NO TIME

In the history of our house we have been able to offer you such values in cloaks as we are now. We have our cloak room full of nice new wraps. Fur and cloth caps. Ladies' and Misses' jackets and children's cloaks.

ANY TIME

You come in we shall be pleased to try them on you. And such fitters. Each garment fits as though it were made for the wearer. We bought the best values out of four or five different houses, hence every garment we own is an especially good thing.

ALL THE TIME

We are constantly receiving new goods. Our line is always complete and we always have something new to show you. An elegant line of fur capes is our latest addition.

HIGH TIME

You were buying, don't you think? Come and see us. We are leaders in the cloak business. We will guarantee to save you money.
D. T. SWINDELL.

SHOES? YE, INDEED!

You all have to buy shoes about this time of the year. You want to do the best you can for yourself, and we want to do the best we can for you. We want your trade in shoes and we will try our very best to please you and give good, honest value. We have some of the best makes of shoes in the country and are sure we ask as small profit as any house in America. So we cordially invite you to try us once for a pair of shoes at D. T. Swindell's store.

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

State auditor Farman returned to the city this morning.

At the academy of music this evening, the Georgia minstrels.

The walls of St. Paul's A. M. E. church have now reached a height of about twenty feet.

One convict from Onslow and three from Washington county have arrived at the penitentiary.

At Daghi's there is a great demand for the oyster fries he serves in such nice style at only 25 cents each.

The railway commission today heard argument in the Western Union telegraph company's case, alluded to yesterday.

It is said that there will be a morning fusion paper started here in a month. Report has it that Marion Butler will be editor.

The county commissioners are called to meet in special session Friday to elect a treasurer to succeed the late Mr. Louis O. Lougee.

The state pensions this year will be $68 to the first class, $51 to the second, $34 to the third and $17 to the fourth. There is an increase of ten pensioners.

Mr. Thomas H. Briggs, commissioner for the sale of the "Oakdale" lands, northeast of the city, will sell them December 10. The site is very attractive.

A game of football has been almost definitely arranged between the university and Washington & Lee eleven, to be played at Chapel Hill next Saturday.

Governor Carr has appointed Miss Sue S. Cunningham, of Cunningham, Person county, one of the assistant lady managers to represent this state at the Atlanta exposition.

All sorts of wild speculation may be heard on the streets concerning what measures the next legislature will adopt. Rumor is ripe but one can hear anything these days.

The Davidson Dispatch, published at Lexington, has assigned. The Durham Globe and the Morning Herald are consolidated, and will be the Globe-Herald, published in the afternoon.

In rear of Mr. Stanhope Pullen's new building the foundation for a warehouse is being laid. The building will be 100,000 feet and one story high and will front on South Salisbury street.

The university german club will give a german at Chapel Hill Friday evening complimentary to Miss Lida Carr, of Durham, and her visitors, Misses Templar, Doyle, Alice Grace Doyle and Sneeringer.

A curious crowd was kept interested all the morning watching a squad of workmen putting up the huge Western Union telegraph poles. It was a hard job and looked, to the average citizen, like a dangerous one.

H. P. Cheatham, who will contest the seat of Hon. F. A. Woodward in congress from the second district, has employed as counsel Messrs. Jno. W. Graham of Hillsboro and B. C. Sharpe of Greensboro.

Revenue collector Simmons is informed of the seizure of three illicit distilleries, all of which were destroyed; one near Siler City, one near Greensboro, and one near Candor, Moore county. The latter was one of the best equipped stills ever found.

Mention has frequently been made in the papers of the miserable condition of the old, abandoned Second Presbyterian church on North Blount street. It is a menace to the safety of the residences there. Something should be done with it.

The Wilmington Review says of W. S. L. O'B Robinson, the new judge elect in this district: "He is also from Wayne county and has been a life-long republican. He is a clever gentleman and excellent lawyer and will make a good judge. If the office had to go to a republican we are glad he got it."

DELIGHTFUL CONCERT

A Very Fine Entertainment at Peace Last Evening.

A large audience greeted the excellent company of musicians which furnished the music for the concert at Peace institute last evening. That it was appreciative and pleased was evident from the character of the audience and the excellent way in which the program was rendered. Those who took part were the teachers and pupils of Peace and some of Raleigh's best musical talent.

