A Frenchman has estimated that there are 51,000 breweries in the world. Germany, he says, easily leads with 26,240, which produce 4,750,000,000 litres of beer yearly—a liter being equal to about one and three-quarter pints. England comes next with 12,874 breweries and an output of 2,600,000,000 litres; then the United States with 590 breweries and an output of 3,500,000,000 litres.

It is customary in China for the writer of a letter to address the man to whom he is writing as "my elder brother," and usually begins with the phrase, "May all the blessings of life be showered upon you, such is the address on the envelope is "from my humble cabin to the glorious Palace of Pearls of my elder brother," and it makes no difference whether he lives in a dugout on the side of a hill.

HARD UP, BUT LOVED BIRDIE.

And Birdie Sent Her Husband Money While He Courted Another Girl in Ohio.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 9.—The police department has been notified of the arrest at Cleveland of Frank A. Copery, who until recently was a resident of Baltimore. Copery is charged with bigamy.

Wife No. 1 lives on Maryland avenue, this city. Her name is Mrs.
Susanna Copery, and she was married to the prisoner in 1884. Miss Addie M. Stoler, of Wadsworth, Ohio, is his other wife.

Copery left Baltimore last July, and his wife knew nothing of his whereabouts until three months ago, when she received a letter from him mailed at Dayton, Ohio.

Copery stated that he had been sick, and was unable to work. He closed with an appeal for assistance. His wife sent him a few dollars then, and later on made other remittances in answer to his appeals.

His letters were filled with such expressions as "My Birdie," "My own love," "This separation is killing me," and "Darling, send me money to come home to you."

During all this time Copery was paying attention to Miss Stoler, whose home at Wadsworth was only a short distance from Dayton. The courtship culminated in their marriage last month.

Three weeks ago a letter from wife No. 1 fell into the hands of No. 2, and Copery conferred and begged for mercy. The father of No. 2 threatened to prosecute Copery, and he fled to Cleveland where he was very soon arrested.

Mrs. Copery No. 1 will give the evidence against the bigamist before a notary public.

The police officials are investigating the statement that shortly after Copery married wife No. 1 in Baltimore he married an estimable young woman in New York city and deserted her after living with her a few months.
She learned that he had another wife living, and had the marriage annulled.
It is said that he has another wife in Europe.

Wife No. 1 had $1,500 when she was led to the altar by Copery. Under pretext of needing that amount to further some business enterprises in which he alleged he was engaged, he succeeded in securing possession of the money. After he squandered it he deserted her.

Stealings of Cashier Price.

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 10.—Bank examiner Gannon has made an affidavit charging William F. Price, late cashier of the national bank of Quanah, with embezzling $30,000 by a note on the Midland bank of Kansas City, dated October 8, 1894, and payable in 30 days.

The bank has no record of this note.
Price's embezzlement, it is claimed, aggregates $37,500, of which $30,000 is on Kansas City; $10,000 on St. Louis, and $7,500 on the banks of New York city.
