HINTS TO BUSINESS MEN!

Good advertising consists in the selection of a few strong, quick sell specialties, to stand as the representatives of your stock in price, pattern and quality. No tradesman need lack for condition of cotton 91.8, an increase of a specialty. Let specialties sell staples 22 points over the July condition and always and try to take rank among your competitors as one who is the 3.5 over that of June; the condition of quickest to recognize a good thing and June and July being respectively 88 3. the first to sell it.

Invite patrons to come and see you. The great advertisers of the country never cease reminding the people of their names, location and nature of this year. The North Carolina aver business. Advertising is an investment and newspaper advertising columns are a boon to man. They help him out of his troubles and into the smiles of prosperity. The Pennsylvania railroad advertises exclusively in the newspapers. There is not a great business that has been built in the past twenty years without the aid of newspapers.

This age is too bustling and competition is too great for the merchant to allow himself any longer the luxury of waiting supinely behind his counter for trade. He must show in advance of the purchase just what he has to sell and how he intends to sell it, and a persistent publication of his wares is the means by which such showing can be made.

Frank Siddall, the Philadelphia soap man, says: "I have confined my advertising entirely to newspapers. The man who does not read a newspaper does not use soap."

Congress has voted $2,440,000 for fortifications, most of which will be expended on existing works.

It will be noticed that in all the tariff "compromises" the sagar trust gets the turkey and the government gets the buzzard.

New York, bought a plot of land for $14,000 and leased it to Tammany for ten years at $8,000 a year. This method of booming the town is flattering to metropolitan pride, but it is expensive.

Russia has sent a few benevolent nentrais to watch the course of events in Corea. These genial spectators occupy eight warships, and will assist in the preservation of peace even if it is necessary to bring up another fleet and an army.

A strong argument for the intelligent restriction of immigration is found in the fact that more than half of the inmates in American penitentiaries are of foreign birth, through foreigners form only 17 per cent of the total population.

The democratic congressional conferees resumed their sitting yesterday and during the beginning of the conference there was an interchange of suggestions, based upon the offer made by the senate conferees to accept free sugar as provided in the house bill. Gen, Hazen, chief of the secret service, says that no genuine plates for printing currency ever have been stolen from the government, but William E. Brockway, in a confession be made, said he had several such plates and surrendered all that he could get, apon the condition that the sentence of thirty years in Sing Sing be suspended. He was discharged from enstedy, but did not give up certain plates which the government was anxions to get, among them a national bank plate and a $20 gold certificate plate of the finest workmanship.

Today Capt. S. A. Ashe retired from the editorial management of the News and Observer, with which paper his name has for so many years been associated. During all the long period ke has been a constant and zealons public affairs have been regarded as clear and of marked value to the demcerats. Editorial work is something ceaseless, and oftentimes a thankless Ex-state senator George Plunkitt, of applied themselves as steadily and as laboriously as has Capt. Ashe. The press of the state is most generous in its expressions of regret at his relinquishment of editorial work and the Visitor joins in these sentiments. In all that Capt Ashe has done or may do he has always at heart the welfare of North Carolina.

SHE PRETENDED SUICIDE.

Arrest of a Young Woman who Declines to Disgrace Relatives.

A young woman is at the central police station at Pittsburg who pretended to commit suicide there. She gave four names, but declared she would not tell her right name, for she would disgrace her uncle, who, she says, is a justice of the United States supreme court. The first name she gave was Mrs. Richard Laird, the second Mrs. C. H. Owens, the third Ada Hathaway and the fourth Helen Haverling, This is entered on the books as her name. She says she is from New York. She made a scene in the office of Laird & Ray, wholesale shoe dealers. She called there upon Richard Laird, asking money from him. She has annoyed him several times in that way, and he gave her $125 three weeks ago and $20 and a ticket to Chicago a few days afterward, to get rid of her. He says he met her in New York and she followed him. She says they met in Boston, When he declined to do more for her she drew a sponge from her pocket, saturated with ether, and applied it to her mouth, first exclaim-

"Are you not going with me! If you are not, I'll end this right here." She was then arrested, it being force so much air under them as to feared she would injure Mr. Laird or

A year ago she was arrested for complicity in train robberies, and, after being hald in jail some time anaccountably escaped. A while later she was held in the Oktahoma City jail and thence escaped. For three months last year she was in the new iail of Canadian county, and her trial was to have taken place in the district court in December. A few nights before the day fixed for trial, however, she walked out the door of the jail, dressed in her ordinary female cloth ing. Outside of the door the skirts disappeared and a good looking man, apparently, bestrode a convenient horse and rode safely out of town. The deputy sheriff disappeared at the same time and is believed to have helped her to escape.
