We have the prettiest and cheapest line of

MILLINERY.

You are cordially invited to pay us a visit.

N. Y. DRY-GOODS AND MILLINERY BAZAAR.

WILL WITHDRAW

Our big stock of crockery and glassware and lamps will be sold at wholesale cost from now on, and we have a very extensive stock in this line in nice dinner sets, tea sets, and dinner sets combined. Toilet sets and an endless variety of decorated china and porcelain ware; also white ware. The housekeeper who gets here first will be fortunate. Now we have a reason for this sale, as follows: First of January we will move our big Durham stock to Raleigh and must have the room to put it; our crockery has paid from the start and in the spring we may add another story on our building so we can have a China department. This enforced, as we must have room for the big Durham stock.

Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL'S.

JUST GREAT.

Our artist could not possibly have hit upon a more appropriate adjective to use in describing our beautiful millinery. It is indeed "great" except only as regards the prices; and a good business look through our millinery department will force you to conclude this is indeed the proper place to buy a winter "hat." All our hats are trimmed after the fashion of the new French patterns for this fall. Polite and competent are our patient sales-ladies.

Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL.

Moore will take photos in any part of the city.

DOTS AND DASHES
MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

The republican state executive committee met here today, chairman A. E. Holton presiding.

Mr. A. Dugli was today busily engaged in supervising the putting up of a new and handsome sign.

Some improvements are being made of the street car transfer switch at the west gate of the capital square.

At Metropolitan hall this evening Hons. Oliver H. Duckery and H. G. Ewart will speak in the interest of fusion.

The race track at the fair grounds is said to be in better condition than ever before. Some good racing may be confidently expected.

Several large wagons were seen today hauling huge pines to the Page's branch saw-mill. Some of the logs were nearly three feet in diameter.

The wood work of the stalls in the market will not be painted but will be varnished, and thus finished in the natural color of the pine.

The attendance at the circus performance last evening was large and the audience was delighted. The perfect weather added no little to the pleasure.

Trinity college has cancelled its game with the A. & M. football team which was scheduled for Tuesday of fair week. The reason is that it is to meet the University eleven.

Capt. B. P. Williamson has succeeded in obtaining reduced railway rates to the great horse sale here Nov. 8 and 9. The attendance will be larger than ever before.

The street car line from the depot will be completed tomorrow. The trolley wire has been put up over the entire line to the corner of the Pullen building. About 16 yards only of trolley wire remains to be put up.

Every day this week there have been good breaks of tobacco in this market. Tomorrow there will be a large break. Are the Raleigh business men, as a general thing, giving the aid they ought to give to the leaf tobacco trade here?

The weather probabilities say tomorrow will be fair but the local weather prophet looks gloomily at the arrow on the market house pointing dead east and says get out your umbrellas tomorrow.

At the street car power-house a force is busy preparing the cars for fair week. New controllers are being put in some of them and all will be painted similar to the new high speed car; yellow with green trimmings.

The Raleigh National bank was appropriately draped in mourning today in memory of Hon. E. G. Reid, the bank's late president. One of the rules of the bank is that it shall never be closed except on Sundays and national holidays.

The circus crowd yesterday was the most orderly ever seen on a similar occasion. There was absolutely no disorder and all the arrests made were two simple drunks. These unfortunate were given 12 hours in the station house and turned loose this morning.

The fair grounds present a scene of hustling activity these days. A large force of workmen are steadily engaged in the main building preparing exhibits and the candy and "nigger baby" gods and the "merry go 'round" stand are transforming the barren "midway" into a thing of beauty.

Mention was made some years ago of the fact that application had been made for the appointment of a receiver for the Bledsoe property, 90 acres, immediately south of the city. Hon. John Nichols has been appointed by judge Byrum.

The only disturbance at the circus grounds occurred last night shortly before the performance ended. An attache was passing by one of the lunch tables when some unknown persons struck him on the head with a rock. The circus man was painfully though not seriously hurt. His assailant could not be found.

