Transparent Bricks.
Glass building bricks are the latest. The inventor is a Frenchman, M. Falconier, an architect of Lyons. The bricks are hollow, being blown like bottles, and in various shapes. A bituminous cement, with a base of asphalt, is used with them. It is claimed the bricks serve as double windows, giving protection against both cold and heat, and also that they are good insulators of humidity and noise. They are recommended for meat markets, bath halls, hot-houses, hospitals, refrigerating establishments and buildings in which absence of windows would be an advantage. A hot-house of glass bricks is of about ordinary cost, saves fuel and resists hail.

SLUGGED THE SAINT.
Seth Morton Objected to His Wife Becoming a Mormon.
LAKE ANN, Mich., Oct. 10.—Rev. C. Smith, a "Latter Day Saint," has been proselyting here. Among his converts was Mrs. Seth Morton, whose husband objected to her joining the Mormons, but who, when he was away, was baptized. Morton returned today. When he learned what had happened he waxed wroth. He found Smith at the depot, just ready to leave, and began operations by knocking the preacher down as fast as he got up. Smith was well thrashed and promised to leave on the next train and not return. He kept the first section of his promise and will undoubtedly keep the other.

A Third Ticket Named.
NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Edward M. Shepard, the leader of the reform democrats of Kings county, who bolted the regular democratic ticket selected at Saratoga, nominated today, in accordance with his promise, and with the help of other representative democrats of New York state who are dissatisfied with the party ticket, a full third state ticket as follows: For governor, Everett P. Wheeler, of New York city; for lieutenant governor, Daniel N. Lockwood, of Buffalo; for judge of the court of appeals, Charles F. Brown, of Orange county.

Swore He Was Innocent.
NORRISTOWN, Pa., Oct. 10.—Raising his hand to heaven and calling on God to witness that he was innocent, Frank Brooks, a colored convict, died in a hospital this morning. He had been convicted of assault on Mrs. Hattie Johnson, and his sentence was only deferred owing to his severe illness.

Starving With a $1,340 Draft.
DETROIT, Oct. 10.—With a New York draft for $1,340 in his pocket which he was unable to get cashed because he could not get anybody to identify him, Matthew Shearer was found starving here today. He is from Arizona, and is a veteran soldier and pensioner. Sympathetic policemen gave him money enough to buy a meal.

An Aged Couple Forced by Robbers to Give up their Money.
SHARON, Pa., Oct. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kaufman farmers, living near Fredonia, this county, were bound to their bed last night by masked robbers and tortured. This was to force them to reveal the whereabouts of their money. The robbers burned the aged couple's feet with a poker heated in the fire, and the Kaufmans yielded.
