IN OUR shoe department we are fixing to do a big business this fall and will carry none but the best makes, and can assure the public that we will be in better condition to serve them in this line of our business than ever before.
D. T. Swindell.

FLAT ON THE FLOOR.—You want a carpet of some kind this fall. You may want more than one; but listen to me once in your life. Don't buy the carpets until our new ones come. The tariff bill has passed and carpets are reduced wonderfully. We have been waiting for the passage of this bill so we have not bought any carpets. Most merchants went straight on and bought carpets and had them shipped right out regardless of the tariff and they will try to argue you into believing the tariff don't affect carpets right away. This is not true. In 10 days from day of passage it goes into effect and you can save one quarter of the price of your carpet if you let good sense prevail. We will have a stock of carpets such as you rarely see. Our buyer is to go to New York this week for carpets.
Yours truly,
D. T. Swindell.

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Interesting Items Gathered in and Around the City.

All the outgoing trains carried off large loads of returning delegates today.

The school season has begun again and college students are daily leaving town or passing through.

Scuppernon grapes are very abundant. The great freeze in April did not injure them. They are always reliable.

Sam. Hinton, colored, was given a hearing before justice Whitaker today and committed to jail to await the next term of court.

The negro police here are after who is wanted for attempting to outrage a 17-year-old colored girl named Cross, is named Hoekaday.

The democrats say they are pleased at the fusion of the populists and republicans. The latter also express their pleasure, so all hands are united.

Next Monday the fall term of that excellent school, the Raleigh male academy, begins. The outlook is good for continued increase in the number of students.

At the home of Mr. Pulaski Cowper, on Fayetteville street, last evening Miss Mamie Cowper gave a lawn party in compliment to Miss Lizzie Hill, of Portsmouth, Va.

Students are arriving at the agricultural and mechanical college. The term begins next week, Sept. 5 and 6 being examination days. The number of students will be the largest since the opening of the college.

Oscar J. Spears, republican nominee for congress in the third district, says there is not a word of truth in the report that he will withdraw. H. P. Cheatham, republican congressional candidate in the second district, says he will positively not withdraw.

There is an old, old saying that for every fog in August there will be a snow during the following winter. If this be true there will be eight snows next winter. A careful observer says there were fogs on the 1st, 2d, 3d, 17th, 18th, 29th, 30th and 31st. Those on the 1st, 8th and 17th were heavy, that on the 18th very heavy, and the others light.

Raleigh firemen do not now participate in the annual tournaments of the state firemen's association. The next meeting will be held at Newbern. The following are the new officers: President, J. D. McNeal, of Fayetteville; vice-presidents, E. G. Parmelee, of Wilmington, and F. H. Vogler, of Salem; statistician, B. T. Amerson, of Wilson; Dr. J. W. Griffith, of Greensboro, secretary; T. A. Green, of Newbern, treasurer.

The laying of the new floor in the market house is one-third finished. Woodwork for the doorways in the arches is now being prepared. There will in the future be a complete water supply in the market. This will be through a three-inch service pipe with three plugs. All will be used for turning on water for flushing the floors, and one plug will also be used as a hydrant.

The new two cent revenue stamps for playing cards have been received by collector Simmons. Each pack of cards which on the 28th of August was in possession of a dealer must be stamped. The stamps are of a reddish color, and about the size of a postage stamp. On one corner are the initials U. S., and on the opposite corner I. R. Four cards (spades) are displayed on the face of the stamp, the inscription being "Playing Cards, on hand August, 1894. Two cents."

It is a matter of regret that the directors of the insane asylum at their meeting day before yesterday did not decide to borrow the needed $5,000 to equip the new female building and maintain 75 more females. A majority of the board did not know whether the legislature would endorse this step and make good the amount, so the whole matter goes over until the board meets in December. It will now be March before the building can be occupied.

RALEIGH WINS.

Capt. Bernig's Men Do Up Wake Forest by a Large Score.

About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a crowd of young men went up Fayetteville street singing hilariously, and giving the familiar Wake Forest yell. Later in the afternoon they came back quietly, went to the Johnston street depot and took the train for home. As has no doubt been surmised, they were the Wake Forest baseball team (and a few admirers) who crossed bats with Raleigh. Mr. Mills is a good pitcher, no doubt, but the Raleigh team is composed of batters against whom Mills' curves availed nothing. In the six innings played the Raleigh team cracked out eleven clean hits, of which three were good for home runs, one a three bagger and one a two base hit, a total of 23 bases. While the Raleigh team was tiring itself out making home runs and running bases Wake Forest piled up a score of two runs and two hits. Wadkins, Raleigh's pitcher, was well nigh invincible. The Wake Forest team scored its only runs in the third inning, when Kimball made a "homer." Score: Raleigh 14, Wake Forest 2.