IS IT A MYTH?
It is a Pity to Spoil a Beautiful Story.

For nearly 100 years people here have reposed in the pleasing tradition that Wake county was named in honor of Esther Wake, the beautiful sister-in-law of Gov. Tryon, and hence that by the gallantry of our ancestors the name was retained when the names of Tryon, Bute and Dobbs counties were changed for more patriotic appellations. The iconoclasts have now arisen who deny that any Esther Wake ever existed and assert that the whole tradition is a myth. Much has been written about it. On application to Judge Walter Clark it is learned that he had already written Mr. Sainsbury, who has so long represented North Carolina in the public records office in London, requesting him to open up correspondence with the head of the Tryon family and learn the truth of the Esther Wake matter. Admiral Tryon who a few months since went down with his iron-clad in some maneuvers in the Mediterranean was a grandson of Gov. Tryon. Judge Clark is also endeavoring through the same medium to open communication with the representatives of Governor Josiah Martin the last royal governor of North Carolina. He thinks that in the private papers of governors Tryon and Martin, there may possibly be valuable historical material for North Carolina and possibly in the papers of governor Martin something that will throw additional light on the immortal "Mecklenburg Declaration."

Next Saturday's Game.

Next Saturday the A. and M. college and the University will play a game of football at Athletic park. It will be the only game of football played here this season and besides it will be no mean struggle. The A. and M. team was defeated last Friday at Chapel Hill by a score of 44 to 0, but in that one game it learned a great deal. The college boys are not disheartened and, while not expecting to win, promise the public that they will play good, honest football. It costs money for a football team to journey to Raleigh to play and Raleigh people should show their appreciation of the university boys' trouble by giving them a good reward.

The Concert Tomorrow Evening.

The programme of the Ralph Fisher concert to be given tomorrow evening at Metropolitan hall, is very attractive. It will be enjoyed by all lovers of music, and will doubtless, be of a higher order and more varied than it has been the good fortune of Raleigh people to enjoy for a long time. All who attend will have the consciousness of contributing to the development of rare genius.

Political Points.

A leading democrat who was interviewed said: "Fusion is not complete. It is more so in Settle's district than in any other. Indeed, it seems to me that the republicans are making their whole effort to carry that district and the eighth. Fusion is more complete in the west and center than in the east. I think the statement is true that the fusionists are getting further and farther apart. I think the legislature is democratic by a good majority, and that we will carry the state by the usual majority, which is from 10,000 to 15,000. Where I have spoken the negroes let it be quite plainly understood that they are not going to support the fusion ticket."

The populists say that they confidently expect to carry the state by 20,000 majority and that the democrats do not know how great is the extent of fusion.

Mr. T. C. Milliken, republican congressional nominee in this district, today withdrew from the canvass.

The fusionists today completed their judicial ticket. It is learned that Maj. W. A. Guthrie takes the nomination which Hon. H. G. Connor declined.

PERSONAL POINTS.
ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Miss Kate Hale returned to the city today.

Mr. Marion Butler arrived yesterday afternoon.

Mr. William Saunders left today for Morehead City.

Mr. George H. Glass left this afternoon for Fayetteville.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Hawkins left this afternoon for Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles King left today for Graystone which will be their future home.

OBSERVATIONS.

There were 120 visitors to the state museum yesterday.

There are now 222 students at the agricultural and medical college.

A number of new dwellings have been begun during the past few days.

The frost of Tuesday morning killed considerable vegetation; among other things the cotton leaves, which will have a tendency to make the flax trashy. Some of the smaller bolls were killed.

The number of visitors to the state fair bids fair to break the record. A gentleman from Sampson county said today that it would be well represented and one from Fayetteville made the same remark as to that town.

