HINTS TO BUSINESS MEN!

Good advertising consists in the selection of a few strong, quick sell specialties, to stand as the representatives of your stock in price, pattern and quality. No tradesman need look for a specialty. Let specialties sell staples always and try to take rank among your competitors as one who is the quickest to recognize a good thing and the first to sell it.

Invite patrons to come and see you.
The great advertisers of the country never cease reminding the people of their names, location and nature of business. Advertising is an investment and newspaper advertising columns are a boon to man. They help him out of his troubles and into the smiles of prosperity. The Pennsylvania railroad advertises exclusively in the newspapers. There is not a great business that has been built in the past twenty years without the aid of newspapers.

This is a too bustling and competition is too great for the merchant to allow himself any longer the luxury of waiting supinely behind his counter for trade. He must show in advance of the purchase just what he has to sell and how he intends to sell it, and a persistent publication of his wares is the means by which such showing can be made.

Frank Siddall, the Philadelphia soap man, says: "I have confined my advertising entirely to newspapers.
The man who does not read a newspaper does not use soap."

The great strike of cotton weavers and spinners at Fall River, Mass., continues.

It is said positively that senator Hill will not be the democratic nominee for governor in New York.

It is said that Mr. A. A. Robinson has been offered the presidency of the Santa Fe railroad system at a salary of $80,000, but declines it.

Crop moving is sending money from the financial centers into the interior.
This feature of the fall business will soon be active.

Some of the authorities are estimating that the corn yield will reach last year's figures, after all, or 1,600,- 000 bushels. These calculations, if they turn out to be true, will be a factor of considerable importance in the business situation.

The cities of New York owe $171,- 000,000, the towns $14,000,000 and the villages $2,600,000, while the counties owe less than $14,000,000. At the rate municipal indebtedness is piling up the time is coming when there will be no difficulty in keeping boys on the farm unless they want to devote their lives to paying taxes.

Three hundred negroes left Birmingham, Alabama, yesterday in charge of labor agents, to take the places of striking miners in the Massillon, Ohio, district, and 1,000 more will soon follow. It is said the Ohio strikers have threatened to slaughter the southern negroes if they attempt to go to work.
Trouble is expected on the arrival of the negroes, as they have not been apprised of the situation.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, once pastor of the Baptist tabernacle here, now pastor of the Park avenue Baptist church at Norfolk, has an article in the Christian Commonwealth, published in London. Dr. Hall is an Englishman. In his article he discusses the lynching question. The papers comment very favorably on his letter. He denies all Ida Wells' charges, and says: "Our English people have been misinformed and acted unwisely in listening too readily to those who slander a great and good people. We have a right to expect better things from those who are so closely allied to us in religion and race. Be patient and learn the whole truth, and then the slanders will pass away like a dream."

A Chinaman living at Beaufort, S. C., writes the New York Herald, saying the United States begged Chinamen to come to this country to plant sugar cane in Louisiana and to build railroads and to dig gold mines in California, their passage and board free and their wages, $10 per month.
At that time they treated the Chinamen right, and after they finished their work the people treated them like dogs and wanted to drive them out of the country.

A suit has been brought against a New York millionaire for $500 for the use of an incubator for 119 days. A premature baby, weighing two pounds at her birth, by the use of the incubator was kept so nicely warmed that she developed into a fine, fat and healthy child; and now the ungrateful parent refuses to pay $5 a day in compensation for such a unique and successful service. The determination of this suit will involve some novel points of law.

Mrs. F. K. Hunt, the venerable president of the woman's anti-Breckinridge association, of Lexington, Ky., has received a letter from Miss Mary Decker, sister-in-law of Col. Breckinridge, now residing in Washington, from which the following extract is taken: "I will probably never see you again on this earth, and I want you to know how much I thank you for what you have done in defeating the man who has disgraced the Ashland district.
You at home can hardly realize how we have felt here. There was universal rejoicing this morning when the result was known."

A trial of an interesting case began at Baltimore yesterday. Barbara Young brings suit against the college of physicians and surgeons and doctors Nathan G. Kerile and Edwin Geer for $25,000 for mutilating the body of her husband. Both are professors in the college. The plaintiff's husband was hurt in an accident and died in the hospital. The woman charges that the doctors, without her consent or that of anybody representing her, cut open the body for the instruction of the students, and removing the brains, replaced them with oakum. Her counsel attempted to have kept from the consideration of the jury the question of damages on account of "mental anguish" alleged to have been sustained by the woman, on the general principle of law that damages cannot be recovered for mental anguish because of the impossibility of fixing any rule by which the amount of suffering in individual cases can be determined.

A Sensational Case.

Rev. T. K. Brown, a Baptist clergyman and merchant of Buncombe, has brought suit against Rev. James Q.
Moffett, of McDowell county, for slander. Mr. Brown's wife died last winter, and he remarried. He alleges that Moffett has uttered and circulated various slanderous reports, among them that Brown killed his wife. Morfett was arrested. His bail was fixed at $10,000. He sued out a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Avery, of the supreme court. A hearing was had and bail reduced to $3,000, which Moffett gave. The case will be heard before Buncombe superior court next December. Both men have had good standing in their churches and in their respective communities. Moffett denies that he uttered the slander.

DOING A GREAT WORK.

Paine's Celery Compound Brightening Thousands of Homes.

How hard it is to see the dear ones gradually losing their holden life and fading away.

No home, however guarded, but has some dear one for whom anxiety never ceases.

Father and mother treading down under heavy care, or a sister or a brother growing thin, pale, and weaker day by day.

Into these sad homes Paine's celery compound comes like a messenger of mercy. There is sure to be some near relative or friend who owes recovery from some debilitating sickness to Paine's celery compound. The family physician, no matter of what school, recommends it and tells of others who became vigorous by its use.

This is the usual story of the entrance of this remarkable blood purifier and nerve strengthener into so many homes in every city and village in the United States.

It restores healthy, nervous action of the heart; sends purer, richer blood through the intricate ventricles and chambers of this vital organ and equalizes its action by regulating the nervous system.

Paine's celery compound cures speedily and permanently all disorders due to impure blood and badly nourished nerves and nerve centres.

Mr. Claud Cary, a picture of whose wife appears above, writing from his home in North Topeka, Kansas, says:
"I have been a sufferer from nervousness for years, and have used several remedies, none of which did me any good. This season I had a severe attack, and tried Paine's celery compound. One bottle gave me immediate relief. I used two bottles and am as well today as I ever was."

"My wife has also used the medicine with much relief. I have recommended it to several of my friends and am sure that they are satisfied with it."

Try it once and be convinced from personal experience.
