IN OUR shoe department we are fixing to do a big business this fall and will carry none but the best makes, and can assure the public that we will be in better condition to serve them in this line of our business than ever before.
D. T. Swindell.

FLAT ON THE FLOOR.—You want a carpet of some kind this fall. You may want more than one; but listen to me once in your life. Don't buy the carpets until our new ones come. The tariff bill has passed and carpets are reduced wonderfully. We have been waiting for the passage of this bill so we have not bought any carpets. Most merchants went straight on and bought carpets and had them shipped right out regardless of the tariff and they will try to argue you into believing the tariff don't affect carpets right away. This is not true. In 10 days from day of passage it goes into effect and you can save one quarter of the price of your carpet if you let good sense prevail. We will have a stock of carpets such as you rarely see. Our buyer is to go to New York this week for carpets. Yours truly,

DISTRICT REPUBLICANS.

HOLD A STORMY CONVENTION HERE TODAY.

T. C. Milliken Nominated for Congress—The Wake Delegates Thrown Out.

The republican congressional convention for this district met at noon today in the court house. Many prominent republicans from other parts of the state were present, as lookers on, among them H. G. Ewart, H. O. Mason, J. C. Pritchard, Oliver H. Dockery, A. E. Horton, T. C. Milliken and J. B. Eaves. A. E. Johnston, colored, was temporary chairman and H. E. Christmas was elected secretary. The populists were very, very few. The roll of counties was called and all were found to be represented except Nash. When the appointment of a credentials committee came in order quite a discussion arose between John Williamson, James Young and delegate Lane as to whether the committee should be composed of three members or of one member from each county. All made fiery talks on the subject and Williamson, at one time referred to his "old boss," meaning J. C. L. Harris, and said that he was no longer "under the whip." The question coming to a vote, the vote was announced a tie, eleven to eleven. The chairman decided in favor of the committee of three and appointed the following committee, I. Y. Ratman of Vance, F. M. Farrell of Chatham and J. H. Williamson of Franklin. While the committee was out O. H. Dockery was called on for a speech but declined to make it. Speech-making did not seem to be popular with the delegates and while the committee was deliberating they contented themselves with talking politics in undertones.

The committee, when it returned, reported that the Wake county delegation was not entitled to seats. The charge was that Harris had practically appointed the delegation himself, and that one delegate, who lives sixteen miles from here, was appointed only two hours before the convention met, so that Young, an alternate, might represent Wake. At the county convention Saturday a motion, introduced by Lane, was passed to the effect that the chairman appoint the Wake county delegation. The committee said that this was irregular and therefore threw out the Wake county delegation. James Young, colored, J. I. Moore and John Williamson made vigorous and earnest speeches. Young and Moore spoke excitedly and strongly about "whipper snapper," "gag law," etc., and denounced the committee. Farrell, a member of the committee, started to make a statement of some sort, but Williamson got up and whispered in his ear, at which the gentleman changed his tune completely. It was then evident that the fight was on between the straight ticket faction and the fusionists. The fusionists wanted Stroud endorsed for congress; the Wake county delegation being in favor of fusion the action of the committee, all straight ticket men, looked "shady." The discussion had waxed warm and personal between Young and Williams, and the latter at one time said that J. C. L. Harris and Jim Young were not republicans but parasites of Stroud. On motion the report of the committee was adopted, 9 to 2, and the Wake county delegation was therefore disqualified. A. E. Johnson, colored, was elected permanent chairman. R. I. Moore of Franklin then made a talk and moved that the convention adjourn. This was laid on the table.

On motion the convention went into nomination for a member of congress. John Williamson, colored, nominated T. C. Milliken, of Randolph. Ex-sheriff Moore, of Franklin, then arose and abused Milliken and the convention, saying, in answer to a question by Johnson, that he did cast a reflection on the convention. He then left of the hall, bidding the convention an "everlasting farewell." He came back and tried to speak but was compelled to quit by the chairman, who declared that no one would be permitted to speak except for or against a motion. Moore then left for good. John Saunders, of Johnston, also came up, denounced the trickery of the convention and left the hall. Milliken in a short talk declined the nomination. In spite of this the roll of counties was called and Milliken was nominated. Johnston county declined to vote. A. C. Johnston was unanimously elected chairman of the executive committee for the 4th congressional district and H. E. Christmas was elected secretary. The executive committee is: Vance, J. Y. Eaton; Franklin, J. H. Williamson; Randolph, T. C. Milliken; Chatham, H. I. Mason; Wake, D. P. Lane, and Nash, J. J. Sharp.

