THE DEMOCRATS

OF WAKE HELD THEIR CONVENTION TODAY.

County Officers Nominated by Acclamation.

Frank Stronach, Esq., chairman of the executive committee of Wake county, called the county convention to order at Metropolitan hall at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, making a brief speech thanking the democratic party for the honor it had conferred upon him and predicting victory for the party in November. He appointed R. H. Battle, Esq., temporary chairman, and Messrs. Reynolds, Cowan and Turner temporary secretaries.

Mr. Battle on taking the chair addressed the convention in a talk of ten minutes, saying he thought many of those who had strayed from the democratic fold to that of the populists would see the error of their ways and be with their party in November, and if not that enough would desert from the republicans to make victory sure. He declared the convention ready for business.

The roll of township, was called and every precinct was found to be represented. On motion of Armistead Jones, Esq., the temporary organization of the convention was made permanent. Mr. Jones introduced the following resolution in regard to primaries for United States senators and it was adopted:

"Resolved, That a primary for U. S. senators be held in the county of Wake on the first Tuesday in next December and that the registrars and democratic poll-holders at the November election be the poll-holders at said primary election. That in the event any of said poll-holders shall fail to serve at said election their places shall be filled by the democratic executive committee of each township. That only those persons who vote the democratic ticket at the November election shall be allowed to vote at the December primaries. That our senator and representatives be and they are hereby instructed to vote for the candidates for United States senators who receive the majority of votes cast at the said December primaries."

The convention went into the nomination of county officers and re-nominated by acclamation the following: John W. Thompson, for clerk; M. W. Page, for sheriff; Millard Migal, for register of deeds; Louis O. Longue, for treasurer. Dr. Arthur O. Jones was nominated for coroner and George W. Athinson, of Swift Creek township, for county surveyor.

Up to this time the proceedings of the convention had been in the nature of a veritable "love-feast," but when nominations for senator came up three gentlemen, Messrs. E. C. Smith, J. D. Boushall and A. G. Morris, were placed in nomination. Mr. Smith was nominated on the first ballot, receiving 84 votes, Morris 40 and Boushall 22.

On motion the nomination was made unanimous.

For the house the following gentlemen were placed in nomination: H. E. Norris, Alexander Stronach, W. A. Liles, John P. Beck, J. H. Fleming, J. N. Pair, T. A. Whitaker, W. R. Nichols and W. H. Holland.

On the first ballot Mr. Alexander Stronach, of Raleigh, John W. Beck, of New Light, and H. E. Norris, of Apex, were nominated.

Mr. H. C. Olive introduced the following resolution: "Our fellow countryman, Capt. Samuel A. Ashe, being a candidate for a seat in the United States senate, and the democrats of Wake county desiring to express their commendation of him as a distinguished democrat and one in all respects fit for the position to which he aspires, it is therefore:

"Resolved that we cordially commend him to the democrats of the next general assembly for their votes for the seat in the United States senate made vacant by the death of senator Vance."

On motion the resolution was unanimously adopted.

The newly nominated candidates were called on and responded in stirring speeches. The convention was largely attended and was a fine looking body.

Fine photographs are now made by Moore at about half the former price.

A LIVELY SCRAP.

Messrs. John Nichols and J. C. L. Harris Come to Blows.

The republican convention was held today in the court house. Its purpose was to ratify the nominations made by the populist county convention. Mr. J. C. L. Harris occupied the chair. Hon. John Nichols had a seat on the floor just under the judge's desk. A good deal of ad blood had been manifested and several persons encountered and during a speech by Mr. E. L. Bledsoe, Mr. Nichols interrupted the latter to ask if Mr. Harris had said anything against him. Mr. Bledsoe said he had made remarks derogatory to Mr. Nichols, whereupon the latter arose and shaking his finger in Mr. Harris' face demanded if he had said anything of the sort. Mr. Harris said he had, whereupon Mr. Nichols cried out, "You are a — liar." Mr. Harris, replying, "You are another, d — n you," struck Mr. Nichols on the head with his cane. Mr. Nichols drew a pocket knife and climbing on the judge's stand, attempted to cut Mr. Harris, who was still striking him. Delegates then rushed up and parted the fighters. Police officer Beasley arrested both and they were ordered to appear before mayor Badger at 5 o'clock this afternoon on a charge of affray.

