DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

O, the market house!
Two drunks—before the mayor—five apiece.

Business on the cotton exchange was not so brisk today.
Messrs. Woolcott & Son are selling fine new goods at and near cost. Go there to get bargains.

A convict from Rutherfordton and two convicts from Columbus arrived at the penitentiary today.

Add the round number 200 to your telephone list, which connects with Mr. M. Mr. Smith's business office.

Another very slight rain last night has turned several of Raleigh's streets into the muddiest and most miserable of thoroughfares.

Elder Jesse Brown will preach at the Primitive Baptist church Friday the 23rd. Services commence at 11 o'clock a. m.

On December 1st there will be a sheriff's sale of law books and other personal property belonging to John Devereux Esq.

See Messrs. Whiting Bros. attractive advertisement in this paper "Get there Eh," is a mild expression of their hustling abilities.

The supreme court was today occupied with the Moravian tax case which was reported a day or so ago in the Visitor.

Two colored men furnished the crowd of circus hangers-on a free side-show exhibition last night by indulging in a vicious lictuff. Both escaped before one of the "finest" arrived.

The three negroes, who have been under arrest here on suspicion of robbery and who are wanted in Garysburg, were taken to that place today.

Tomorrow evening the Carolina Yacht Club will give its regular monthly get-together at the Park hotel. Dancing will commence promptly at 9 o'clock and "Home Sweet Home" will come at 1 a. m.

Yesterday afternoon quite a number of ladies met Miss Clarke, at the Pullen building, and she gave an initiatory lesson in cookery. This afternoon the first regular lesson was given.

The next Colorado legislature will contain three women. Mrs. Carrie Clyde Holly, Mrs. Francis Kloek and Mrs. Carrie Crossingham. "Mr. Speaker, is my hat on straight?"

The passenger department of the Southern railway has issued a very attractive booklet on the hunting and fishing grounds in this state and Virginia. It contains much information of interest to the sportsman.

Japan and things Japanese will be discussed by the young woman's missionary society of Edenton street M. E. church on Friday evening. A subject of such general interest will doubtless insure a large attendance.

Rev. G. J. Dowell, of Durham, pastor of the second Baptist church of that city, some time ago offered his resignation to the congregation. The church refused to accept his resignation, and offers him an increase in salary of $100.

William Jackson, colored, was arraigned before mayor Badger this morning charged with stealing an axe and other carpenter's tools from the keeper of Pullen park. He submitted and was bound over to court in the sum of one hundred dollars.

William Smith, the colored man whose narrow escape from instant death was reported in yesterday's Visitor, was taken to the hospital last evening. Contrary to expectations he is still alive and has some chance of recovery.

The governor has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of Thos. Buchanan, alias Tom Bugle, a colored man who last September shot and killed a man named Brigman in Richmond county. Buchanan is described as weighing 160 pounds and bald-headed.

A certain Raleigh editor on entering his office the other morning found a note from a subscriber, who forgot to give his postoffice. Along with the note was an expired excursion ticket which the gentleman begged that the editor accept as sixty-five cents he was due.

Emily Perry, a colored woman, came near having a serious accident last evening. Emily was carrying a beautiful "jag" and stepped directly in front of a rapidly moving street car. The motorman tried to stop but it was impossible. The woman was struck and knocked off the track. She was taken to the hospital where it was found she was uninjured with the exception of several severe bruises. The accident happened at the corner of Blount and Jones streets. The street car people were not to blame in the least.

CROSS-MURRAY.

A Home Wedding Here This Morning.

At 11:30 o'clock this morning, at the home of Mr. D. C. Murray, his daughter Miss Carrie Murray was united in marriage to Mr. John W. Cross. The wedding was attended by so many friends of the very popular contracting parties that the house was filled. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. P. J. Caraway, presiding elder of the Winston district. The parlor was daintily decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums, and in candelabra were wax candles, the room being darkened. The bride's sister, Miss Nellie Murray was maid of honor and Capt. Alfred Williams, Jr., was best man. The bride wore a most becoming traveling dress of brown cloth, velvet trimmed, with hat to match. She and her fortunate husband were the recipients of many congratulations. The bridal presents were numerous and came from several states. At noon Mr. and Mrs. Cross left for Washington, and a large party of friends bade them good bye at the depot. There were many wishes for a long and most happy married life, and in these the Visitor joins most heartily.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

The Marriage of Mr. Harry and Miss Olive

The Charlotte Observer has the following account of the marriage at Apex yesterday of Miss Minnie C. Olive and Mr. John M. Harry, of Charlotte. Miss Olive is a daughter of ex-state senator H. C. Olive and is very popular. Mr. Harry is a rising young citizen of Charlotte.