PAMLICO IS DEAD.

The Great Trotting Stallion will Race no More.

Pamlico, the well known trotting stallion, died this morning at Hartford, Conn., after 36 hours' sickness. He was owned jointly by Mr. W. P. Batchelor of this city, and Mr. E. D. Spurr of Kentucky. He was foaled in 1885, in Vermont and was in 1887 brought here by Mr. Batchelor. His best time in this state was 2:37. He made his last appearance in this state at the races at the state fair grounds, in 1892, and that month a half interest in him was sold to Mr. Spurr and he was taken to Kentucky. He has since made a grand record. In the fifth heat of a race at Terre Haute, Indiana, he made his mile in 2:10. He has won 14 races. Next Thursday week he was to have trotted in a great race at Fleetwood park, against Alix, Mr. Batchelor said today that Pamlico was the greatest of trotting stallions. There was only $5,000 insurance on him. He was worth at least $30,000. He was a wonderfully game horse, and to this much of his popularity was attributable, for he was popular on all the tracks where he ever appeared. His owners were really devoted to him. Most Raleigh people knew the horse well, and there is really a tinge of sadness in the tones in which people say "Pamlico is dead."

Farming on Large Scale.

Gov. Carr was at "Halifax" farm, on the Roanoke, today. He will visit the other farm tomorrow and Friday. The farming is on a large scale. There are three farms. On the "Halifax" farm there are 1,000 acres in cotton; on the "Northampton" farm 1,500 acres in corn and 600 in cotton; on the "Caledonia" farm 1,400 acres in cotton and 2,400 in corn; total acreage, 6,900. There were 900 acres in wheat and 300 in oats. The wheat yielded 12,000 bushels. There are 1,000 hogs on these farms, and during the past twelve months 500 have been slaughtered. There are 225 mules and 40 horses. Some fine young horses are being raised. A year ago yesterday the great freshet occurred. It damaged thousands of dollars worth of crops at the farms. So far this year no crops have been injured.

State Firemen's Convention.

The state firemen's convention met today at Winston. There is a large attendance. The opening exercises were held in the opera house. The convention was called to order by president Green, of Newbern; there was prayer by bishop Edward Rondthaler and an address of welcome by E. E. Gray, Esq. The oration was by Hon. A. H. Eller.

There were several contests in the tournament this afternoon. The prizes were as follows: Quick steaming $50; throwing stream greatest distance $20; hose reel $50 first prize, second prize $30; horse hook and ladder first prize $35, second prize $15; hand hook and ladder first prize $30, second prize $15.

There will be a german this evening at the Park hotel.

Dr. D. E. Everett returned today from Rockbridge Alam springs.

A lively time is expected at the republican state convention tomorrow.

Work on the street car line to the depot begins soon. It is said the line will be in operation by fair week.

Miss Evie Kirland has returned from Cary where she has been visiting friends.

Mrs. T. B. Moseley is still alive, though her death is expected at any moment.

Mr. Walters Durham has been offered and has accepted the position of director of the gymnasium at Wake Forest college.

Maj. John M. Crenshaw and wife returned today from Blowing Rock, where they had been a month and enjoyed their stay greatly.

Hon. O. H. Dockery will not be a candidate for the republican congressional nomination in the sixth district. The campaign was opened at Smithfield yesterday by a joint debate between Messrs. Cooke and Kitchen. Several persons from Raleigh went down to hear the speeches.

In the August bulletin of the state board of health Dr. James McKee reports as to Wake: "Four cases of whooping-cough and one of typhoid fever. Sanitary condition of county, city and public buildings good."

Deputy collectors J. W. Jones and Spence Taylor report to collector Simmons the destruction, near New Light, this county, of an illicit distillery, supposed to be owned by Lam Ray.

Two young colored boys, "Ad" Page and "Bud" Sorrell, were tried before justice Whitaker this morning for stealing corn from a growing field. They were sent to jail to await the September term of court.

A concert was given Monday evening at Hillsboro for the benefit of the confederate monument. Besides the home talent who took part several visiting young ladies assisted. Among the number was Miss Mary Mackey, of Raleigh, who, the Durham Sun says sang a beautiful solo.

