And Now We Ask How Does This Strike You?

In order to bring into Raleigh some surplus eash I have made arrangements to secure loans for those who need money and can't get it in this way. Several thousand dollars lent in Raleigh already. Read:

Endowment Plan.

The peculiar advantage of the Endowment plan is in the convenience and certainty with which a debt may be paid off.

Anybody with sufficient credit or security may be able to incur an obligation to pay $1,000. But the trouble is that when the debt falls due he still owes the $1,000, and to pay it as it was when the debt was created.

The Endowment plan solves the question "How to pay the principal of your debt."

The Company makes loans for either seven or ten years.

Every borrower is obliged to carry an Endowment policy, which will mature on or before the day his loan becomes due.

The Endowment and the loan both being for seven years, the payment of the Endowment enables the borrower to pay off his loan the day it becomes due.

Should the borrower die before the end of the seven years, the life insurance payable under the Eudowment policy goes to reduce or repay the loan. If death should occur at the end of three years, the life insurance would pay off more than half the debt-in this case the balance of the loan would remain on the property at 6 per cent, interest until the end of the seven years.

The life insurance under a severyear Endowment amounts to the face of the Endowment after six years, and under a ten-year Endowment after eight years.

The interest on loans is six per cent per annum, and is paid in monthly instalments. Thus on a loan of $1,000 the monthly interest is $5.

Security.

To secure the loans and interest the Company requires a first mortgage on real estate worth double the amount of the loan.

Cost.

The following table shows the total cost per mont of a loan on the Endowment plan:

LOAN OF $1,000 FOR SEVEN YEARS.

Interest at 6 per cent per annum, - - - - - - $ 5.00 Premium on seven-year Endowment, - - - - - 12.50

> Total cost per month, - - $17.50 LOAN OF $1,000 TEN YEARS.

Total cost per month, - - $14.50

Amount of life insurance per $1,000 of the Endowment granted payable under the policy if death occurs after the policy has been in force for either of the following periods:

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPEN-INGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

If the rainy weather continues much longer it is said cotton will rot in the bolls.

The weather bureau here has slippled up on its predictions of fair weather for a couple of days.

Mr. Foster Utley, who for many years was superintendent of repairs of the university buildings, is dead. He was a native of Wake.

Sheriff J. J. Jenkins, of Chatham, brought three white convicts to the penitentiary today. Two are sent up in most cases it is then as difficult | for burglary and one for larceny.

The mayor had two cases to dispose of this morning. A drunk on the street got twelve hours. Two negroes for disorderly conduct were fined $10 and costs each.

The fall of rain Thursday was something enormous at Goldsboro. It did great damage to open cotton in the fields and will seriously retard traffic from the country for several days, the Argus savs.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad was held at Morehead City Thursday last. The road is in fine condition. New rolling stock has been purchased, and a 2 per cent. dividend declared. The management deserves great credit.

Messrs. Augusto Landi and Piaggio Brasmo, the Italians who are here to look at lands, today visited the agricultural department and the museum and are greatly pleased at the courtesies shown them by Mr. T. K. Bruner and Mr Frank Green.

Mr. Palmer Babcock, who used to live in this city, is in jail at Washington, on a charge of "tapping" a telegraph wire so as to get the result of the races. He denies that he was in the attempted swindle, but two men who are implicated in the affair swear he originated the plan.

There will be preaching at Central Methodist church tomorrow. At 7:45 p. m. the pastor will preach the third sermon of the series on the second coming of Christ. The subject of this sermon will be the opening of the seven sealed books or sins for failure of the world lifted by Christ .- Rev., chapter v.

Athletic Notes.

Mr. Vernon K. Irvine, of Princeton, arrived at Chapel Hill today to take charge of the university football team. He will remain six weeks.

Davidson college students are this year allowed to play games of ball with other colleges on the Davidson grounds.

During the state fair there will be at the fair grounds a tennis tournament between the University of Virginia and the University of North Carolina. The latter has received an invitation from Yale to enter the intercollegiate tennis matches to be held there in October.

An Auburn African. One of the singular things one may see in the court room is "Jerry" Hargrave, a colored man who is held on some trivial charge. What makes the man very singular and sets him apart from the rest of his race is his hair. He is a splendid specimen of that very rare genus the red-headed negro. Except for his auburn locks Hargrave doest not differ from any other man of his race. His hair, or rather kinks, is cut pompadour and its brillant color, contrasting strongly with "Jerry's" sable complexion, gives him a startling appearance.

A Devoted Mother.

Mrs. Dixon, of Dinwiddie county, Va., was here yesterday and obtained a pardon for her son, Robert Dixon, who six and one half months ago was sent to the penitentiary from Guilford county for eight months, for stealing a pair of shoes worth $1. A month ago his mother walked here to ask the governor to pardon him. Yesterday she again came, having again walked. She was accompanied by her little daughter. This time she got the paron the Roanoke where her son was.

This time she was given money with which to pay her railway fare.

to which the citizens of Raleigh are cordially invited. Rev. Dr. Daniel, of Florence, E. C., who is to assist in the meeting, will arrive Monday

SUPERIOR COURT.

Some Cases of Local Interest Taken up.

The Visiton went to press yesterday afternoon while the case of "Mingo" Upchurch, charged with perjury, was being argued. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. It will be remembered that a jury had, earlier in the day, convicted "Mingo" of assault and battery. The same witnesses and the same testimony were brought out in both cases. It is manifestly evident that the verdict should have been the same in both cases, Judge Bynum took occasion to state his belief in "Mingo's" innocence and censured the jury that convicted him.

"Dolly" Jones, burglary, plead guilty to burglary in the second degree and through the good efforts of his counsel, A. B. Andrews, Jr., got off with 7 years in the penitentiary.

