SHE CAN IMPROVE YOU.

If there is room for improvement in your looks our milliners can make you look better. They know just what will become your style of beauty.

Every lady who wants a hat wants a stylish hat, whether it be fine or common, and no other kind will answer. Now we have our milliner visit the northern cities every season and get familiar with the new styles and copy the new patterns as they arrive from Paris, and our prices are right, at D. T. Swindell's.

CARPETS, GREAT AND GOOD

We would like very much if every housekeeper in the state could know how complete and how varied our carpet stock really is. Then, further, we sell in all departments at prices that are popular. We dare say we can furnish you a carpet, fine or common, at a price fully 20 per cent. less than any one else in this state. Then we have a competent man to make and lay carpets. Then we deliver free to any point in the state all carpets sold. So buy a carpet from D. T. Swindell.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

The supreme court will next week take up the appeal docket from the sixth district.

There is general pleasure at the announcement that the next fair is to continue ten days.

The University football team left yesterday for Asheville where it plays ball with Sewanee today.

The governor has appointed Mr. J. A. Spence, of South Mills, and Mr. George H. Howell, of Wilmington, notaries public.

The outgoing trains today all carried loads of returning fair visitors. Many visitors, however, will remain until next week.

A party of young people had an enjoyable time in the grandstand at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon at an impromptu game.

Some business was done at the tobacco warehouses this week but not much. The fair interfered with the breaks. Prices were good.

Mr. David M. Van v., who in 1877 was executive clerk to his father, Gov. Vance, died yesterday at the state hospital at Morganton, aged about 40.

The furniture and household effects of bishop Cheshire are being moved from Charlotte here. Charlotte will regret to part with bishop Cheshire and family, the News says.

The weather for the past week has been extremely considerate and nobody should kick about the slight degree of eccentricity it is showing today. Mr. Von Herrmann deserves the thanks of the state.

The sale of the lot, near the N. W. corner of Raleigh, which was to have been sold under mortgage to Mrs. E. W. McVea by W. C. Emory, has been postponed until Monday next at 12 o'clock.

All men should hear state secretary L. A. Coulter tomorrow afternoon at the young men's christian association, on the subject "Rebellions though Warned." "Here will be orchestral music."

There are now 200 students in actual attendance at Wake Forest college although the registration shows a greater number. The boys got out no football team this year but are bending their energies to getting out a baseball team.

In the court room today was seen a perfect representation of the part of Blount street in which the little son of Mr. Z. W. Haynes was killed by touching a line wire. The work is done in wood and is a perfect miniature of the electric light poles, wires, etc.

Among the many fine specimens exhibited in the poultry department at the fair was the White Spanish leg-horn, that took the first and second premiums, exhibited by Miss Mary Lawrence Hinton, were especially noticeable.

The performance of "Sweathearts" and "Uncle John" at the academy of music last evening was not up to the mark of the usual work of the "Vendetta" company. The acting was crude and one performer at least had to be prompted several times.

Better Racing.

One of the great features of the fair was the racing. This was capital and the people appreciated it. Yesterday, for instance, the races attracted many people. The event of the week was Lisa's fast mile, trotted Thursday in 2:19.1-4, the best ever made in the state. Mr. J. F. Scott drove this speedy mare, and handled her admirably. The improvement in speed at races during the past three or four years is notable. It is due to such enthusiastic horse lovers and owners as Messrs. L. Banks Holt, B. P. Williamson, W. P. Batchelor, etc. There will be faster time year after year, sure.

Theatrical Notes.

At the academy of music Monday evening "Peck's Bad Boy" will be presented. It has been played here several times and its characters are familiar.

THE MARSHALS' BALL

Was a Fitting Ending of the Greatest State Fair.

Pleasure reigned at the Capital club ball-room last evening. At 2 o'clock this morning the greatest state fair ended in a blaze of glory. It was the marshal's ball, the last of the functions of the fair, and the most brilliant and pleasurable of the many preceding similar affairs. Beauty was out in force. It was represented in the person of fair women from many other states, but every "tarheel" in the throng felt a thrill of pride in his native state as he gazed on the array of North Carolina beauties present, the fairest in the land.

