MILLINERY BAZAAR.

WILL WITHDRAW
Our big stock of crockery and glassware and lamps will be sold at wholesale cost from now on, and we have a very extensive stock in this line in nice dinner sets, tea sets, and dinner sets combined. Toilet sets and an endless variety of decorated china and porcelain ware; also white ware. The housekeeper who gets here first will be fortunate. Now we have a reason for this sale, as follows: First of January we will move our big Durham stock to Raleigh and must have the room to put it; our crockery has paid from the start and in the spring we may add another story on our building so we can have a China department. This enforced, as we must have room for the big Durham stock.
Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL'S.

JUST GREAT.
Our artist could not possibly have hit upon a more appropriate adjective to use in describing our beautiful millinery. It is indeed "great" except only as regards the price; and a good business look through our millinery department will force you to conclude this is indeed the proper place to buy a winter "hat." All our hats are trimmed after the fashion of the new French patterns for this fall. Polite and competent are our patient salesladies.
Respectfully,
D. T. Swindell.
Moore will take photos in any part of the city.

DOTS AND DASHES
MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.
Items Gathered in and Around the City.
There was quite a heavy frost this morning.
Good progress is now being made in picking cotton.
The well in the capitol square is being given a cleaning.
A convict from Watauga arrived at the penitentiary today.
The forfeit money for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight was put up yesterday.
The district conference for this district of the A. M. E. church is in session at Red Springs.
The trolley wire on the extension of the street car line is very heavy. About half of it is up.
The state road conference here next week ought to be largely attended. The session will be held in the hall of the house of representatives.
The trees in front of the Pullen building were trimmed today and now there is a fine view of the handsome structure.
Yesterday at Goldsboro the body of a negro man was found in the coal chute. It was found that the man had been beaten to death.
The court house contained not one of the county officials today. They all actively engaged in the campaign. They spoke today at Wakefield.
The postmaster at Haw River was removed yesterday. He was appointed in 1867 by president Johnson and has held office continuously.
A great deal of cotton has been damaged by the flood in the Neuse, all the way from Poole's bridge to Goldsboro. Even now much cotton is under water.
It may not be much noticed, but the irregular way in which the curbing is laid on opposite sides of the streets other than Fayetteville gives the streets a very untidy look.
Some northern people are thus early arriving at Southern Pines. The new hotel, a very large and handsome one, will be opened in about a month. It is expected there will be a large attendance of visitors.
Last Sunday evening at the residence of Mrs. Joseph Craton, Mr. Jno. F. Strong, son of the capitol janitor, was married to Miss Victoria Saddle, tustice Roberts performing the ceremony.
A telegram was received today by chief of police Heatt from Fred Marshall's "Repertoire" company making an engagement for every evening next week except Friday. The company comes highly recommended.
The workshop of Mr. Brown, the undertaker, will be moved tomorrow a distance of three blocks, to the corner of South Salisbury and West Hargett streets.
There will be a regular convocation of Raleigh chapter, No. 10, Royal Arch Masons, this evening at 8 o'clock in Masonic hall. Work in the mark master's degree. Visiting companions invited to attend.
It now seems doubtful whether or not Trinity and the university will meet at football this year. A game was in contemplation for next Saturday at Chapel Hill, but it is very doubtful whether or not it will take place.
Do not forget the lecture at Central church this evening by Prof. Mimms of Trinity college. Persons who heard the lecture at Durham write in the highest terms of praise concerning it. The church will be heated for the first time this season and will be comfortable.
In the supreme court this week there are three interesting cases; that of Cowles vs the state, being in regard to the validity of certain bonds issued in aid of the Chatham railroad; that of R. O. Burton against the state, for $2,500 counsel fees in the suit for taxes against the Wilmington and Weldon railroad; that of W. S. Barnes against congressman Crawford for $5,000 damages for alleged libel.

A GREAT CIRCUS.
That is What The Papers Say of the Show.
Walter L. Main's circus and menagerie will be here tomorrow. Monday it was at Wilmington. The Review says the street parade was fine and large and attracted an immense crowd. That paper says: "It is a good show and many consider it one of the best performances ever given in the ring in this city. The elephants are full of new wit, the baby elephant is a wonder and the lion does ride a horse, leaping on and off his back. The equestrianism and the acrobatic display are very fine, as is also the juggling, and the performing horses and dogs is one of the finest features of the show."

INSURANCE AGENTS
Met Here Today and Organized an Association.
This morning there was a meeting of general life insurance agents from this state and South Carolina, for the purpose of forming an association. Heretofore there has been an association of general agents and solicitors. Among those present at the meeting, which was held at the Yarbrough, were Mr. W. J. Roddy, of Rock Hill, S. C., and Mr. J. D. Church, of Charlotte. All the general agents whose headquarters are in this city attended.

Oysters and Salads.
The King's Daughters are going to spread themselves out at Friday evening, or rather they will give a spread at the store lately occupied by Royster. The particular delicacies served will be oysters, salads, ices, cakes and coffee; an oyster and salad supper. One of the features of the supper will be the fact that the different delicacies will be prepared by ladies, all good house-keepers, who are particularly skilled in the preparation of some special palate-catcher. The rooms will be prettily decorated and the ladies will themselves serve the delicacies on the bill of fare. During the afternoon special attractions will be furnished the children. The ladies will serve an elegant lunch and Raleigh people will not fail to take advantage of it.

