MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

The county candidates have begun their campaign.

The gale last night blew down a few chimneys and trees.

The new fast car on the electric line was on the run to-day.

The cotton receipts amounted practically to nothing today.

One convict was brought to the penitentiary today from Robeson county.

There is a rumor that Raleigh is to have another morning paper.

The bright weather today was a source of delight to city and country people alike.

The work of altering the lobby of the Yarbore house was commenced this morning.

All the street cars are to be painted alike. The color will be yellow, with green trimmings.

Epworth chapel weekly prayer meeting in service, for this week, will be held Friday evening next, commencing at 7.30.

The street car company will have all the work it can do to get its line completed to the union depot by the beginning of the fair.

The telegraph companies were given a great deal of trouble yesterday afternoon and last night by the breaking of wires east and south of here.

Mr. John C. Scarborough is next week to make several speeches in Caswell county, on educational subjects.

There will be a meeting of the woman's christian temperance union at the residence of Mrs. Dr. Carter Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

This morning little Bennett Bobbitt, son of Dr. W. H. Bobbitt, was run over by an ox team. Though the wheels passed over his leg he was very slightly hurt.

It is said by those who have seen Nellie McHenry that she has the latest company on the road. She appears at the academy music next Monday evening.

Deputy sheriff Overly yesterday brought here from Vance county Bob Jones, a colored man, for assault. He was arrested on a warrant issued by justice Harry Reberts.

The rain has greatly injured the quality of the cotton. The damage in this respect is greater than the loss by beating it out of the bolls, though the latter is large.

A letter from T. C. Milliken, republican candidate for congress in this district, denies positively the rumor that he is about to retire. In his letter he gives notice of some appointments, among them one at Raleigh.

Manager Keeler has ordered six of the improved controllers for the street cars similar to the one on the new high speed car. The beauty of this controller is that it is well nigh an impossibility to burn it out.

Capt. B. P. Williamson is making out the list of horses which will be sold at the next sale, Nov. 8 and 9. There will be at least 100. He says that in the matter of breeding and individuality of horses the sale will excel any ever held this side of Kentucky.

Mr. T. B. Moseley's admirably trained and greatly valued dog "Maud" died last night after many hours of suffering from a disease which was unlike anything ever seen here. A surgical examination will be made.

The Oregon horse is no longer seen on the streets. For several days it was an hourly sight to see a countryman astride one of these fiery steeds, concerning wildly up and down the streets. The Oregon ponies are splendid buckers but most of them will soon be tugging painfully at the plow.

Farmers say that the rise of water in the river and creeks throughout the county caused by the recent rains is the greatest in six years. Much low land is flooded. A great deal of damage has resulted to corn and unpicked cotton.

THE STORM.

It Appears to Have Been Most Severe at Southport.

Last evening at 8 o'clock the wind here was blowing from the northeast, while at Wilmington it was blowing from the southwest. At that time the centre of the storm was between here and Wilmington. Not long after 8 the wind shifted here and blew from the northwest. At 10 o'clock the highest velocity was reached, this being 30 miles an hour. These facts are learned from weather observer Von Herrmann. He says the total rainfall up to this morning was 3.42 inches. The storm was most severe at Southport, it seems. A special telegram from there to the Charlotte Observer says: "The severest wind and rain storm of the season prevailed here today, the wind blowing in gusts at a velocity ranging between 40 and 80 miles an hour. Shortly after noon the Odd Fellows' building was blown down. The loss amounts to $1,000. No damage was done shipping in the harbor. Heavy seas are rolling outside and the wind is still blowing hard tonight, veering to westerly."

It was feared that much damage would be done to the railways in the way of washouts. But this morning news came in of only two of these; one on the Carolina Central railway, east of Hamlet; the other on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railway between Fayetteville and Sanford.

Great freshets are expected in the lower Cape Fear and Roanoke within 48 hours. On the latter river great damage will probably be done, and the corn crop at the penitentiary farms will no doubt suffer.

Deputy sheriff C. R. Blackwell, who came in from Barton's Creek township today, said that the storm had done great damage in that section. The creeks are all higher than they were ever before known to be. All the lowlands are flooded and the loss of corn is very great. Cotton, he said, had not suffered much in his section, as the wind was not very high. Several bridges have been washed away, among them the bridge at Whitaker's mill, known as "Powder mill." A Raleigh doctor who had occasion to cross Crabtree today said that the water on either side came up into his carriage and that the water was probably within two inches of the floor of the covered bridge.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

The storm is now central near Philadelphia. It has increased somewhat in force. Gales are blowing on the New England coast. The weather has cleared throughout the south. It is also clear throughout the west. Frost occurred last night at several stations in the Mississippi valley; killing frost at Meridian and Cincinnati. The center of high pressure is over Nebraska, where the weather is clear and cold.

For North Carolina: Fair, cooler Thursday morning.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Thursday, fair. Light frost Thursday morning.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 59; minimum temperature 46; rainfall 3.42.

An Oxford Sensation.

The Oxford Ledger says R. P. Hughes, of that town, has suddenly disappeared. For some time he was in charge of the register's office. It is stated that he is said to have appropriated some old county orders to his own use to the amount of several hundred dollars, and there is great deal of crookedness talked of in his management of affairs of the office, and prosecution is staring him in the face.

All will See the Circus.

Main's circus shows here on the 17th. The Braddock, Pa., Herald says: "After witnessing the magnificent street parade of the Walter L. Main's monster shows there was but one verdict, and that was that if the parade was any indication of the worth of the circus it must be a first class one, and such it proved to be. From the time you entered the big menagerie tent until you left the mammoth circus it was a continuation of marvelous and heretofore unseen acts."