The ball proper ended at 1 o'clock, after which one of the prettiest german ever seen in the state was led by Mr. Henry Miller.

Just before the "marshal's quadrille" Mr. Hal Ayer, the hustling secretary of the agricultural society, stepped forward and asked the marshals present to form a line across the ball-room. Then Mr. F. H. Busbee arose and after a short but witty presentation speech presented Col. Jas. J. Holt, chief marshal, with a handsome whip as a token of esteem from his "subs" who, Mr. Busbee said, desired to express their appreciation of the taste which he had shown in the selection of the handsome lot of sub-marshals who had ever officiated at a state fair. Col. Holt gracefully thanked his assistants in a very brief manner. As Col. Holt concluded thundering cries of "Carr," "Carr" were heard. Col. Carr was escorted to the middle of the room and succeeded in getting more in a few words than any man ever heard here. It was simply a glowing compliment to the ladies and covered the ground completely. Mr. Hal Ayer was called on but, with his accustomed modesty, had fled.

Dancing was then resumed and lasted until 2 a. m. when the company dispersed, tired but reluctant.

Thus the fair formally ended. About 52 couples participated and about the same number stags stood by the door and tried to look enticing. Many distinguished personages also graced the occasion with their presence.

The ball managers were H. W. Miller, chief, and Sherwood Higgs, Van Wyck Hoke, A. Williams, Jr., J. M. Ayer, Armistead Coward, assistants.

Y. M. C. A.

Some Notes About the District Conference.

The district Y. M. C. A. conference for Wake and surrounding counties is in session at the A. and M. college. Delegates are in attendance from the associations at Henderson, Trinity college and the university and are entertained by the A. and M. college's Y. M. C. A. State secretary L. A. Coulter is the leading spirit. Last evening Mr. John T. Pullen made an excellent and earnest talk on "Personal Work." Dr. Hume of the university will deliver an address this evening at 8 o'clock at the college chapel and the public is cordially invited to hear this fine speaker.

At the Museum.

The museum has recently been fitted with a set of handsome new brussels carpet. It is a great improvement. Mr. Green, the new curator, is a hustler, and by his good taste and eye for arrangement has greatly improved the appearance of the exhibit.

The handsome "bromo" photographs of native trees that attracted so much attention, both here and at the world's fair, were originally made from small "Kodak" photographs.

Despite the rain over twenty-seven visitors called at the museum today. Mr. Green has had a busy time attending to the flow of callers the past week. It is safe to say, however, that every visitor went away more than pleased with the display and management of the museum.

State Dairymen's Association.

At a meeting held at the Yarbrough house last evening the North Carolina state dairymen's association was formed. The following gentlemen were elected officers; Baron Eugene d'Allinges, of Vanderbilt farm, Biltmore, president; J. S. Carr, of Occaneechee farm, vice president; E. B. C. Hambley, of Rockwell Park farm, secretary and treasurer.

A writer in the woman's department of a New York paper admonishes women to ward their dressmakers from getting dress skirts too long. She says: "We Americans are not anxious to revive the street-sweeping operations so characteristic of our promenade three winters ago, when long skirts were all the rage."

Dr. Branson will preach at Epworth chapel tomorrow at 11 o'clock.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Miss Lucy Worth London, of Pittsboro, is visiting in the city.

Mr. R. T. S. Steele, of the university, returned to Chapel Hill this afternoon.

Miss Minnie Palmer, of Washington, D. C., who has been on a visit to friends here, left for home today.

Miss Prescott, one of the most popular of the many fair visitors to the fair, returned to her home at Weldon today.

It is said that Dr. Oscar W. White, formerly of this city, will be married at Washington, D. C., to Miss Jennie Lemon, of Warrenton, Va.

Messrs. T. B. Tyson, of the Tyson & Jones buggy company of Carthage, and P. E. Linnell of the Durham roller covering company, are here.

Messrs. John Andrews, James Stephenson, Harry Howell, Frank Harty and F. A. Haywood, of the university, returned to Chapel Hill this afternoon.

Richmond T. Long and B. Lee Terry, of Rockingham, and Misses Lula Pennell and Nannie Blackley, of Franklin, who have been visiting Mr. S. M. Parish, returned today.

