LWITHDRAW

Our big stock of crockery and glassware and lamps will be sold at wholesale cost from now on, and we have a very extensive stock in this line in nice dinner sets, tea sets, tea and dinner sets combined. Toilet sets and an endless variety of decorated china and porcelaine ware; also white ware. The housekeeper who gets here first will be fortunate. Now we have a reason for this sale, as follows: First of January we will move our big Durham stock to Raleigh and must have the room to put it; our crockery has paid from the start and in the spring we may add another story on our building so we can have a China department. This enforced, as we must have room for the big Durham stock. Respectfully, D. T. SWINDELL'S.

JUST GREAT.

Our artist could not possibly have hit upon a more appropriate adjective to use in describing our beautiful millinery. It is indeed "great" except only as regards the prices; and a good business look through our millinery department will force you to conclude this is indeed the proper place to buy a winter "hat." All our hats are trimmed after the fashion of the new French patterns for this fall. Polite and competent are our patient sales-

Political matters are very lively

The 'possum crop this season is said to be a fine one.

At Lexington this evening there will be organized a new lodge of Knights of Pythians. The populists of Halifax county have nominated Hon, Buck Kitchin

It is estimated that before Main's irens leaves the state it will have paid out $1,600 in taxes. Gov. Carr today went to Polenta, Johnson county, where he made his first speech during this campaign.

A large number of the best patients in the insane asylum came in today to see the circus, and greatly enjoyed

At Philadelphia yesterday a man who gave his name as James Hawkins, of Wilmington, N. C., was arrested as pickpocket.

As soon as state auditor Furman returns from Asheville the pension allowance will be made. As yet they are not precisely known.

It is said to be very difficult to obtain enough labor to pick the cotton crop. Such is the news the greater number of the farmers bring in.

The cotton crop on clay lands in this section is considerably better than last year, while the crop on sand lands will be almost the same as that last season.

Mr. T. C. Milliken, the republican nominee for congress in this district, emphatically denies the statement that he is "coming down" from the ticket in favor of Stroud, the populist.

The car wheel company here will use North Carolina iron just as soon as it can be supplied. Gen. Coke says there is iron in this state far superior

The funeral of the late Mrs. Nancy Belvin was held this afternoon at 3:30 'clock from the residence of her son, Mr. O. W. Belvin, 620 East Davie street and was attended by relatives and friends of the family.

The circus arrived on time this morning at 2 a. m. The train was in two sections, one of fifteen and the other of twelve cars. Despite the early hour quite a crowd of the curious turned out to see it arrive.

J. G. Brown, treasurer of Raleigh council No. 551, Royal Arcanum, received a check today for $3,000 to pay death claim of the late Dr. F. L. Reid, who died on the 23rd of September at Greensboro.

Travelling people who come in by Monroe are lavish in their praise of the new S. A. L. eating house there. They say that it is unsurpassed by any similar establishment in the

At the penitentiary the convicts are nearly all now making brick. The winter clothing has been distributed. After all the crops have been harvested some convicts will probably be brought back to the penitentiary from the Roanoke farms.

Sheriff Adams, of Surry, brough to the penitentiary this afternoon two white convicts; J. T. Broach, wife marderer, who gets a ten years sentence, the jury having decided that crime was murder in the second degree; and B. L. Faison, who gets five years for horse stealing.

Mr. Robert W. Clay, whose health had for some time been failing, died last night at his home at Clay, on the Durham & Northern railway, of a complication of diseases. He came here not long ago for special medical treatment, but was too late. He was for a number of years a popular commercial traveller and was well known all over

Sherwood & Co today occupied the addition to their store, work on which has been finished to meet the requirements of their rapidly growing trade. They have now more space and a better stock than ever before. Their success is due to liberal and careful advertis-

THE CIRCUS.

The Performance is Pronounced a Good one.