The first piece on the program, a beautiful chorus, the "Belfry Tower," was splendidly rendered as were all the pieces that followed. There were about sixty voices, including the teachers, pupils, male quartette and Ral-igh talent. The piece was enthusiastically encoored but it was announced that no encores would be responded to. The solo by Prof. Darnall, the violin solo by Mrs. Bryant, and the recitation by Miss Herbage were beautiful and captivated the audience. The entertainment closed with a delightfully rendered duet by Prof. Darnall and Mrs. Bryant. "The Echo," the title of the duet, carried the audience by storm and breathless silence reigned as the professor and Mrs. Bryant, singing together in perfect time, gave an imitation of an echo that was faintly only in its sweetness. All in all it was a splendid entertainment, well arranged and carried out. It was given for a charitable purpose and a nice sum was realized.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

The Georgia Minstrels This Evening—Boyd's Modern Minstrels Saturday.

At the academy of music this evening Richards & Pringle's Georgia minstrels will make lots of fun. The company's fine band played delightful music on the street today. The Georgia minstrels always attract a good house. The show has plenty of good features and many specialties.

Boyd's Modern minstrels will appear at Metropolitan hall Saturday evening. The Utica N. Y. Gazette says of them: "Boyd's Modern minstrels played here to the capacity of the house. They are always welcome visitors here. They never leave without leaving a hearty laugh behind them, and as a minstrel organization have but few equals. Johnny Mack needs no introduction. James West is more than welcome. F. C. Cashman is just as funny as ever. They never tire you with old chestnuts, and our best wishes go with them to our sister cities."

Wedding Bells.

At Cary this afternoon Miss Mattie Moye, daughter of Mr. A. E. Moye, was married to Dr. C. A. Adams of Aberdeen, son of Mr. J. P. H. Adams.

Last evening Mr. E. Stone and Miss Ida Busbee were married in this city. Both are well known here. They left last night on a bridal tour.

This morning at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. A. Collier, Mr. W. P. Harding of Ridgeway, and Miss Ella Collier were married. Mr. Cheatham, of Ridgeway, was best man and Miss Josie Olive maid of honor. The presents were numerous. Rev. Dr. Harding of Ridgeway performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Collier left on the 11:50 S. A. L. train for a bridal tour.

It is said that Mr. "Jack" Prior is soon to give up the state of "single blessedness."

A Pretty German.

The german given last evening in compliment to Miss Lida Carr, Miss Templar, Miss Doyle, Miss Alice Grace Doyle and Miss Sneeringer was a delightful affair. About sixteen couples participated. Dancing commenced at 9 p. m. and stopped at 1 a. m. Col. J. S. Carr, of Durham, was present and enjoyed the occasion immensely.

Marriage at Merry Oaks.

MERRY OAKS, Nov. 14, 1894.
Correspondence: Mr. M. J. Bohing and Miss Esther E. Edwards, of this place, were married at the Baptist church yesterday at 4 p. m. The Rev. Mr. Blanchard, of Durham, officiated. The couple left for Columbia, S. C., where they will attend the fair, then take in other cities in the south. The happy pair have our best wishes.
Miss Ella Wilson and Mrs. J. D. Johnson, who have been sick for some weeks, are now improving.

Fifty negroes from the island of Navassa were set free from a vessel at New York yesterday. Twenty were too sick to be moved. Hideous tales are told of their treatment on the island by those who escaped a terrible disease. Charges are made that they were induced to go there by false representations. Navassa is a guano island.

Mr. M. V. Richards is appointed land and immigration agent of the Southern railway company, with office at 1208 Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, D. C.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Mr. J. G. Steed's condition is much improved today.

Miss S. D. Hyman, of Henderson, who has been visiting Miss Purnell, returned home today.

Hon. John S. Henderson states that he will not contest the election of A. C. Shaford in the seventh district.

Mrs. E. J. Killy, of Fayetteville, who has been visiting Mrs. R. T. Gray, returned home this afternoon.

Rev. M. A. Adams, of Reidsville, is attracting large audiences to the Baptist tabernacle. He has just begun a revival meeting there.

