DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

A fine day for the sportsmen.

The Carolina cotillon club's dance will begin at the Park hotel this evening.

Barnes Bros. have something to say today which is of interest to the public.

The Y. M. C. A. rooms are well patronized. The young men have learned to go there to enjoy themselves.

During the revival in progress at the Baptist tabernacle there have been ten professions of religion.

One drunk, who got twelve hours in the station house, was the only business mayor Badger had to transact this morning.

There are now 94 pupils at the institution for the blind. There are 88 deaf-mute and blind pupils in the colored institution.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. McDonald will give a supper in celebration of the twelfth anniversary of their marriage.

One of the things which the fusion legislature will do, one of its members-elect says, will be to abolish the merchants' purchase tax.

An abandoned colored woman, Lovie Haywood, was drunk and disorderly yesterday. Today she was sent to the roads for 30 days.

There will be a union service of most of the churches here on Thanksgiving day. Arrangements for it are to be made next Saturday.

There are now nineteen prisoners in jail here. Most of them are incarcerated for minor offenses. But the murderers, Perry and Wimberly, are yet to be tried.

The following notaries public were appointed today by Gov. Carr: G. S. Bradshaw at Asheboro, T. R. Fulghum of Pine Level, and Thomas L. Chisholm of Ramseur.

What has become of the proposed work of macadamizing the lower part of Fayetteville street? It was said months ago that work would commence the first of October.

The puffing of the township steam roller was heard on the streets today. It took a tour of the various unpaved streets within the fire limits. The city's steam roller is still covered up.

The people of this city ought to attend in large numbers the concert which the Oxford orphans will give at Metropolitan hall next Tuesday evening. There is no charge for admission.

The delay of the S. A. L. train this morning was caused by the breaking down of the locomotive near Monroe. A new engine was obtained and the train came on and arrived at one o'clock. No one was injured.

The experts who have in charge the matter of deciding the dispute as to the market house will next Saturday take evidence, and will be able in all probability to render a decision early next week.

The market house squabble is drawing to its end. A gentleman, who should know, said today that the proposed alterations, if the experts decide in the city's favor, will cost at least $600.

Mr. Will. Cooper, who is interested in the appearance here on December 4th of the Swedish quartette, has succeeded in selling 105 reserved seats already. The company is an excellent one and Mr. Cooper richly deserves the success he is sure to have.

Messrs. John W. Thompson, W. S. Primrose, John Nichols and B. R. Lacy are the committee of Masons who will be in charge of the chapter of orphans to appear at Metropolitan hall next Tuesday evening, in a concert in aid of the Oxford orphan asylum.

North Carolina has 142 cotton mills, with 691,016 spindles, 12,143 looms, 1,994 cards. South Carolina has 62 mills, with 655,223 spindles, 17,740 looms and 1,263 cards. Georgia has 67 mills, with 536,709 spindles, 12,134 looms and 1,885 cards. North Carolina therefore leads in the number of mills, spindles and cards.

There is a good deal of curiosity as to who will get the clerkships under the new county officers; whether the lucky ones will be republicans or populists, or some of each. The populists will probably get their share. The county officers are all republicans, and this has led some persons to say that only republicans will get clerkships.

The market house investigation looks to the casual observer, who has seen the experts "on the bench" in the mayor's office, more like a murder trial than a matter to be decided by arbitration. The experts were occupied from 10 till 12 today listening to glorious bursts of legal oratory, first from Mr. Holding, city attorney, and Mr. T. M. Argo, counsel for contractor Bivins.

Many parties are being formed to get after the feathered tribe on Thanksgiving day.

The last will and testament of the late Mr. F. F. Ellis of this city was probated today.

The Chatham Record says that last week a carp weighing 22 1-2 pounds was caught at Lockville.

The university students are arranging to establish a co-operative store, on the plan of one at Harvard.

The annual conference of the Methodist Protestant church in North Carolina is in session, Rev. Dr. Ferree presiding.

There will be a meeting of the Epworth literary circle in the Bible class room of Edenton street M. E. church this evening.

Professor James N. Blair, a well-known educator, died suddenly yesterday at Ruffin, Rockingham county, where he was teaching school.

Editor J. W. Goslen, of the Winston Republican, is soliciting subscriptions of stock to a republican daily newspaper to be established at Winston or Greensboro.

George Mills, the condemned murderer, seems more cheerful than he has at any time since his confinement. He is very confident of obtaining a new trial from the supreme court.

Sixty years ago coal was not used here but it was found during the digging of a well near this city and a man is now living who heard the well digger declare he had found coal at the bottom of the well. A Raleigh citizen contends that a search would disclose the fact that there is coal here.

Concord presbytery met at Statesville yesterday to pass upon the licensure of Mr. R. V. Miller, of Salisbury. He was found to hold such views that the presbytery declined to license him or receive him under its care the Charlotte Observer says.

The S. A. L. train, which should have arrived at 11:35 this morning, came in considerably after 1 o'clock this afternoon. It was said at the depot that the train had been "held up" near Monroe and robbed of a choice line of chestnuts, chickens, and "Chatham pork," (rabbits.) Of course this was a joke.

Rev. J. A. Cuninggim, D. D.

At the fourth and last quarterly conference of Brooklyn city mission, held at Brooklyn church last evening, the following resolutions were adopted by the official members of that conference:

Whereas, According to the law of our church the Rev. J. A. Cuninggim, D. D., our beloved presiding elder, must go to another field of labor next year and this charge will, therefore, not enjoy any more the privilege of listening to his wise counsel and godly teaching; therefore,

Resolved, That we, the members of this quarterly conference, for ourselves and the church that we represent, hereby tender to Dr. Cuninggim our heartfelt thanks for the hearty services that he has rendered us during the four years in which he has ministered unto us as our presiding elder; and that we do assure him that into whatsoever field of labor the Master may call him he shall have our prayers to the end that he may be long spared to work for the Master whom he so dearly loves and whom he so lovingly preaches to others.