THE COTTON SEASON ENDS.

A Comparison of Receipts for some Years.

Today ended the cotton season of 1893-4. The receipts for the season were 30,449 bales, against 24,880 last year. Receipts for the week 145 bales against 36 the corresponding week last year. Stock on platform 10 bales. Shipments for the week 160 bales. Middling, new, 6 1-4 and old 6 3-4 cts. The annual receipts for the past seven seasons were 1888, 35,513 bales, 1889, 31,490; 1890, 21,803; 1891, 40,160; 1892, 27,910; 1893, 24,880; 1894, 30,449.

Major Neathery's Will.

The will of major J. B. Neathery was admitted to probate this morning. The will was executed April 7th last and was witnessed by A. M. Powell and Fred. A. Watson. All his property is left to his wife, Margaret Stell Neathery, and his nephew, Thomas M. Pittman, Esq., of Vance county, is named as executor. The will advises that the business of Alfred Williams & Co. be wound up and Maj. Neathery's interest disposed of.

Junior Order of the United American Mechanics.

This order will give an entertainment at the hall in the academy of music building this evening at 8 o'clock. The state councillor and deputy national councillor will be present and a pleasant session is anticipated. Speeches will be made by prominent members of the order. Refreshments will be served. All members, whether in good standing or not, are invited to be present and join in extending a hearty welcome to the visiting officers.

Street Work in Progress.

The street force is now completing a very large stone culvert on East Lenoir street, between South East and Swain streets. For thirty days work on this has been in progress. The culvert is 5x5 1-2 feet in size and 48 feet long. There are two retaining walls, one 50 and the other 40 feet long, and in some places 12 feet high. The hill near the colored deaf-mute and blind institution is to be cut down and a heavy fill is to be made. After this work is done, next week, the street force will open West North street, between North West and Saunders streets. This improvement has long been decided.

A Noted Evangelist Coming.

Rev. D. H. Tuttle has made arrangements with Rev. D. B. Carradine, of St. Louis, to conduct a series of meetings at Central M. E. church here, beginning Oct. 28, and continuing 12 days. Dr. Carradine has been pastor of leading M. E. churches in St. Louis, New Orleans and other cities, and is an evangelist of great power.

Dughi today received the finest specks seen here this year. They are 10 1-2 inches in circumference.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINIANS.

People Who Come, People Who go and People You Know.

Mr. Fellowes left this afternoon for a visit to Seven Springs.

Mrs. C. B. Aycock is seriously sick at Goldsboro, her home.

Ex-judge Fred. Phillips, of Tarboro, arrived this afternoon.

Mr. Maurice Rosenthal left this morning for Buffalo Springs.

Mrs. T. G. Lee is quite sick at her home, 409 South Person street.

Mrs. Moore, of Goldsboro, who has been here for some days, returned today.

Mrs. Lucy Brown of Haywood, is in the city, visiting her brother and sisters.

Mrs. G. L. Kirby and Miss Kirby returned this afternoon from a month's visit to Goldsboro.

Mr. Henry J. Young returned this morning from a visit to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Laura A. Winston is spending a few days' in the city as the guest of Mrs. Thomas H. Briggs.

Dr. Cyrus Thompson, of Onslow, has been nominated for congress by the populists in the third district.

Mrs. James N. Williamson, of Graham, is visiting Mrs. Omega Foster, her daughter, on North Blount street.

Mr. O. H. Dockery, Jr., who has been here for several days, left this afternoon for Chapel Hill where he will enter the university law school.

Mr. Thomas C. Harris today left the state museum. He has been connected with the department of agriculture fifteen years.

Prof. Alex. Tillinghast, late of this city, was married at Davidson College Wednesday to Miss Claude Stinson. Mr. and Mrs. Tillinghast have gone to Boulder, Montana, their new home.

Mr. Chandler, of Nebraska, has gone home. He returns in December and will establish near this city, most probably, a breeding farm for what are known as French coach horses.

Mr. Morrison, of Pennsylvania, was here yesterday. He is engaging extensively in the culture of small fruits and nuts at Southern Pines. He has there 30 acres in pecans, filberts and butter nuts.

Mr. John MacRae, son of Judge MacRae, of Fayetteville, leaves tomorrow morning for Nashville. He holds an assistant professorship in the normal college there and often pulls the football team of the college to victory by his excellent playing as "full-back."