Some Valuable Publications.
State chemist H. B. Battle has just issued a bulletin on "Rational stock feeding." A little later he will issue one on sorghum culture and manufacture of cane syrup. The sorghum interest is now being thoroughly investigated. The purpose is to increase its cultivation. Dr. Battle regards it as a very valuable crop. Improvements in the quality of the syrup are to be desired and the publications will be useful. The cultivation of the different staple crops from a practical standpoint is also to be specially treated by the state chemist's department.

Political Points.
The populist chairman, Mr. Marion Butler, says his party's congressional nominees are: 1st district, Harry Skinner; 2d, H. F. Freeman; 3d, Cyrus Thompson; 4th, W. F. Stroud; 5th, William Merritt; 6th, C. H. Martin; 7th, A. C. Shuford; 8th, R. Z. Linney. He says he believes the populists in the ninth district have decided to make no nomination. He also says he can not give the list of nominees for judges and solicitors and has heard nothing of the rumor of taking judge Clark off the ticket.

The "Carolina Cotillion Club" Raleigh's newest organization, has issued very handsome invitations for its series of germans for the season of 1894-5, beginning Wednesday Oct. 24. The first german will be given in the dining room at the Yarbrough house. The officers of the club are W. W. Roberts, president; T. M. Ashe vice president; J. G. Fariss, secretary and treasurer; A. J. Coward, leader; T. C. Denison, Frank M. Stronach and A. A. Williams, governing committee.

Mr. T. C. Milliken of Randolph county, the republican nominee for congress in this district, will speak at the court house this evening. The Greensboro Record says he is to retire in favor of Mr. W. F. Stroud, the populist nominee, but Mr. Milliken's friends emphatically deny this.

OBSERVATIONS.
Raleigh is well connected with Morrisville by telephone.
Bills were posted today announcing the engagement of Mr. James Young, the tragedian, at the academy of music next week, two evenings.
It is claimed that Charlotte has the finest amateur dramatic association in the state. Next week it will play "David Garrick," in costumes specially made.
The date of the concert to be given in aid of blind and talented young Ralph Fisher is next Friday evening, and the place Metropolitan hall.
Poole's bridge on Neuse river was not swept away by last week's freshet. The water of the raging river reached the floor of the bridge. The river was higher than in ten years.
Mr. J. D. Biggs will on the first of November cease to be the general agent of the Aetna life insurance company for North Carolina and will return to Baltimore. Mr. J. D. Boushall will succeed him here.
Maj. W. A. Guthrie, populist, who is now making speeches in various parts of the state, will, it is positively alleged, be placed on the ticket for judge, vice H. G. Connor, who declined.

The blankets for the state guard, the contract for furnishing which was, as announced some days ago, given W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., are being made at Elkin by the Chatham manufacturing company.
The "Vendetta" company was to have appeared at Charlotte a night or two ago, but at 8:45 the announcement was made to the audience that as there was no music furnished by the manager of the auditorium there would be no performance.
A party of Fayetteville people passed through this afternoon on their way to Durham. They were escorting Mr. Thomas Whitted, of Fayetteville, who tomorrow morning will be married to Miss Mary Lilly Taylor, of Fayetteville, a daughter of the late Capt. W. T. Taylor.
Among the distinguished persons who will address the good roads meeting here next week are Gov. Carr, Gen. Roy Stone, government road engineer, of Washington, and Hon. S. B. Alexander, the father of the Mecklenburg good roads movement, and others.
Fine Concord grapes, fresh, at Dughl's.

STYLISH DRESSMAKING.
MRS. WEIL is now in her new buildings, corner South Salisbury and West South streets, near Rex hospital, and is taking orders for artistic dressmaking. Her success in this line has been marked and her fine taste is well known. Her past patronage is proof of her correct fitting and careful making. Dresses of any kind made at short notice. Careful attention given all orders.

THE STATE MUSEUM.
It is Now More Complete and Attractive than Ever Before.
Two or three months ago the board of agriculture decided that if it was possible it would make an exhibit at the "Border fair of the Carolinas," at Maxton next week, of some of the articles in the state museum. It is now found that to make this exhibit the museum would have to be closed next Wednesday and remain closed until the packing of exhibits was completed. Therefore, as it would never do to close the museum during the state fair, when it has thousands of visitors, it is decided not to send exhibits to the fair at Maxton. Carpets are being put down in the museum and the place is now very much more attractive than ever before. It is the finest, most valuable and complete museum south of Washington. It ought to be visited by all persons who come to Raleigh.
Tried a Bold Game.
Connie Perry, a young white man, walked into Cross & Linnhan's yesterday and said he wanted to purchase a coat. Before deciding he said he wished to take several coats home for his mother to look at. This was agreed to and the youngster walked out of the store with a couple of good coats, and "he never came back." Neither did he go home last night. The police were notified and this morning arrested Perry. He sold the clothing to Mr. Mangum, but the latter satisfied the police as to his integrity. Perry will probably be given a hearing this afternoon.
Had on the Stolen Clothes.
Maggie Miller, a colored girl, was arraigned before mayor Badger this morning charged with larceny. Maggie is charged with stealing a lot of clothes and a cloak from Mrs. Spooner, who lives on Saunders street. She was caught wearing the stolen cloak and had on one of the stolen skirts today. The other clothes were found in her house and were identified by Mr. Spooner. She tells a very improbable story about having received the stolen articles from a colored man, the police say this man is a "fake" but the case was postponed until he could be searched for.