A circus is always hailed with delight in this city and section. So the dear people turned out today to see first of all the street parade. Walter L. Main's circus is new here, but the proprietor is so well pleased that he says it will be along again next season. The parade on the street was carefully viewed. Its great feature was the horses, of which there were no less than 88, and certainly finer ones were never sen here. There were five bands. The riders made a good appearance. The eages were neat and there were three or four eages of the worst wild camels, with their trainers. There were animals, and elephants big and little and pretty ponies. In all it was a bright pageant.

The performance began at 2 o'clock. By that hour 4000 people were inside the big tent. Their eyes were open, as they witnessed the features of the newest circus on the road. The great features were Stirk and Zeno, who do the finest and most daring flying trapeze and double somersault act ever seen here, one leap being 70 feet; the riding lion Mohammed which is capitally trained and rides a horse well, and which was broken and is managed by William Jenkins; Judson and Somers, posturers; Miss Ryland, the bareback rider; Mr. and Mrs. Miller, admirable riders; Jim Drew, a daring Indian rider; Joseph Barris, riding 21

There are no fakirs. The order is excellent. The police say there is no trouble of any kind. Thomas J. Ford travels with the circus as a special detective. Any mention of the circus would be incomplete if Mr. John Piper, the press agent, were omitted. He is truly one of the cleverest men on the road. Mr. E. D. Colvin is the hustling manager of the show. The side show is quite an attraction. In this is what is known as the "rooster orchestra." The latter is a great feature and is "something new under the sun." In the side show are also Zazel, the aerial equiliman."

The evening performance will begin at 8 o'clock. The tents are near Bledsoe's grove.

RALEIGH PAPER MILLS

Will be Greatly Enlarged-Mr. Holding Buys Out the South Fork Co.

Newton Holding, Esq., W. C. Cram and B. E. Ashley returned today from Lincolnton where they went to examine the machinery of the South Fork paper mills which Mr. Holding has recently purchased. The South Fork mills was one of the largest paper concerns in the south. The machinery will be immediately moved here and placed at the Falls of Neuse where the works of the Raleigh paper company are now situated. It will greatly increase the daily capacity of the mills and make it the most complete paper manufacturing company in the south.

A SAD CASE.

A Grandson of the Famous William Hooper Insane.

Today Gov. Carr received a sad letter from Ridgeway in which he was informed that a 16 year old grandson of William Hooper had suddenly became vilently insane, without any premonitory symptoms. The governor was asked to recommend that the boy be admitted to the asylum here. He complied with the request. William Hooper was one of the North Carolinians who signed the declaration of independence.

The Concert Friday Evening.

Next Friday evening is the date of the Ralph Fisher concert. Seats will be on sale at W. H. King's drug store tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. Prices are as follows: Reserved seats 75 cents, general admission 50 cents, gallery 25 cents.

The circus parade began so promptly this morning that many city people failed to see it. They thought it would move about 11 o'clock.

All kinds of curtain poles at Thomas & Maxwell's at 20 cents each.

Mr. Tom Denson returned today from a short trip to Chapel Hill.

A Hard One on Mr.

A prominent Raleigh lasyer tells a good story at the expense of his grandfather, Mr-, one of Raleigh's oldest and wealthiest citizens.

The other day some one handed him a small sum of money to be jaid o his grandfather. Soon after he saw him standing on a street corner and started to him to deliver the money. Just then he was stopped by an oll, shabbily dressed man who asked to speak to him a moment. "In a minute," said the lawyer, and stepping to his grandfather's side gave him the money and immediately return to the old wan who had addressed him. and asked what he wanted. "Nothing now," said the old man sorrowfully, "I was going to ask you for a quarter but I see that old feller there is ahead of me."

Order by the Railway Commis sion.

Today the railway commission issued the following order: "On and after December 1, 1894, all exceptions to brist, and Fred de Faytus, the "wild the standard freight and passenger tarin heretofore granted to the Western North Carolina railway from Salisbury to Paint Rock are repealed and the standard tariff applied thereto."

OBSERVATIONS.