Miss Clarke, who is to conduct a cooking class here, arrived this morning. Persons who desire to take lessons should leave their names at the mission rooms.

Miss Willie Simmons, who was so seriously ill at Wake Forest from eating poisoned ice cream, is out of danger. Miss Simmons is soon to wed to Mr. E. Y. Webb, of Shelby.

Mrs. Eliza W. Howell, wife of Rev. Jesse Howell of Wake county, died Saturday night at her home. She was 80 years of age and her husband is one of the oldest ministers of the gospel in this state.

Another Moonshiner.

Frank Johnson, an old colored man, was arrested a day or two ago in New Light township for moonshining. He was tried today before U. S. commissioner Vitruvius Royster and sent to jail to await the next term of federal court, which convenes the first Monday in December. Johnson made an especially pure brand of old corn. He carried on his operations by moonlight and did a thriving business selling his wares throughout the small country towns. Like others of his kind he came to grief and now stays in jail.

Valuation of North Carolina Property.

The state auditor's report shows for 1893 27,397,000 acres of land, value $114,124,005; 67,804 town lots, value $42,579,848 (increase nearly $2,000,000); the aggregate value of real estate being $156,743,000. (An increase of nearly $1,000,000). There are 146,725 horses, value $7,497,225; 111,463 mules, value $6,475,251; 41,538 goats, value $31,900; 624,716 cattle, value $4,806,663; 1,138,256 hogs, value $1,620,117; 355,020 sheep, value $358,268. The value of farming utensils is $13,019,741. The money on hand or on deposit is $3,985,615; the solvent credits $20,052,388, the stock in incorporated companies $2,690,375; all other property $21,032,565 (against $20,726,000 in 1892); aggregate value of personal property $81,617,543 (against $82,410,000 in 1892); total value of all property $285,361,508, increase $1,000,000 over 1892.

Knows How to be Silent.

Judge Walter Clark certainly knows how to be silent as well as when to speak. When Mr. Pulaski Cowper's letter came out a certain person called on judge Clark in regard to it. The latter told him that when endorsed by the populists he had stated his position in terms so plain and unmistakable that no man could misunderstand him; that subsequently both the democratic and republican conventions had endorsed him and now he had nothing to say and the people could speak their will at the polls. From motives of his own the person still insisted that a letter should be written. Judge Clark instantly "caught on" and is reported to have said, fixing his eyes on his visitor, "I understand five different languages and I know how to be silent in each of them." As a consequence he has received over 250,000 votes, over 100,000 more than this state has ever cast for any other man.

The knitting mill at Ekhart, Indiana, employing over 100 people, was completely demolished yesterday by burrowing muskrats undermining the building. The extensive machinery and thousands of pairs of hosiery were hurled into the St. Joseph-river by the caving in of the earth.

Part of North Wilmington street, although paved, is over three inches deep in mud. This could be remedied.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

Forecast for North Carolina: Thursday fair, preceded by rain today. Cooler in central and eastern portions tonight.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Thursday, fair. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 54; minimum temperature 40; rainfall 0.61.

The area of low barometer which was central over the lakes yesterday morning has moved eastward to New England, causing light rains in the northern and central Atlantic states and higher temperature. It was followed by an area of high barometer with fair, colder weather, which is now moving eastward. The barometer is highest over Texas. The temperature is not very low in the west, the lowest being 28. The barometer is low in the extreme northwest.

Today at the Colored Fair.

This was educational day and addresses were delivered by Mr. J. C. Scarborough, Prof. E. P. Moses and Prof. A. W. Pegues, principal of the colored deaf mute and blind institution.

The exhibits at the fair are good. Many by white exhibitors which are also shown from the state fair. The needle work is as good as any ever seen here. Franklin county has a fine exhibit, in charge of John Williams; St. Augustine school shows work of its industrial department. The poultry exhibit is good. Among the industrial exhibits should be mentioned the drawings of a Raleigh colored woman named Hood, whose right arm is paralyzed and yet finds a ready sale for left-handed drawings; the exhibit of handiwork and artistic painting by a colored genius named Pope, and the farm and poultry exhibits of an old colored farmer, J. C. Barker, who has been a steady premium winner at both the white and colored fairs for years.