This fight was a side issue of the convention. There was a passage at arms as a resolution came up pledging support to T. C. Milliken, the republican nominee for congress. Rev. R. H. W. Leak opposed this and said Milliken was working for the democratic ticket. D. P. Lane thereupon said (he being a Milliken man) that if anybody said he was working for the democrats he lied. Then Mr. F. M. Sorrell called Rev. Leak a — liar.

The convention disposed of its real business quickly. It ratified all the nominations made by the populist convention. It voted down the resolution to support Milliken.

DR. FULLER'S FUNERAL

Is Attended by all the Physicians in This City.

This morning at Christ church the funeral services of the late Dr. Francis T. Fuller were held. Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall and Rev. Mr. Gilreath officiating. The remains were escorted to the church from the insane asylum by the Raleigh academy of medicine. The active pall-bearers were Messrs. Fucker, Upechurch, C. Bell, Chandler, Abernethy and Kirkland, all attendants at the asylum. The honorary pall bearers were the vestry of the church, Messrs. R. H. Lewis, Charles Root, Frank P. Hayward, John Ward, V. E. Turner and John C. Drewry. The choir sang "Asleep in Jesus." The "Nearer my God to Thee," and "Jesus, Lover of my Soul." The remains were taken to the union depot and left on the noon train for Kirtrell. The interment was at the family burial-ground six miles from Kirtrell. There were beautiful floral offerings; a pillow with the words "At Rest," from the academy of medicine, and other flowers from the church vestry, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Johnson.

The Charlotte Observer says editorially: "In the death of Dr. F. T. Fuller, assistant physician at the North Carolina insane asylum, the state has lost a valuable citizen and the insane one of their best friends. Their treatment was the work of his life and he was thoroughly devoted to it and singularly successful in it. Without wife or children, he gave himself up to those whose minds had been darkened, and many a living man and woman owes to him, under Providence, the restoration to health of a mind once diseased. He discharged his duty here with intelligent fidelity and to doubt that there will be many stars in his crown would be to doubt the holy religion in which he was an humble believer. Personally Dr. Fuller was an exceedingly lovable gentleman and his friends were to be numbered by the number of his acquaintances. It is a source of gladness to be able to believe that it is well with him."

Work on the market floor now goes on by night as well as by day, in order that it may be completed by the end of next week.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

There was a partial eclipse of the moon last night.

Cyrene and company left this afternoon for Greensboro.

The market will be celled either with wood or steel, the Visitor is assured.

There are now 42 prisoners in Wake county jail; more than at any time since it was built.

There will be a concert at Peace institute next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Admission is by card.

Jacob Jordan was captured by sheriff Page's deputies and sent to Hillsboro where he is wanted on an old charge.

The faulty or ill-shaped trees in the young grove at Pullen park are being removed. In a few years the grove will be a fine one.

Up to last evening there had been eighteen conversions at Epworth chapel and thirteen accessions to the church. The interest is increasing.

Two brothers named Richards were brought here yesterday and placed in jail. They are from New Light township and were sent here for illicit distilling.

Cyrene's engagement here has been a failure. She is well liked and is a graceful dancer, but her support is very poor indeed. Business has been very light.

Metropolitan hall sadly needs a new curtain and new scenery. Now that the opera chairs are in place it is proper that the stage should be in keeping with the hall.

Last evening while a young gentleman a young lady were riding their bicycles the young lady fell in front of an approaching street car. Fortunately the car was stopped in time to prevent an accident.

The populists in Chatham county yesterday had a very large convention and nominated A. W. Wicker for the senate (defeating Atwater); Alfred Self and J. E. Bryan for the house; John Dixon for clerk, J. J. Jenkins for sheriff, J. T. Paschal for register of deeds, L. B. Chapin for coroner, J. W. Strowd for surveyor.

As the pastor, Rev. R. H. Whitaker, is still carrying on the revival meeting at Epworth chapel, he will not be able to fill his pulpit at Brooklyn tomorrow evening, consequently there will be no services at the latter church, but there will be services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. at Epworth chapel.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The Opening Next Friday—The Teachers, &c.

