DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

[At the academy this evening. "The Spider and Fly."

An excursion will run from Raleigh to Portsmouth Sept. 26.

The governor has appointed A. H. Crowell, of Hickory, a notary public.

Thomas & Maxwell have just put in use a very handsome delivery wagon.

Some time late in October there will be a big democratic barbecue in Barton's creek township.

Yesterday and today there were many marriages in the city. Some of them were in Nash square.

Today at the superior court clerk's office the infant son of J. J. Grady was apprenticed to E. F. Spears.

The revival at the Fayetteville street Baptist church is well attended. There are thus far almost twenty conversions.

Mr. Robinson, commissioner of agriculture, exhibited today some sweet potato flowers. These are by no means common.

One of the inmates of the soldiers' home died there this morning. He was Joseph Harris, of Mecklenburg county, his age being 70.

The tax-books have been turned over to the sheriff for collection. The taxpayers of Wake are requested to come and settle as soon as possible.

The populists in the ninth district have decided to make no nomination for congress, but endorse Mr. Richmond Pearson, the republican nominee.

Dugli today filled a fine order for the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Gray at Winston this evening. The celebration of the event is to be quite elaborate.

Wake criminal court convenes next Monday, judge Bynum presiding. There are 109 cases on the docket, 5 of which are capital cases. Three are for murder, one for rape and one for burglary.

The Raleigh stationery company has displayed its new stock, which has been specially selected and is certainly very attractive. The company claims that nothing in the state is finer in its line.

Willie Wiggins, colored, who was arrested some time ago on a very common charge, and was let go on bail, was sent back to jail today. His bondsman, J. R. Smith, got suspicious and turned him over.

Yesterday Mr. Allen Marshburn, a farmer, who has a mill a few miles northwest of here, lost a valuable pair of mules. He was driving them along a road across his dam, when they backed into the pond and both were quickly drowned.

An Evening with Scott. All persons who are to take part in the entertainment this evening at the Park Hotel are requested to meet at 7:30 o'clock sharp.

Theatre Goers, Attention! Don't fail to go to academy of music this evening to see M. B. Leavitt's mammoth spectacular extravaganza. It is one of the biggest attractions on the road, it is said.

The Cotton Report. The receipts for the season are 2459 bales, against 731 bales to the same date last year. The receipts for the week ending yesterday were 1593 bales, and for the corresponding week last year were 567. There are 550 bales now on the platform and the shipments for the week were 1369. The price of new middling is 5 7-8 cents.

Many Wish to be Lawyers. Today the supreme court met at 10 o'clock, all the justices being on the bench, and the day was devoted to the examination of no less than 56 gentlemen who wish to be lawyers. This is the largest "class" ever before the court. The applicants come from all parts of the state. The examination will be concluded this evening it is stated.

Fine photographs are now made by Moore at about half the former price.

BEFORE THE MAYOR.

A Perjury Case, Repentant Fighters and One Disorderly.

Mayor Badger had quite a little budget to dispose of this morning. The first case to be settled was the affray between Willis and Henderson, which was postponed from yesterday. These two may have been at odds with each other yesterday but they were the best of good friends today, sat side by side before and during the trial and spoke in subdued tones about the folly of "fooling around." Both submitted, Henderson saying he meant no harm and was only "fooling." This cost each $5 and costs. As they left the room together Henderson exclaimed fervently, "You will never see me here again, Mr. Mayor."

A colored boy, who used profane language on the streets, was fined $3 and costs.

The case of perjury against Jim Hawkins, which was reported several days ago in the Visitor, came up, and after reviewing the evidence mayor Badger bound him over to court. Being unable to furnish bail, Jim had to go to jail.

Policeman Matt. Jones, who was severely cut on the head day before yesterday while trying to make an arrest, was unable to come down town this morning. On this account the case against George Savage for resisting arrest could not be tried, as officer Jones is the principal witness against him. Jim Bryant has not yet been captured but the authorities say they will have him in a few days.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

Local forecast: fair, slightly warmer Saturday. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a.m. today: Maximum temperature 79, minimum temperature 58; rainfall 0.00.

With an area of high pressure over the southern states the conditions are very favorable for continued fair weather in this part of the country. The wind will shift to southerly during the day and Saturday will be slightly warmer. The weather is generally clear and cool this morning. Very little rain has occurred anywhere since yesterday morning.

Political Notes.

Last evening at the session of the state convention of democratic clubs at the academy of music the audience was a large one, many ladies attending. A permanent organization was effected, Francis D. Winston of Bertie county being made chairman and B. C. Beckwith secretary. The platform adopted is that of the last state democratic convention. A resolution was unanimously adopted endorsing the Nicaragua canal, which was so earnestly favored by ex-governor Black in his address. Lawrence Gardiner followed Black and was in turn followed by senator Jarvis, while Hon. C. H. Mansur of Missouri made the closing address.

Next Monday's Event.

