REV. DR. CARRADINE.

This Distinguished Preacher is Now to be Heard at Central M. E. Church.

Rev. Dr. B. Carradine, of St. Louis, Mo., began a series of meetings with Rev. D. H. Tuttle at Central M. E. church yesterday. His sermons were great in clearness, simplicity and spiritual power. He speaks with perfect ease of manner, captivating his hearers with the gentleness of his spirit. There is nothing rough about the man, and to hear him is to be drawn to him and through him to the gracious truths of God's word which he very plainly and persuasively preaches. The burden of Dr. Carradine's preaching is holiness or heart purity. His command of God's word and his explanations of its symbols are truly enlightening to all Bible students. Up to this writing three sermons have been preached and at each a large number of seekers have been at the altar. To these meetings all christians are invited. The services are held at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. each day. Go early and get a good seat.

DR. W. J. HAWKINS DEAD.

Another of Raleigh's Rich and Prominent Citizens Gone to his Rest

A telegram received last night announced the death at Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, of Dr. William J. Hawkins. His death had for several days been expected. Three weeks ago a very dangerous operation was performed upon him at the hospital. At first it was thought to be entirely successful. Dr. Hawkins' wife and daughter, his sons, Messrs. Marmaduke and Colin M. Hawkins, and his brother, Dr. A. B. Hawkins, were with him when he died. Dr. Hawkins was 76 years of age. He was a native of Franklin county, and his family is a very large and prominent one. He was for many years president of the Raleigh & Gaston railway, and for a time of the Raleigh and Augusta railway. In 1872 he organized the Citizens' national bank, which under his wise and prudent control became one of the best financial institutions in the state. Dr. Hawkins was a member of the church of the Good Shepherd and from it his funeral will be held tomorrow. The remains will arrive here tomorrow morning at 5 o'clock. Dr. Hawkins leaves an estate estimated at $300,000. He owned property in Maryland, Florida and this state.

The funeral will take place from the Good Shepard church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

MR. BUSBEE

Addressed the Y. M. C. A. Last Evening.

The district convention of the Y. M. C. A. which has been in session for several days at the A. & M. college ended last evening with an address by Mr. C. M. Busbee.

Mr. Busbee's subject was "Fifty Years of History and Prophecy." His talk lasted nearly 45 minutes but the attention of his audience was closely held till the end.

His address dealt chiefly with the wonderful growth in numbers and usefulness of the association since its founding in England just a little over 50 years ago. Mr. Busbee praised the order and said that it filled a want that no other society, secret or benevolent, or even any church, could fill. He closed his address with a bright prophecy of the glorious work the young men's association would accomplish in years to come.

After Mr. Busbee's talk Mr. Coulter, state secretary of the association, made a short address on the work of the state committee.

The members of the A. & M. college association were called on to state their experience of good from the meeting and several responded. The visiting members and the college boys then joined hands, forming a circle, and after a hymn Rev. Mr. Hunter pronounced the benediction and the convention adjourned.

Visiting members are all loud in their praises of the successful manner in which the convention was conducted and about the treatment they received.

The Low Price of Cotton.

"All is fair in love and war;" the same saying might be appropriately applied to politics. One town "cheer" was heard explaining the low price of cotton to a crowd of gaping farmers this morning. His explanation was original, to say the least. "You see," he said, "the democrats elected a president and a majority in the senate and house." His hearers assented. "Well then, then they put wool on the free list." "Yep," yelled the crowd. "Now," said the astute politician, "nobody, negro or any one else, wants cotton; they all wear wool clothes."

The prohibitionists of Rowan, like those of Wake, have nominated a full ticket.
