WHO STRUCK BILLY PATTERSON?

And Now We Ask How Does This Strike You?

In order to bring into Raleigh some surplus cash I have made arrangements to secure loans for those who need money and can't get it in this way. Several thousand dollars lent in Raleigh already. Read:

Endowment Plan.

The peculiar advantage of the Endowment plan is in the convenience and certainty with which a debt may be paid off.

Anybody with sufficient credit or security may be able to incur an obligation to pay $1,000. But the trouble is that when the debt falls due he still owes the $1,000, and in most cases it is then as difficult to pay it as it was when the debt was created.

The Endowment plan solves the question "How to pay the principal of your debt."

The Company makes loans for either seven or ten years.

Every borrower is obliged to carry an Endowment policy, which will mature on or before the day his loan becomes due.

The Endowment and the loan both being for seven years, the payment of the Endowment enables the borrower to pay off his loan the day it becomes due.

Should the borrower die before the end of the seven years, the life insurance payable under the Endowment policy goes to reduce or repay the loan. If death should occur at the end of three years, the life insurance would pay off more than half the debt—in this case the balance of the loan would remain on the property at 6 per cent. interest until the end of the seven years.

The life insurance under a seven-year Endowment amounts to the face of the Endowment after six years, and under a ten-year Endowment after eight years.

Interest.

The interest on loans is six per cent per annum, and is paid in monthly instalments. Thus on a loan of $1,000 the monthly interest is $5.

Security.

To secure the loans and interest the Company requires a first mortgage on real estate worth double the amount of the loan.

Cost.

The following table shows the total cost per month of a loan on the Endowment plan:

LOAN OF $1,000 FOR SEVEN YEARS.
Interest at 6 per cent per annum, - - - - -	$ 5.00
Premium on seven-year Endowment, - - - - -	12.50
Total cost per month, - - - - -	$17.50
LOAN OF $1,000 TEN YEARS.
Interest at 6 per cent per annum, - - - - -	$ 5.00
Premium on ten-year Endowment, - - - - -	9.50
Total cost per month, - - - - -	$14.50

Amount of life insurance per $1,000 of the Endowment granted payable under the policy if death occurs after the policy has been in force for either of the following periods:

If Endowment is payable at end of 7 years.
After 1 year, $ 250	$ 300
After 2 years, 400	300
After 3 years, 525	400
After 4 years, 650	500
After 5 years, 825	750
After 7 years, 1000	775
If Endowment is payable at end of 10 years.
After 8 years, - - - - -	1000
After 9 years, - - - - -	1000
After 10 years, - - - - -	1000

If the Endowment is greater or less than $1,000 the Life Insurance payable will be in proportion.

Call on C. C. McDonald, Special Agent. It requires about 30 days usually to get papers complete and to have the check ready for issue.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

At Metropolitan hall this evening—Belle Boyd.

The new floor of the city market is about two-thirds completed.

This week's event here is the state mass convention of the democratic clubs.

The ties for the extension of the street railway to the union depot have been delivered.

Register of deeds Mial and his clerks are all busy getting out the tax lists, which will be ready in a few days.

Charles Gray, the young man who tried to commit suicide Sunday morning, is getting on nicely and is "blessing his stars" that he took an overdose of laudanum.

Do the city authorities know of the quantity of weeds on East Polk street? The weeds are so numerous as to make the street look nearly like an abandoned farm.

The "basket social" advertised at the residence of Mrs. A. W. Shaffer this evening has been indefinitely postponed on account of other entertainments noticed for the same evening.

A gentleman from Chapel Hill reports that there are now 494 students at the University and says there will be over five hundred in the spring.

Dough's restaurant opens for the season Thursday. Improvements of its interior will be made. Dough's oysters, &c., make a great hit.

At the supreme court building preparation is being made for the meeting of the court. Next Friday and Saturday the applicants for license are to be examined, and of these it is said there will be at least 45.

Mr. Chandler of Nebraska has rented through Allen & Boyden's agency the Gatling place, east of this city. He will breed horses. That has been his business in Nebraska. French coach horses are to be a specialty.