The frost is giving a rich coloring

Nash square is now being prepared for sowing clover.

The number of country people in the city today was not as large as

Mr. Charles W. Ramm, Jr., who made buckwheat cakes at the last fair here, is again on hand. He is at Stronach's this week, and next week will be at the fair.

Fayetteville and Wilmington streets were densely crowded this morning with sight seers who turned out to view the parade. Country people predominated in the throng. There were no disturbances and very little drunkeness. Raleigh boys assisted the show men and "cut a figure" by riding elephants and ponies in gaily decorated garments.

Lady Rosebery's Necklace.

Some years ago an old Frenchwo man died in a poor part of Dublin, and her little effects were put up for auction. Among other odds and ends was a necklace of dirty-looking green stone, which did not attract much attention. However, a shrewd pair of Jews thought there might be "money in it," and decided on purchasing, clubbing together five pounds for the purpose.

On taking it to a well-known jeweler he promptly offered 1,500 pounds, which sum they at once indignantly refused (with hands upraised in righteous horror), and sold the necklace (of purest emeralds) for 7,000 pounds in London, where lord Rosebery on his marriage purchased it for something like 20,000 pounds!

The old Frenchwoman's mother had been attached to the court of France, and the emeralds had once formed part of the crown jewels.

Grace Vaughn, the former operatic singer, has been adjudged insane at Cleveland.

U. X. C. AND TRIXITY

Will Play Football at Chapel Hill-U. N. C. and A. and M. Play Here

Lovers of football throughout the state will be glad to learn that den nite arrangements have been madfor a game between the University and Trinity college elevens, the two strongest teams in the state. Th game will be played at Chapel Hill next Wednesday and promises to be one of the most exciting and scientifieally played games ever seen in the state. It is to be regretted that the game will not be played on some neatral ground, as Raleigh or Greensbaro, but as the University has played for the last two seasons on Trinity grounds they stood out for the game at Chapel Hill. Trinity has a splendid record having been downed by the University but once, by the '92 champions of the south, when she was defeated 24 to 0. Trinity won last year's game by a score of 6 to 4. Those who are in a position to know say that the two teams this year are very evenly matched. Trinity has more veteran players on her team, but it is said has reached nothing like th degree of team work that the University has, At any rate it will be an interesting struggle and the result will be eagerly looked for throughout the state. It will please Raleigh per ple to know that a game between the University and the A. and M. college will be played here next Saturday The college boys are doing hard practice work and say that the score this time will be much less than 44 to 0, the score by which they were beaten at Chapel Hill last Friday.

Almost Ready to Begin.

Today three experts who are to be instructors at the new ear wheel works here arrived from Wilmington, Delaware, from the principal works of the Lobdell company. Today the machinery was tested and the moulding sand prepared. The sand comes from a point east of here. In a day or two Mr. Lobdell of the great firm will be here. The first wheels will, as stated, be ready by the time the fair begins. Each wheel made will be dated. By his system the day of the month and the year when each wheel is made can readily be ascertained. Not only can this be done, but also almost the hour when the wheel was east can be told simply by a look at the sheel.

A Marriage this Evening.

At the residence of Mr. Cornelius B Edwards, on West Martin street at 9 o'clock this evening his daughter, Miss Flora, will be married to Mr. Guy V. Bunch. The ceremony will be performed in the parlor, by Rev. Dr. J. H. Carter, pastor of the First Baptist church. Mr. Burke H. Bunch is to be best man and Miss Helena H. Horner maid of honor. There will be no other attendants.

Sporting News.

· At Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday in the presence of 2,000 people, Louis Gimm. of the Cleveland wheel club, finished his 24-hour bleyele ride against the American record. The best previous distance was 374 miles, 1,605 yards. by F. Ed. Spooner, of Chicago, Gimin covered this with a good margin and when he stopped had ridden 383 miles. 1.410 yards, and was in fairly good condition. He lost 53 minutes by reason of
