IN OUR shoe department we are fixing to do a big business this fall and will carry none but the best makes, and can assure the public that we will be in better condition to serve them in this line of our business than ever before.

D. T. Swindell.

NEW FALL DRESS GOODS.—This department has been looked after specially in our purchases for the fall. Nothing has been left undone to make it compare with any dress goods department in the south. In it you will find all desirable stuffs and at prices that will not fail to satisfy the customer.

D. T. Swindell.

BE SURE to walk down town and see the nicest display of fine carpeting ever seen in Raleigh, displayed in the big window of D. T. Swindell, in Armisteads, Moquets, Wilton Velvets, Body Brussels. If you see these you can judge whether you want a carpet from Swindell's. This display is worth walking a mile to see. Rarely ever is so grand a thing in carpets seen in the south; and the dress goods are in keeping. Swindell's will be the place this fall for new stuff. Remember you have eyes and ears to see and hear.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

Many fields are now white with cotton.

There are now 53 inmates of the soldiers' home.

Cotton picking is now quite actively in progress.

Mosquitoes are unusually numerous and aggressive this month.

Davidson college opened today with 100 students.

Park, Royster & Co are now building six dwelling houses here.

A regular meeting of the chamber of commerce will held this evening.

Two convicts from Martin county arrived at the penitentiary today.

Milton Nobles appears at the academy of music next Monday evening in his new play, "For Revenue Only."

Eight convicts came in today from Anson, four from Wilkes, three from Guilford.

The attendance at the populist county convention today was quite large.

The railway commission is not in session this week. Secretary Brown is making up the annual report.

The Wake delegates to the state road convention at Charlotte are A. D. Allen, W. Stronach and W. C. McMackin.

Lewis Boothe, a very worthy colored man, died in this city Sunday and was buried yesterday. He was about 86 years of age.

There will be a meeting of the Isabella circle of King's Daughters tomorrow evening at 5 o'clock at the usual place.

The board of aldermen last evening accepted the resignation of Capt. E. B. Engelhard as chief of the fire department. Mr. Louis Mahler is now acting as chief.

It is expected that a meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church will soon be held, for the purpose of taking action in regard to the new church building.

The rate of telephone rental here has been reduced to $12 a year by the old company. An effort is being made to get up a new exchange. It is said a company desires to operate this.

Mr. Frank Williamson, state veterinarian, has made some investigation into the death of cows at Salisbury but is not yet positive as to what caused their death. It is reported by the Herald that three other cows are affected by the same disease.

Cyrene's dancing at the academy of music last evening made quite a hit. She is most gracefully agile and her costumes are bright and attractive. No doubt she will be more and more popular each evening. The audience last evening was a light one. This evening there will be a change of programme. Mr. Hodge is clever as a comedian and his songs make a hit.

GOV. CARR'S VIEWS.

He says the States can Cope with the Question.

Night before last Gov. Carr received a telegram from Judge Wood saying: The English committee to investigate southern lynchings is here. Will you wire us what you think of this intermeddling with our affairs?

To this Gov. Carr replied: "I have no apology to make for lynching believing that the law is adequate if properly administered, that is avoiding delays and technicalities. The sovereign states are competent to cope with the question without the officious intermeddling of a foreign power."

Meeting of Democratic Club.

On account of repairs in Metropolitan hall the place of meeting of the democratic club is changed to the court house. The club will, therefore, meet in the court house Thursday, Sept. 13, at 8 o'clock. All democrats are requested to attend.

W. E. ASHLEY, Pres't.
W. L. WATSON, Sec'y.

THE POPULISTS.

Hold County Convention Here Today.

The populist county convention convened after 2 o'clock this afternoon in the court house. For over two hours its delegates had been assembled in a caucus. The doors were closely guarded. While an impatient crowd stood outside the doors waiting for the caucus to come to an end, a reporter for a Raleigh paper tried the door and told the door-keeper he was a sympathizer of the populists. He was admitted, but when he took out a pencil was unceremoniously ejected. The passport plan was tried but as half the populists forgot it, it devolved upon the door-keeper to tell who was true and who was not true. Mr. S. Otho Wilson, county chairman, arose to speak in favor of the report of a committee in favor of "hearty co-operation" with the republicans. His speech brought down the house. He attacked the democratic party and predicted all kinds of calamity if it continued in power. His speech ended in an appeal for victory.

A resolution was introduced and adopted that the populists support the populist party whether the convention decided to "fuse" or not. Mr. Lassiter produced statistics to show that the republicans did not vote with the populists at the last election. He said if the two parties supported each other, which he doubted, victory would follow. On the report of the committee coming to a vote, the call of the townships resulted in 174 votes for and 85 against "co-operation." At one time the proceedings of the caucus were interrupted by an excited delegate swearing there was a "democratic of the straightest set" in the room. A diligent search failed to discover such a man, however, so business was again taken up.

Mr. S. Otho Wilson called the convention to order at 2:15 o'clock. The first business was the election of a temporary chairman and secretary. Mr. S. Otho Wilson and J. W. Denmark were elected to these positions without opposition. Afterwards they were made permanent. The roll of townships were called and all save three were found to be represented. There being no contest a credentials committee was not necessary.

On motion the chairman appointed as a platform committee Messrs. Denmark, Chamblee, Check, Upchurch and Bagwell.

Mr. Denmark made a motion, which was passed, that the convention agree to the proposition made by the republican county convention in regard to co-operation and that the convention nominate for the following offices; one senator, one representative, a county treasurer and a county surveyor. Rev. H. W. Norris was nominated by Mr. J. P. Massey for senator.

