A letter from Dr. W. R. Capehart, of Avoca, to the commissioner of agriculture, says the heavy and most incessant rains in that section have done damage to the cotton. Farmers from Anson county say they fear the cotton will be "scalded" by the hot sunshine which has followed the cool rain. Dr. Capehart also says he is now feeding to stock ensilage which is four years old, and finds it perfectly good. He will exhibit some at the state fair.

Newspaper Changes.

Yesterday's Charlotte News contained the following: Mr. W. E. Christian, son-in-law of Mrs. "Stonewall" Jackson, who is to be on the staff of the Ralaigh News and Observer, as associate editor, was formerly in Charlotte as associate editor of the Democrat, but for several years past has been connected with the New York Press, on which paper he has done some fine work, notably last spring, when he got hold of the line of defense by Breckinridge's counsel, and a few months previous when he went to Panama and wrote up the ca nal scheme. Mr. Christian is a versatile writer, a man of good judgment and a thorough democrat, and the new owners of the News and Observer made a good stroke of business when they secured his services. He is here on a visit to Mrs. Jackson and to be with his children for a day or two. He will begin service on the Raleigh paper next Saturday. He is very popular in this section of the state, and our people are glad to have him nearer home."

THE AUGUST RACES.

A Free For All Trot Arranged For.

The race schedule for the 2:30 class in the August races was not filled. The managers have decided to make a new departure, and have decided to arrange a free-for-all race, open to all horses owned in this state May 1 last. The purse is $100. The distance is one mile and 200 yards. Four horses are to enter and three to start. The money will be divided as follows: Winner 50 per cent, second horse 25, third 15, fourth 10. It is very unusual to charge no entrance fee. All the men who think they have speedy horses now have a chance to prove that matter. The distance is one which will not affect a horse's record in future races, as it is more than a mile.

Street Car News Notes. The ears are running well now and the schedule is close. The conductors are Burke Bunch, B. Glover and Frank Royster. The motormen are M. W. Rigsbee, H. W. Warren, A. C. The trip out to Pullen park is a delight. The rapid motion of the cars makes a most refreshing breeze. There are many visitors to this park in the evenings. As yet the lights are not put up in Brookside park, so it has few visitors. The extension of the line to the union depot is soon to be made. That will prove a great convenience.

The Weather Report.

For North Carolina: Fair Saturday, preceded by showers on the coast today or tonight. Local forecast: Saturday, fair, continued warm. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 96; Minimum temperature 75; rainfall 00.0.

Fair weather, with high temperature, prevails this morning. Light rains have occurred at a few places since yesterday morning. The pressure is low over eastern North Carolina and Virginia, but is high both in the southern and in northern parts of the country. The temperature is very high in the west. Probably the warmest weather of the summer will be felt here during the next day or Political Points.

The Charlotte Observer says of the platform adopted by the democratic state convention: "Very few comments were heard yesterday on the platform. Some expressed the opinion that the democrats had stolen the populists' 'thunder,' and had left them nothing to make a fuss with or about. Not one dissenter has been heard to the plank endoring Cleveland and his administration. 'Take it all in all,' said one of the local politicians yesterday, 'it is a broad glatform, taking in a full sweep, and allowing room for populists and democrats both to stand on." "

The Observer's Washington correspondent says: "It was expected that the platform would be drawn in the modified light of the last few weeks. The action on primaries was anticipated, but the majority was larger than expected. The general opinion is that this fact strengthens senator Ransom, who is also regarded as stronger by reason of the drift of events. Attacked because of his frierdship for the administration, he will be benefitted, it is thought, by the returning popularing of that great leader, president Cleveland."

The market prices for the week are as follows: Chickens, 10 to 25 cents; eggs, 12 1-2 to 15 cents; cabbages, 5 and 10 cents; corn, 10 cents per dozen; tomatoes, 15 cents per dozen; potatoes (irish), 25 cents per peck; potatoes (sweet), 25 cents per peck; onions, 25 cents per peck; snaps, 25 cents per peck; okra, 5 cents per basket; peas, 5 cents per quart; butter beans, 10 cents per quart; cantaloupes, 5 cents; watermelons 5 to 25 cents a piece, according to size.

AN ESCAPADE.

The Goldshoro Headlight, by re quest of the male member of the contracting parties, two weeks ago pullished an announcement of the marriage of Mr. Samuel Smith, of Virginia, to Miss Ella Truitt, of Ala mance county, this state, alleged to have taken place at Black Creek, Wilson county, July 24th, to overcome the obstacles of obdurate parents. That paper in its issue yesterday said:

"Since then it has come to light that Smith, whose real name is William E. Hay, is a merchant and married man, of Burlington, who deserted his wife (who was a Miss Holt) and two children that morning, and by appointment met Miss Truitt, who was summering at Cicero mineral springs, and came here. The register of the hotel Kennon bears the entry of 'S. S. Smith and lady,' both occupying room 12 that evening, before and after supper. Hay endeavored to procure a marriage liceuse here but being unable to establish the legal marriageable age of the young lady he failed Weil residence, corner Fayetteville to obtain the document. Both left on the train that night for Wilson and through the proprietor of Ward's howhich is correct, but the age of Mis-Mrs. E. N. Pool and daughter Clyde | Truitt is put down at 18, when really er. We have thoroughly investigated this matter but are unable to obtain any record of their marriage, either at Black Creek or elsewhere. Hay told us, in the presence of Miss Truitt. that 'Squire Turner, of Black creek, tied the knot; but there is no such magistrate at that place. As they left Wilson early on Wednesday morning, coming here on their way to Morehead City, there was no chance for them to get married unless aboard the cars. Their honeymoon (?), though brief, was spent at the Sea Breeze house at Morehead, both leaving there a week after. During their sojourn O-O several telegrams arrived for Hay, inis near here, has eight acres in canta- forming him of his wife's critical illloupes.