Promptly at 9 o'clock the opening strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march were wafted on the night air when the bridal party, a vision of loveliness, met the view of the expectant crowd. The ushers, Messrs. Lindsay Olive and B. L. Hardage, of Atlanta, Ga., were the first to enter, one going down each aisle, crossing in front of the altar and taking their positions on each side of the arch under which the bride was to stand. These were immediately followed by Miss Minnie Harry and Miss Annie Graham Shaw, Mr. Percy Olive and Mr. Foreman, Miss Willie Hill and Miss Pattie Olive, maid of honor; Mr. John C. McNeely and Mr. Reece Harry, best man.

Rev. I. T. Newton performed the ceremony in a most impressive manner. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the residence of the bride's father, where an elegant reception was tendered them.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry left on the vestibule for a trip north.

George Mills Talks About Death.

Yesterday George Mills, the condemned murderer, was visited by his brother, J. D. Mills. As he was about to leave he told Mills that if he wished he would send him some clothes. "It's no use," said George, "if they kill me when they say I won't have any use for them." He was told by his brother that he would not be hung on November 30, the day set for his execution. "Well," said he, "we have all got to go sometimes; it don't matter how soon I go." During the rather lengthy conversation that ensued George spoke in a very philosophical manner in regard to death and burial, saying that he wanted his kin-people to take him home for burial. He seems to be perfectly resigned and to have no hope that the execution will not take place. As his brother started to leave the prisoner called to him to send a particular pair of socks which he wishes to wear when he is hung.

The Arbitrators at Work.

Raleigh people generally will be glad to learn that something is being done towards again opening the market. Yesterday afternoon Col. Hicks and Mr. Ellington took the testimony of Messrs. Keith, Wiggins and contractor Bivins in regard to the disputed market question. This afternoon three witnesses for the city were examined. They were Messrs. Lambeth, Blake and Bauer. The dispute will probably be settled this afternoon and the experts will likely hand in their decision tomorrow. Then let the work go on.

Election of Officers.

At a regular convocation of Raleigh chapter, No. 10, Royal Arch Masons, held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing Masonic year: W. A. Withers, H. P.; J. C. Drewry, K.; C. Kleuppelburg, S; Z. P. Smith, C. H.; John Nichols, P. S.; J. F. Cuthrell, R. A. C.; T. W. Blake, treasurer; W. E. Faison, secretary; John Whitelaw, 1st V.; B. R. Lacy, 2d V.; C. F. Massey, 3d V.; R. H. Bradley, G.

Commissioner Vitruvius Royster had a little case to try this afternoon. John Allen, a white man from Granville county, has been making a great quantity of good old apple-jack and corn licker. He forgot about getting out a license, however, so fell into the clutches of the law. He was convicted and sent on to the next term of federal court. He also forgot to bring a bondsman and will be the guest of deputy Brooks until he can find one.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Col. and Mrs. T. M. Holt arrived today.

Dr. Whitehead, of Chapel Hill, arrived this afternoon.

Mr. H. B. Nitze, of the geological survey, was here today.

Mr. Harding, librarian of the university, was here today.

Judge Allen, of Goldsboro, arrived today from Greensboro.

Mrs. Cameron Gales, of Greensboro, is here on a visit to relatives.

Miss Bynum Watson has returned from a visit to Johnston county.

R. H. Battle Esq., left yesterday to visit his large farm in Edgecombe.

Mr. S. A. Norfleet, Jr., of Halifax, Bertie county, has been appointed a notary public.

Mrs. S. F. Inman, of Atlanta, arrived this morning and is visiting her father, Mr. A. M. McPheters.

