DID YOU SPEAK?

Street cars running so, wasn't sure it was your voice.

YES—Thursday is Thanksgiving day.
So much to be thankful for.
General prosperity all over this Southern country, not withstanding the cotton. The rapid progress Raleigh is making lays quietly to rest the cry of hard times. Confidence will right all things.

YES.—Our trade has been good and we are grateful to a generous public for its liberal patronage.

YES.—The country people will find out where the cheapest place is, and such word has gone out in the different neighborhoods as to bring them to our store.

YES.—We return the money if the goods don't suit.

YES.—Which kind, Keith's or Burt & Packard's "Korrek Shape?"

YES.—Come down; we can fit any foot.
We have a shoe that we call the corn doctor, wide enough for you.

* * * * *

All right, Sherwood.

YES.—Wait a minute, the $1.00 black goods advertised for 50c. a yard is a bargain. Right yards and lining. Thank you, ma'am.

YES.—Another new lot of Habit clothes and 16 pieces of fancy mixtures received Friday.
Prices range from 20c to 50c.
All wool.

* * * * *

Heigho! Is that you?

YES.—Which cloak or cape? The appliance trimmed? $10 is our best price, but we have capes as low as $5—good ones.

YES.—Thank you, will send it up at once.

YES.—We have blankets, quilts and counterpanes, and anything you may ask for in woolen underwear. Comparison proves that we offer the best values.

YES.—Our claim to sell some lower is based upon the fact that our expenses are less than any like establishments doing the same amount of business.

DOTS AND DASHES

MADE ABOUT TODAY'S HAPPEN-INGS.

Items Gathered in and Around the City.

Remember the orphans tomorrow.

Cold weather is on docket for tomorrow.

The churches ought to be well attended tomorrow.

The cyclorama of the battle of Gettysburg is now at Wilmington.

It is said that over 400 turkeys have been sold here within the past 6 days

It is learned that T. R. Purnell, Esq., will contest the election of E. W.
Pou, Esq.

A number of shrubs are being set out in Nash square. They are mainly evergreens.

See notice in this issue of a splendid bargain of horse, wagon and harness for sale.

It is said by Richmond Pearson, Esq., that the majority of the fusion congressional nominees, on the face of the returns, is 24,023.

A report of the city's financial status would be good reading. The city's fiscal year ended last spring.
The report is not yet out.

Bishop Wilson of Baltimore is presiding at the session of the Western North Carolina conference, which met at Statesville today.

The annual conference of the A. M.
E. Zion church convened here today at 15 o'clock, bishop Petty presiding.
There are 120 preachers in attendance.

At noon tomorrow the state board of canvassers meets in the hall of the house of representatives. Its session will occupy but a few minutes. The real business begins Friday.

The women's christian temperance union will meet at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Carter's Friday afternoon November 30, at 4 o'clock. All members are requested to attend.

At 12 30 this afternoon a fire alarm was sent in from box 24. The cause was a chimney on fire at the corner of East Martin and South Bloodworth streets. No damage was done.

Notwithstanding the hard times the farmers of Halifax county have not sold a great deal of their cotton. They are holding it for better prices. Farmers in Edgecombe are holding their cotton also.

In a few days 50 more convicts will be sent from the penitentiary to the farms on the Roanoke, making the number there over 1,100. This great force of convicts will be kept on the farms all the winter.

Today's Charlotte Observer says:
"Bishop Cheshire is expected here Thursday. He will be the guest until the following Monday of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Tallaferro. Sunday he has a confirmation service in the Episcopal church."

It was thought day before yesterday that Charles Walton, the murderer, was captured at Burlington. Upon examination yesterday it was discovered that the man under arrest was not Walton. Gov. Carr was notified of this fact today.

The last issue of the Bulletin of Pharmacy, published at Detroit, has a portrait of Mr. William Simpson, president of the American pharmaceutical association, and Mr. Simpson has a valuable article on botany and material medica.

