DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

See notice of the horse sale. Cotton receipts today were light.

The warm weather gives the sportsman a set back.

There seems to be a decided lull in local theatricals.

Mr. Ed. Leach is building two large sales stables and several cottages.

The deaf and dumb asylum, at Morganton, has an electric light plant.

John Allen, a moonshiner from Granville county, was released from jail on bond today.

The supreme court completed its work for the circuit yesterday. The court will meet again next week.

The sheriff of Pamlico yesterday brought two convicts to the penitentiary and the sheriff of Lenoir, four.

Sheriff Page declares that he will enforce the law in regard to taxing tax payers with costs after December 1st.

A party is being formed here to go to Richmond on Thanksgiving day to "root" for the university. About 30 are to go.

The revival services still go on at Central Methodist church, Rev. D. H. Tuttle preaching. There have been professions at every service.

Mr. Emmerson, of Baltimore, also of "Bromo-seltzer" fame, is building two handsome cottages on the property recently sold to Mr. Simmons.

Don't make any engagement for next Tuesday evening, except to go to the orphans concert at Metropolitan hall. Help on a good work.

The pastors of the city are requested to meet at the Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock to arrange for Thanksgiving day services.

The quarterly conference of the Methodists of Raleigh district will be held this evening at the Edenton Street Methodist church in the Bible class room.

Mr. Thomas H. Briggs, commissioner for the sale of the "Oakdale" lands, northeast of the city, will sell them December 10. The site is very attractive.

Prof. Chas. F. Meserve, president of Shaw university, delivered an educational address yesterday at Charlotte. This evening he speaks there on "Friendship."

Some advertisers were first led to advertise as a last desperate resort to get rid of a large stock of goods. The results proved so gratifying that they become regular advertisers.

It is said that the market house referees will be unable to agree. This will cause further delay about the matter. The whole business is getting to be absurd as well as provoking.

A spirited animal hitched to a road cart tried to run away at the citizens bank corner this morning. An accident was only averted by the coolness of a colored man who stopped the horse.

Mr. Robert Little, who works at the Raleigh cotton mills, had the misfortune to have a finger caught and badly crushed in the machinery there this morning. It is feared that the finger may have to be amputated.

A human skull has been dug up in Charlotte. A pocket knife was found near the skull with the stain of blood still upon it. Fragments of wool still remain on parts of the bone, and the person was evidently a negro.

Last Wednesday evening Mr. Jones Fuller, of Raleigh, now a Horner's school cadet, went into the engine room of the school in the dark. He stepped into a boiler of hot water up to his knees. A physician was summoned and dressed the wound, which he said was not serious. Mr. Fuller will be well in ten days, the doctor says.

A Charlotte man recently desired to kill some pigeons in his back yard. There is a law there against firing arms in the city limits so the law-abiding citizen went to a hardware man and asked him for some noiseless shells. When he fired, however, he was knocked down and the report alarmed the city. The News says he was arrested by six different policemen and that the shell he fired was loaded with six drachms of giant powder and four wads, covered by three ounces of shot.

Mr. James M. Towles Dead.
Mr. James M. Towles died at his home on East Lane street this morning after a long and lingering illness. Mr. Towles was very well known and numbered his friends by the hundred. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from his residence. Friends and relatives invited to attend.

A BEAUTIFUL GERMAN

Was that Given by the Cotillion Club last Evening.

The Carolina Cotillion club gave its second german last evening at the Park hotel. The dance was an unqualified success being one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind ever given here. The club is to be congratulated on its success.

Dancing commenced at about 9:30 o'clock and from that time, until "Home Sweet Home" came at 1 a. m., the happy dancers kept up the revelry. The german was beautifully led by Mr. Armistead Cowan who carried the eighteen couples that participated through the intricate figures without a hitch.

The couples who were present were as follows: Mr. Armistead Cowan, leader, with Miss Roberta Smith; Mr. Benjamin Foker with Miss Kathrine Badger; Mr. James Litchford with Miss Sallie Cotten, of Falkland; Dr. Ayer with Miss Bessie Henderson, of Salisbury; W. W. Vass, Esq., with Miss Annie Busbee; Mr. Howard with Miss Ella Barwell; Mr. Guion Dewey with Miss Janet Badger; Mr. Sherwood Higgs with Miss Lathrop, of Baltimore; Perrin Busbee, Esq., with Miss Kate Haywood, Mr. R. L. Gray with Miss Carrie Holt; Mr. Sam Hindsdale with Miss Nannie Jones; Mr. George Hill with Miss Annie Hill; Mr. Hunter with Miss Hamilton; Mr. Decker with Miss Stith; Mr. Stark Batchelor with Mrs. Plummer Batchelor; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Telfair; Mr. and Mrs. Aldrick. The chaperones were Mrs. Armistead Jones and Miss Lizzie Lee.

