DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Interesting Items Gathered in and Around the City.

Thursday, July 16—Masonic excursion.
There are thirty entries for next week's races at the state fair grounds.
Johnny Dughi is again sick and it is thought his illness is the result of his recent fall from a wagon.
The Southern railway has dropped two of its employes in the freight office here, as well as one yard crew.
The Montgomery is the first vessel of the new navy to visit N. C. waters.
By going on the Masonic excursion you can witness the naval review.
The cotton receipts in this market next season will most probably very largely exceed those during the present season. The latter are over 5,000 more than those of the 1892-3 season.
A large excursion of Norfolk colored people is expected to arrive here late Thursday afternoon. Friday the Norfolk St. Clair baseball team will play the Raleigh Nationals.
The charity and help department of the I. P. worth league of Central M.
E. church will meet this evening in the lecture room at 8:15. Every member is requested to be present.

The wood-working and painting departments at the S. A. L. shops here have ceased to exist. Saturday five painters were dropped. Painting as well as wood work will hereafter be done at the Portsmouth shops.
A Washington special to the Charlotte Observer says that the two North Carolina senators, rivals for election, are apparently on excellent terms, and frequently converse together on the senate floor.
Under new general orders from the adjutant general's department an allowance of $200 yearly is made to each company of the State Guard out of the national quota, in ordnance and quartermaster's stores, and this may be drawn in whatever may be needed. The state reserves $3,000 to be used for arms and ammunition.

The Oakwood cemetery association has elected as directors R. H. Battle, J. R. Ferrall, W. R. Tucker, Wm.
Grimes, T. H. Briggs, Col. A. B. Andrews, Dr. W. J. Hawkins and B. G.
Cowper. The officers are: R. H. Battle, president; W. C. Stronach, vice-president; W. H. Dodd, secretary and treasurer; A. B. Forest, superintendent and gate-keeper.
The mortgage indebtedness of this state in 1880 was in round numbers $3,401,000. It was in 1890 $7,256,000.
In the four years since there was only one fine crop (that of 1890) and the farmers had only one opportunity to pay debts. But the low prices of products more than counterbalanced the result of the favorable year. This year no doubt a good deal of debt will be extinguished.
Many colored firemen passed here yesterday on their way to Durham to attend their state convention which met today. The Cape Fear of Wilmington with a fine steamer; Rough and Ready, of Newbern; Salamander, of Washington; Red Hot, of Wilson, and Phoenix, of Wilmington, were on the train. This morning the Raleigh Victors left, 46 strong. They took a fine reel team and expect to win some prizes.

Talk About Grapes.

Whiting Bros. have thirty acres in grapes and blackberries. They got this season barely one-third of a crop of grapes, and sold 280 packages of 25 pounds each, or 7,000 pounds, at prices ranging all the way from 25 to 4 cents a pound, but averaging 7 cents.
The grapes grown by them are Delawares and Niagaras. The sales of grapes and berries aggregated $1,250.
Next year they will have many more bearing vines, and then too, it is hoped, the frost will not get in its deadly work. One grower who has a vineyard south of here expected to handle 20,000 pounds of grapes, whereas, thanks to the freeze, he got barely twenty pounds.

Make your arrangements to attend the Masonic excursion Thursday.

NEXT WEEK'S RACES HERE.

Some Chat About the Speedy Horses Entered.

All lovers of fine, well-bred horses should attend the August races, to be held at the state fair grounds August 22-23. This is the fourth effort of the management to give the people of Raleigh and the state some of our sport and good racing with North Carolina horses. Good order has always prevailed heretofore, and no effort will be spared to secure it this time, and the management confidently expects to have the best people turn out and show their appreciation of the efforts made to entertain them.
The blood of many of the greatest sires on earth will contend in these speed trials. Among these George Wilkes with nearly 2,000 descendants in the 2:30 list; Baron Wilkes, 2d, 2:18 and sire of the unbeaten Rubinstein, 2:10, and 25 others in the 2:30 list; Wilton, 2d, 2:19, and sire of Moquette, 2:10 and 25 others on the 2:30 list; Daniel Lambert sire of the dam of Pamlico, 2:10 1-2, the greatest racer of the day; Happy Medium, sire of Nancy Hanks, 2:04, and 85 others in the 2:30 list. A son of Aberdeen out of a daughter of Director, sire of the dam of Nancy Hanks, 2:04; and a daughter of Jerome Eddy, 2:16, will also be "in it." There will be reduced fare on all the railroads.

THE TARIFF BILL.

What is Said About it in Wash- ington.

The Washington correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says Mr. Wilson puts it just right when he says:
"On the tariff question we did not have a democratic senate." But for the house becoming thoroughly satisfied of this fact, the caucus and house action today would have been very different. It has been a very exciting day, notwithstanding the result was foreseen. Twice in caucus and house Bourke Cockran, in fine bursts of eloquence, denounced the traitors to democratic principles. Talbert in the caucus and Crisp in the house reminded him that while other men labored for tariff reform here he was absent. This fact made him very angry. All of the Carolina men voted to recede and accept the senate bill as the last chance. It is not the general judgment that the four free list bills passed tonight in the house will pass the senate at this session. Sugar may be made free and barbed wire. Senator Ransom has said a free sugar bill can pass the senate. Today senator Jarvis predicted the passage of all these free list measures. It is just probable the president will fail to sign the Gorman bill or that he will insist on the senate passing all of those little bills. The party is somewhat on the defensive now, but with a live chance for further reforms soon, it will be in good plight for a vigorous campaign this year.