There is a pretty little contest for the speakership of the next house.
The chief persons named are V. S.
Lusk of Asheville, George Z. French of New Hanover, Z. V. Walser of Lexington and H. G. Ewart of Hendersonville.

Prof. Holmes, state geologist, has just made a trip over the Mecklenburg roads, getting points and facts for an article and photographic views for illustrations. He says there is no county in the state which can compare with Mecklenburg on roads and road-building.

Last Saturday's Atlanta Constitution contained an article seven columns in length on the late election in this state. It was illustrated with portraits of Messrs Mason Butler, Jeter C. Pritchard, H. G. Ewart, T. J. Jarvis, W. T. Faircloth, Walter Clark, A. C.
Avery, D. M. Farabee, W. A. Montgomery, etc.

The News and Observer has the following to say in regard to the Swedish quartet, which appears here Dec. 4, at Metropolitan hall: "The vocal selections rendered by the quartet of male voices were all gems, and brought forth rounds of applause. The banjo imitations were so perfect that many thought the familiar plink came from a real stringed instrument. Every number was encored. The organization is a superb one, and will be recognized as such wherever the truly artistic in music is appreciated." The box sheet will be placed at King & Co's drug store Saturday Dec. 1.

IT IS NOT SETTLED.

The Market House Floor Question Adjudicated, But Not Yet Ended.

There was a difference of $1042 between contractor Bivins and the city of Raleigh. The city contended that the failure to make the floor of the market up to specifications threw out the whole claim. The experts, Messrs.
Hicks and Ellington, today filed their report. They decided that contractor Bivins is to lose only $275 for the failure to make the floor as ordered to contract. But here is another hitch. The city refuses to abide by the decision of the referees. The city takes the view that the experts had no right to decide on any of the claims outside of that for the defective floor. It is said that these other claim were for failure to whitewash the ceiling. Contractor Bivins claims that the chairman of the original committee released him from this part of the contract, as the ceiling was to be of steel. The total charge for the work of repair was $3,942. Contractor Bivins has received $2,000, leaving $1,942 balance.
The trouble with the floor was that there was too much cement and not enough sand, says the contractor.
The proportions were prescribed in the specifications.

THE OXFORD ORPHANS

Gave a Pleasing Concert at Metropolitan Hall Last Evening.

Under the auspices of the Masons a "chapter" of orphans from Oxford appeared last evening at Metropolitan hall and delighted an audience which filled all the seats. Miss Ethel Fin-lator was in charge of the children, who were very bright. These were the following: Neppie Menden, Addie Bennett, Lilly Wood, Lizzie Porter, Maggie Hayes, Mamie Horton, Rima Gibbs, Lillie Williams, Lizzie Pittman, Hattie Boggan, Harris Horton and Claude King. The program was as follows:

"Welcome Song," Master Charles H.
Gabriel; "Merrily sing," James H.
Fillmore; "Trip Lightly," W. O.
Tilden; "Song of the Ducks," S. S.
Quirley; "Merry Sings the Lark," S.
S. Quirley, Medley by the Chorus; "Jing-a-Ling," T. F. Seward; "The Night our Father Died," W. S. Hays; "States and Capitals" chorus; "My Cottage Home," W. H. White; "The Choo Choo Cars," S. G. Pratt; "Good Night," T. F. Seward.

The children were introduced by Mr. N. B. Broughton and the collection was taken by Messrs. John W. Thompson and B. R. Lacy. It amounted to $101.25.

COWARDLY ATTACK.

W. H. Strum Defends Himself Against a Band of Marauders.

A dispatch from Greenville, N. C., says: Saturday night last some persons went to the home of a man named W. H. Strum, seven miles from here, for the purpose of making an assault on him. His wife, hearing voices in a low tone outside, opened the door to see what it meant, when three men rushed in and started to attack Strum.
The latter fired at them with a pistol and they retreated. He recognized two of the men, one being his father-in-law. Later there was an effort made to break in a window, when Strum fired at the window and the assaultants fled again.