Mrs. Preston L. Bridgers, of Wilmington, is in the city on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Burke Haywood.

Miss Alma Smith, recently of Macon, Ga., has accepted a position with Mr. M. M. Smith as assistant stenographer and typist.

Mr. H. H. Chandler and Mrs. Chandler, of Nebraska, arrived in Raleigh yesterday and will make this their future home.

Mr. J. G. Steed was so much letter yesterday that he surprised his many friends in the revenue department by paying them a visit.

Mrs. Armistead Jones entertained a few friends last evening at a charming "tea." The tea was given in compliment to Misses Bessie Henderson, of Salisbury, and Sallie Cotten, of Falkland, who are visiting Mrs. Julian Timberlake.

The Charlotte Observer says Mr. E. R. Dodge, who has been in Raleigh since Sunday a week ago is expected home today. Mr. Dodge will be probably stationed in Raleigh, when the Thompson-Houston company turns over the electric light plant of Charlotte to the 4 's.

A Strange Death.

Bartlett Shipp Bynum, son of Rev. W. S. and Mrs. M. L. Bynum, died at his father's residence at Lincolnton yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. Several months ago little Bartlett, while picking his teeth with a pin, accidentally swallowed it. For some time he had been suffering from internal pains. The pain became alarming and physicians were summoned and an examination revealed the fact that something must be done to give relief. A surgical operation was performed. The pin was found and the child seemed to be relieved, but death followed. He was just 10 years old.—Charlotte Observer.

Oil at One Cent a Gallon.

Competition between the Standard oil trust and the New England oil company has become so intense during the last day or two that oil of a high test has been selling in Somerville, Miss., at 1 cent per gallon.

In the meat shops of towns in New Mexico and Arizona the visitor from the east is apt to notice that the dressed carcasses of sheep have a tuft of wool still attached to the head and the tail. This is left by the butcher to assure the customer that it is mutton and not goat flesh that he is buying.

The Amount of Bread in a Barrel of Flour.

It has been found that a barrel of flour will make 250 loaves of bread, weighing 17 ounces each. Such a loaf usually retails at 5c, and upon this basis it is computed that upon an average there is $10 worth of bread in a barrel of flour.

The finest dish on the market—quail on toast, at Dughli's.

The governor yesterday appointed W. S. Adams, democrat, senator elect from Moore county, and C. A. Cook, republican, of Warren, as members of the board of state canvassers.

The national convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union yesterday re-elected Miss Frances E. Willard, president.

California pears at Dughli's, the finest of the season.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

Forecast for North Carolina: Fair, preceded by showers today.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Thursday, fair.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 48; minimum temperature 39; rainfall, 0.12.

An area of low barometer has appeared off the North Carolina coast. Its center is apparently between Wilmington and Hatteras. It is causing rain along the coast from New York to Charleston. The center of high pressure is over Georgia. The pressure also continues high over New England coast.

The weather is generally clear in the west and cool.

The indications are that it will clear by Thursday noon, (probably sooner) in North Carolina.

Thieves Make an Early Breakfast.

When a certain Raleigh gentleman awoke this morning he found no breakfast awaiting him. That household tyrant, the cook, gave him the startling information that there were no provisions to cook. Upon investigation it was found that thieves had entered the pantry and taken absolutely everything of an edible nature therefrom. From the scattered crumbs and remnants it is surmised that the rascals, before leaving, had coolly made a nice early breakfast. The aforesaid gentleman swore long and loud but had to be contented with a cup of coffee for breakfast.

Fresh oysters every day, at Dughli's.

Dughli's restaurant is open from 7 in the morning till one at night.

He Married Seven Times.

It is too bad! He was a good fellow, in every way good-natured and kind hearted, but he could not stand prosperity. He had inherited a large fortune and bought corner lots; but his success was so great after using "Velvet Cream" from the North-Side drug store that it tarred his head, and we have since heard that "He married seven times."

Bananas 20 and 25 cents per dozen; $1 per bunch, at Dughli's.

CLOTHING AND CLOTHING.

Gentlemen, Men and Boys, why don't you all get clothing from Swindell's. There is no better stock of clothing to be found in this city than is found at Swindell's and the styles are the very latest and the price is the very lowest.
