have been appointed by Gov. Carr as directors of the North Carolina railroad for one year: W. F.
Kornegay, of Wayne; J. J. Young, of Johnston; F. S. Spruill, of Franklin; C. W. Johnston, of Orange; Rev. Dr.
F. L. Reid, of Guilford; Lee S. Overman, of Rowan; John P. Allison, of Cabarrus; William C. Maxwell, of Mecklenburg; Dr. V. E. Turner, of Raleigh, state proxy.

A report was flying around Charlotte yesterday that the Southern railway would locate its shops in Greensboro instead at Charlotte. The report had it that Col. Julian S.
Carr, of Durham, had been to New York and sold the plant of the steel company at Greensboro to the Southern railway, for the purpose of putting the shops there. The rumor, the News says, is not believed by many people.