Mr. John W. Jenkins, who, as stated in the Visitor several days ago, will be in charge of the Durham department of the News and Observer, will begin that work there tomorrow and the News and Observer will, Sunday morning, come out as practically a Raleigh-Durham paper. It will be enlarged by several columns, or perhaps have a Durham supplement.

Political Points.

There has been a long and bitter quarrel among the New Hanover county democrats and there are two factions. The state committee of the party at its meeting here this week gave the differences in New Hanover county careful attention. Capt. G. B. Davis and Sol. Weill both submitting exhaustive statements. As a result it was determined that, if these differences are not adjusted by September 10 a committee be appointed to go to Wilmington and take testimony and adjudicate the matter. Messrs. R. H. Battle, Ed. Chambers Smith, F. S. Spruill, Henry A. London and E. J. Hale were appointed as this committee.

One real estate transfer is recorded at the office of the register of deeds' office, F. M. Simmons buys from Isaac Emerson, of Baltimore, the dwelling and lot, 210x60 feet, corner Fayetteville and West Lenoir streets, the consideration being $6,000.

YESTERDAY'S CONVENTION.

Republicans Fuse With the Populists—The Party Platform.

In the republican state convention yesterday afternoon Mr. J. C. L. Harris, offered a resolution nominating W. H. Worth for treasurer, and W. T. Faircloth, D. M. Farches, Walter Clark and H. G. Connor for justices, just as nominated by the populists at their state convention August 1. A delegate from Craven moved to strike out the names of Clark and Connor, and a lively discussion arose. The resolution was finally referred to the committee on platform, which was composed of C. M. Bernard, J. D. S. Grimsley, J. C. L. Harris, R. Z. Linney, J. C. Pritchard, F. B. Rice, A. R. Middleton, R. M. Douglas and J. C. Dancy. It soon reported and Mr. Harris read the platform, which affirms devotion to the national platform, endorses protection, favors a financial policy of international bimetallism and the coinage of the entire product of American mines at a ratio of 16 to 1, favors a tariff for protection of American labor against foreign pauper labor, denounces the new tariff bill and the attempt to place southern products on the free list, demands the repeal of the tax on whiskey and tobacco, favors the repeal of the present county government law, demands free and pure elections and the counting of each vote as cast, and demands that farmers and householders be allowed to deduct, in giving in their taxes, the amount of their indebtedness. The report also endorsed Worth for treasurer, and for justices Faircloth, Farches, Clark and Connor, adopting the exact language of the populist convention on this matter.

R. M. Douglas presented a minority report, saying that while proper and honorable co-operation is favored yet the convention should nominate a ticket a majority of whom are republicans.

Oscar J. Spears and J. M. Moody made speeches. J. C. Pritchard said the republicans were this year willing to keep their principles in abeyance in order to win in the campaign. He would almost vote for the devil in order to defeat the democrats. He eulogized Clark and Connor and said that with a new court some people here would be punished like Boss McKane. He wanted the 120,000 republicans and the 50,000 populists welded together. R. Z. Linney denounced the democratic party.

John C. Dancy, colored, said the party was now solid for fusion, while 24 hours before there was dissension and division. He said the republicans could not beat the democrats, and so called in the help of the populists, and that now there is a bare possibility of success.

At 7 o'clock a motion was made that these resolutions be adopted by acclamation, and the motion was adopted amid great cheering, and V. S. Lusk arose and shouted, "North Carolina is redeemed, thank God!"

A new state executive committee was elected and A. E. Holton, of Yadkin, was made chairman. The following is the republican state executive committee: H. L. Grant, J. W. Goslen, Jas. H. Young, J. C. Dancy, R. O. Patterson and A. R. Middleton, from the state at large; E. A. White, J. J. Martin, C. D. Waddell, J. M. Beckwith, Tyre Glenn, O. H. Lennon, Z. V. Walser, E. S. Walton and G. W. Crawford from the districts.

The Weather Report.

For North Carolina: Fair. Local forecast: Saturday, fair. Local data for 24 hours ending a. m. today: Maximum temperature 88; Minimum temperature 69; rainfall 0.00.

Very little rain has occurred during the past 24 hours. There is no storm center of much importance on the map. The variations in barometer are slight, the range being 29.88 to 30.12 inches. Over the greater part of the country the barometer is apparently about normal. The lowest is 29.88 at Bismarck; highest, 30.12 at St. Paul. It is also relatively low over the north Atlantic coast. The temperature has risen slightly in the south, but no decided changes have occurred anywhere.