Next day Strum was attacked upon the public road, but escaped unhurt.
Yesterday warrants were issued for the two persons recognized and another and they were placed under bond for a hearing. One failed to give bond and was placed in jail to await trial.

THE WEATHER.

The Conditions and the Forecast.

Forecast for North Carolina: Fair and cooler.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity: Thursday, fair, cooler, 15 to 20°.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today. Maximum temperature 65; minimum temperature 49; rainfall 0.00.

The chief feature of the map this morning is the cold wave which is found in the north and northwest.
The temperature at 8 o'clock a. m. was 26 degrees at Cincinnati, 28 at Detroit, 16 at Chicago, 10 at Omaha, zero at St. Paul. Over the southern states it ranges from 40 to 60 degrees.
The barometer is very high in the northwest. The highest is 30.8 inches at St. Paul. The lowest is 30.14 at New York. Very little precipitation has occurred during the past 24 hours.
A few stations in the lake region report snow this morning.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

Raleigh to Have Another Ice Factory.

Mr. E. C. Hilyer is here making arrangements for the construction of another ice factory. Contracts for materials, &c., are now being made. The site will be on the Macy lot, corner South West and West Hargett streets.
It is said that by spring the factory will be in operation.

OBSERVATIONS.

The state Baptist convention meets at Charlotte next Wednesday.

The members of the U. S. geological survey are encamped at the fair grounds at Morganton. They are making a detailed map of that section.

There appears in the Ilesoir Topic this queer advertisement: "Wanted —10 lbs of sage and 3 spot ed kittens.
See J. T. Grist." The newspapers are now saying that Mr. Grist wants to make sausage.

Last evening at Concord Col. Paul B. Means and Mrs. M. F. Ross were married at All Saints Episcopal church by bishop Cheshire, assisted by the rector, Rev. J. C. Davis. They left on the south-bound train on an extended tour.

A number of distinguished gentlemen from the north yesterday went to Ore Hill to examine the iron minate at that place with a view to putting the Greensboro steel and iron company's furnaces in operation.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Engineer Hicks Had a Close Call Yesterday.

A wreck of a freight train on the Seaboard Air-Line at Greystone yesterday afternoon threw twelve cars and the tender from the track. The cars were badly smashed. Engineer Dan. Hicks was severely hurt about the thighs and abdomen, but not dangerously. He says the tender left the track first and rolled completely over him as it went down the embankment.
The engine left the rails but stopped on the cross-ties near the middle of a 4-foot embankment. The mails were delayed about four hours, being compelled to make transfers at the wreck. A brakeman was slightly hurt about the head. Mr. B. R. Lacy went to Greystone yesterday, expecting to find engineer Hicks dead. Last evening he brought the latter to his home at 218 North Person street. It is thought that a frog broke. The engine was derailed, but did not turn over in fact it barely left the rails. The cars were totally wrecked. Engineer Hicks' escape was almost miraculous. He was slightly hurt on the head. Physicians say today that he will recover.
He is a son of the veteran engineer "Jake" Hicks of the Southern railway.

GOODWIN-MALISTER

A Marriage on Hillsboro Street this Afternoon.

At the home of Mr. Edward Teasly, on Hillsboro street, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Luta McAllister was united in marriage to Mr. Miles Goodwin, formerly of this city, now of Durham. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. N. Cole, pastor of Edenton street M. E. church. Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin left on the 4 o'clock train this afternoon. Both bride and groom have many warm friends here and have the heartiest wishes for good fortune and happiness.

The New Officials' Bonds.

In conversation with sheriff-elect J.
P. H. Adams today the latter said that he had no doubt that the new county officials will all be ready to give their bonds next week. His bond is $105,000. That of treasurer-elect Knight is $140,000. There has been more or less talk about the matter of bonds, and there have been intimations that the treasurer might not be able to give bond.