Mr. J. G. Steed of the revenue department, who during his stay here has become so pleasantly and well known, is to be married Nov. 7 to a young lady of Montgomery county.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

For North Carolina: Fair, preceded by rain in the northeast portion, warmer in the interior Sunday evening.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Sunday fair.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 68; minimum temperature 54; rainfall 0.16.

An area of low pressure is central off the North Carolina coast and is causing rain over the greater portion of the state. The center of high pressure is over western Tennessee. The weather in the southwest is clear and cool. In the north it is cloudy.

An area of low pressure covers the northwest, with lowest barometer at Bismark. No very decided changes in temperature have occurred.

State Fair Notes.

At the fair grounds yesterday afternoon and today the "fakirs" and exhibitors were busy packing. Most of the fakirs got away on the early trains today. Some went to Macon, Ga., Suffolk, Va., Burlington and Maxton, to fairs.

People who sold things at the fair all appear to have done well. The show people also made money; some a great deal.

Men who have been to twelve state fairs this year say the fair here was the best of all.

The premiums will be announced in two weeks, secretary Ayer said today.

Miss Jennie Griffith, of Louisville, was awarded the first prize for her fine crayon portrait of Col. Julian S. Carr.

A Strange Death.

An Onslow county correspondent of the Newbern Journal tells of a strange accident. He says: "While Frank Padget and his wife were driving along the road a tree broke off striking Frank on the head, killing him and crippling his wife. After the tree fell he got up walked around the cart and asked his wife if she was hurt. Then he called for help, and Jerry Roehls came. Frank told him to get a blanket to put his head on and laid down, crossed his legs and hands and said: 'Good bye, I am gone,' and died within fifteen minutes."

A Big Hall Storm.

People who came from that direction this morning say that a heavy hail-storm occurred about two miles east of here. It came from the southeast. The hail-stones, some of them, were as large as pigeon eggs. There was very little damage done to crops, it is said.

Miss Anna P. Church of Toledo, Ohio, has lately engaged in the undertaking business. There is a growing feeling that women should care, in these last offices, for the bodies of women and children, and this new venture by Miss Church is welcomed in her city.

Haynes Damage Suit.

Civil court today again took up the suit of Z. W. Haynes against the Raleigh & Gaston company for $10,000 damages. The case will probably be decided on Monday next. Mr. Haynes charges that the company was criminally negligent in allowing a "live" wire to be on the sidewalk thereby causing the death of his son. The gas company's defense is that the little boy's death was caused by his own contributory negligence. Public sympathy is with Mr. Haynes. In his former suit he won his case but the gas company was given a new trial by the supreme court on a technicality. The opinion was strongly in favor of the plaintiff.

YOUR SUNDAY CLOTHES.

Everybody don't know what nice clothing we are carrying this fall. We have as nice suits as any clothing store in Raleigh, both for men and boys, and most of it is this fall's purchase. We have all the new and popular worsted suits, English chevrons, meltons and diagonals. Then, besides this new stuff, we have lots of nice clothing which we got in the Durham Supply Company's stock. That, of course, is not this fall's goods, but we are selling this at exactly what it cost New. Our clothing and prices will become suddenly popular if you will see them both. Respectfully, D. T. Swindell.

KID GLOVES

We consider we have secured the best kid pat-at-thumb—the Cluze patent thumb. Every lady who sees them will buy no other. Price same as Foster's. Every pair warranted and money or new gloves refunded. We have Foster's gloves also. All colors at D. T. Swindell's.

LADY, GET A CLOAK.

The stock of Ladies' Wraps at Swindell's has never been exceeded by any house in the south. Simply all the New Styles and almost all the qualities are in our stock. These things are here; you can get suited. So when you come to the fair see our Coats, Capes, etc.

Very respectfully, D. T. SWINDELL.

"When the Frost is on the Pumpkin" you naturally turn your attention to BUCKWHEAT. Now, we can supply you with anything you need in this line, and shall be glad to show you our stock. We have it plain, Hecker and Stobie's Self-Raising. Prepared in ten minutes.