Mr. Thomas W. Keene this season has not made the mistake, so common to many gifted actors, of grouping about him a very inferior company. He has engaged some of the most accomplished artists in the profession, among whom are Edwin Arden, Frank Hennig, Carl Ahrendt, Thomas Eagleston, Lawrence Lowell, Lillian Lawrence, Juliette Downs, Genevieve Beaman and Mrs. S. A. Barker. "Hamlet" at the academy of music next Monday evening will rank among the leading memories of those who hear him. The boxsheet is at W. H. King & Co.'s drug store.

If you are a subscriber show the paper to your neighbor. Drop us a postal or send your number and street to this office. The manager will do the rest. Try it one month. "THE VISITOR leads, never follows."

Cotton is pouring into Wilmington. The receipts are 9,000 bales this season, and one ship, now being loaded, will take all this away.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Mr. F. O. Landis, of Oxford, arrived today.

Bishop Cheshire arrived here this afternoon.

Mr. Morson's little daughter, Hal, is quite ill with malarial fever.

Among today's arrivals is E. S. Parker, Esq., of Graham, solicitor of the fifth district.

Mr. Charles J. Voorhees, who now represents the S. A. L. in Texas, is here for a few days.

Governor Carr leaves Monday for Concord and will make a speech at the opening of the Cabarrus county fair that day.

Mr. Lawrence Gardiner, who spoke last evening at the academy of music, is remarkably like president Cleveland. He left this afternoon.

Judge George H. Brown, of the superior court, has announced his candidacy for the United States senate as the successor to senator Ransom.

Dr. Charles W. Dabney, formerly state chemist here, has been made chairman of the government board of exhibits at the cotton states exhibition in Atlanta, Ga.

Ex-governor Black, of Pennsylvania and Mr. A. A. Arthur will be here several days on matters connected with immigration and development schemes of his company.

DEATH BEFORE DISGRACE.

A Delinquent Postmaster Kills Himself.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., September 20.—A deputy United States marshal was dispatched to Mayflower, to place under arrest J. S. Little, postmaster, charged with opening and extracting $40 from a registered letter package. The deputy marshal returned today, with the warrant unserved. On arriving at his destination the officer at once notified the delinquent postmaster of his mission. Little betrayed no surprise, and in an indifferent manner requested permission to change his clothes for a more presentable garb before being taken to Springfield. To this assent was given, and he soon appeared in a dress suit and carrying a Bible in his hand. Handing the book to the deputy, he said:

"This is my last will and testament, and, knowing that I will be a dead man within two hours, I swear upon it that I am innocent."

Before the officer could recover from the surprise occasioned by the remarkable speech, Little threw himself on a bed in the room and stabbed himself in the abdomen, inflicting a mortal wound. The nearest physician was seven miles away, and before he could be summoned Little bled to death.

TOBACCO TALK.

Good Breaks and Good Prices Portend a Prosperous Season.

The leaf tobacco business seems at last to have attained a good footing in Raleigh. The season has opened under auspicious circumstances and business is brisk. If Raleigh's business men will only take enough interest in and help push and encourage this industry, as it is certainly to their interest to do, there is no reason why Raleigh in a few years should not be made as good and as prosperous a tobacco mart as there is in North Carolina.

The Visitor reporter called at the Farmers' warehouse this morning and found Messrs. Fleming and Love both jubilant over the outlook for a good season. The breaks have been unusually fine ever since the season opened, last Tuesday, and the prices are good. Farmers are beginning to see that it is to their advantage to sell on this market and today there were wagons from Wake, Franklin and Chatham. The breaks today amounted to 15,000 pounds and averaged, as they have all the season, about $16 a hundred pounds. The highest-priced lot sold this season brought $75. The tobacco sold has mostly been of excellent quality and buyers have opened their eyes and got down to business. The prices per pound vary from 10 to 60 cents.

The above is an excellent showing and it is encouraging to see the tobacco business here. The tobacco men say that this is only the beginning and that the encouraging opening of the season is but an earnest of what is to come. It is to be hoped they are right. Raleigh is splendidly situated for a tobacco market, being in touch with the finest tobacco district in this country. The reason it is not a great market is simply lack of "push," and it seems now as if the "push" was about to materialize.

JUST received a nice lot of butter at 20c lb. Fresh vegetables, chickens and eggs always on hand. Also fine beef and fresh meats. Free delivery. 2c W. H. Rogers, No. 12 Exchange.

TARIFF RATES.

Two weeks ago we began a special Carpet sale, with prices lower than a free wool basis. We could offer Carpets at these low prices for two reasons:

1st. Some were past patterns—patterns that could not be duplicated.

2nd. We bought for quick cash, from manufacturers who needed money, all the Carpets that suited us, at prices lower than the new tariff rates.

For another week, beginning MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17th, Carpets will be the principal item, and our customers can have the benefit of prices which are lower than the reduced tariff figures.