Greensboro is to have a baby show next Friday evening. The ladies could not find any one reckless enough to act as judge, so they have decided to charge 5 cents a vote and let it be decided in that way.

Ninety convicts were sent yesterday from the penitentiary to Weldon. Ten go to the Great Falls canal, 30 to the Northampton farm and 55 to the Caldonia farm. This leaves 137 convicts in the penitentiary. Of these 25 are females, 8 of them white.

Yesterday the democrats of Burke county nominated Charles F. McKesson for the legislature. He is well known all over the state as a fine speaker, and has relatives in this city.

All the pension lists are on hand at the state auditor's office. It is the belief that there will be some increase in the number of pensioners, but the clerk says he cannot yet tell how great that will be.

The negro boy who has been presenting forged orders for hams to Raleigh grocers is being tried before mayor Badger this afternoon. The trial was postponed to await witnesses from Wake Forest.

This is the third week of the meeting at the Fayetteville street Baptist church and the interest in the meetings seems to be growing every day. Last evening there were two professions and several went to the altar for prayer.

The A. & M. college football team has settled down to hard practice under the direction of captain Joel Whitaker. The college team plays the University eleven at Chapel Hill on Oct 19th and will probably arrange a game with either Wake Forest or Trinity during fair week.

Governor Carr, who has just returned from a short visit to his Edgecombe farm, says that two weeks ago the cotton prospect was poor, but the recuperation is remarkable. He was really surprised at the improvement, and says he will make a fair cotton crop.

COL. CARR HERE.

He is on Hand to Arrange for the Club Convention.

This afternoon Col. Julian S. Carr, president of the state association of democratic clubs, arrived here and is at the Yarboro, where he will have his headquarters until Friday. He is here, as he says, "to stake off the ground" in other words to make all arrangements for the club convention. The latter goes in session at noon Thursday, probably at Metropolitan hall. Col. Carr says he expects a great attendance, if even only half the people who say they will be here do come. The chief trouble, Col. Carr says, is with the railways, which will not give the cheap rates asked for, but have put on tariff No. 2. The Southern railway wants Col. Carr, he says, to guarantee, or in other words give his check for, $475 for two special trains from Goldsboro and Greensboro here. He has this matter under advisement.

He says the following speakers, known all over the country, will certainly be here: Gov. Black of Pennsylvania, C. H. Mansur, of Missouri, secretary of the interior Hoke Smith, W. C. Oates of Alabama and senators Ransom and Jarvis. He cannot say positively that Bourke Cochran of New York, senator Daniel of Va., or senator Faulkner of West Virginia will be here, but most probably Daniel will come. New York influence is being brought to bear on Bourke Cochran to induce him to come.

The organization of the association of clubs is to follow the speaking.

It Will Be Very Attractive.

W. H. King & Co. will have many improvements of the interior of their store. All the fixtures are to be of hand-carved oak, and all the cases are to have plate glass fronts reaching to the floor. The prescription case will have a front entirely of mirrors. A new soda apparatus will be put in and hot soda is to be a winter specialty. There will be a steel ceiling. All the carved oak wood work is being prepared here. The prices and style of this won in competition with work done north. King & Co. will at the state fair exhibit a model drug store.

"The Spider and the Fly."

M. B. Leavitt's spectacular pantomime will be presented at the academy of music Friday evening. It is said that the company numbers fifty people, and embraces American operatic, pantomimic and vaudeville stars and several late European novelties. The story of the "Spider and Fly" serves as the foundation of an evening's enjoyment with catchy music, funny topical songs, half a dozen ballets, processions, marches, grotesque comedy and "local hits."

A High Speed Motor.

The street car company has ordered and is expecting daily a motor for one of the cars, which is the latest invention for street car propulsion. The chief points of utility are the ease with which it can be stopped or put in motion and the speed which it is capable of generating. It is said that a car fitted with this motor can run on a level at as rapid a rate as 30 miles an hour and can ascend the steepest grade at a 15 mile clip.

A New Elm.

