Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep.

EUGENE FIELD.

The fire upon the hearth is low, And there is stillness everywhere; Like troubled spirits here and there The firelight shadows fluttering go. And as the shadows round me creep,

A childish treble breaks the gloom, And softly from a further room Comes: "Now I lay me down to sleep."

And, somehow with that little prayer, And that sweet troble in my ears, My thought goes back to distant years. And lingers with a dear one there; And, as I hear the child's ameu, My mother's faith comes back to me, Crouched at her side I seem to be, And mother holds my hands again.

Oh, for an hour in that dear place! Oh, for the peace of that dear time! Oh, for that childish trust sublime! Oh, for a glimpse of mother's face! Yet as the shadows round me creep,

I do not seem to be alone-Sweet magic of that treble tone-And "now I day me down to sleep,"

SHOOTING OF CORPORAL GLEAVES.

Mayor Moore's Remarkable Statement Concerning the Affair.

SOUTH EXID, OKLA., July 26 .- Mayor Moore has created a sensation by issuing a public statement over his own signature and, as he states, after a thorough investigation, regarding the shooting at Enid of Corp. Gleaves, U. S. A., that the soldier was shot during a quarrel with a comrade and that to protect themselves the soldiers told their officers they were attacked by citizens of Enid. Capt. Mackay, who is in command of the troops, as charged by mayor Moore, took a squad of men to Chorles L. Shearer's house, pulled him out of bed, accused him of complicity in the shooting and, after placing a rope about his neck, threatened to har nim if he did not tell them who d the shot. Next the soldiers v t to A. R. Elliott's home, awoke I in and with their guns aimed at him demanded to know who had burned the bridges, threatening to shoot and hang him if he did not give them the desired information. Elliott's wife, finding the soldiers, as she thought, about to murder her husband, rushed through the streets in her night clothes, calling on the citizens to come to the rescue, and her screams alarmed the soldiers so much that they left Elliott's house and, taking Shearer with them, went to North Enid, whence they sent their prisoner to jail at Guthrie.

The secretary of war has been informed by wire of these occurrences, and mayor Moore has forwarded to him charges in accordance with this statement against Capt. Mackay.

MESSIES, LIPPEAN BROS., SAVANDAH,
GA.: Gentlemen—I have tried your P.
P. for a disease of the skin, usually known as skin cancer, of thirty years'
standing, and found great relief; it purifies the blood and removes all irritation from the seat of the disease and prevents any spreading of the sores. I have taken five or six bottles and feel confident that another course will effect a cure. It has also relieved me from indigestion and stomach troubles. Yours truly,
