DID YOU SPEAK?

Street cars running so wasn't sure it was your voice.

YES—Thursday is Thanksgiving day.
So much to be thankful for.
General prosperity all over this Southern country, notwithstanding 5c. cotton. The rapid progress
Raleigh is making lays quietly to rest
the cry of hard times. Confidence will right all things.

YES.—Our trade has been good and
we are grateful to a generous public for its liberal patronage.

YES.—The country people will find out where the cheapest place is, and such word has gone out
in the different neighborhoods
as to bring them to our store.

YES.—We return the money if the goods don't suit.

YES.—Which kind, Keith's or Burt &
Packard's "Korrek Shape"?

YES.—Come down; we can fit any foot.
We have a shoe that we call the corn doctor, wide enough for you.

All right, Sherwood.

YES.—Wait a minute, the $1.00 black goods advertised for 50c. a yard is a bargain. Eight yards and lining. Thank you, ma'am.

YES.—Another new lot of Habit cloths and 16 pieces of fancy mixtures received Friday.
Prices range from 20c to 50c.
All wool.

Heigho! Is that you?
YES.—Which cloak or cape? The applique trimmed? $10 is our best price, but we have capes
as low as $5—good ones.

YES.—Thank you, will send it up at once.

YES.—We have blankets, quilts and counterpanes, and anything you may ask for in woolen underwear. Comparison proves that we offer the best values.

YES.—Our claim to sell some lower is based upon the fact that our expenses are less than any like establishments doing the same amount of business.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

The Capital club german—this evening's social event.

Next week the state pension warrants will be sent out.

When does the city propose to begin to macadamize the streets?

Mecklenburg county may issue $300,000 in road improvement bonds.

Annie Allen, a colored woman, was jailed yesterday, charged with larceny.

The Victor cotton mill at Charlotte now runs on double time and has increased wages.

The state temperance association wants the Mississippi liquor law in North Carolina.

The Duff opera company is booked to appear at the academy of music early in January.

It is said by the Charlotte News that in violation of law partridges are being shipped out of this state.

Mr. Mark A. Foster, of Chicago, has been appointed a commissioner of deeds for North Carolina, resident in Chicago.

Bills have been posted for the appearance of the Swedish quartet December 4th. The company is highly spoken of by the press.

Does the city ever propose to utilize its steam road roller, bought one year ago, and which has never done a dollar's worth of work?

Yesterday an alarm of fire was turned in from box 37. The fire was at the corner of Cabarrus and Person streets. No serious damage was done.

Candace Page, colored, was brought here last evening and put in jail. She came from New Light township and was "run in" for defamation of character.

"Are bananas healthy?" a lady asked Miss Clark, the cooking school teacher, the other day. "Never knew one to be ill in my life," responded Miss Clark.

Mr. Thomas H. Briggs, commissioner for the sale of the "Oakdale" lands, northeast of the city, will sell them December 10. The site is very attractive.

Officer Belvin of the police force to day picked up on the street a key, evidently to a store, which may be had at this office by paying the charges for this notice.

Little James, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Marshall died today. The funeral will take place from the residence, No. 221 South Bloodworth street, at 11 o'clock tomorrow.

Raleigh council, No. 551, Royal Arcanum meets this evening at 7:30 o'clock. This meeting is of special importance as the matters of sick benefits and meeting place for next year will be acted on. Every member is requested to be present.

At the church of the Good Shepherd last evening the rector, Rev. Dr. Pittinger, preached a sermon on the question of "sanctification," taking ground strongly against it. His sermon was on the position of the Episcopal church on this subject. This is set forth cleverly in its book of common prayer.

Every Sunday the colored students of St. Augustine school march in a body to the colored Episcopal church where they attend services. The girls go in a body before the men. Last Sunday afternoon as a gentleman and two ladies were returning from church they met St. Augustine's scholars at the corner of Blount and Lane streets. The pupils were crossing Blount street as they came to the crossing. The two bodies, girls and young men, were probably 20 feet apart. The gentleman and the ladies waited until the girls passed and then attempted to pass between the two crowds. The men, seeing their purpose, impudently crowded them so that they were compelled to wait until about 60 had passed by.

A Great Game.

Saturday the greatest football game of the year was played between Harvard and Yale. Yale won but her victory was due largely to proverbial "Yale luck." The score, 12 to 4, gives no idea of the game, as Harvard forced the playing all through. Yale's first touch down was made on a "fluke," after only 15 seconds of play. Harvard was especially unlucky, missing two tries at the goal by the narrowest kind of a margin. Once the ball struck the bar between the posts and once while the ball was in the air, but just before going over the bar from a try at goal, the whistle blew, stopping the game. If the goals had been kicked Harvard would have won, 14 to 12. The game was very rough, several players on both teams being badly injured.

IF YOU WANT to know what prominent citizens, men and women who have died in the state during the year, with a brief biographical sketch of each, most valuable for reference, get Turner's North Carolina Almanac for 1895. Price only 10 cts.

It is proposed that Charlotte shall have a $50,000 opera house. It needs one.

