Returns from various mills at Fall River, Mass., show that only half of the looms started up yesterday.

The intense interest manifested in New York politics is shown by the first day's registration, which exceeds by over 32,000 the figures of 1891.

Japan has rejected as inadequate China's proposals of peace. The report is that China offered to knowledge Korea's independence and pay a war indemnity in case hostilities should be suspended forthwith.

The new naval dry dock at Port Royal, S. C., is expected to be completed within a month. The government will dredge out the channel necessary to open the dock to the large battle ships.

Experiments in the injection of blood serum for diphtheria are meeting with increasing success. In Vienna the patients in the children's hospital there, who are given up under ordinary treatment, are receiving the new remedy, and three out of four recover.

Gov. Mitchell, of Florida, says:
"Corbett and Fitzsimmons will not be allowed to meet in Florida, even if the Legislature has to be convened for the purpose of preventing the fight." Last spring there was a prize fight in Florida although the governor declared there should be none.

Judge Woolson, of the United States circuit court at Council Bluffs, follows Judge Caldwell in deciding that when a railroad is in the hands of a receiver, "the employees must be paid fair wages, even though no dividends may be paid." Indeed, he goes a step further, and decides that employees can not be discharged to make room for men who are willing to work for less money.

In spite of the jealous efforts of courtiers and attendants of the palace to conceal the real physical condition of the czar of Russia, all accounts indicate that he is rapidly approaching the end of his comparatively brief and clouded career. He is the greatest autocrat on earth, and his will is law to 80,000,000 people.

Women will vote for a state officer in Illinois this year, for the first time.
They have the right to suffrage in all elections held for the purpose of choosing any officer under the school laws, and this includes the superintendent of public instruction and the trustees of the state university. It seems likely that the sex will exercise its new privileges to a considerable extent.

Commander Booth, of the salvation army, will in a few days arrive at New York, and is to have a grand reception, with Chauncy Depew for the orator of the occasion. The organization that Booth represents has become a very formidable one, and the good service that it has performed, chiefly among the poor of the large cities, entitles it to respectful and grateful consideration, notwithstanding its eccentricities.

A cablegram received by the U. S. department of state from Peking states that the reports of danger to foreign residents there are greatly exaggerated; that there has been only one attack upon an American and that a very insignificant affair, followed by prompt punishment, and that an imperial proclamation had been issued to local authorities, enjoining protection of foreigners.

A large English iron firm recently sent a special agent to the United States to learn why the export of British pig iron and pipes had ceased to be profitable. A letter from this agent, dated Birmingham, Ala., told a tale of pig iron, made at $6 a ton, being sold at the works at $6.40 to $7.45, and iron pipe up to sixty inches in diameter, "not so well finished as English pipes, but good enough," at $18.70 a ton, pig and pipes both finding their way over the states, even to Pittsburg, Pa.

The robbery of the express car near Aquia Creek will start the express companies to renewed efforts to prevent these crimes. The only way is to have a strongly armed guard with each train. The theory of the authorities that the leader of the Aquia Creek train robbers was an ex-convict named George Carter is now strengthened as it is known that Carter was in Alexandria last week. A suspicious character, against whom there is said to be considerable circumstantial evidence, was arrested in Baltimore yesterday by detectives of that city. The drunken man, George Turner, who claimed that he was one of the robbers, and who was locked up at a Washington police station, turned out to be a robber in his imagination only.

LED A DOUBLE LIFE.
All Went Well Until One Wife Ran Against
The Other.

MAY'S LANDINGS, N. J., Oct. 15.— One wife in Clinton, and another at Mantua, only eighty miles away. Harry Loche divided his time between them until Thursday night. Now he is getting away from them as fast as he can, for Jersey justice and outraged womanhood are on his trail.

Loche was secretary of an insurance company in Philadelphia. He was married to Ella Simpson of Mantua, who never suspected that he had another wife. He was away a good deal, and both wives understood that he was attending to business.

The crisis came Thursday night.
Led by suspicion and some facts, the first Mrs. Loche had started for Mantua. She alighted from the train at Woodbury station on the east Jersey railroad, and ran plumb against Loche, his Mantua wife and the latter's mother. There was a lively scene, which culminated in Loche's arrest on a charge of bigamy. He was taken before justice Mankin, who took his note for six hundred dollars as a bond for his appearance for a hearing yesterday morning.

Loche on being released at once proceeded to Mantua, where he savagely attacked Mrs. Simpson, his second wife's mother, gathered up about $500 worth of valuables and decamped.

When the hour of the hearing arrived yesterday justice Mankin looked in vain for Loche. The two duped women were in court, and the story was told of the duplicity of the fugitive deceiver.

An officer of the insurance company said Loche had received an advance of $400 from the company to defray some expenses and that he had fled with it.
The company and the wives will join forces in search for him.

A MOTHER'S DEED.
Gathers Her Children About Her and Fires
Her House.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 15.—Mrs.
Jennie Harrigan and her three children perished by fire in a barn upon their farm today. The residence also burned. The husband and father was absent at the time of the calamity.
Mrs. Harrigan became suddenly insane and set the house on fire, took her children and went into the barn, and locking the door, set the hay on fire.
As the flames began to close around them the mother gathered the children about her and held them there until they were all overcome. The oldest child was six years of age, the youngest fourteen months.

They Nearly Buried the Wrong Corpse.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 15.—Samuel S. Bennett, of Rock Hill, died Wednesday and was to have been buried at his home yesterday, but the funeral was interrupted when the discovery was made that the body shipped was that of another man. He and George Leavidge died about the same time in the hospital. The undertaker boxed the latter's body and sent it to Rock Hill. The grave had been dug, the minister was ready, and the horse, family and friends gathered when one of the party asked for a last look at the body. The box was opened and the mistake discovered.