The case in the supreme court this week in which secretary W. S. Barnes of the farmers' alliance is plaintiff, and congressman W. T. Crawford the defendant, is for slander. There is a suit for libel, which will be heard at the next term of Wake superior court.

At Norfolk Tuesday Miss Edna W. Elliott was united in marriage to Mr. Oliver Womble of this city, who is postal route agent between here and Norfolk. Miss Mattie Womble was maid of honor. Mr. Frank Womble was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Womble have gone to Boston by steamer.

JUDGE READE DEAD.
He Passed Quietly Away Early This Morning.

At 2:15 o'clock this morning Hon. Edwin G. Reade passed peacefully away, at his residence in the Raleigh national bank. For two or three years he had been extremely feeble and his death was by no means unexpected. He was truly an admirable gentleman in all of life's relations, and had the love and respect of all classes of people. He was a native of Person county; was 85 years of age; had served as solicitor, superior court and supreme court judge and as congressman. He was in 1868 elected to the supreme court by the combined vote of the democrats and republicans, and served eight years with marked ability. Afterwards he took up again the practice of law, and was a member of the firm of Reade, Busbee & Busbee. Then he became president of the Raleigh national bank. He filled that position with great ability and fine judgment.

His brother, Mr. Washington Reade, of Person, was at his bedside when he died. Judge Reade was wealthy and with kind thoughtfulness had provided homes for his relations in Person county. He was a devoted and earnest member of the Presbyterian church.

The funeral will be held at the First Presbyterian church at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

This afternoon the members of the Raleigh bar met at the court house to adopt resolutions of respect to his memory. The bar will attend the funeral in a body.

All in the Family.

Deputy collectors Mebane and Tate a few days ago seized and destroyed a 75 gallon copper distillery and outfit near Siler City, in Chatham county. The still seems to have been an old family heirloom, as it was owned and operated by James, William and Samuel Jordan, three brothers.

A MOB FIRED ON.
It Was Bent on Lynching, but Soldiers Dispersed It.

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, O., Oct. 17.—In the criminal court today Jasper Dolly, a negro, who assaulted Mrs. Bird a week ago, confessed and was sentenced to the penitentiary for 20 years. There was every prospect of a bloody fight tonight, as a great mob was bent on lynching Dolly, and the sheriff had two companies of state militia here to help him protect the prisoner. The sheriff, with three companies of militia, started this evening to take Dolly to the penitentiary, but at the depot the mob got possession of the prisoner. The militia charged, killing two of the mob and recapturing the prisoner. He was then hurried back to the jail. A call has been made for the first and fourteenth regiments.

As darkness came on a crowd of 1,500 people surrounded the court house and jail yelling "lynch him, lynch him." Finally some one threw a stone which struck a soldier. Col. Volt, commander of the troops, addressed the people in forcible language and told them not to repeat the offence. "If you want to injure any one," said he, "hit me and not these young men." The mob kept advancing until an order to fire was given, when the crowd fell back.

The soldiers did not fire till the rioters had battered down the doors of the jail. Three persons were killed at their volley. The mob fled, but after the first flight following the volley became bold again, gathering and uttering loud imprecations against the soldiers. Fears are entertained for the soldiers' safety if reinforcements do not quickly come. The crowd is making an attempt to secure dynamite and swear they will blow up the court house.

There was some delay in securing a train, but troops are now being rushed to the scene of disturbance. "If they can hold the jail against the mob for a half hour longer," said general Howe at 10:30 tonight, "I think the danger will be over." The people of Fayette county are peaceable farmers. Never, even in the mining districts, has there been such a determined mob. It is a surprise to the state.

She Rejoiced.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16.—After the body of Dr. James McIntire, the spiritualistic medium and herb doctor, had been taken from his late home to the hearse today, there was taken from the bell knob the piece of blue mosquito netting that had been fluttering there, instead of the traditional black crepe. The widow took down the crepe the undertaker had placed there, because it was an emblem of gloom, replaced it with blue, the symbol of joy.