Senator Jarvis, if he had had an opportunity, would have spoken on the side of the undoubted right of the house to the possession of the tariff bill. He illustrates his position in supporting the bill thus: "If I start out to walk a long distance, and a set in a jolting wagon is offered to me as the only alternative, I should accept it rather than walk, but I would prefer a carriage."

The Weather Report.

For North Carolina: Fair, warmer, Wednesday morning. Local forecast: Wednesday fair. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 92; Minimum temperature 71; rainfall trace.

The weather is generally cloudy over the middle and north Atlantic states and west of the lakes. A heavy local rain of 2.58 inches is reported from New Orleans, and light showers from a number of other stations.
Low pressure areas exist north of the lakes and over Kansas. A high area and moderate cool wave prevails in the extreme northwest.

The populist state executive committee is called to meet here tomorrow. It is said that, disregarding his letter, the committee will retain ex-judge Connor's name on the judicial ticket.

more recently in the Virginia state league, is here taking a short rest,

W. K. Carr, Gen. Cameron, Col. Harserves drill. A ball will be given in the pavilion at Southport, in compliment to the governor and party. Secretary Herbert and assistant secretary McAdoo of the navy department have been specially invited to go to Southport. Gov. Carr expects to return Friday.

Lawn Party at Mr. Pulaski Cowper's.

The "Daughters of the King" and the woman's auxiliary of Christ church will give a musical entertainment Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. Pulaski Cowper, on Fayetteville street, for the purpose of increasing a fund for completing the furnishings of St. Saviour's chapel in northwestern portion of the city.
Vocal and instrumental music by the best talent in the city may be expected, and it is hoped a large attendance will be present to aid them with a voluntary contribution for this worthy undertaking and at the same time enjoy a "mid-summer evening's" pleasures.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor Badger had two cases for settlement this morning, one charged with larceny and another with a trival offense. Albert Blake, a white man, was charged with stealing chickens from Wash. Hawkins. He claimed he bought the fowls from Hawkins' son. He was bound over to court. A young colored boy charged with throwing stones in the streets escaped with a good thrashing by his mother.

The Masonic excursion Thursday will be the event of the season. Do not fail to go.

If you wish your mocking bird to do well buy food for it at Dughi's; 35 cents a box.

The excursion train Thursday goes through to Wrightville.

THE STATE CROP REPORT.

The Showing Made is an Excellent One.

Today the agricultural department summarized the crop returns from July, as sent in by its more than a thousand correspondents. The condition of crops is as follows: Rice, 90 1-4; corn, 100 2-3; cotton, 94; tobacco, 83 1-3; field peas, 92; sweet potatoes, 91 1-2; peanuts, 89 1-3; sorghum, 90 1-2; turnip, crop seeded will be 94 per cent; the present condition of late cabbage is 44 per cent; the condition of fall-planting Irish potatoes is 80 per cent; as to fruits, apples are 21 1-3; peaches 15 and grapes 63.

THE STATE ALLIANCE.

It is in Session at Greensboro Today - Some Facts and Figures.

President Marion Butler, chairman of the state alliance executive committee, says regarding the reports made to the latter: "Our strength in North Carolina is about 1,200 greater than twelve months ago, as state president Mewborne has been quite active in organizing new sub-alliances and reorganizing old ones. The North Carolina alliance now has about 27,500 members. The finances have been just large enough to operate it. The fees are small—no larger than when it had 100,000 members. The state business agency shows business approximating $375,000 during the twelve months. It has, like everything else, felt the hard times. Its business has been as large as half a million. A new business agent may be elected, or W. H. Worth may be retained until it is seen whether or not he is elected state treasurer. William A. Graham has reported, as trustee of the business fund, that this now approximates $31-000. Only $2,000 were drawn from it under the act of the last legislature, which is a remarkable showing. Out of it, also, $1,900 were expended in the fight against the jute bagging trust."

Tobacco Crop Prospects.

A Visitor reporter this morning interviewed Mr. T. R. Love, one of the oldest and most experienced tobacco men here, in regard to the prospects for the tobacco crop and the amount of business in this line that will be conducted here next season. Two warehouses will be open to the farmers next season; the one known as Jones' and the old Farmers warehouse.
Although both are now ready to receive tobacco active work will not begin until about September 1. Reports from the country say that the tobacco crop is very good and curing is progressing finely. In some parts of the county the crop may yet be injured, as the tobacco is "firing" somewhat on account of the wet weather lately.

The local tobacco business is expected to be larger than ever this year.
It is said there is a scarcity of buyers and that there is a splendid opening for them here. The leaf tobacco business is an important one that should materially advance the interests of Raleigh. There is no reason why this should not be an excellent tobacco market and a little more "push" and encouragement will make it so.

Go to Wilmington Thursday on the Masonic excursion and witness the naval review, $2.25 round trip.

A Wake County Distillery.

Deputy revenue collectors Jones and Gibson last night raided an illicit distillery near Holly Springs, about 12 miles from here. They made the raid at night in the hope of capturing or finding out the names of the owners.
In this, however, they were unsuccessful. The still, which is of 45 gallons capacity, was brought here. Several moonshiners' establishments have lately been raided in Wake.

State Guard Appointments.

Upon recommendation of adjutant general Cameron governor Carr today made the following appointments of officers in the naval battalion of the State Guard and commissions have been forwarded: L. F. Pearsall, of Wilmington, lieutenant junior grade and passed assistant engineer, to rank from August 2, and John Scott, of Wilmington, ensign and assistant engineer, to rank from August 2.
