The president's recommendations on currency reform are awaited with interest by the country. Currency reform, and not the tariff, is the great issue now.

Almost all the big republican papers are talking against all trades between the republicans and populists for the control of the United States senate or any other purpose.

A New York paper says one melancholy result of the tidal waves is that they sweep into public life many little fellows who were not nominated with an idea of their election.

A bill appropriating $140,000,000 for pensions, and $1,381,000 for other expenses, will be reported to the full house committee on appropriations by the sub-committee on pensions.

Make room for the ladies. The result of the election for members of the London school board is that Miss Davenport Hill has defeated the Duke of Newcastle by 8,000 votes.

A man named Miller took a flyer in wheat speculation on the Toledo produce exchange. He lost $3,000, and brought suit against his brokers for the amount, on the ground that he had been gambling. The jury decided that there was no cause for action.

The recent election has given a strange stimulus to woman's suffrage to New York city. The refusal of the constitutional convention to give the women the right to vote has had no effect upon the movement.

A man's wife's services are of money value. In the case of Michael G.
Cannon, who sued the Brooklyn city railroad company for $20,000 damages for the loss of the services of his wife Annie, the jury has returned a verdict awarding the plaintiff $10,000. In a previous suit for damages for personal injuries Mrs. Cannon secured a verdict of $12,000 damages.

The unique spectacle of a man suing a woman for breach of promise of promise of marriage has created a sensation at Centerville, Mich. A man claims that a woman encouraged his attentions and finally proposed marriage to him, but now declares there was no engagement between them. The man sues for damages.

All signs of hard times have vanished from the fashionable world in New York. The profits of the recent millinery tournament, called a horse show, amount to $142,150, and the advance sale of seats to the season of winter opera insured the managers a profit of a quarter of a million before the doors were opened.

United states treasurer D. N. Morgan has submitted to secretary Carlisle the annual report on the operations and condition of the treasury. The net ordinary revenues for the fiscal year ending June 30 were $297,722,- 019.25, a decrease of $88,097,609.53 as compared with the year before. The net ordinary expenditures were $367,- 525,279.83, a decrease of $15,952,- 874.06.

A Buffalo man rolled a peanut a mile with a toothpick in payment of an election bet. If he has any friends they had better put him in a lunatic asylum as soon as possible, remarks an exchange.

More women than men voted at the recent election in Colorado, and they cast a larger per centage of their registered vote than the men. They led the men in Denver by 8,000 besides including 3,000 men to vote who usually neglect this duty.
Only a few of the 70,000 women who voted took part in the street processions. A large majority voted the republican ticket.

The difference of opinion among democrats as to the advisability of trying to pass the pop-gun tariff bills during this session is made evident as members of the party arrive in Washington and discuss the question. It is believed that when they all get there and come to talk the matter over among themselves it will be decided that this effort will make but useless agitation, and that they cannot secure sufficient unity of action to make it worth while.

CENTRE RUSH WENT CRAZY.

St. Result of a Student's Injury During a Football Game.

LITTLE FALLS, Nov. 24.—Barney Foote, a student at the Fairfield seminary, was centre rush for the seminary eleven in a football game. During the game Foote was slightly injured on the head. At 1 o'clock he arose and dressed himself in his football suit, grabbed his room mate, threw him violently to the floor and cried: "Now, are you down?" His room mate cried "Down!" and at the same time called for help but before it arrived the insane man jumped upon him in a merciless manner.
When several students rushed in the room Foote threw his valise at the leader, saying: "Now catch the ball and go around the end." The valise struck the student on the head and knocked him to the floor. With a water pitcher and oil can Foote held the students at bay all night, and amused himself in lining up against the doors, and, with his valise for a football he rushed and knocked them off their hinges.

Finally the football team lined up in the yard below, and Foote went down and took his place as centre.
Then a constable grabbed him from behind and bound him. His parents have had him taken to the Utica insane asylum. The football team has been disbanded.

CAUGHT BEWILDERED GEESSE.

A Flock of Wild Birds Swoop Down on Burlington.

Burlington, N.J., Nov. 24.—Thanksgiving dinners literally dropped at the doors of a number of Burlington people last night. A great flock of wild geese, becoming lost in the dense fog and bewildered by the electric lights of the city floundered about among the buildings. They beat their wings against windows, dashed against buildings and became entangled in the electric light wires. Many of the fowls were hurt by the contact and became the prey of such pedestrians as were abroad at that hour.

A policeman procured three fine birds that had sustained broken wings by flying into the wires.
The flock comprised several hundred, and it is thought that they were on their annual migration south.

An Immense Defalcation.

New York, Nov. 24.—A bookkeeper in the national Shoe and Leather bank disappeared a few days ago. A national bank examiner has just finished an investigation, which discloses a defalcation of $354,000. The bank has a capital of $1,000,000 and a surplus of near by or about $200,000, leaving an impairment of capital of about $150,000, which will at once be made good by the stockholders. The name of the defaulter is Samuel C. Seeley.
He had an accomplice, a depositor in the bank. The latter committed suicide Saturday. His body was found in the water near Flushing, Long Island.

A Lively 20-Ounce Baby.

After just one week of noteworthy vitality, a one-and-a-quarter-pound boy baby that was born to Mrs. Henry Hummel, of this city, has succeeded in convincing the doctors that he can live without growth. The mite hasn't gained an ounce since his birthday, Friday last. He would comfortably fill a coffee cup.