The following Raleigh delegates are attending the Baptist Chautauqua at Mt. Vernon springs: Rev. Dr. T. E. Skinner, Rev. O. L. Stringfeld, Mrs. N. B. Broughton and Miss Rosa Broughton, W. H. Dodd, John W. Cheek, S. M. Parish, Prof. J. L. Butler, Iowa Parish and Frank Wilson.

A runaway horse, attached to a country wagon in which was a frightened and wrathful countryman, created a good deal of excitement on Halifax street this morning. The horse, coming as he did from the backwoods, took fright at the unwonted sight of a bicycle, hence the driver's wrath. No damage was done.

A large re-union of Confederate veterans is in progress this week at Morganton, at the fair grounds. There will be some 600 in line. Col. Tate has procured some tents for use by the old soldiers. The people of Morganton and of Burke county, with their usual hospitality and thoughtfulness, have looked after the "commissary department" very thoroughly.

The Weather Report.

For North Carolina: Fair, except showers on the coast. Local data for 24 hours ending a. m. today: Maximum temperature 76; Minimum temperature 67; rainfall trace.

The center of high pressure is over the southern states, while it is lowest over Chicago and Detroit. There is apparently no rain area anywhere this morning. The weather is cloudy at a considerable number of stations, but generally it is partly cloudy to clear. Only light rains have occurred since yesterday. No marked changes in temperature have occurred.

DEATH OF MAJ. NEATHERY.

One of Raleigh's best known Citizens Passes Away.

At 2:25 o'clock this afternoon Maj. Neathery, one of Raleigh's best known and most valued citizens, died at his home on South Dawson street. His death had been expected for a week and his vitality was remarkable. His death was due to heart trouble and Bright's disease. Maj. John Bennett Neathery was born in Warren county Christmas day, 1835, and was therefore in his 59th year. He learned the printing business under the late W. W. Holden, and up to the beginning of the war was the publisher, at Chapel Hill, of the University magazine. During the war he was in the adjutant general's department here and was for some time acting private secretary to Gov. Vance. Not long after the war ended he was in the printing and binding business, as a member of the firm of Nichols, Gorman & Neathery. He was private secretary to governors Holden, Caldwell and Brogden. For six years he was Wake county's treasurer. In 1885 he purchased a half interest in the widely known firm of Alfred Williams & Co., his partner being Col. E. G. Harrell. He was very prominent as a Mason. He was a past master of William G. Hill lodge and for many years was its secretary. He was secretary of the Royal Arch chapter. He was an authority on Masonic questions and on the unwritten work of the order. He was also a member of the Knights of Honor and the Royal Arcanum. During the great revival here some twenty years ago, conducted by Rev. A. B. Earle, he became a member of the First Baptist church. He married a daughter of the late Mr. John B. Stell of Rolesville, this county. He had only one daughter, Rosa, now dead, who married Col. Harrell. Maj. Neathery was an extremely popular man, and was devoted to his family and to his friends. He had a great fund of information and had written a good deal for the press. His funeral will be held at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the First Baptist church, Rev. Dr. Skinner and Rev. Dr. Simms officiating.

Masonics.
Called meeting of Wm. G. Hill lodge, 218, will be held this evening. All members urged to be present for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the funeral of our late brother, John B. Neathery.

JOHN C. DREWRY, W. M.
N. L. BROWN, Secretary.

Baseball Tomorrow.
The differences between the first and second teams of Raleigh have been patched up and strong combination will take the field at Athletic park tomorrow afternoon against Wake Forest, which is said to have a very strong team, and while Raleigh ought surely to win on the local grounds, the game will be a good one. Play will commence promptly at 4:30.

A New Holiday, Labor Day.
Governor Carr today received from the secretary of state of the United States a copy of an act passed by congress June 28, providing that the first Monday in September, "Labor Day," shall be a national holiday, and shall be observed in like manner as the other national holidays, Christmas, January 1, February 22, May 30 and July 4.

The State Museum Has a New Curator.
The executive committee has elected Mr. Frank Greene curator of the state museum to succeed Mr. Thomas C. Harris. The latter has held the position many years. He will continue to reside in this city and will apply himself to drawing and engraving, in which he is expert.

Musical Last Evening.
The musicale given last evening at Mr. Armistead Jones' residence by the young ladies and gentlemen of Raleigh was a particularly enjoyable and successful occasion. The exercises consisted of music, vocal and instrumental and recitations. Every one who attended came away pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Fine photographs are now made by Moore at about half the former price.
