DID YOU SPEAK?

Street cars running so, wasn't sure it was your voice.

YES.—Thursday is Thanksgiving day. So much to be thankful for. General prosperity all over this Southern country, notwithstanding 5c. cotton. The rapid progress Raleigh is making lays quietly to rest the cry of hard times. Confidence will right all things.

YES.—Our trade has been good and we are grateful to a generous public for its liberal patronage.

YES.—The country people will find out where the cheapest place is, and such word has gone out in the different neighborhoods as to bring them to our store.

YES.—We return the money if the goods don't suit.

YES.—Which kind, Keith's or Burt & Packard's "Korreet Shape?"

YES.—Come down; we can fit any foot. We have a shoe that we call the corn doctor, wide enough for you.

All right, Sherwood.

YES.—Wait a minute, the $1.00 black goods advertised for 50c. a yard is a bargain. Eight yards and lining. Thank you, ma'am.

YES.—Another new lot of Habit cloths and 16 pieces of fancy mixtures received Friday. Prices range from 20c to 50c. All wool.

Heigho! Is that you?

YES.—Which cloak or cape? The applique trimmed? $10 is our best price, but we have capes as low as $5—good ones.

YES.—Thank you, will send it up at once.

YES.—We have blankets, quilts and counterpanes, and anything you may ask for in woolen underwear. Comparison proves that we offer the best values.

YES.—Our claim to sell some lower is based upon the fact that our expenses are less than any like establishments doing the same amount of business.

C. A. SHERWOOD & CO.

$75.00 A WEEK paid to ladies and gents to sell the Rapid Dish Washer. Washes and dries them in two minutes without wetting the hands. No experience necessary; sells at sight; permanent position. Address W. P. Harrison & Co., Clerk No. 14, Columbus, Ohio.

WE MAKE THE BEST BATING ever sold in this state; 10 cents a pound. RALEIGH COTTON MILLS.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPENINGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

Pay your taxes or be taxed costs.

The supreme court today took up the tenth district appeals.

The Charlotte Observer appeared today in new and handsome type.

The market house work was not up to specifications. Now, how about it?

Hunting parties are being formed by the score to hunt on Thanksgiving day.

The advance in cotton is more cheering. Today prices were firm and advancing.

When the fire alarm first struck this afternoon it was for box 32, but the two last rounds were for 22.

Welcome week, now in progress at Wilmington, promises to be better attended than any similar occasion.

Wanted, an office boy. Apply in own hand-writing, stating age and pay expected, to care EVENING VISITOR.

If you want solid measure oysters at 25 and 35c. a quart go to D. Bell & Co.'s stall, Hargett street, opposite Central hotel.

Gov. Carr today received an inquiry as to whether a man by the name of Hyde had died in this state. Persons living in Holland make the inquiry.

Governor Carr has gone to his farm in Edgecombe, and will return tomorrow. He will call the board of canvassers together at noon Thursday.

Several people today took occasion to tell the VISITOR that it was right about the market question. Why isn't the matter settled? The people are mad, mad, mad.

Four convicts have arrived at the penitentiary, among them a 10-year-old boy who gets four years for larceny. One convict has also arrived from Polk and two from Rowan.

Many people looked up curiously today at the workmen suspended in mid-air who are at work painting a huge sign on the side of the old Andrews building. The largest letters are at least 15 feet high.

The pension tax this year raised $101,000, against $95,000 last year. There is a little increase in the amount of pension to each of the four classes, this being as follows: First class $4, second $3, third $2 and fourth $1.

Ex-congressman John Nichols was chatting today about North Carolina's next senators. He said that of course Butler and Pritchard would be the men; that there was no sort of doubt of this, nor had there been. It is evidently the belief that Pritchard has drawn a lucky number.

People on Fayetteville street were treated to an amusing spectacle this morning. A rabbit escaped from Crawford's meat market and ran across the street. The rabbit and about 50 boys and dogs following him made things lively for awhile until the cottontail made his escape.