For the house of representatives: Messrs. J. J. Bagwell, W. H. Chamblee, L. N. Raines and E. S. Check were placed in nomination. On the third ballot Bagwell was nominated, Chamblee 40 votes. For register of deeds: Messrs. C. B. Ray, of Barton's Creek, J. J. Rogers, of Apex, Frank Farrell, of Mark's Creek township, J. W. Lassiter and W. J. Simpson, of New Light, were placed in nomination. Mr. G. L. Tonnofski declined this nomination and seconded Ray's nomination, saying that if only the Ray family supported him he would be elected.

Mr. Lassiter and Mr. Farrell's names were withdrawn. One of the nominees for this office never had a vote cast for him. He never withdrew his name, however. On the fourth ballot Mr. Rogers was nominated, the vote standing Ray 87, Rogers 128.

Mr. W. W. Wynne and H. H. Knight were placed in nomination. Mr. Knight was unanimously nominated.

Mr. Pittman Stell was nominated by acclamation for surveyor. The next action of the convention was to endorse the nominees of the republican county convention. The committee on platform made its report and the convention adjourned. The report in substance was an endorsement of the platform adopted by the populist state convention.

Gov. Carr is informed of the arrest in Robeson county of Andrew Oxendino, a murderer for whom $100 reward was lately offered by the state.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Gen. W. R. Cox was here today.

U. S. marshal Allison, of Statesville, was here today.

Mr. Jesse A. Jones left for Newbern this afternoon.

Mrs. Omega H. Foster continues to improve rapidly.

Mrs. M. T. Norris's condition is not so satisfactory as it was a few days ago.

Miss Ora Yearby, of Durham, is visiting Misses Flora Edwards and Helena Horner, on West Martin street.

Mr. Edward W. Porter has resigned his position on the Raleigh baseball team. He was a fine second baseman and no doubt the team will miss him.

Mr. Theo. W. Dobbin, of W. H. and R. S. Tucker & Co., is in New York, and will purchase goods under the new tariff prices.

Miss Sue Devereux, of Pittsburg, is here for a few days visiting Miss Lou Taylor, corner South Salisbury and West Hargett streets. She will then go to Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Beddingfield, of Washington, D. C., who have been visiting Mr. G. H. Glass left for home today. Mr. Beddingfield has a long run on the Southern railway, between Jacksonville and Washington.

Mr. Neill Graham, a well known young man of Wilmington, died yesterday of appendicitis. His age was 23. Mr. J. McKee Cowan, of the same city also died yesterday of malignant malarial fever and jaundice. He was the youngest son of the late Col. Robt. H. Cowan, and was 33 years of age.

A Sad Case.

Mr. Brown Jackson, of Deep Creek, Anson county, writes the Charlotte Observer: "On the night of August 16 my daughter, Fannie Jackson, aged 14 years, was raped by a white man named Robt. T. Redfearn, who threatened to shoot her with a pistol. I have kept it quiet so far, only taking out warrants and trying to arrest him, as he was dodging about in the neighborhood. Since then he has fled to Georgia or Alabama. He has been traced that far. My daughter is very near to me. Please do all you can to bring him to justice. I am a poor man, but can prove the best of character for myself and family."

PRISON RULES

Prescribed by the State Board of Charities.

Today the state board of public charities issued a circular containing thirty rules for the government of all prisoners in North Carolina. The following rules are of public interest: Female prisoners shall be kept separate from male prisoners, and those sentenced or accused of crime from debtors. As far as possible, prisoners convicted of crime shall be separated from all others.

Wherever the construction of the jail allows children are to be kept separate from older prisoners. Prisoners should have daily exercise, if practicable, in the corridors; but when under sentence, only one at a time should have this privilege. He should be required to walk briskly, and not be allowed to lounge about or talk to prisoners in their cells.

Prisoners shall not curse and swear or talk loudly and boisterously, or make any disturbance whatever. They shall not call to or talk with persons outside, or make any unseemly action.

The slayer of Martin Misenheimer, who was convicted at Concord last January of manslaughter and sentenced to ten years in state prison, is dead. Last week Alex Barnhardt, seeing what he regarded an excellent opportunity to escape from one of the farms, broke and ran. He was almost beyond shot reach when discovered. He refused to hear the guard's warning command, up went the gun and Alex fell face foremost. The shot was a true one, Alex died inside of fifteen minutes. The Standard says that this very worthless man have met his fate.

The Weather Report.

For North Carolina: Fair until Thursday, cooler Wednesday morning and on the coast in the afternoon. Local forecast: Probably light rain tonight or early Wednesday when a change in temperature occurs, followed by a cool wave. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 93; minimum temperature 69; rainfall 00.

The most interesting feature of the weather map this morning is the cool wave which is advancing from the northwest. It is moving rapidly, southeastward and has reached the north Atlantic coast on the east and Texas on the south side. During the past 24 hours the temperature fell 18 degrees at Pittsburg, 16 at Cincinnati and 14 at St. Louis. The following temperatures were reported this morning: Buffalo 52, Detroit 48, Cincinnati 54, St. Paul 38, Huron 34, with frost, Chicago 52, Kansas City 48, Omaha 44, with frost. There is a slight barometric depression over the gulf of Mexico and over North Carolina which may produce a little rain before the cool wave reaches this section. Agreeably cooler weather will prevail the rest of this week.

Mrs. Julia A. Smith, of Durham, has received a letter from Miss Berta Newton in Africa. She states that her mother died July 1 in the interior of Africa, about two hundred miles from Lagos, where they were doing missionary work. Her father, Rev. C. C. Newton, was stricken with African fever about the same time her mother was, and after the death of her mother she boarded a vessel with her father for Lagos. He died on the 26th of July and was buried at sea. Miss Newton writes that she will resume her work at Lagos. She has the deepest sympathies of her many friends in Durham, says the Sun.
