A Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crone desire to earnestly and sincerely thank their friends and neighbors for their gentle sympathy and kindness in the great trial through which they have just passed in the loss of their darling little boy. The warm grasp of the hand, the mingling of sympathetic tears, the beautiful floral offerings soothed and touched their hearts and were rays of light in the otherwise dark and gloomy world, and will long linger in their memory as a silver edge to a very dark cloud.

A Better Arrangement.

Neighbor—Here, Subbubs! I've brought you back your lawn mower. I've been going to return it every day since I borrowed it from you last May. Subbubs—Say, keep it, you, and I'll borrow it from you next year.—Puck.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

Mr. John W. Brown and Miss Elizabeth Williams Joined in Wedlock.

A small party of friends and relatives assembled at the home of Mrs. W. S. Williams, on East Jones street, this morning to witness the marriage of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Williams, to Mr. John W. Brown of this city.

Among those present besides the mother, sisters, Misses Mary and Emma Williams and the brother of the bride, Mr. Walker Williams, were Mr. and Mrs. John C. Scarborough, Mr. James I. Johnson, Mr. John Syme, Miss Millicent Syme, Mr. George Syme, Mrs. Walter Woolcott, Miss Gertie Thiem, Mr. Logan Terrell, Miss Bertie Blake, Mr. Fabius Brown, Miss Lucy Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Brown, Rev. Dr. Cobo, Mr. Redford, Mrs. Joseph Blake, Mr. Benjamin Young, Miss Mary Young, Miss Janie Brown, Mr. Vogler, of Salem, Misses Winnie and Allie Brown.

The presents were numerous and handsome and attested the esteem of the many friends of the contracting parties.

The marriage ceremony was performed in the parlor by Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall. The bride came in leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Walker Williams, who gave her away. Mr. Brown was escorted by Mr. Robert L. Hardridge, the best man. The maid of honor was Miss Emma Williams, the sister of the bride.

Dr. Marshall then pronounced the happy couple man and wife after the beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Episcopal church. The bride was dressed in a becoming travelling dress of dark brown material and carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses.

After the ceremony the newly married couple were kept busy for some time in receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their friends, after which they took a carriage for the depot and drove off amid a veritable shower of rice and old shoes, an ancient custom but one attesting the love and good wishes of the friends and relatives left behind.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on the 11:50 train for Washington, D. C., at which place and other points they will spend their honeymoon. They are both well known and popular here and the Visitor, with a host of friends, wishes them a happy and prosperous married life.

A Bear in Raleigh.

Sometime Monday night what is said to be a bear visited the residence of Mr. J. B. Hogan, at the west end of Peace street, and created considerable excitement. Mr. Hogan being absent, the family was afraid to venture out to see what the animal was. Yesterday morning its tracks were seen all around the yard and resembled those of a bear. The animal next visited the premises of Mr. King, next door to Mr. Hogan, and frightened everybody. This morning about 4 o'clock the supposed bear made its appearance at the residence of Mr. Williams, corner of West Lane and North McDowell streets, and alarmed the family. One of the young ladies was made sick by fear.

Davidson, of Asheville; Miss Olivia Cowper, of Raleigh; Miss Violet Alexander, of Charlotte.

The Next Football Event.

The next attraction in the football world in North Carolina will be the game next Saturday between the teams of the A. & M. and Trinity colleges. The game is of minor importance, as both teams have previously been overwhelmingly defeated by the university eleven, but promises to be an interesting and well played game. The A. & M. boys hope to win but such a result is not seriously looked for by those "up on the game."

REV. DR. CARRADINE.

Some Points of His Sermon Last Evening.

Rev. Dr. Carradine preached last evening at Central M. E. church. His text was Thess. 4:3. "For this is the will of God, even your sanctification." The heads were (1) Not the "will" of the devil; he hates this doctrine. (2) Not the "will" of the world; it opposes this doctrine. (3) Not the "will" of a formal church; too much life in this doctrine for it. The "will of God" is that which should interest every sincere, earnest Christian. Doing the will of God brings our complete happiness.

Dr. Carradine read the first chapter of 1 Thess. and noted what Paul says about these Thessalonian christians. How good they were, yet God "willed" their sanctification, and Paul prayed for it in Thess. 5:23. What God "wills" it is an awful thing for men to oppose. There is enough of horse-racing, drinking, gambling, etc., for men to oppose without opposing men who are trying to live a holy life in doing God's will.

Dr. Carradine said that some people oppose "Sanctification" because they do not understand it. Who understands the doctrine of regeneration before he gets it? Some oppose sanctification because it requires that they give up some sin or sinful habit. In the judgement men will be terrified at sins that God will reveal in their hearts, which sins might have been taken out by the "will of God" in sanctification. What is sanctification? He says that is no consecration. Consecration is men's work, and is never attributed to God. Consecration is man's preparation for sanctification! 2. Sanctification is not regeneration. Your unadorned dictionary will show you that they are quite different. 3. Sanctification is not a reclaiming of backsliders. (4) Sanctification is not a growth in grace. If it were a growth it would be man's work, in a sense, whereas it is God's work. This blessing takes sin out; leaves one so he can grow fast in all in beauties of grace.

He says sanctification is a second work of grace "whereby we are delivered from inbred sin," or as Paul puts it, from the "old man" (Eph. 4:22). Justification is pardon for my personal sins; regeneration is the washing away of my personal pollution, and putting of a new life in my soul. Sanctification "brings purity from the iniquity that is born in us and then we grow on to Christian maturity. Sanctification is the "keeping" blessing; it is the "blessing of fullness;" it is the blessing of continuous "overcoming;" it is the rejoicing blessing, it is the everlasting blessing.

Slew His Father.

MILAN, Ala., Oct. 30.—William Milford, a young farmer, disappeared from home several days ago. His aged father was also missing. Yesterday the old man's corpse was found in the woods near his home with his head flattened out by a club and his pockets rifled of several hundred dollars which it was known he had started to take to a neighboring town to put in bank. Officers were put on his son's track and this morning they found him hid in a deserted log house 20 miles from home. He confessed the murder of his father, gave up the money, swallowed a bottleful of morphine and whiskey mixed and soon died.

MR. KORNEGAY DEAD.

He Died Suddenly of Heart Disease in Church at Goldsboro

A telegram was received today announcing the sudden death at Goldsboro this morning of Mr. W. F. Kornegay, president of the North Carolina railway. The cause of death was heart disease. At the time the fatal attack came president Kornegay was attending services in St. Stephen's Episcopal church. Every possible aid was given him but he died in a few moments, before he could be removed to his home. For many years Mr. Kornegay had been a sufferer from heart trouble. He was apparently in good health and his sudden death is a great shock to his friends, although they were aware that death was likely to occur at any time. He was one of the most prominent and best known men in eastern North Carolina. His age was about 60 years. He married Miss Annie Snow of this city. His presidency of the North Carolina railway began in 1891, when he succeeded Hon. T. M. Holt, upon the latter's becoming governor.

No Damages for Love.

Argument in the case of Love vs. city of Raleigh for $10,000 damages received while watching an exhibition of fireworks began yesterday and was concluded this morning. The judge delivered a lengthy charge, which many people consider to have been in favor of the plaintiff, and the case went to the jury at about 12 o'clock. After about an hour's deliberation the jury returned a verdict for the defendant. The counsel in the case were Battle and Mordecai and W. A. Montgomery, Esq., for the plaintiff, and Strong & Strong and Newton Holding, Esq., for the defendant.