Next Friday the five public schools of this township open. Mrs. J. M. Barlow has resigned as principal of the Centennial school, and Miss Mabel Hale succeeds her. There will be eleven teachers at this school. Miss Eliza Pool continues as principal of the Morpheus school, which has ten teachers. Rev. A. C. Davis is principal of the Washington school, which has nine teachers. Charles N. Hunter is principal of the Garfield school, which has five teachers. An addition, 20x36 feet, is being made to this school building, and will be completed in three weeks. J. H. Branch is principal of the Oberlin school, which has two teachers.

On "educational day" at the state fair it is proposed to have 500 of the older pupils of the Raleigh schools present. Secretary Ayer will give them all a view of the cyclorama of "Gettysburg." They will make a preliminary study of the history of that famous battle.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

For North Carolina: Generally fair. Local forecast: Monday fair. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 84; minimum temperature 64; rainfall 0.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Picked Up About Passing People.

Mr. W. Clark, of Tarboro, arrived today.

Prof. Clinton Toms, of Durham, was here today.

Mr. T. B. Moseley, whose illness was mentioned, is out again.

Mr. Fab. H. Riggs went to Portsmouth, Va., today to visit Mr. John M. Sherwood.

Mr. John Hicks who has been absent for a long time in Tennessee, is visiting his father, Mr. W. J. Hicks.

Mr. Erastus Fuller, of Franklin county, attended the funeral of his brother, Dr. F. T. Fuller.

Dr. Cobb is here from Greensboro for a few days, aiding Dr. Kirby at the insane asylum, which is now without a regular assistant physician.

Mrs. Kirkland, lady principal of the normal and industrial school at Greensboro, arrived yesterday from the north where she has been spending her vacation.

KNEW HE WAS GOING MAD.

Asked to be Locked Up to Prevent a Murder.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Believing he was becoming insane, and being in his right mind, yet feeling his reason gradually leaving him, is the strange case of James P. Irving, an Albany business man, made declaration that he was sure that he was becoming insane, and petitioned that he be examined as to his sanity.

"It is because I am afraid that I might do harm to some one that I feel deeply," said Irving "I feel all the symptoms of insanity coming on me. I am in my right mind now. I realize very well that I am losing my senses. The thoughts which I have are dreadful, and often I am tempted to murder my wife and children, and to cut my own throat. It is an awful feeling, and don't think I can resist it long. Strange voices I hear, and demons seem to have taken possession of my head. If I am not sent to an asylum I will surely do harm."

Irving is a man of powerful physique, six feet high and very respectable looking. His face bore traces of anguish.

Doctors examined the man and declared him insane. His farewell to his family was touching. Irving's wife and children had been sent for. They came, wondering why they were wanted. Irving had not told them a word of his condition, and the surprise and grief displayed were great.

Immediately after his family had left Irving became a raving maniac, and was violent as he was being taken to the asylum, where he is now.

Milton Nobles Monday Evening.

Raleigh theatre-goers will have the pleasure Monday evening at the academy of music of seeing Milton Nobles in his new play, "For Revenue Only." He has constructed a thoroughly enjoyable play, abounding in wit, without horse play. This kind of play is familiar but it is the very best of its kind. It is more what is said than being done that keeps the audience in a ripple or rivulet of laughter through four acts. It is clean and wholesome. The box sheet is at W. H. King & Co's drug store.

Barlow Brothers' minstrels drew a large house last evening at Metropolitan hall and gave a particularly fine performance. The number of ladies in attendance was large. The musical features were admirable, the dancing up to date and the contortion and trapeze work high-class. The company ought to omit a gag or two and the songs about congressman Breckinridge and Cleveland.

Rev. D. H. Tuttle, pastor of Central Methodist church, will begin a series of sermons tomorrow evening on the "Second Coming of Christ." This is an absorbing subject, as its discussion is being more widely dealt with today than at any time in the history of the church. The public is especially invited to attend these sermons. His sermon tomorrow evening will be on "Expectation."