The King's Daughters Thanksgiving dinner will be given, as usual, at the mission rooms. All the circles are asked to send in their offerings not later than noon that day and other friends who wish to contribute can do the same. The Hospital circle will attend as waitresses.

Thirty buildings were burned at Marion Sunday. It began in the "Ark," as an old shanty was known. A drunken negro, a match and a cigarette did the work. The jail was burned but the prisoners were rescued. Among them was the noted murderer, Hoke Secret. Only one store was left standing. Seven horses were burned to death. In all thirty buildings were destroyed. Many people are homeless and destitute. There was very little insurance.

An Elegant Reception

Was that given by the Capital club last evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Telfair. The guests, of whom there were over 100, were received in the front parlor by Mr. and Mrs. Telfair, assisted by Mrs. E. C. Smith, Mrs. C. B. Wright, Mrs. W. P. Batchelor, Mrs. Minnie Bagley, Mrs. Julian Timberlake, and Misses Tempe Hamilton and Mabel Hale. The german was danced and refreshments were served by Dughi in exceedingly tasteful style.

A Bridge of Soap.

Today in front of the big windows of Swindell's store there was always an admiring crowd of people. The attraction was a bridge made of cakes of white soap. It is a suspension bridge and under it are passing several vessels. The work was all done by Mr. Lawrence Dortch of Mississippi, who is a nephew of Mrs. T. S. Kenan, and he deserves the highest praise for his ingenuity.

Five Bananas,

10 bunches to arrive tomorrow, at D. T. Johnson's.

A FATAL MISTAKE.

Mr. Alex. Clarke, a Young Engineer, Killed Through a Terrible Mistake.

Mr. Alex. Clarke, of Monroe, a young engineer who has been running on the S. A. L., is dead. He leaves an aged father and a young wife to mourn his death, which occurred under the most distressing circumstances. His three little children will grow up without the memory of the father who loved them so dearly.

This is how this sad occurrence, one of those heart-rending accidents that happen daily and yet are unavoidable, came about. Last evening some time between eleven and twelve o'clock the freight which Mr. Clarke was running approached the little station, Colon, near Osgood. Looking from the cab window the young engineer, who had been running on the road but a short time, was horrified to see the headlight of a locomotive just ahead. He thought it impossible to avert a collision and called out to the fireman to jump. He then sprang to the throttle and reversed the engine. The fireman, instead of jumping, ran back on the cars and then saw that the engine ahead was on a siding. He hastily returned to the cab to tell Mr. Clarke, but he had already leaped from the train.

The train was stopped and the trainmen returned to where the unfortunate engineer lay. They found him but he only gasped once or twice and died. When he leaped from the engine he fell against a large rock. His skull was fractured and his neck broken. Either wound would have caused instant death.

Mr. Clarke was a native of Laurinburg but for some time has been living at Monroe where he had employment as foreman in the railroad shops. He had been on the road for only a short time. His father is Mr. A. T. Clarke, of Laurinburg. He was married about two years ago and leaves a young wife and three little children, two of whom, a pair of bright twins, are only three months old. Mr. Clarke was a young man and very popular. Much sympathy is expressed for his family.

HOSE WAGON INJURED.

The Capital Wagon Capsizes While on the Way to a Fire.

Just before 1 o'clock this afternoon the Capital hose wagon while on the way to answer a fire alarm was overturned at the corner of South Hargett and West Morgan streets. E. A. Lassiter was driving. R. C. Pool, the regular driver, being absent on leave. The horses in going down a grade got the advantage of Lassiter and made a sharp turn. The left rear wheel of the wagon was broken and ruined, the fifth wheel was sprung and the dash board was broken. There were some other damages of a slight character. Lassiter was not hurt, save very slightly to his arm. The horses were not injured. Driver Pool has handled the reins since 1887 and has never had an accident. The fire on account of which the alarm was sent in was due to the burning of some brush in the railway cutting at the end of West Morgan street.

APEX ACCIDENTS.