At the close of the business of the conference, the official members expressed in warm terms their appreciation of the services of their pastor, Rev. R. H. Whitaker, and asked the presiding elder to use his influence to have him returned to that work for the next year.

A Lucky Dog.

Ben. Plummer, colored, is a lucky dog. Yesterday afternoon while Amanda Dunston, the well known proprietress of Manda's restaurant, was attending a funeral some one entered her restaurant and took several chickens, some hams and other sundry articles. Suspicion fell on Ben and he was arrested. This morning he was tried before the mayor but the evidence was not strong enough to convict him. He is still confined, however, as there are two more larceny cases laid at his door. He is a notorious thief, having just returned from the roads. It seems that he will escape punishment entirely.

He Accidentally Killed His Room-mate.

Not long ago a son of Mr. Deb. Johnson left his home at Auburn, this county, and went to Texas to live. A letter from him states that through an unfortunate mistake he shot and killed his room-mate. One night the latter came home late and was heard trying to open an outside door. Mr. Johnson asked who it was at the door. He got no answer, and then went to the door. He heard the man trying to enter a window and fired at him, killing him instantly. The killing has caused Mr. Johnson great sorrow. He was not arrested.

The Idea that "people will buy Christmas presents anyway" is good as far as it goes; but the newspaper advertisement very often decides them as to where they will purchase.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Mr. McHenry, of Richmond, arrived this afternoon.

Mr. Riley Davidson, an old and well known resident of Charlotte, is dead.

Mr. White, of Louisburg, passed through today from Atlanta on his way home.

Gen. R. F. Hoke left this afternoon for New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Richmond Pearson, Esq., congressman elect from the ninth district, is in the city.

Miss Mary L. Stevenson, daughter of the vice-president, is no better. Hope of her ultimate recovery has been about given up.

Mr. Jabez Myers, of Charlotte, is yet in the hospital at West Point. His arm, which was broken at Charlotte by a bullet, does not knit.

Senator Ransom was thrown from his buggy by runaway horses yesterday, and a right foot badly hurt, but not seriously. The accident occurred at Weldon.

Gen. Robert B. Vance is extremely ill at his home at Alexander's. He went home sick Saturday, and illness has developed into an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. J. C. L. Harris has gone to New York for a week on professional business, and while absent may raise some money for the new populist paper which will be established here, it is now said, by December 15th.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

Forecast for North Carolina: Fair, warmer in the interior tonight.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Thursday, fair, slightly warmer.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature 58; minimum temperature 43; rainfall, 0.00.

The center of high barometer this morning is over the middle Atlantic states. The highest is reported from Hatteras. Many stations within this area of high pressure reported dense fogs this morning, but no rain. The fog will clear up and the sky probably become clear during the day. An area of low barometer is central over Missouri, but is causing as yet no great disturbance in the west, and little rain is reported from it. It is accompanied by rising temperature. The temperature is generally a little above normal.

An Interesting Decision.

The supreme court decides adversely to Robert O. Burton, Esq., who sought by mandamus to compel the state auditor and treasurer to pay him the alleged balance of a fee as counsel for the state in the tax suits against the Wilmington & Weldon railroad. He had received part of the fee. The case goes against him on the ground that under the peculiar circumstances a writ of mandamus does not lie against the auditor to compel him to issue a warrant, as there is no specific fund set apart for this purpose and because the auditor has already exercised his powers in the matter.

The Methodist Conference.

The North Carolina Methodist conference meets Dec 5th at Durham. The only Methodist who has served his four years in this district and must therefore, according to custom, be removed, is Rev. Dr. J. A. Cuninggim. Raleigh's Methodist divines have all won their way into the affections of the people and everyone will be glad to learn that they will all probably return for another year at least.

A Woman's Suffrage Club.

ASHEVILLE, Nov. 22.—A meeting in the interest of woman's suffrage occurred yesterday at mayor Patton's residence and an organization was affected by the election of the following officers: President, Miss Helen Morris Lewis; vice president, Maj. T. C. Westall; secretary, Mrs. E. C. Coffin; treasurer, T. W. Patton. A committee was appointed to draw up a petition to be presented to the next legislature, praying that women as well as men be appointed on the school boards. It was also decided to petition the legislature to grant the women of North Carolina the right to vote.

I. O. O. F.

Seaton Gales lodge will hold its regular convocation this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the new hall. Members are earnestly requested to attend. Matters of importance require the presence of all. Visiting brethren invited.

Musical Instruments Still in Tune After 3,000 Years.

Late excavations in Norway and Denmark have brought to light four ancient bronze horns. Of these antique musical instruments, which are 2,000 to 3,000 years old, the ancient northern museum in Copenhagen possesses a collection of 18 pieces. Some of these horns are in such condition that they may yet be judged as to quality, tone, etc. According to doctor Hammerich some of these are tuned to C, some smaller ones ones in E, and others in D, E, or G. They show in their elegant curves and embellishments a highly-developed taste and technical perfection.

Murderers at Large.

Nothing has been seen or heard of Charles Walton, or "Shacklefoot Charles." Many say he will only stay in hiding until the reward gets a little cold; others that he has skipped for good. The two negro boys who murdered the old man here some time ago have made good their escape.