Mr. B. W. Upchurch, better known as "Bailey," and Mr. Charles Anderson, formerly at D. T. Swindell's, have purchased the grocery store of John R. Terrell & Co. and will continue the business under the name of B. W. Upchurch & Co.

Belle Boyd.

During the war "Belle Boyd" was very famous as a confederate spy. Many were her daring deeds and her name was on every tongue. This evening she lectures here, at Metropolitan hall, in aid of the soldiers' home.

Fun and Fight.

This afternoon Mr. Brown, who stays in DeBoy's saloon, and Thomas Conway were having a friendly boxing match. After about five minutes it became so exciting that the police arrested both. The trial was set for this afternoon. Both profess the highest regard for each other and declare it was too bad to arrest them for what was merely play.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Mr. Jesse Taylor is critically sick at his farm near this city.

Thomas W. Keene will play "Hamlet" here next Monday evening.

Mr. C. B. Edwards is at Chattanooga attending the meeting of the supreme grand lodge of Odd Fellows.

Mr. George Stronach, formerly of Raleigh but now engaged in the grocery business at Wilson, returned home today.

Mr. George Holder, who for two years has been a compositor in this office, is now "sticking type" at the News and Observer office.

Mr. Andrew Williams, who has been sick with fever at his home on South McDowell street, is now much better. The fever has left him.

THE YARBORO HOUSE.

Its Interior Being Remodeled—It Will Be Made Attractive.

Work has begun on the alterations of the interior of the Yarboro house. The owners, the Grimes estate, and the manager, Mr. Lewis Brown, will make it a modern hotel in point of equipment. Halls and rooms are being attractively papered throughout the old portion of the building. Steam heating apparatus with radiators is being put in position and a great deal of sanitary plumbing will be done. The dining room will have a painted wainscoting four feet high, oak finish. This room will have a steel ceiling of attractive pattern, with new combination chandeliers and electrolights. The walls will be papered in a style in harmony with the new woodwork. The office will have a steel ceiling, painted and decorated, and the floor will be laid with white and black marble tiles, with variegated borders. This room will also have a painted wainscoting, and this and all the other woodwork will be of oak. The counter will be placed on the east side and will be semi-circular in shape. It will face the main entrance. The present plain arches will be filled with ornamental grilles or net work screens of steel, and the windows will be ornamented with colored glass. A new and elaborate mantel, with mirrored cabinet, will be opposite the main stairway. The arches in front of the office, now separating it from the lobby, will be removed, and steel pillars will act as the supports. The reading room is now in rear of the office. There will also be a special baggage and parcel room. In the rear wing of the north end some rooms will be specially fitted for sample rooms. Architect Bauer has designed all these improvements, which will be so made as not to interfere with the comfort of patrons.

Trinity Tries Another Man.

Some time ago the Visitor told of the flattering offer Mr. Zeb Andrews, Raleigh's heavyweight, had received from Trinity college to play football there the coming season. Mr. Andrews, for reason best known to himself, refused the offer. Trinity seems determined, however, to get good players whether they go to college or not, so her footballists have recently been corresponding with Mr. R. O. Fry, a 240-pounder, who has for several years been the "centre rush" of the Wake Forest team. An offer was made him of tuition, board and all necessary expenses, with $25 a month thrown in, to play on the Trinity team. Mr. Fry doubtless loves Wake Forest but filthy lucre prevailed and he left yesterday for Trinity. The other state colleges had better keep their eyes open as Trinity seems to have an unlimited quantity of "dough."

Many persons drive out to the spring west of Pullen park, which Mr. Pullen has recently opened. The water is deliciously cool and of remarkable purity and the location attractive.

Mr. Jabez Myers was on the streets of Charlotte yesterday and for several hours was greeted by his friends. The News says he plainly shows the marks of the suffering he has gone through, but is now on the mend rapidly and will soon be himself again.

The Perjury Case.

The case of perjury against Jim Hawkins, which was told in yesterday's Visitor, came up before mayor Badger this morning. M. W. Vass, Esq., counsel for Hawkins, stated that the prosecution did not wish to press the case and asked the mayor to dismiss it. This mayor Badger refused to do but postponed the case to consider the matter.