To Raise Celery.

It was learned today that about fifty families of Hollanders from Kalamazoo, who have devoted all their lives to celery raising, will come here and apply themselves to that business.
They propose to raise celery for use every month in the year. They will require at least 200 acres of land. It is said they have secured good property in two miles of Raleigh.

No Visitor Tomorrow.

In accordance with its custom these sixteen years, the Visitor will observe Thanksgiving day by taking a rest and so will not appear until Friday.

Will Close Tomorrow.

Tomorrow (Thanksgiving day) we will not open for business, as we wish to give our employees a holiday. Very respectfully, WOODLICK & SON.

A SPLENDID BARGAIN.

FATHER WHEELER DEAD

He Was for Half a Century a Methodist Preacher.

Rev. J. W. Wheeler of Charlotte received a telegram last night announcing the death of his father, Rev.
Joseph H. Wheeler, at Charleston, S.
C. The latter, the Charlotte Observer says, was born in Newark, N. J., September 17, 1810. He came south at 13 years of age, going to Charleston. He entered the ministry in 1834, was transferred to the North Carolina conference in 1850 and was stationed at Fayetteville. He was at Edenton street church here in 1855.
About 1882 he was at Brooklyn church.
He continued in active service until the close of 1883, when he took a superannuated relation, returning to Charleston where he had since resided with his daughter, Mrs. H. T. McGee. His active life in the ministry covered a period of 50 years.

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

Mr. J. B. Crawford Shot Through the Leg
by His Friend, Mr. Bob Rice.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Nov. 27, 1894.— While Mr. Joe B. Crawford, ex-alderman and a popular young merchant, was out bird-hunting with Bob Rice, a friend, the gun of the latter was accidentally discharged while in close proximity to Crawford, who received the entire load in his leg just above the knee. The load passed through his leg, carrying a portion of the bone with it. The unfortunate young man bled so profusely before medical aid could be secured that he did not rally under the surgical treatment, and died today, leaving a young wife and two small children, three sisters, one brother, and the entire community to mourn his untimely death, which has cast a deep gloom over all his friends.
The young man whose carelessness caused the fatal accident is beside himself with grief, and is almost demented.

The sales of turkeys here this week have been fully as large as usual.
Prices are reasonable.

Store Closed Tomorrow.

Our store will be closed all day tomorrow, Thanksgiving day. Our patrons will oblige us by shopping or sending in their orders today.
W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.

Mr. C. E. Johnson's red Irish setter strayed away from home this morning.
He answers to the name of "Spot," and had a block and chain on him. A suitable reward will be paid for his return. 24 6t

LADIES, GET A CLOAK!

If you wait until nearly Christmas for a cloak you must then take something you don't want. No merchant keeps up his assortment of cloaks until Christmas, because after Christmas there is no sale for them; but right now our stock of Coats and Capes is in good condition and you can get suited and at a very low price, because we are trying to sell the last garment by the time holidays are here which is now nearly at hand. Ladies, get a Cloak now, at Swindell's.

MILLINERY.

To say we have done a big trade in millinery this season would be only a faint expression, as we have doubled on any previous season. Our hats are just what the people want, and the prices are right, at Swindell's.

THE BROOKLYN BRIDGE.

In our window we have a suspension bridge, 14 feet long and 7 feet high. It is made of pure white Castile Soap, square bars. The structure contains seven thousand cakes of soap.
Under the bridge is the rolling water, with the big ships sailing and teams and carriages and pedestrians crossing over. This is a sight well worth a day's journey to see. This soap is as wonderful in price as the bridge is.
Two of these cakes of soap for 5c. or ten for 25c. This exhibit is in the big show window at D. T. Swindell's store.
The special artist, the decorator, came all the way from Cincinnati to make the bridge.