The german was a brilliant and charming affair. The next club dance will be given about December 20th.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Mr. W. W. Holladay left for New York today.

Mrs. F. H. Busbee left this afternoon for Scotland Neck.

John Morgan Green Esq., arrived from Durham today.

Col. F. A. Olds is confined to his room by a severe cold.

Rev. Mr. McKaghan, of Rockford, was in the city today.

Mr. A. B. Andreas Jr., returned this afternoon from a visit to Charlotte.

Mrs. O. H. Foster returned to the city today after an absence of several weeks.

Mr. V. E. McBea, superintendent of transportation of the S. A. L., arrived today.

Dr. Duffy, of Newberne, who has been here for some days, returned home this afternoon.

Col. A. Q. Holladay, whose accident was reported in the Visitor several days ago, is getting on nicely.

Mr. W. E. Christian, of the News and Observer, is quite sick today. It is feared that he may have typhoid fever.

Mrs. J. N. Cole left this morning for Warrenton to attend the dedication of the new Methodist church there next Sunday.

Mr. E. R. Dodge returned from Raleigh this morning after a stay of 10 days there. Everything is in good running order, he says, and the plant is one of the best in the south. The street lights and the power house for the electric railway are all combined. The new company has 12 handsome cars and will run on a 15 minute schedule, the Charlotte News says.

The Courts.

Mayor Badger had three cases to dispose of this morning, Joseph H. Perry, who was held for being drunk, Ben. Plummer, colored, for robbery, and Norman Freeman, colored, for wife beating. The case against Perry was dismissed and he was sent on to a magistrate. Plumber, who robbed "Maada's" restaurant, was sent to jail in default of a $50 bond and Freeman, the wife beater, was fined $5 and costs.

Joseph Perry, the white man who was arrested yesterday afternoon for maltreating his wife while drunk, was tried before justice Marcom this morning on three charges. One for assault, another for trespass and a third for abandonment. The first two cases were disposed of with a fine of $5 and costs in each case. The abandonment case being beyond the magistrate's jurisdiction Perry was bound over to court in the sum of $50. It is likely that he will go to jail as he had not, at a late hour, succeeded in getting a bondsman. Perry is described by those who know him as a clever sort of fellow when sober. When drunk, as is often the case, he is a terror.

Cotton Outlook Brighter.

Cotton merchants, farmers and business men generally wore a universal smile today. It all came from the encouraging cotton prospects. The receipts have been light and the staple has 'ris.' The New York and Liverpool markets are both strong and prices are better than has been the case in months. Middling today was selling on the Raleigh exchange for 5 1-2 cents. Not long ago it was as low as 4 1-2 cents. The outlook is that the southern staple will in a short time bring a considerably better price than at present.

The situation is indeed encouraging and farmers, merchants and people generally will have good cause to attend church on Thursday next.

A Beautiful Church.

On next Sunday the new Methodist church at Warrenton will be formally dedicated by Bishop Wilson. The church, which has only just been completed, is described as a "thing of beauty." It is said to be one of the handsomest, if not the most handsome, place of worship in the state. The cost of the church was upwards of $40,000.

Weekly Cotton Report.

The receipts for the season to date are 19,407 bales, against 14,455 for the corresponding date last year. The receipts for the week are 2,719 against 1,625 the corresponding week last season. Shipments for the week were 2,494 bales. Stock on platform, 1,275 bales. Price of middling 5 1-8 to 5 1-4 cents.

Japan the Centre of Interest.

This evening at 7:30 o'clock at Edenton street Sunday school room this country will be presented under various aspects by members of the young woman's missionary society of that church. The decorations will be Japanese in character and will include a contribution box at the door.

A Peculiar Accident

Wednesday evening little Hazel Mitchell, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell, accidentally swallowed a grain of corn which she had absent-mindedly placed in her mouth. The grain became lodged in the little one's windpipe, causing her to suffer terribly. Doctors were summoned and decided that an operation was necessary. Before it could be performed, however, the obstruction passed down and lodged lower in the little girl's throat. She is at present much better and it is thought no serious operation will have to be performed.

Football Tomorrow.

This is what the Greensboro Record says about the football game to be played between the A. & M. college and Oak Ridge at Greensboro tomorrow:

"They say the A. & M. boys play football from way back. All the same the Oak Ridge boys have an eye open for business and know how to play too. So the game is likely to be of much interest."

Our oysters at 25c per quart are better than others sell for 35c.