Two Citizens Badly Hurt, One Caught in Machinery, Another Thrown from a Buggy.

Saturday evening, as Mr. Enfield Council, who lives near Apex and figured so prominently as a witness in the Mills trial, was returning home from Raleigh, his horse took fright at a locomotive and ran away. Mr. Council remained in the buggy which was overturned. He was thrown heavily and received serious internal injuries. Mr. Upchurch, of Apex, who came in this morning, said, however, that his condition was now much better.

Mr. Upchurch also brought news of an accident that occurred there yesterday morning which will probably prove fatal. Mr. Jasper Mann, who works at a gin at Apex, was making some repairs to the machinery. As he knelt on the floor a rapidly turning screw caught in his coat collar. The unfortunate gentleman was jerked from his feet and whirled over the mill shaft. At every revolution of the shaft his body was banged against the wall. When the machinery was stopped Mr. Mann was unconscious and was found to be terribly injured. His body, arms and legs were terribly lacerated, and it was discovered that he was also badly injured internally. This morning his life was despaired of.

A Large Seizure.

Deputy collector W. C. Troy reports to collector Simmons the seizure, at Jonesboro, of the large registered grain distillery of J. M. Sloan. Two stills and 500 gallons of whiskey were seized. The seizure was made for alleged irregularities.

Mr. C. E. Johnson's red Irish setter strayed away from home this morning. He answers to the name of "Spot," and had a block and chain on him. A suitable reward will be paid for his return.

PERSONAL POINTS.

ABOUT PROMINENT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

Here And Elsewhere in the State.

Mr. A. F. Page is quite sick at Aberdeen.

Mr. J. B. Hill left for Wilmington today.

Mr. James A. Cheek of Hillsboro, is here.

Herbert Norris, Esq., of Apex, arrived today.

Z. V. Walser, Esq., of Lexington, arrived today.

Mr. Peter Cram of Canada is visiting Mr. William Cram, his brother.

Solicitor E. W. Poo and lieutenant-governor R. A. Doughton are here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Long of Chatham are visiting Mrs. Joseph Heilig.

Mr. McHenry, a popular traveling man of Richmond, left this afternoon for Wilmington.

Mrs. Lizzie Busbee, who has been visiting her son, Mr. Quentin Busbee, at Baltimore, has returned.

Mr. W. N. Brockwell, a Raleigh man who is now employed in the government printing office at Washington, is here visiting relatives.

Miss Bessie Henderson, a charming Salisbury young lady, who has been visiting Mrs. Julian Timberlake, left for Wilmington this afternoon.

How many people know that Marie Burroughs, so pretty and piquant an actress, and so popular on the New York stage, is a North Carolinian? Judge Thomas C. Fuller met her father in New Mexico recently, and the latter said he was a native of Nash county and kin to the well known Arrington family.

THE WEATHER.

Forecast for North Carolina: Fair and cooler.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Wednesday, fair, slightly cooler in the evening.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today. Maximum temperature 49; minimum temperature 38; rainfall 0.00.

The area of low pressure which was central over Minnesota yesterday morning has passed rapidly across the northern part of the country to the gulf of St. Lawrence. It was accompanied by scarcely any precipitation. The barometer has risen rapidly in the northwest and a cold wave is prevailing in the Dakotas. The barometer also continues high over the southern states. The weather is fair nearly everywhere, with temperature about normal, except in the Mississippi valley, where it is warmer, and in the extreme northwest, where it is somewhat colder than the normal.

Mews Notes.

Dr. J. H. Freeman, a Wilmington, dentist, died Saturday, aged 69.

A Guilford county farmer raised with no help, 900 bushel of corn this year.

Mr. Edwin A. Northrop, of Wilmington, died last Friday evening in a hospital at New York.

Three men in Wilkes county gave a 3-year old girl, the daughter of their relative, a widow, a quantity of whiskey. The child drank it and died. The men were drunk. They may be arrested.