George Savage, the young man who assaulted policeman Jones while trying to make an arrest, plead guilty. His sentence, ten dollars and costs was so absordly light that the crowd in the court room smiled audibly.

Frank Collins, the negro boy who was so fond of ham that he forged seueral orders for that commodity, was found guilty. Judgment was re-

At to-day's session the following business was disposed of: State vs Walter Cook, l. and r., plead guilty; 4 years on the roads. He was convicted of stealing a canteloupe; his heavy sentence was due to the fact that for the last 6 years he has, almost continually been either in the work house or in jail, always for stealing. State vs Geo. Simmons, 1. and r., plead guilty. Judgment reserved.

State vs William Wall, assault and battery, guilty; 6 months on the roads. John Gatling, Esq., of this city, was administered to practice in the North Carolina courts.

A BAD BURGLAR.

He Made a Raid Which Was a Failure.

Last evening at 9:15 o'clock Mr. F. H. Lumsden, who lives on West Jones street, was aroused by a negro burglar in his back yard. His cook was in the room next to the kitchen and heard a noise at the pantry window, but did not notice it specially. It was caused by a negro who was trying to get in the pantry; but finding he could not enter, he procured a goods box from the yard and placing it under the window, tried to break in. The cook called Mr. Lumsden, and he went to the kitchen. He found the cook greatly frightened. He opened the door and saw the burglar. He then ran across the yard. As he ran he struck a clothes line and dashed into the wood house, braising himself against the He could not see his man, but thinking he saw him in the corner of the lot, fired two shots at the object, but finding it was an old box, he ran out on the street in search but could not see or hear anything of the rascal. A few nights ago Mr. Lumsden's son Tom came in about 10 o'clock and saw a negro man standing on the porch. He went in the house, got a pistol and returned but the negro was gone. This is supposed to be the same negro who visited the premises last

KILGO LAST EVENING.

The New President of Trinity Makes an Eloquent Address.

Dr. Kilgo, the newly elected president of Trinity college, was tendered a reception last evening by the Epworth league at the Sunday school rooms of the Edenton street Methodist church. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter, after which Dr. E. A. Yates, of Durham, introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. Kilgo, who took as his subject "Our Young Men." His address was of 45 minutes' length and was a masterful effort, delivered with an ease and force of expression that delighted his audience. At times the doctor rose to bursts of oratory that completely carried away his hearers and won him liberal applause. After the benediction an informal reception was held, lasting half an hour. Dr. Kilgo will assist Rev. J. N. Cole in the revival services which commence tomorrow in the Methodist church and Raleigh people will be given in an opportunity of again hearing this eloquent divine and orator. He is a man of magnetic disposition and makes friends rapidly wherever he goes. Trinity is to be congratulated on her admirable selection of a president.

Special Services.

Rev. J. C. Kilgo, president of Trinity college, will preach at Edenton street Methodist church tomorrow, morning and evening. The ser-vices tomorrow will be the beginning of special revival services at this church, don and left last night for the far as to which the citiizens of Raleigh are Raleigh's Youngest Lawyers.

Messrs, A. B. Andrews Jr., Perrin Busbee and W. L. Snow, Jr., who recently obtained license to practice law from the supreme court, are regular attendants at the term of court now in session and give promise of being in a few years representative men in their profession. Since court convened last Monday all of them have been appointed by judge Bynum to defend, or so licitor Pou to prosecute, in several important cases; and in no case in which they were counsel did the defendent, or the state, suffer for lack of a good, legal argument.

An Invitation.

As superintendent of the Baptist abernacle Sunday school I extend a most cordial invitation to all persons here who are not connected with any other school to join us. To morrow i known as "Rallying Day," and is a good time to enter. We meet at 9 a. m., and remain in session an hour and a half. It is our aim to be helpful to all who come under our care and our success gives hope for the future. Come and join us tomorrow and we believe you will find it pleasant and prefitable. N. B. IS IT ONLY ROMANCE?

It is the Common Belief That There was an Esther Wake.

In this week's issue of the Tar Heel the lively and well edited paper pub lished at the State University, there is a report of a meeting of the North Carolina historical society. Dr. Kemp B. Battle read a letser written b James W. Bryan in 1848, in regard to Esther Wake, after whom Gov. Swain for a long time claimed that Wake county was named. Mr. Bryan said no such person ever lived, and that she was purely a creature of fancy.

Wake County Health Report

In the September report of the state board of health the following appears from Wake: "Dr. Jas. McKee, Raleigh. Scarlatira, 2; diptheria, 1; ty phoid fever, 12; pernicious malarial fever, 1; hemorrhagic malarial fever 1. Intermittent fever in many parts County in apparently good sanitary condition, yet malarial and typhoic fevers prevail to too great an extent. Public buildings in very good condition. Dr. P. E. Hines, of Raleigh now becomes county superintendent of health. Dr. McKee has been elected city superintendent of health."

AUTUMN 🐃 WINTER

No descriptions of our New Dress Goods can make our patrons so well a quainted with them as a careful personal inspection-this we invite.

Fashion inclines towards rough shaggy effects, and the stock, accordingly, abounds in these goods; but for those of quieter tastes, who prefer the smoother weaves, we have prepared a corresponding assortment. Among the new styles to be found in our several Dress Goods Departnents, the all-wool figured Whipcord. the three-toned silk and wool mixtures. the silk and wool Persian Cheviets, with glintings of silk in Persian colorings, and the Scotch novelties. All have beautiful colors and new handsome designs. The aggregated collection is larger than we have shown before, and more attractive, and the prices are considerably lower than in any previous year.