ABSOLUTE ABSURDITY

Is the Presumption of the Market Referees to Decide Legal Questions?

Many people have wondered since the market squabble arose why it is that the two experts, who have been chosen to decide the dispute, should attempt to act as arbitrators of questions of law.

The way in which the whole matter has been carried on is certainly strange in the extreme and the fact of the two experts aspiring to pose as legal arbitrators is a piece of business that has rarely, if ever, been equalled. The question, which they are trying to decide and which Mr. Holding and Mr. Argo have been arguing about, is whether the city waived the right to reject the work by the appointment of Mr. Bauer as supervising architect. Mr. Bivins claims that he did the work, from day to day, under the personal supervision and direction of Mr. Bauer and that he, therefore, is not responsible for the failure of the work to conform to the contract plans and specifications. The city denies his claim and it is this question that has caused Mr. Hicks and Mr. Ellington to waste so much valuable time sitting in the mayor's office as legal arbitrators.

But have these gentlemen the right, under the proposition made by Mr. Bivins and accepted by the board of aldermen, to pose as such. Here is the clause of the proposition pertaining to the experts: "The board of aldermen are to select an expert and J. A. Bivins to select an expert, to whom shall be submitted the question as to what additional work shall be done upon upon the floor of the market house, if any, to make it conform to the contract plans and specifications, under which said work was done."

Mr. Hicks and Mr. Ellington have decided that the work did not conform to the contract plans. Did not their work stop there? What business or right have they to decide anything else under the proposition under which they were appointed? They were chosen as experts, not judges. Why did they not render a decision according to the accepted proposition? What do they, experts, know of delicate questions of law? If they decide, which is doubtful, an appeal may be taken and probably will be, since it is held by some that an appeal lies from a decision of arbitrators on a question of law.

If the matter was one for legal arbitrators why were not lawyers, instead of experts, selected? But the proposition says nothing of questions of law. It simply says decide whether or not the floor conforms to the contract. The experts have transcended their power. They have done their duty. Let them make a report and give way to the courts, if the case must terminate in a lawsuit. The people are tired of the continued uncertainty and delay. O, do something.

A MURDERER CAPTURED.

Calvin McNair Suspected of Being the Man Who Killed Mr. Branch at Rowland.

On November 10 a Mr. Branch, a quiet, respected and law abiding citizen of the little town of Rowland, was brutally shot and killed in cold blood. He was lured from his house and shot as he came down the steps. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of death at the hands of unknown persons.

The case was a very queer one, there being no motive evident and absolutely no clue. Suspicion fell on several persons as accomplices and they were arrested. The man who was most strongly suspected of having done the deed, however, skipped. His name is Calvin McNair. Application had been made to the governor for a reward for his capture but the reward had not been offered. While the governor had the application under consideration the murderer was captured at Burlington and jailed. The governor was informed of the fact today.

The killing, it is said, was one of the most cold-blooded murders ever committed in the state. The evidence is all entirely circumstantial but points strongly to McNair's guilt.

To Pay the Church Debt.

Next Friday evening several teachers in the Good Shepherd Sunday school will give a musical and serve refreshments at the residence of Mr. W. E. Foster. The entertainment will be given at 8 p. m. and is given for the purpose of raising money to help pay the church debt. In the afternoon at 4 o'clock an entertainment will be given especially for the children. Charming decorations, delicious delicacies and last, but by no means least, beautiful women will make the evening delightful to those who attend.

IF YOU WANT to know what prominent citizens, men and women who have died in the state during the year, with a brief biographical sketch of each, most valuable for reference, get Turner's North Carolina Almanac for 1895. Price only 10 cts.

It is proposed that Charlotte shall have a $50,000 opera house. It needs one.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Mrs. S. M. Inman left this morning on the Atlanta vestibule train for Philadelphia where she was called by a telegram announcing the sickness of a member of her family.

The Jocular Passenger.

It was the last omnibus for the evening that went to a certain part of the suburbs of one of our chief midland towns. The weather had turned out indifferently miserable, and it rained in increasing torrents. The omnibus was packed to its fullest extent within. Suddenly the omnibus stopped, and the next moment the conductor inquired if any gentleman would mind going outside to make room for a lady.

"Oh," said one of the gentlemen, jocularly, "she is quite welcome to get inside and to take a seat on my knee if she cares to do it."

The words were scarcely out of his mouth before a big, buxom dame bounced in and appropriated the proffered knee.

When the laugh which greeted this unexpected move had well subsided, the gentleman entered into conversation with his substantial burden, and asked her where she was going.

"Why, bless me," he exclaimed, as soon as she had mentioned her destination, "that's my house."

"Yes, sir," blushing replied the fair and comely female, to her companion's utter bewilderment, "I'm the new cook."—Tit Bits.

"Just a Moment!"

In Germany there is a law forbidding restaurateurs to serve beer to people who have eaten fruit.

To prevent lamp-chimneys from cracking, put them into a kettle of cold water, gradually heat it till it boils, and then let it as gradually cool.