This evening from 5 to 10 o'clock the young ladies of Christ church will give a reception at the home of Col. Paul F. Faison, in aid of mission work at St. Saviour's chapel. In the parlor Misses Kate Denison, Roberta Smith, Annie Busbee, Nannie Jones, Sophy Busbee and Kate Hayward will welcome the guests, in the dining room, Misses Katharine Badger, Mary Denison, Lizzie Ashe, Louise Busbee, Janet Badger and Margarette Marshall will charmingly serve delicious and refreshing delicacies. The young ladies give an urgent invitation to their friends to attend. A contribution box will be placed at the door to receive voluntary contributions.

Mr. Noah Massey last Saturday obtained license at Charlotte for the marriage of himself and Miss Emma Timms. Sunday, the Charlotte Observer says, he heard that his bride-elect was already married. Then she at once told him that she had been married but it was in South Carolina and as they didn't have any license it wasn't legal. The groom knew the binding effect of the South Carolina law better than his better half, so he told her to come down to his father's where they would take their first and last dinner together. Shortly after dinner he left, and now Miss Timms has the experience of having two husbands, and yet having none.

Oysters tomorrow at D. T. Johnson's.

A LITTLE ROMANCE.

Miss Bartie Ramsey Becomes the Wife of Mr. Charles Separk.

Mr. Charles Separk, of Raleigh, and Miss Bartie Ramsey, of Durham, figured in a little romance Sunday evening, says the Durham Globe-Herald. Mr. Separk had been paying Miss Ramsey attention for some time, and they were engaged. They expected to be married before a great while. Sunday evening they left her home to go to the Presbyterian church. After the ceremony, instead of returning home, they went to the house next door to the church and there were made man and wife, Rev. L. B. Turnbull performing the ceremony. A little later on the register at the Carrolling was written "Mr. and Mrs. Separk, Raleigh." Yesterday morning the newly married couple took the train for Raleigh. Mrs. Separk is only 16 years old. She is the daughter of Mrs. M. M. Ramsey.

An infallible recipe to win: Smoke our Specialty Cigars at Bobbitt's.

Lightning Through the Snow.

A remarkably phenomenon of yesterday's heavy snow storm at Clearfield Pa., was the flashing of lightning through the blinding snow that fell from 4.30 to 5 p. m., with the sky as dark as it usually is at night.

We guarantee to sell solid measure, and our oysters are superior in size and flavor to any sold in this city. Geo. N. Ives & Co., 221 Wilmington street.

We have fine oysters at 25 and 35c at D. Bell & Co's.

All Pork Sausage at D. T. Johnson's.

A grade maker that pleases the customer: Our Specialty Cigars at J. Hal Bobbitt's.

Orders for oysters for Thanksgiving dinner should be sent us tomorrow. We will have plenty of nice ones at 25c and 35c per quart, solid measure. G. N. Ives & Co.

LADIES, GET A CLOAK!

If you wait until nearly Christmas for a Cloak you must then take something you don't want. No merchant keeps up his assortment of Cloaks until Christmas, because after Christmas there is no sale for them; but right now our stock of Coats and Capes is in good condition and you can get suited and at a very low price, because we are trying to sell the last garment by the time holidays are here which is now nearly at hand. Ladies, get a Cloak now, at Swindell's.

MILLINERY.

To say we have done a big trade in millinery this season would be only a faint expression, as we have doubled on any previous season. Our hats are just what the people want, and the prices are right, at Swindell's.

THE BROOKLYN BRIDGE.

In our window we have a suspension bridge, 14 feet long and 7 feet high. It is made of pure white Castile Soap, square bars. The structure contains seven thousand cakes of soap. Under the bridge is the rolling water, with the big ships sailing and teams and carriages and pedestals crossing over. This is a sight well worth a day's journey to see. This soap is as wonderful in price as the bridge is. Two of these cakes of soap for 5c, or ten for 25c. This exhibit is in the big show window at D. T. Swindell's store. The special artist, the decorator, came all the way from Cincinnati to make the bridge.