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Mrs. F. H. Biggs left for Baltimore today.

Mr. George Stronach, of Wilson, is here.

Dr. John Holt of Goldsboro is critically ill.

Mr. N. W. Smith left for Morehead city today.

Mr. J. E. Pogue left this afternoon for Goldsboro.

Mr. Will Williamson arrived to-day from Graham.

R. T. Gray, Esq., left this afternoon for Fayetteville.

Rev. Samuel J. Porter, missionary to Brazil, is here.

Mrs. J. W. McGee left this afternoon for Greensboro.

Mrs. Spier Whitaker left this afternoon for Chapel Hill.

Mr. H. H. Grainger, of the revenue department, left to-day for Kinston.

Mr. John T. Barnes, a well known resident of Wilson, died yesterday at Wilson.

Swift Galloway, Esq., who has been here for some days, went to Goldsboro this afternoon.

Mr. Nathan Lunsford, a well known tobaccoist of Person county, has been paralyzed on the right side.

Judge Graves gives official notice of his sickness and of his inability to hold the second week of Vance superior court.

Mr. Mace, formerly proprietor of the Park hotel, will shortly take Mr. Cram's house near the hotel, and it is said he will conduct a boarding house.

Mr. L. Banks Holt and family, of Graham, has rented the house of Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith, Esq., on Halifax street, and will make Raleigh his home.

Mr. H. H. Stoddard, of Nebraska, becomes a settler here. He has leased for a term of years the Cloverdale dairy farm, with its herd of cattle, creamery, &c., and will conduct it. It is a fine and well located farm.

Cards are out to the marriage of Miss Flora May Edwards, daughter of Mr. C. B. Edwards, to Mr. Guy L. Bunch, Wednesday evening, October 17, at 9 o'clock, p. m., at 119 West Martin street.

Rev. W. C. Norman Declines.

A day or two ago the VISITOR mentioned the rumor that Rev. Mr. Norman would not accept the position of president of Greensboro female college, to which he was elected last week. He has written a letter to Col. J. S. Carr, in which he declines to accept, and says: "I have carefully and prayerfully weighed the question of my call to the presidency and have reached the deliberate conclusion that I ought to remain in the work of the itinerant ministry." The name of Prof. Dred Peacock is again prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency.

Epworth League.

There will be an important meeting of the Epworth league in the Sunday school room at Edenton street M. E. church this evening immediately after prayer service. The election of officers will be held, and other interesting matters will come up for consideration. Every member requested to be present.

The storm has done considerable damage to the circus bills.

The heavy rain this week caused much less mud than did the light rain one day last week.

The supreme court last evening filed the first opinions at this term. All were in appeals from the first district.

A number of citizens of Wilmington, interested in organizing a gentleman's driving club or a fair association met this evening.

STATE FAIR NOTES.

Everything Points to a Big Success this Year.

Matters have crystallized into such shape as to assure beyond doubt the greatest success ever attained by a North Carolina state fair. Numerous attractions have already been mentioned, of both practical and amusing character.

Tuesday, which is "Educational Day," promises to be one of the most interesting of fair week. A number of schools will be in attendance and an address will be delivered by Hon. J. M. L. Curry, a great advocate of popular education. One of the great features of this day will be a chorus of five hundred school children which will sing "The Old North State."

A new feature of practical interest will be an exhibit of road machinery, showing every implement for making good roads, from a pick to a fifteen ton steam roller. Some of the machinery will be in operation. A road congress will be held in the city Wednesday evening of fair week to which everybody interested in this important question is cordially invited. Gen. Roy Stone, the United States road engineer, of Washington, will be present and deliver a short address. Addresses will also be made by practical road workers who will speak from actual work and experience.

The social feature of the fair promises to eclipse any gathering of people heretofore held in North Carolina. The society element of every town in the state of any size will be largely represented.

The capital club of Raleigh will give a series of Germans and balls including a grand ball complimentary to the state fair marshals, on Friday night. The Carolina cotillion club will also give a series of elegant Germans, receptions, etc.

We Turn Them Out Just Right.

Don't wait for winter to bring you in. Come now and select at leisure from a stock of the best clothing money and experience can gather together, at SWINDELL'S.

Underwear.

Now is the time to secure. We have a large line of very nice goods marked at prices that will make them jump, at SWINDELL'S.

POLITICAL TRADE.

Republicans believe in protection and duty. The Democrats believe in free trade and William Wilson. Populists believe in North Carolina and plenty of offices. Mugwumps believe in not much of anything but themselves, and we believe in them all. We believe in protection from cold, a suit of clothes and an overcoat from D. T. Swindell's, no duty on. We believe in plenty of money so you can spend it where you please. We believe in plenty of offices, so all can have one. We believe also in North Carolina for the reason that many of the inhabitants are patronizing D. T. Swindell's store. Maybe we are selfish in these matters, but a man who don't look out for and mind his own business is apt to get lost in the shuffle. We are selling protections at 50¢ apiece, in the shape of a fall overcoat that is worth $10, really. Another protection we are selling is in carpets. We protect you in the safe keeping of about one third of the price, as we think it our duty to do so. Another protection we are dispensing is in dress goods, for our duty is to give you dress goods with the duty off so you can get a nice dress and a nice, stylish hat for about the same amount of money that the dress alone would cost you when high tariff run the concern. So, if you are free to trade where you please, remember these facts and act in accordance to your good judgment. If you run an account and belong to some one, then you need to read the emancipation proclamation and see where you stand.

Very respectfully, D. T. SWINDELL.
