

CHINA PIRATE-RIDDEN.

Privates Boldly Murdered Crews in Daylight.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Chinese papers received by steamer contain accounts of numerous outrages by bandits and pirates. A band of men made desperate by loss of crops and homes in the recent overflow have established a reign of terror. This band consists of 200 armed men. They have secured several boats, with which they carry on operations. During three weeks of the raids of this lawless band twenty men were killed and more than three times that number were wounded by them. Their operations covered a distance of nearly 130 miles along the Liao river.

For protection boats now travel in batches and so powerful have the robbers become that they do not hesitate to attack numbers of boats at the same time, even in daylight. Four boats were attacked by one of the piratical craft having a crew of forty armed men. All valuables and arms were taken, two sailors were killed and two others wounded.

Japs Attack Port Arthur.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 21.—The second Japanese army is reported to have made an advance on Port Arthur and captured one of the outer forts. The place has been completely invested by the Japanese and cannot hold out long. It is believed at Tokio that the final attack upon the stronghold will take place at the end of the week. There are 40,000 in count Oyama's corps, while the garrison at Port Arthur is said to number only 13,000 men, of whom 4,000 are raw recruits. The Japanese victory at Chin-Lien-Cheng, or Kin-Lien Cheng, is confirmed, and it is said that the Chinese troops have retreated to Moukden.

Bad but Dead Game.

PRINCETON, Ky., Oct. 31.—Ed. Martin was lynched yesterday in Crimeden county by 100 men. He was called upon at his home after midnight. When he opened the door he was seized by a dozen men, who asked for information of Bill Goode, commissioner of Crimeden county. The mob told Martin they had come to hang him, but if he would turn state's evidence upon Goode he would be spared. "If these are the only terms, gentlemen," said Mr. Martin, "let the hanging proceed. Bill Goode has been my friend, and I will shield him." The mob quickly did its work and left Martin's body swinging from a limb.

A Five Years' Divorce Case.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 31.—After five years of sensational litigation the decision of the supreme court yesterday terminated the celebrated divorce suit between Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Carter, giving him custody of their child and refusing the appellee's application for alimony. This is but the climax of a series of favorable decisions for Carter. The charge upon which litigation was brought is that during Mrs. Carter's absence in 1885, on a tour in Europe for the benefit of her health, she spent some $40,000 received from William Constable, of New York, and, moreover, had improper relations with him. Mrs. Carter may now return to the stage.

A Child With a Double Head.

Dr. W. F. Benbow has shown the Yackia Ripple a mal-formed infant. It has a well formed and matured head, sitting straight up on its shoulders, but with so short neck that its chin rests on its breast. Proceeding from the back of this neck is another neck, to which is attached what Dr. Benbow calls a boneless head as large as the natural head. Both heads have natural hair on them and the extra one has places for eyes and a piece of gristle where one ear ought to be. This boy was born last week to Mrs. Speer, near East Bend, and is now living.

Killed by a Stage Robber.

Arthur Meyer, driver of a stage running between Rock Creek and North Bloomfield, was shot and killed by a highwayman this afternoon, says a Nevada City telegram. The incoming stage was stopped by a lone highwayman, who commanded Meyer to get down out of the box. Meyer refused and the bandit fired twice at him with a revolver. The second shot passed through the driver's body. C. H. Bovee, the only passenger, jumped from the coach and ran into the forest. After the robber had gone Bovee took charge of the coach and horses and brought the dead stage-driver to town.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

Forecast for North Carolina: Fair, followed Friday by increasing cloudiness and probably rain in western portion; warmer.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Friday fair, warmer.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 64; minimum temperature 39; rainfall 0.30.

The high area and cool wave is central this morning over the south Atlantic states. The storm north of the lake region has nearly disappeared, while a new storm is forming west of the Mississippi river. Over the southern states the weather is clear and cool. Frosts are reported this morning from Raleigh, Charlotte, Augusta, Knoxville and Davenport, Iowa. The weather is becoming cloudy and warmer west of the Mississippi. Some rain has fallen over the region between Cincinnati, Buffalo and Norfolk. The prospects are for warmer fair weather.

A Curious Pledge.

A curious pledge was taken by a lot of San Francisco girls at the instigation of their pastor, a Dr. Martin, said a young woman yesterday. "Last week he delivered a lecture to young women only. The majority of persons when they saw the dainty badges pinned on the shoulders of the girls were very much surprised when they learned their import. They had signed a vow, a unique one, contrived by Dr. Martin, that none of them would ever hold a secret engagement or receive attentions from any man when their parents did not approve; that come what may, nothing could ever induce them to break the vow they so solemnly made. The thing was thought to be a joke at first, but on inquiry I found that the young women have thus pledged themselves. I do not think the idea has spread eastward yet, but it has caused a deal of gossip on the Pacific slope."

There is no danger of the Chinese overrunning America this year, "they are busy running over their own country."

The 128th anniversary of Methodism in America was celebrated in New York yesterday.
